Moderato.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction in the key of B-flat major and 2/4 time, marked 'Moderato'. The piano part features a steady accompaniment of chords and eighth notes. The vocal line enters with the first verse: '1. One evening I was mu-sing on the scenes of long a-go, My To'. The second verse follows: '2. The wed-ding was a scene of joy with guests from far that came To memry brought a pic ture to my mind, I was strolling thro' the meadows with a see the par-ents give the bride a way, She did not know an-oth-er wife in girl I used to know, A las-sie who was ev-er true and kind, In sor-row and in shame, De-ser-ted by the man she'd wed that day, And'. The piano accompaniment continues throughout, providing harmonic support for the vocal melody.

one short month we were to wed and all seemed gay and bright, Unwhen at last she learned the truth that blighted her young life, I

til her par-ent's av-ar-ice for gold, Had loved her still just in the same old way, I turned her sim-ple trust-ing heart a wealthier man to wed, Their journeyed back, her heart to cheer, but in the churchyard lot, They'd daugh-ter's life long hap-pi-ness they'd sold,

 layed the on-ly girl I loved a way.

Valse moderato.

She was my old-time sweet heart, ma-ny years a-go

And tho'she wed a-noth-er, I still love her so

I then was poor, she was wealth-y, And her life was filled with woe,

She was my old-time sweet-heart; Ma-ny years a-go.

She was my old time sweetheart - 3

I'm gwine to my Old Kentucky Home.

CHORUS.

I'm gwine to my old Ken-tuck-y home, Sah, No more Ise gwine to wan-der or to roam, To the land of yal-ler corn to the place where I was born, I'm gwine to my old Ken-tuck-y home. Weep no more my la-dy, Oh weep no more to-day, We will sing one song for the
