BENEATH THE PINES OF MAINE.

Words & Music by WALTER ROLFE.

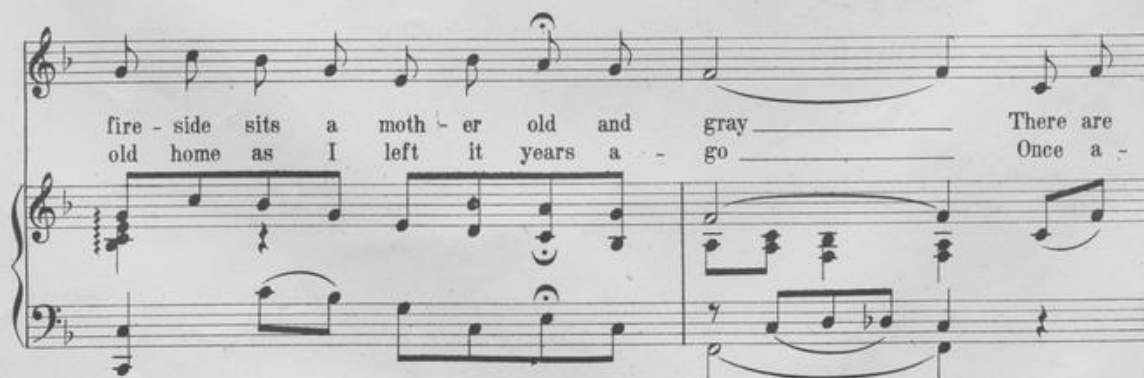

VOICE.

PIANO.

Neath the wav - ing pines of Maine there stands a home - stead — By the Oft in dreams there comes to me a hap - py vis - ion — Of the fire - side sits a moth - er old and gray — There are old home as I left it years a - go — Once a - tear drops in her eyes and she is sigh - ing — For the loved one who to night is far a - gain I press the lips of her who loved me — Once a - gain I tell loves sto - ry soft and way — Tho'tis ma - ny years since last I saw the old home — There's a low — But with heart that's fill'd with an - guish I a - wak - en — And I rit.

yearn - ing growing stronger day by day — To be back a - gain with - in that hum - ble call her but a - las it is in vain — For the rob - in's now their faithful watch are cot - tage — Just to cheer her heart and kiss the tears a - way — keep - ing — O'er her grave be - neath the way - ing pines of Maine.

REFRAIN.

Maine, dear old pine tree state, how oft my fond heart yearns—

Once a-gain to stroll a-mid the wood and tan - gled ferns—

In fan - cy I can hear the song birds sweet re - frain, And mel - o - dies of home sweet home A - mong the pines of Maine.—

THE SONG THAT I HEAR IN MY DREAMS.

Chorus.

WALTER ROLFE.

It's the song that I hear in my dreams — And the best that I ev - er heard —

It will live in my mem-ry for ev - er, I treas-ure it ev - 'ry word!

* "It's Rock-a - bye, Rock-a - bye, mother is near — Rock - a - bye, Rock-a - bye, nothing to fear." It's the song that was sung by my mother, dear, It's the song that I hear in my dreams! —

THINKING OF MOTHER AND THE DAYS GONE BY

Words and Music by FRANK L. MARSHALL

Chorus Con espressivo

I am thinking of my mother and the days gone by. I'm thinking of the dear old home, the old mill standing high. I am thinking of the time - the best part and mine to come. And thoughts of those loved so dear come to me now by one.

BE TRUE.

Words and Music by J. W. WHEELER.

Who dear heart be true. Be true dear heart be true. For I'm in love with you. I'm in love with you. They say true love will show us. When our thoughts are true and true. I thought we part to day and heart, be true my love, be true!
