A CLASSIC IN POPULAR FORM!

COPYRIGHT MCMXV—By WILL ROSSITER

Words by JACK YELLEN - - - Music by GEO. L. COBB

This song "I'm Coming Back in Springtime", is written by Jack Yellen and Geo. L. Cobb, two very successful song writers—their biggest hits being "All Aboard for Dixie" and "Just for to-night". In this song they have really written a little classic in Popular form—and a song that is a credit to our American writers and one that will "live". Popular songs as a rule, don't last long, but here's one—"I'm Coming Back in Springtime"—that will certainly "linger in our ears" for many, many years to come. Then, you must remember that it's just as well to have songs in your collection at home that indicate to your friends that you have good taste—refined taste in selecting your songs, and in that way you make a good impression with others of culture and refinement. The old saying "Variety is the spice of life" is just as true in this connection as in any other, and it's well to have a "variety" of songs, for what may please one, may not please the other—but you won't make a mistake in adding "I'm Coming Back in Springtime" to your collection, for it's a gem of the very first water. Don't fail to get your copy—every member of your family will enjoy it—in no other way can you get so much for so little, as in Popular songs.

"SOME HIT"

Words and Music by JACK ROGERS

Well! well! there's something about a "Dixie" song that always pleases us—no matter how many there seem to be, if it's a good one, it is sure to be a big hit—it's with a great deal of pride I offer you this one—because I feel it will be one of the extra big "hits" of the year. It's very, very easy to sing and play, and the Vaudeville people are just "crazy" about it, so this Fall you'll no doubt hear it many, many times in your local theatres, and when you do, don't forget to encourage the singer with a little applause. The music of this song makes a splendid "Fox-Trot", so all in all it's really a great little song, right up to date.

A SONG FOR THE MILLIONS!

I know you'll be glad to welcome his 1915 song hit "Loveland Days"—It's just about the most "catchy" song he's ever written, and in that easy swinging march tempo that is in style right now. "Loveland Days" is already a stage hit with many of the big Vaudeville acts, but by Fall we expect it to be a song "craze" from Coast to Coast, for it certainly has that wonderful "something" that we simply can't resist. "Loveland Days" is an ideal song for home, because you can all sing and enjoy it, and I know you want every song written by W. R. Williams—because he is one of the few writers who touches the right spot in our hearts. Be sure and get your copy from your local dealer, and if he's "just out"—drop a line to Will Rossiter—he's always glad to hear from you and always glad to send you his big Mail-Order catalog of "Special Bargains" and Free Premiums.

Guess most of you know W. R. Williams and his many songs. He writes the "home" kind of songs—the kind that live. You remember his song "I'd Love to Live in Loveland with a Girl Like You"—you remember that dainty little song "When the Moon Plays Peek-a-boo"—his great Indian song "Napanee"—his ballads "You Were All I Had", "When I Met You Last Night in Dreamland"—and hundreds of others—and so

"YOU'RE THE DAWN OF A PERFECT DAY"

Words and Music By W. R. WILLIAMS

You're The Dawn Of A Perfect Day

Words and Music by W. R. WILLIAMS
Writer of "Breath of The Golden Pail" (song cycle)

The Prettiest Little Song in Years.

About once in every twenty years or so, some song is written that startles the world—Nobody knows "how it happened or whence it came"—but it gets here just the same. Some songs are "made" by the Publishers spending thousands of dollars to boom and push them just like "Patent Medicine"—but others "just happen"—and work their own way into our hearts without any of us knowing or realizing anything about the strange phenomena. This new song "You're The Dawn of a Perfect Day"—is one of this kind—born of an inspiration it blooms and blossoms for us all, creeping silently (as it were) into our hearts, bringing us at all times peace and consolation. This song appeals strongly to those of refined taste—the lyric is perfect and the melody is both restful and beautiful, and no home collection will be complete without this song:—To have a copy in your home means you understand and appreciate refinement, and we suggest if this song appeals to you as it does to us, that you send a copy to some friend who maybe has not heard from you in a long, long time. By doing that we will all feel better. Life is short and fleeting—so we should do these little things as we go along. This song is published in many keys—for all instruments, solos, etc., quartettes and bands—

"You're The Dawn of a Perfect Day" will live till the end of time.

A Beautiful Song for Those of Culture and Artistic Taste.
