AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS

(From the United States Census Report)

Maine has a total land area of 29,895 square miles, of which 9,844 square miles, or 32.9% are included in farms. The surface consists of two great slopes, the northern and the southern. The northern slope, comprising about one-third of the total area is drained by the St. John river and its tributaries, the southern slope by numerous streams which flow into the Atlantic. The broad, flat divide which separates the two slopes serves as a natural reservoir, most of the rivers of the state having their sources in the large lakes of this region. Some of the lakes have outlets on both sides of the watershed.

The surface of a large part of the state is rugged and broken. The soil of the river valleys is very productive, but in the mountainous regions and along the sea coast it is for the most part sterile. The Aroostook Valley, which comprises the largest area of fertile farming land in New England, has a deep, porous, yellow loam, especially adapted to the growing of fruits and vegetables. This section has developed remarkably during the last decade.

Census-1906

The population of the towns of Wiscasset, Edgecomb, Whitefield, Alna, Woolwich and Dresden has been arranged in families where that arrangement has been possible. In these families, in addition to the resident living members, the names of the non-resident members are included. It should be borne in mind that this plan does not include the names of all former residents of this town, as the names of the non-residents appear only when one or both of the parents are still living in the town. After the name of each non-resident will be found the present address, when such address has been given to us. Non-residents are indicated by the (*).

When a daughter in a family has married, her name taken in marriage appears after her given name in parenthesis, the name preceded by a small m, thus: (m).

Following the names of the population is the occupations. To designate these we have used the more common abbreviations and contractions, as follows: Farmer—far; carpenter—car; railroad service—R R ser; student, a member of an advanced institution of learning—stu; pupil, a member of a lower grade of schools (including all who have reached the age of five years)—pl; housework—ho; laborer—lab; physician and surgeon—phy & sur; clergyman—clerg; merchant—mer; teacher—tr; blacksmith—blk; clerk—cl; book-keeper—bk kpr; lawyer—law; mechanic mech; machinist—mach; engineer—eng; maker—mkr; worker—wkr; work—wk; shoe shop operative—ss op; cotton or woolen mill operatives—mill op; weaver—weav; spinner—spin; electrician—elec; painter—ptr; carriage work—car wk; dress maker—dr mkr; insurance—ins; traveling salesman, or commercial traveler—sales, or coml trav; music teacher—mus tr; teamster—team; general work—genlwk; mariner—mar; employ—emp; retired—retd; telephone operative—tel op; telegraph operative—teleg op.

This Census was taken expressly for this work during the Spring of 1906, by Messrs. Daggett, Sawyer and Lawton.

Wiscasset Census—1906

NOTE:—Where no address is expressed the name of the town is understood. Rural Free Delivery routes are designated by their number. The following post office abbreviations are also used, viz: Wiscasset—Wis; Sheepscot—S'cot; Damariscotta—Dama; Edgecomb—Edge; Whitefield—W'fld; Newcastle—Ncas'l; Woolwich—Wool; Head Tide—H Td; Cooper's Mills—C Mls.

Permanent settlement made in 1752 by French Protestants among whom was Chas. Estienne Houdlette, who came from Germany. The progenitors of the Goud, Pushard (Pochard), Stilphen, Pechin and Rittall, families of French birth and the Mayers family of German birth; were probably of the same company. John O'White, and the Costellow, Carney, Patterson and Reed families were here early from Ireland. Ezra Taylor, Robert Barker, John Barker, John Tufts, Dr. James Tupper, and the Goodwin, Johnson, Woodward, Bickford, Hathorn, Lilly and Hatch families were from England or English descent. The Lithgow family of Scotch blend; Dr. Philip Theobald, a German; and Major John Polerecsky, a Hungarian, were prominent in the early town. Major Polerecsky served in Rochambeau's French army of assistance. He was chosen the first town clerk, in 1794, which office he filled for 25 years. John Gardiner, the Cushings, Jona. Bowman, a cousin to John Hancock; Rev. Jacob Bailey and Wm. Bridge came from Massachusetts. Geo. Ramsdell, a Quaker; Peter LeMercier, (French); Major Samuel Tubbs and the Birgnon, (French), Haynes, Barrett and Seigars families, (the latter probably French) were among the early families of Dresden.
