WHERE THE SUNSET TURNS THE OCEAN'S BLUE TO GOLD.

Words by EVA FERN BUCKNER.

Music by H.W. PETRIE.

Moderato.

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of a piano introduction and three systems of vocal melody with piano accompaniment. The piano introduction is marked 'Moderato' and 'mf'. The first system of the vocal melody is marked 'p' and includes the lyrics: 'When the bus-y day is o'er, And the sun is sink-ing low'r, Then I / When a lad to man-hood grown, With my sweet-heart I did roam, Just a'. The second system continues with: 'seem to see a dear old south-ern home, — And the long years roll a-way, Just a / coun-try lass, with heart as pure as snow, — And a - gain I see the dell, And the'. The third system concludes with: 'child a - gain I play, With my play-mates in the woods we used to roam. — And at / nook we loved so well, When I told life's old sweet sto-ry long a - go. — But be-'. The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and a more active treble line with chords and melodic fragments.
