

Fall 9-10-1863

Letter from E. Haskell Jr. to his son Almore, September 10, 1862

E. Haskell Jr.

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.library.umaine.edu/paul\_bean\_papers

 Part of the Military History Commons, and the Social History Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Haskell, E. Jr., "Letter from E. Haskell Jr. to his son Almore, September 10, 1862" (1863). Paul W. Bean Civil War Papers. Item 49.
https://digitalcommons.library.umaine.edu/paul\_bean\_papers/49

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@UMaine. It has been accepted for inclusion in Paul W. Bean Civil War Papers by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@UMaine. For more information, please contact um.library.technical.services@maine.edu.

1863

Bolsters Mills Sept<sup>r</sup> 10th

Dear son I write a few lines to you this after noon to let you know we are well as common hoping these lines will find and Suse well now I will tel you why I write I feel as tho I had aught to invite you to come home and note with me this once as I never invited you before do not fail to come if you will come you shall have your expence paid and pay for your time I am insured of that I have ben thinking it is our duty this fall to note if ever we note

you need not fear but your expences will be paid all right without fail now Almore be sure and come if you want to go back hire a horse and go back your time
will be paid or if suse will come with you all the same be sure and come Suse you help
me and see if we cant
do sompthing this fall the seach is a tring to sweep the roost and I dont want them to laff
at me suse rally him
of and you shall be rewardded dont fail me
yours with respect
from your Father and friend E. Haskell

Envelope in Patriotic Cover Album.

" Mr Almore Haskell

West Peru,

Me.

Postmarked from Bolster's Mills. Sep 11 hand cancellation in ink.

Bolsters Mills Sept the 10 1863

Dear Son I write a few lines to you this after noon to let you know we are well as common hoping these lines will find (you) and Suze well now I will tel you why I write I feel as tho I had ought to invite you to come home and vote with me this once as I never invited you before do not fail to come if you will come you shall have your expence paid and pay for your time I am insured of that I have been thinking it is our duty this fall to vote if ever we vote you need not fear but your expences will be paid all right without fail now Almore be sure and come if you want to go back hire a horse and go back your time will be paid or if Suze will come with you all the same be sure and come Suze you help me and see if we cant do sompthing this fall the sesech is a tring to sweep the roost and I dont want them to laff at me suze rally him of and you shall be rewarded dont fail me yours with respect from your Father and friend

E. Haskell jr.