Let Us Build A World Of Love.

W. L. NEEDHAM

p mp

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The tempo is marked p (piano) and mp (mezzo-piano).

Moderato

Sing a song for ev - 'ry na - tion,
Build a world where right is mon - arch,

The first system of the vocal part shows the melody for the first two lines of the song. The piano accompaniment is in the left hand, with chords and moving lines. The tempo is marked Moderato and the dynamic is p (piano).

Sound it from each war-cursed shore, From a wreck of death and Where in truth all men are free, Where each one with rights, held

The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes some complex chords and a fermata over a chord in the right hand.

dark - ness, Let's re - build the world once more.
sa - cred, May en - joy life re - al - ly.

The final system concludes the piece with the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part features a final chord with a fermata.

REFRAIN

Let us build a world of love and beauty, One with-out a place for tyrants bold,

Where men will be friends and live as brothers, Not a world en-slaved to mammon-gold,

p mf

One where'll be more smil-ing and less sigh-ing, Where they'll set-tle quar'ls through Him a-bove,

Where-so-ev-er thorns were let's plant ros-es, Let us build a world of love.
