Flow'r of France Bloom Again!

RECITATION BY ROBERT LEVENSON

Land of the Lilies, tired and worn,
For you is shining a brighter dawn.
Your hour of darkness and sorrow has passed;
You've taken your place in the sun at last.
When troubles were many, and hopes were but few,
With their backs to the wall, your sons fought for you.
Now that it's over, and their work is done,
Live to enjoy the vict'ry they've won!
Lily of France, don't fall to the ground,
Drink in the sunshine and dew that you've found!
God Himself is smiling from above;
The whole world is sending a message of love.
Tell them they have not fought in vain,
Tell them you will bloom once again;
Say that the fields, that are now bloody red,
Will soon be white with the blossoms instead.

SING:

Come, show the world what France can do,
Fleur de-Lys, Flow'r of France, bloom again.

* After singing a verse and one chorus, the singer recites this poem while the music of the chorus is played softly. When the point marked "SING" is reached, the singer should sing the remaining lines as they are in the chorus.

THE SONG THE WHOLE WORLD IS SINGING

MY DADDY'S COMING HOME

CHORUS

My Dad-dy's com-ing home! My Dad-dy's com-ing home! Oh! I'm Jump-ing for joy, just like each girl and boy Who's got some-one ov-er the foam. We've kept the home-fires burn-ing bright, And in the win-dow there's a light; All our worries are over, Mother will cry no more 'Cause my Dad-dy's com-ing home. My home.
