Extra catch lines for end of chorus

I should worry if my clothes are torn
I didn't have a stitch of clothes when I was born

I should worry if I lose a friend
The undertaker always nails you in the end

I should worry if I sink or float
I bought my girl a brand new satin petticoat

I should worry what they say bout me
You know I can't afford to lose my dignity

I should worry just to give and lend
A goat has got a scent that he can never spend

I should worry if I get the chills
I'll take a box of Carter's little liver pills

I should worry and take paris green
When creme de mint is sweeter and don't act so mean

I should worry if my clothes are torn
And show my indignation like September morn.

Moderato

Once I lost a pal, and a gal, you know how.
When you're down and out, nev-er shout, I'm all in

Did - n't tell my pal, that the gal, was my frau. How I cried and groaned,
Al-ways leave a doubt, move a - bout with a grin If you moan and sigh,

How I sighed and moaned, But I'm o - ver it now, Be-lieve me.
Friends will pass you by, They wont loan you a pin, Be-lieve me.
