"We're not pre-pared" was all we heard a year a-go or so, But The grit our Yan-kee girls pos-sess would whip the en-e-my, Of-you don't feel that way to-day and that of course I know, So when you con-fen-sives would be-come a joke that plain-ly you can see, All the head-lines sid-er then, That we've raised two mil-lion men, Tell me did you ev-er stop to think: _____ would read then, "Sur-ren-der of a mil-lion men," Now pic-ture in your mind and try to think: _____

Chorus (Not fast)

What an Arm-y of men we'd have, _____ If they ev-er draft-ed the girls, _____

There'd be no work-laws in sight, Each old man would in - sist that he'd Each time they'd make an at - tack, They would bring a whole reg-i - ment fight, They'd all flock and en - list as one, No re - cruit - ing back, All the foe then would just re - treat, Girls would nev - er would need be done, Why they'd be swim - ming out to get to that war zone - stand for de - feat, The man was nev - er born could make a girl say "quit"

You'd have to shoot him dead to keep a man at home, What an Ar - my of men
 The en - e - my would waste their time now you'll ad - mit, we'd have, If they ev - er draft - ed the girls. What an girls.

Oh Moon Of The Summer Night

Words and Music by ALLAN J. FLYNN

Chorus

More of the sum-mer night, Your-ry beam-bring-ing trans-ports the love-ly rays back home, Could you en-ly tell them all, That for each be-cause, How it would cheer up the loved ones far a-ways, the sun-ny smile in the golden west, My moth-er's pray-er
And the lit-tle girl love the best, Is pray-ing too, No, don't let her go, Moon, Thank you most your light, And tell my moth-er for me, cross the sea, Her boys at - right, Oh! right
