1. I sit to - night all a - lone, love, My heart is lone - ly and chil - dren have left me a - lone, now, Each for a home of their sad; For I've been think - ing of days gone bye own; Some - how I can't leave the dear old place, when I was quite a lad _____ When I had Each room your pres - ence has known, _____ Some - times I you Sa - rah, dar - ling, And . all the world seemed so most feel your arms, dear, Each thrill brings joy to my bright, When we used to go ska - ting down on Lew - is heart; _____ I nev - er knew sor - row or care 'till that pond, For that was your great - est de - light. _____

day, Or that dear with you I must part. _____

CHORUS

Ska - ting, slid - ing, O - ver the ice we were glid - ing, p

You were my darl - ing, I your beau, In the six - ties, long a - go.

On the shore fires were burn - ing bright, Songs and laughter, hearts were light;

You gave your love to me that night, Skating down on Lew is pond. —
