While the sil-v'ry moon to-night is bright-ly shin-ing, With a Far a-way from her, my loved-one, I've been roam-ing, Night and sigh, a-lone I wan-der by the shore; For a day my thoughts oft to her seem to stray; And I loved-one, long a-go, my heart is pin-ning, And I can't for-get our part-ing in the gloam-ing, When I yearn to see her gen - tle face once more;..... In my kissed her lips and sad - ly went a - way..... Oft - en vi - sions I can hear her soft - ly call - ing, By the when I sit a - lone a - mid my dream - ing, I can gar - den gate I see her wait - ing still,..... As up - see her once more stroll - ing down the lane;..... And like on her cheeks the si - lent tears were fall - ing, When we stars a - bove, her gen - tle eyes are gleam - ing, As they part - ed by the home - stead on the hill..... seem to tell me that she loves me still.....

CHORUS

In my dreams I oft-en find my-self a - roam - ing..... Down the sha-dy lane that leads me to the mill;.....When I met Sweet Bess each ev'ning in the gloom-ing,..... Near my old New England homestead on the hill.....
