GREETING.

Hail ! to our boys who wore the blue !
Hail ! to the flag, they carried through
From coasts of Maine, to Southern sea,
The emblem of our liberty !
Let voices ring with hearty cheers,
And eyes grow dim with unshed tears :
The empty sleeve, the halting crutch,
The silvered hair, all tell so much
Of the sad story, never old,
Of which the half has not been told.

Clasp the brave hands with friendship true,
Think what they did, and dared to do :
Think of the horror of those years,
The country's baptism of tears,
The lives upon its altar laid,
The fearful price our heroes paid.
From where New England's rocky shore
Re-echoes the Atlantic's roar,
To the Pacific's golden strand,
The western boundary of our land,
Pass on the word we give to you,
God bless, and keep, our "Boys in Blue."

Scorn not to lowly bow each head,
And shed a tear above our dead :
Our honored dead, whose every wound
Should be with fadeless laurel crowned,
And bear, in letters carved in stone,
A record of work so nobly done.

Beneath the azure sky above,
Beneath the starry flag we love,
North, South, East, West, where'er we be,
On spreading land, or sounding sea,
Let loving hearts their tribute bring,
And songs of joyous welcome sing,
To greet the noble, tried, and true,
Ours, and the nation's, "Boys in Blue."

GEN. AMBROSE E. BURNSIDE.

GENERAL BURNSIDE was born at Liberty, Union County, Indiana, May 23, 1824. His family was of Scotch descent. His great grandfather, Robert Burnside, with two brothers, had espoused the cause of Charles Edward, and after the triumph of the British arms, and the overthrow of the Pretender at Culloden, sought an asylum in South Carolina. The General's grandfather, James Burnside, married a daughter of James Edghill, an Englishman by birth. His son, the father of the General, bore his mother's paternal name, Edghill Burnside. He was born in South Carolina, but removed to the Territory of Indiana. He appears to have sympathized with the conscientious repugnance to slavery, which, even at that early day, had been aroused in the Carolinas, for he freed his slaves, and accompanied the "Quaker Emigration" to the West, which was dedicated to freedom by the ordinance of 1787. In his new home he maintained a character of high respectability and influence; was for a long time clerk of the county court, an associate justice of the same, and a senator in the legislature of the State. Ambrose was his youngest son. He gave him a good English education, in the schools of the neighborhood; and in 1843 he entered as a cadet at West Point. At the Academy he was not a hard student. With exuberant animal spirits, of vigorous bodily strength, he became expert in military and athletic exercises, while his aptitude in mathematics, then, as now, ranking high in the curriculum of studies, compensated for his deficiency of literary application, and gave him an excellent average standing; and he graduated eighteenth in a class of thirty-eight.

When the first gun upon Fort Sumter fired alike the Southern and the Northern heart, he promptly, and without a moments hesitation, offered to his country the sword that she had taught him to use. He was selected for the command of the First Rhode Island Regiment. In reply to a dispatch from Governor Sprague, inquiring how soon he could leave for his command, he answered "At once"; and the next morning he was in Providence busily engaged in organizing and preparing it. In an incredibly short time the regiment was raised and equipped; and in two days after the first man was enlisted a battery of six rifled guns with five hundred men was on its way to Washington, and in two days more the rest of the regiment followed. Notwithstanding this promptness, such was the vigor of the Colonel, seconded by his subordinate officers, and such his valuable military experience, that the regiment left fully armed, equipped, and provisioned, and gained the highest praise by its appearance of discipline, efficiency, and soldierly bearing. None of the new and hastily organized regiments came into the service better prepared for their duties. Its evening parade was a favorite resort of Mr. Lincoln, who, accompanied by high dignitaries, civil and military, often came to witness and admire its evolutions.

In the battle of Bull Run, which followed, Colonel Burnside commanded a brigade, and, as was justly said in a memoir read before the Loyal Legion by Colonel William Goddard, who served under him, "no share in the disasters of that conflict can be assigned to him or to his troops." In the autumn of 1861, General Burnside, raised to the rank of brigadier-general, took command of the "Burnside Expedition" to the coast of North Carolina.

General Burnside then joined the army of the Potomac, where he organized the Ninth Corps, which rendered so important services, and won for itself and its commander such high renown. On the 14th of September, 1862, General Burnside achieved the victory of South Mountain. At the battle of Antietam, he commanded the left wing of the army. Returning to the army of the Potomac, he resumed command of his favorite Ninth Corps. Here he was offered the command of the Army. He declined it with unaffected diffidence, as he had twice before; but it was pressed upon him by positive orders, and he could not longer, without insubordination, refuse it.

After the battle of Fredericksburg he turned over the command to General Hooker. He subsequently took command of the Department of the Ohio, where he rendered distinguished service; and later, again in command of the Ninth Corps, he took part in the closing scenes of the war under Grant. Thrice he was elected Governor of Rhode Island and twice to the United States Senate, and was a member of that body when he died, September 13, 1881.

to 1865; was re-elected as a Republican, and took his seat March 4, 1869, and re-elected in 1875. His term of service expired March 3, 1881.

In 1881 he was appointed by President Garfield United States Minister Plenipotentiary to Spain. He resigned that position after serving a little more than one year. Since that time he has been, and now is a practical farmer.

We know of no man in public life who has endeared himself to his comrades more than Mr. Hamlin. During the war, and since, he never received a letter asking his attention to their claims before the Pension Office, or other departments in Washington, but that he gave it his personal attention at once. It mattered not how humble the writer might be, or how laborious the work involved, he was sure to receive the prompt help of Mr. Hamlin; and many comrades can testify to this. It is hardly possible for Mr. Hamlin to attend a meeting of the Encampment or even the Post, in his own city, without being reminded by some comrade of his kindly services in such matters.

At the extreme age of eighty years he is actively interested in the success of the G. A. R., and is regularly chosen a delegate to the Encampment by his Post.

BURNSIDE POST, No. 47, G. A. R.

BURNSIDE POST is to hold a Fair on the 20th, 21st, 22d, 23d, and 24th of March, for the purpose of replenishing their Relief Fund. It is now two years since this Post has held a Fair, or made any special appeal to the public in behalf of that fund. During that time it has quietly gone about its charitable work, relieving the necessities of needy comrades and their families and the widows and orphans of dead soldiers, and from time to time affording assistance to needy ex-soldiers transiently coming among us or residing here, thus affording comfort to many veterans and their families who would otherwise have suffered in their poverty or been compelled to become an inmate of the poor-house, which no deserving soldier should be allowed to do.

This Post was organized October 21, 1881. Its roll shows a total membership, past and present, of 452; present membership is 310. It has made donations to 162 comrades and their families. It has paid the burial charges, either in part or wholly, of 15 deceased comrades, widows and orphans. The total amount of relief expended since its organization amounts to $3208.80. And this is not all: the members cheerfully attend upon all sick comrades so long as care is required during illness, and tenderly convey them to their final resting places when the grim messenger calls them to their last bivouac.

And this is not all: the Post also takes heed of the needs of sick ex-soldiers who are not members of the G. A. R., a thing not done by any other charitable order. To be sure, this encourages those who would be of the dead-beat order, and who say, "I don't care to join the G. A. R., if I need help I can get it from the Post just as well as if I was a member." While we assist some who are not members, they learn when sickness does come, that there is a difference, and in a late case, where the Post expended nearly one hundred dollars to relieve one of that sort, the poor old man saw with the clear perception that comes before death, the mistake he had made.

The Relief Fund is conscientiously and strictly applied to the relief of sick, disabled, and needy comrades. Not a mill of that fund is expended for any other purpose. Every dollar of this fund is appropriated to the purpose its name implies by a vote of the Post in every instance. No officer or committee of the Post has the disposition of it; but every appropriation comes before and is voted upon in the regular and open meetings of the Post.

The current expenses of the Post are met by initiation fees and quarterly dues.

The ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic are being thinned each year by death. In a few more years the last soldier who fought for the preservation of the Union and the perpetuity of the "best government the sun ever shown upon" will be laid in his grave. Their self-sacrificing and patriotic services should always be kept in the mind. Many come back to us shattered and maimed—all physically weakened by deprivations and exposures on the march and in battle; and, as a whole, have with unexampled readiness assumed the duties of civil life. Let us remember our promises made to these men when, at their country's call, they unflinchingly girded on the sword and shouldered the musket to save the Nation's life, and aid in making their declining years comfortable and happy.

The citizens of this community will be solicited to help make the coming Fair a success. Let all generous and patriotic citizens cheerfully and liberally respond to the call and fill to overflowing the coffers of the Relief Fund of Burnside Post. Remember, citizens, that One has said: "It is more blessed to give than receive."

THE OBJECTS OF THE G. A. R.

Are these: 1. To preserve and strengthen those kind and fraternal feelings which bind together the soldiers, sailors, and marines who united to suppress the late rebellion, and to perpetuate the memory and history of the dead.

2. To assist such former comrades-in-arms as need help and protection, and extend needful aid to the widows and orphans of those who have fallen.

3. To maintain true allegiance to the United States of America, based upon a paramount respect for and fidelity to the National Constitution and laws to discountenance whatever tends to weaken loyalty, incites to insurrection, treason, or rebellion, or in any manner impairs the efficiency and permanency of our free institutions; and to encourage the spread of universal liberty, equal rights, and justice to all men.

The public will please bear in mind that the G. A. R. assists the widows and orphans of ex-soldiers when needy and deserving, no matter whether their husbands or fathers, as the case may be, were members of the order or not.

ORGANIZATION OF THE G. A. R.
IN MAINE.

The soldiers and sailors of Sagadahoc County assembled at Bath on the 31st of May, 1867, to organize the G. A. R. in this State. Among those present were Gen. James A. Hall, Gen. Geo. L. Beal, Gen. John C. Caldwell, Gen. C. P. Mattocks, Col. James F. Miller, Col. Edward Moore, Col. F. M. Drew, Maj. H. A. Shorey, all of Maine, and Gen. Wm. A. Schmidt, of Quincy, Ill. After a midnight session the meeting was adjourned to meet in June following, when the above-named comrades were instructed in the secret work by Gen. Schmidt, and thus placed the Department of Maine on a working basis, and which has now 149 Posts with a membership of over 9,000.

During his first term in the Legislature, Mr. Frye's talent as a speaker attracted attention, and observers were confident that he had a great future. When he became Attorney-General, his abilities as a lawyer and a speaker came into more general notice, and perhaps it was here that he fairly laid the foundation of his public career. He soon took high rank in Congress, and his reputation as an orator was carried to every part of the Union. In the years that have followed he has probably made more speeches on the stump than any man in Congress.

Senator Frye is one of the busiest men in the Senate, being chairman of the standing committee on commerce, and of the special committee on Pacific railroads. He is a hard, conscientious worker, who has always proved more than equal to every test that has been made of his powers; and an honest, cleaner statesman than William P. Frye never went out from Maine.

HON. NELSON DINGLEY, JR.

HON. NELSON DINGLEY, JR. of Lewiston, was born in Durham, Androscoggin County, Maine, February 15, 1832. His parents removed to Parkman in this State, when he was about one year old; thence to Unity, Maine, when he was six years old. Here he was employed in his father's store and on his farm when he was not attending the public schools. From the time he was seventeen years of age until he graduated from college, he taught public schools in the winter season, in Unity and China, Maine. He prepared for college at Waterville Academy; entered Waterville College (now Colby University) in 1851; remained there a year and a half, and then became connected with Dartmouth College, from which he graduated in 1855 with high rank as a scholar and writer.

After graduation he studied law and was admitted to the bar, but never practiced—his tastes turning his attention to journalism. In 1856 he became part proprietor, and in 1857, sole proprietor of the Lewiston Journal. In 1861 he established the Daily Journal, and his brother, Mr. F. L. Dingley, soon after became his partner in business.

Mr. Dingley was elected to the Legislature from Auburn, in 1861, taking his seat in 1872, the first winter of the war. He continued a member of the Legislature all through the war, being re-elected from Auburn in 1862, and from Lewiston (to which city he removed in 1863) in 1863 and 1864; also in 1868 and 1873. He was speaker of the House of Representatives in 1863 and the following year, and declined another election in 1865.

In 1873, Mr. Dingley was elected Governor, and was re-elected in 1874. In 1876 he was a member of the Republican National Convention, and was one of the committee of five which drafted the platform.

In 1881, Mr. Dingley was elected to the 47th Congress from the Second Maine District, to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr. Frye to the Senate; and was re-elected to the 48th, 49th, and 50th Congresses.

A Grand Army man recently remarked to us: "No soldier, however humble or poor, ever wrote to Mr. Dingley for assistance in getting a merited pension, without receiving prompt attention and aid."

DR. GEORGE E. BRACKETT.

THE original of the above cut, George E. Brackett, of Belfast, Grand Secretary of the Good Templars of Maine, the largest and most powerful temperance organization in the State or country, was born in Belfast, in 1838, where he still resides, and has been a life-long total abstainer, prohibitionist, and temperance worker. Fourteen years ago he was elected to the secretaryship, which is virtually the head of the Order; has been elected annually since, the later elections being by acclamation, and has seen the Order grown from 13,000 to its present standing in the State—325 Lodges and 20,000 members.

He has been honored with several official positions, Register of Deeds in his county, was member of the State Board of Agriculture for ten successive years, and has been one of the Trustees of the State Agriculture Society for three terms. In religion, independent; in politics, a temperance republican; and in practice willing to concede freedom of belief and action to all, governed only by the good of the community.

CAPT. FRANK P. MERRILL.

CAPTAIN FRANK P. MERRILL was born in Buckfield, Maine, November 19, 1852. At the age of sixteen he came to Auburn, and entered the employ of Pray, Shaw & Co., learning the trade of upper leather cutter. Leaving this occupation in 1872, he engaged in the printing business, which he followed until five years ago, when he accepted a position with John Carter & Co., Boston.

In 1867 he joined the Auburn Light Infantry as a charter member, serving in every grade until elected captain. He resigned in 1863, having served the State for nearly fifteen years.

In the fall of 1882 his attention was called to the organization of the Sons of Veterans, and during the winter of 1883 he assisted Gen. I. S. Bangs in organizing the States of Maine and Massachusetts, and on April 10, 1883, was elected commander of the first permanent division organized in the United States. August 6, 1883, he was elected Commander-in-Chief of the Sons of Veterans, U. S. A.

CAPT. HORACE H. BURBANK.

HORACE H. BURBANK, Commander of the Department of Maine, G. A. R., is a native of Limerick, in York County, and a resident of Saco since 1876. He was a student at Limerick and Yarmouth Academies and a graduate of Bowdoin College, in the class of 1860. During the two years succeeding his graduation he taught school and read law.

In September, 1862, he enlisted as a private in the 27th Maine Regiment, and January 1, 1863 was promoted to Quartermaster-Sergeant.

In June, 1863, while the regiment was on its return home to be mustered out, he was one of three hundred and fifty men who volunteered for thirty days to aid in the defence of Washington, but the fortunate issue of the battle of Gettysburg sent them again homeward bound, and the regiment was mustered out July, 1863.

Comrade Burbank resumed his legal studies at Harvard Law School, but was not long content over law books. Admitted to York County Bar in January 1864, he re-enlisted in the 32nd Maine Volunteers, and March 3rd, 1864, was mustered as First Lieutenant of Company A, and with his regiment joined the army of the Potomac in April, attached to the 9th corps. On May 27th he was promoted to the captaincy of Company K.

Captain B. participated in the battles of Spottsylvania, North Anna, Cold Harbor, and other engagements in front of Petersburg until July 30th, when he was taken prisoner at "Burnside's Mine." He was in rebel prisons at Danville, Virginia, and Columbia, South Carolina, for nearly seven months, but although very emaciated, he, with others, made his escape and joined Sherman's Army in Columbia, after three days and nights alternate hiding and tramping.

In company with "Logan's Boys" he went to Fayetteville, North Carolina, and thence via Wellington to Washington. Receiving thirty days leave of absence, he came home to recuperate, before the expiration of which time the surrender of Lee closed the long conflict.

In the consolidation of the 31st and 32nd Maine Regiments, December 12, 1864, Captain Burbank was transferred to Company B of the 31st Maine and was mustered out May 15, 1865. He began the practice of law in his native town in August, 1865, and remained there for ten years. He was representative of the towns of Limerick and Limington in the Legislature of 1866, and held various town offices while a resident of Limerick. He was Register of Probate Court of York County for eight years, 1869-1877, and has been Bail Commissioner since 1873.

In 1878 he was appointed County Attorney by Governor Connor, and in 1882 by the Court. In 1886 he was elected to the same office and is now holding the position.

Capt. B. was Judge-Advocate for three years upon the staff of Governor Connor, having a commission and rank of Colonel. Upon his removal to Saco he joined Post Sheridan, Biddeford, (there being no Post in Limerick or Saco), and in 1881 was transferred to Fred S. Gurney Post, Saco, and has been for eleven years an active and enthusiastic member of the Order.

Comrade B. is a Past Post-Commander of Fred S. Gurney Post, and is now serving his fourth year as Quartermaster. In 1878 he was Junior-Vice-Commander of this Department, and in 1884 and 1885 was Judge Advocate.

Captain Burbank has held prominent offices, local and state, in Masonic and Good Templar organizations, in which he is still an active member.

JOHN GARNER.

AMONG the established business men of Lewiston, few are better known or more highly respected than John Garner, who has been actively engaged in business in Lewiston since the early days of the city, and who has always been alive to its commercial development, and a ready co-worker in all plans for its growth and improvement.

John Garner was born in Newton, Cheshire, England, on May 1st, 1835, and began daily work at the age of eight years. In 1848, when he was barely thirteen years old, his father died, leaving the widow with five children, of whom John was next the oldest. March 10, 1855, the family, now consisting of the mother, John, Allen, and a little sister of eight, set sail from England for the United States. Landing at Boston, April 16th, they went directly to Middlebury, Vt., where they had relatives whom they expected to meet, and who were expecting them.

In March, 1856, Mr. Garner left Middlebury, and came to Lewiston, where he worked in the Bates Mill until 1863.

In 1863 a co-operative store was opened by mill operatives in Lewiston, and Mr. Garner was chosen its agent. Under his management it prospered as few such establishments have ever prospered.

In November, 1866, he resigned this position and started in the provision and grocery business for himself, and has ever since been in the same line of trade. Few grocers in Maine are better known than he. He has been President of the Lewiston and Auburn Grocer's Association ever since its organization, seven years ago.

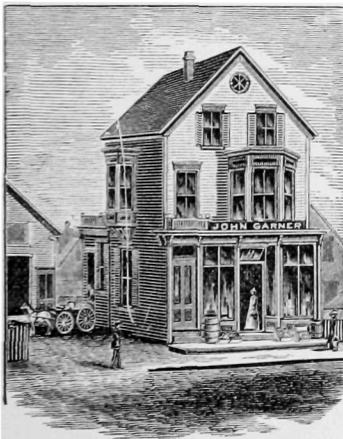

Mr. Garner was a member of the Lewiston City Government from the years 1876 to 1879, inclusive. He is an original thinker and writer on certain economic subjects, and has contributed extensively to the First Annual Report of the Labor Commissioner of Maine.

CAPT. SAMUEL W. LANE.

SAMUEL M. LANE was born in Frankfort, Maine, April 22, 1838. Enlisted in 1st Maine Cavalry in September 1861. Served in snow bank in Augusta, discharged March 1862. Re-enlisted July 1862 in the Maine Infantry as private; served as sergeant, commissary sergeant, quartermaster-sergeant, sergeant-major and 2d lieutenant in Virginia, North and South Carolina and Florida. Promoted captain, (February 24, 1864) 25th Regiment U. S. colored troops; served in Louisiana and Florida. Discharged November 12, 1864, used up by the climate and fever. In provost marshal's department January, 1865, to close of war.

He was a charter member of the O. O. Howard Post, at Augusta, organized February 8, 1886. This post died and Seth William's Post being organized July 26, 1872, was among the first comrades mustered in after its organization. Served as adjutant several times, two years post commander, post quartermaster in 1881 and since January 1, 1885; department commander of Maine in 1886, representative to national encampment in 1881, '82, '83, '84 and '85, elected a member of the national council of administration in 1885, but resigned on being elected department commander.

He was a member of the city council of Augusta in 1866, city auditor nine years, on school committee three years, city treasurer three years. Declined re-election in every case. Assistant secretary State Senate 1868-69, and secretary of State Senate ten years, 1870 to 1880. Is a lawyer and was admitted to the bar in 1859; was an editor from 1869 to 1872, and since March 1879 has devoted his entire time to that work.

A TOPIC OF INTEREST,

To almost any housewife at this season of the year, in connection with "house-lairying," is its almost inevitable accompaniment, house-decoration. In view of the fact that the public has become educated to a high standard in matters of decoration into which the Wall and Ceiling Papers so largely enter, we have taken special pains in the selection of these goods, to qualify the public taste, and are confident we can show as fine a line as can be found in the two cities. The extremely low price at which we are selling them, (in some grades less than one-half their former price), will, we have no doubt, insure a large demand, which we are fully prepared to meet.

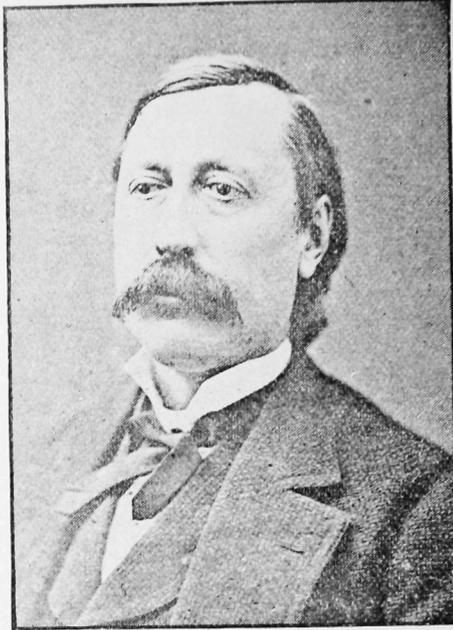

We would also call attention to our large stock of Window Shades and Fixtures.

Our line of Books, Stationery, Photograph, Autograph, and Card Albums, Fancy Goods, Artists' Materials, etc. is unsurpassed. Don't fail to look at our large line of 35 cent books, (worth $1.00), comprising about 400 different copies.

DR. GEO. E. BRICKETT.

DR. GEO. E. BRICKETT was born in Hartford, Vermont, Nov. 20, 1825, and is now sixty-three years of age. He graduated from Dartmouth Medical College, at Hanover, N. H., in 1846, when twenty-one years of age. He has been continuously in the practice of medicine ever since; first at New Gloucester, then at Mechanic Falls and China, Maine, and since 1846 at Augusta, where he now resides. He was commissioned Assistant-Surgeon of the 30th Maine Regiment of volunteers, June 20, 1861, and served with that regiment till Aug. 21, 1861, at which time he was commissioned Acting-Surgeon of the 5th Maine Regiment of volunteers, in place of Dr. Benjamin F. Buxton, who was taken prisoner at the first battle of Bull Run. He remained with this regiment during the McLellan campaign, in front of Richmond; was relieved at Harrison's Landing by the return of Dr. Buxton, on parole, July 1, 1862. He returned home, and on the 19th of September, 1862, was commissioned Surgeon of the 21st Maine Regiment. He remained with this regiment during its term of service, and again returned in August, 1863. On the 1st of June, 1864, he was commissioned Acting-Assistant-Surgeon, U. S. A., in charge of the Cony U. S. General Hospital, at Augusta. He was relieved Jan. 24, 1865, from the Hospital, but has continued to serve, either as Acting-Assistant or Contract-Surgeon, as Medical Officer, at the Kennebec Arsenal, at Augusta, ever since. He was appointed one of the surgeons of the Augusta Board of Examining Surgeons in 1874, but in 1885, by a change of Administration, he was obliged to step down and out. He represented the City of Augusta in the Legislature as a member of the House of Representatives in 1868 and 1869.

BECHARD & CALLAHAN.

GEN. JONATHAN P CILLEY.

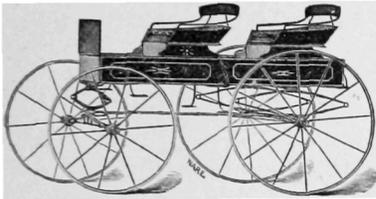

At the first call for volunteers, and before the 3d of May, 1861, Jonathan P. Cilley enlisted 150 men for the light fieldbattery, "H. B. Humphrey," of Thomaston, and his name stands first on the rolls, under date Sept. 3d, 1861. He was subsequently made captain of Co. B, raised by him in the counties of Knox and Waldo, of which he remained in command until he was severely wounded in his right arm and shoulder. He was taken prisoner at Middletown, Va., during the retreat of Gen. Banks from Shenandoah Valley, May 24, 1862.

A short time after this misfortune, he received the commission of Major, bearing date April 14, 1862.

After being disabled by his wounds for several months, Major Cilley was ordered by the War Department, April 1, 1863, to report to Gen. John H. Martindale, Military Governor of Washington, for special duty, and on the 7th was assigned to duty as Judge Advocate and Examining Officer at the Central Guard House. He remained on this duty until Aug. 1st, when, although his wound was still unhealed, he again took the field and remained with his regiment until June 24 1864, when he was once more wounded. He then again reported for duty Sept. 24th, and took command of the regiment, having been promoted and mustered Lieut. Col., Sept. 2d. From this time until it was finally discharged and paid at Augusta, Lieut. Col. Cilley was constantly present with and in command of his regiment.

He was further promoted Brev. Col. U. S. Vols., to rank from March 13, 1865, for "distinguished and meritorious services during the war"; and was still further promoted Brev. Brig. Gen. U. S. Vols., to rank from June 12, 1865, for highly distinguished services at Five Forks, Farmville and Appomattox Court House.

COL. A. W. WILDES.

COL. A. W. WILDES, son of the Hon. A. W. Wildes, was born in Newburyport, Mass., 1822. At the age of sixteen, Col. W. commenced the study and practice of civil engineering in the office of Col. J. M. Fessenden; then Col. W. was engaged in the construction of the Eastern Road, until its completion, and then transferred to the Portsmouth, Saco and Portland Railroad, being engaged in the engineering department until the completion of that road. From that period until the outbreak of the rebellion, Col. W. was engaged in the construction of various railroads of the country. He was assistant engineer on the Fitchburg, Connecticut River and Lake Champlain, and Vermont Central Railroads, as resident engineer of the Androscoggin and Kennebec Road, and in charge of the surveys eastward from that and other points in this State.

Col. W. was appointed an Aide, with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in 1860, on the staff of Gov. Washburn. Upon the transfer of the army of the Potomac to the Peninsula, Col. W. was sent thither with a corps of surgeons and nurses. Col. W. was commissioned as Colonel of the 16th Maine in 1862.

He had charge of the transportation of troops to the front and was with Gen. Pope in his summer campaign of 1862. He was also in active service in battles preceding and following the battle of Antietam.

Serious illness caused by long exposure rendered him unfit for field service and he resigned command of his regiment, and returned to his native state to recruit his health.

Col. W. was appointed railroad commissioner by Gov. Washburn in 1861, and has been re-appointed by successive administrations up to the present date, (1888). During this time Col. W., as chief engineer, has located and constructed the Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad from Oldtown to Dover, Belfast and Moosehead Lake, Dexter and Newport, and the Somerset Railroad from Oakland to Anson, besides having charge of several important surveys in this and other states.

RICHARD K. GATLEY.

RICHARD K. GATLEY, the subject of this sketch, was born in Cornwall, England, Sept. 10, 1836, and came to this country in 1849, settling in Manchester, N. H., where he attended the public schools and learned his trade, that of a plasterer and stucco-worker. In 1857 he moved to Concord, N. H., and carried on his business until 1864. He always took a deep interest in military and fire matters, and was Captain of Concord Fire Company, No. 2, when he enlisted in the Navy with all his company, thereby filling up the quota of that city on a call for more troops. He was attached to the United States Ship, Albatross, as yeoman, and remained on her until the fall of 1865, doing duty in the West Gulf Squadron at Mobile, Galveston and other sections. In 1866 he returned to Portland, Maine, where he has since resided.

He joined Bosworth Post, No. 2, G. A. R., in 1868. He has been Department Commander of the Department of Maine, and has held many other responsible positions, among which may be mentioned that of Commander of Bosworth Post, a member of the Council of Administration in the Department of Maine, Senior-vice Department Commander of the G. A. R. Department of Maine. He has served on the Board of Trustees of the Soldier's and Sailor's Home, at Bath, and was a member of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Portland, in 1886, and was elected to the same position in 1888.

E. C. MILLIKEN.

MR. MILLIKEN was born in Bridgton, Maine, February 2, 1841, and is therefore now in his 47th year. In March, 1864, at the age of thirteen years and twenty-five days, he enlisted in Company A, 32d Maine Volunteer Infantry. Colonel Mark Wentworth of Kittery, commanding. His father, Ben. F. Milliken, now Aide-de-Camp on the staff of the Department Commander of the Maine G. A. R., was likewise a private in the same company, and, as good luck would have it, both father and son went through the fire of war unscathed, and were mustered out with their regiment in the summer of '65.

Young Milliken's regiment was attached to the Second Brigade, Second Division, Ninth Corps, and his first battle was the Wilderness. The regiment experienced much hard fighting, and bears a most honorable record. The battles in which the thirty-second took part enumerated in consecutive order were: the Wilderness, Spottsylvania, Bethesda Church, Cold Harbor, Gaines' Hill, Gaines' Farm, Petersburg, Pegram Farm, in most of which it lost heavily.

In 1869 Edwin removed to Portland, since which date he has been constantly employed as salesman in the firm of F. & A. B. Nash. But although a war soldier no longer, his military career was by no means ended. He joined Bosworth Post, No. 2, of Portland in February 1871; was appointed Sergeant-Major in 1876, and re-appointed in 1877 and 1878; is the present Adjutant of Bosworth Post, which office he has filled, and most ably filled, upwards of fourteen years; was elected Adjutant of the First Maine Regiment Infantry in 1879, and served several years; and was appointed Assistant Adjutant General on the staff of the Commander G. A. R.

DR. ALONZO GARCELON.

DR. ALONZO GARCELON was born in the town, now City of Lewiston, May 6, 1813. Prior to 1828 his time was divided between labor at farming and attendance upon the public schools of that period. In 1828 he commenced his Academical education, which was continued at Waterville and New Castle Academies. He entered Bowdoin College in 1832 and took the degree of A. B. in 1836, and in due course that of A. M. from that institution. After graduating in 1836, he took charge of Alfred Academy, and in the same year commenced the study of his chosen profession, under the direction of Dr. Abel Hall, with whom he remained but a few months. In the spring of 1837 he went to Hanover, N. H., and became the private pupil of Prof. R. D. Mussy. He remained at Hanover till the autumn of 1838, attending lectures at Dartmouth. He left that institution the same autumn, and took the position of Demonstrator of Surgical Anatomy, in the Medical College of Ohio; removed to Cincinnati where he remained till the autumn of 1839, having in the meantime taken the degree of M. D. He returned to his native place in the autumn of that year, and immediately entered upon the practice of his profession.

He has been a member of the House of Representatives and the Senate. Mayor of Lewiston, and Governor of Maine: Surgeon General in the Army of the Potomac, and State of Maine, besides holding various local offices of trust and honor.

DR. A. C. HAMLIN

AUGUSTUS CHOATE HAMLIN was born in Columbia, Washington County, but removed to Bangor at an early age. He graduated at Bowdoin College in 1852, and in medicine at Harvard in 1855, having in the meantime passed two years of study in Europe.

At the outbreak of the Rebellion he raised a company of infantry, and went out with the 2d Maine Regiment as its Assistant Surgeon. He took part as volunteer in the fight at Blackburn Ford, and also with his regiment at the battle of Bull Run. He remained with the 2d Maine Volunteers until after the evacuation of Yorktown, when he was promoted Brigade-Surgeon in April, 1862, and ordered to the army of western Virginia, where he was placed by General Fremont in charge of the medical staff of the advance guard, then commanded by Colonel Gustave Chisret, afterwards famous as Secretary of War at Paris, France, under the Commune. He served in this capacity in all of the engagements of Fremont's Army, ending at the battle of Cross Key where he received special mention for his service. He then formed the well-known Flying Hospital, and took part in all the engagements of General Pope, commencing at Cedar Mountain and ending at Bull Run and Chancellorsville. Upon the formation of the Eleventh Corps from the wrecks of the Army of Western Virginia and the First Corps, he was selected as its Medical Director, and remained with it until February, 1863, when he was promoted Lieut. Col. and Medical Inspector in the regular army. He served in the campaigns of McDowell, McLellan, Fremont, Seigel, Pope, Burnside, Hooker, Gilmore and Thomas. He is a member of many scientific societies at home and abroad, and an officer in one of the Orders of Russia. He has been twice elected Mayor of Bangor.

He has been actively interested in the G. A. R. from its early organization, and has been elected Commander of Post 12, of Bangor, several times. In 1875 he was elected Commander of the Department of Maine, and has attended as delegate many of the National Encampments of the G. A. R.

COL. A. B. NEALEY.

A. B. NEALEY was born April 22, 1836, in the town of Thorndike, and lived there until he was three and one-half years old. His parents then moved to Troy, where he lived until he was twenty-one years of age. During this time his school privileges were very limited. In 1857 he came to Lewiston and worked at the lumber business for three years. In 1860 he was married, and that same year entered the grocery business with Hersey Day, his father-in-law, and Joseph H. Day. He has followed that business up to the present time, and by strict attention to business has been fairly successful. He was always a republican and a loyal citizen.

During the rebellion when the last call came for men from Maine, Lewiston had to furnish her share of men; he voluntarily put in a substitute at the expense of $550. In 1868 and 1869 he was a member of the Lewiston city government. In January 1883 he was appointed a member of Gov. Robie's staff with rank of lieutenant-colonel. This position he held two years, at the expiration of which he was re-appointed, and served two years longer. In 1886 he was elected as a member of the Maine House of Representatives for two years.

JOHN F LAMB.

JOHN F. LAMB was born in Clinton, Maine, November 24, 1843. At the age of seventeen he entered a machine shop in Holyoke, Mass., as an apprentice, where he remained until November, 1861, when he enlisted in Co. B, 13th Maine Regiment, and served with his regiment in the department of the Gulf until January 23, 1863, when he was discharged for disability. He subsequently went to California, and thence to Nevada Territory, where he assisted in the formation of a Frontier Company, of which he was made first sergeant. Returned to Maine in the spring of 1865. In the following September he engaged in the hardware business at Clinton. He was elected representative to Maine Legislature in 1871. In 1880 he moved to Livermore Falls, where he engaged in trade, and where he has since resided. He has been deputy sheriff of Androscoggin County four years, and an active member of the G. A. R., serving as Post Commander, a member of the council of administration of the Department of Maine, and as Senior-Vice-Commander.

HON. GEORGE C. WING.

GEORGE CURTIS WING was born in Livermore, (then Oxford County), April 16, 1847; fitted for college and studied law with the late Henry C. Wentworth, at Livermore Falls, Me.; admitted to the bar in Androscoggin County, April 23, 1868; in May following entered upon the practice of his profession at Lisbon Falls, where he remained two years, removing to Auburn in March, 1870, at that time forming a co-partnership with the Hon. Nahum Morrill, which lasted six years. He served on the superintending school committee of Auburn in the years 1872 and 1873, and as city solicitor for the years 1878, 1879, 1880, 1884, 1885 and 1887. He was one of the incorporators of the National Shoe & Leather Bank in 1875, and ever since that time has been a director in that institution; was elected county attorney for the county of Androscoggin in 1872; elected Judge of Probate in 1875, re-elected in 1879, and was appointed Judge of Probate by Governor Robie for the year 1884; chairman of the Republican State Committee during the presidential campaign of 1884, and in that year was chairman of the State Republican delegation to the convention at Chicago which nominated James G. Blaine for President. Is Judge-Advocate-General on Gov. Marble's Staff.

Life is too short to think of going without possible comforts! While you are doing one kind of work, others are preparing comforts to fit in.

Are you a workman away from home all day? Yet when you return, tired and sit down to a nice supper cooked on a good RANGE prepared by other workers. The nice extension TABLE made by other workman, resting your drooping frame in a nice dining CHAIR other workman's make. Softly and easily walking over the bright colored CARPETS, swept by a SWEEPER. Looking into a beautiful MIRROR to see if you look just O. K. Glancing thro' the LACE DRAPERY at the window. Pulling down the SHADE by the pretty handle.

Pushing aside the PORTIER from the door. Notice the little CRIB and its loved contents, and the bright BLANKETS. Near at hand the BEDSTEAD. DRESSING CASE holding the soft comfortable MATTRESS and SPRING. The handy TOILET SET and LOUNGE. Smooth down the rich SMYRNA RUG before the handsome warm PARLOR stove. Draw up the STUDENT ROCKER.

Let down the HANGING LAMP. Take the daily paper from the MARBLE TOP TABLE; just notice how nicely the CARPET TAPESTRY is matched, and harmonizes with the HALL and STAIR CARPET. Looks easy to climb, and perhaps the Father may not, but the Mother will go up to the CHAMBER to see how the dear little Boys are resting on the new BED and if they have put their things in the BUREAU drawers. Returning down stairs they thank

J. J. EMERSON, MANAGER.

CAPT HILLMAN SMITH.

THE subject of this sketch was born in Hampden, Penobscot County, Maine, April 4, 1835, where he spent his boyhood days on his father's farm, enjoying the privileges of common school, and at the age of seventeen found him a student at old Hampden Academy, which he attended three terms, leaving there for the Seminary at Bucksport. At the age of nineteen he commenced teaching, his first school being in the town of Penobscot. He continued his studies in the Seminary at Bucksport during the spring and fall terms, teaching winters until he was twenty-one years of age, when he shipped as a common sailor for the West Indies, having an ambition to become master of a ship, but the hardships of the voyage and severe sickness cooled his ardor and compelled him to abandon his chosen pursuit. He then took the advice of Horace Greely and "went west," where he "roughed it" for three years on the frontier, returning to Maine in the fall of 1860, and teaching school in the village of Oldtown in the winters of 1860 and '61. On the 23th of August, 1861, he enlisted in Co. K. of the 8th Maine Volunteers, was elected 2d Lieutenant of the Company. He was mustered into the United States service at Augusta, September 7, 1861, and served three years and two months in the Department of the South and in Virginia, being promoted to 1st Lieutenant and then to captain for bravery on the field. In January, 1865, soon after leaving the service he took up his residence on the eastern shore of Maryland, where he resided five years. Leaving there in the spring of 1870 he took up his residence in Lewiston, where he resided until January, 1883, when he was elected Sheriff of Androscoggin County, and since that date has been a resident of Auburn. He served on the School Board and City Council in Lewiston for four years and was for the same length of time City Marshall of Lewiston, and at present is a member of the School Board of Auburn.

BURNSIDE RELIEF CORPS, No. 10, AUXILIARY TO
BURNSIDE POST, NO. 47, G. A. R.

Barnside Relief Corps was organized January 30, 1882, with thirty-three charter members, comprising the "mothers, wives, daughters and sisters" of soldiers and sailors, who alone are eligible to membership. Burnside Relief Corps is a charitable organization. Its object is to assist members and their families in sickness and distress, all needy and sick soldiers and sailors, the widows and orphans of deceased soldiers and sailors, and to assist Burnside Post in every good work. Burnside Relief Corps has been faithful to its obligations. The sick have been visited and comforted with words of love and sympathy. The destitute have been cared for—and in very many instances substantial aid has been given. Of the donations of food and clothing made, the money value can not be estimated. The hearty good-will, sisterly love and sympathy manifested can not be measured.

GEORGE A. WILSON.

GEO. A. WILSON was born in the town of Turner, July 31, 1842, and has always resided in this state. He was the second son of Rev. Adam Wilson, D. D., a clergyman widely known and highly respected, especially in the Baptist denomination to which he belongs. Fitting for college at Waterville Academy, he entered Waterville College, now Colby University, and graduated therefrom in the summer of 1862, at the age of twenty. Immediately after graduation he enlisted as a private in Co. B, 28th Regiment of Maine Volunteers, and accompanied his regiment out to Louisiana with Banks' expedition. During the siege of Fort Hudson he volunteered as a member of the famous "Forlorn Hope", for storming the Fort, and was fortunate enough to escape from the terrible slaughter of that day without serious injury. Returning home on the expiration of his term of service, he entered the office of Hon. Reuben Foster of Waterville, and remained there until the summer of 1865, when, having been admitted to the Kennebec Bar, he opened his office in the village of South Paris, where he has since remained. He became at once identified with all measures tending to advance the cause of education and uplift humanity. Many of the enterprises undertaken by the citizens of this thriving and prosperous village owe much of their success to his energy and ability. He is now President of the Paris manufacturing Co., one of the largest manufacturing establishments of the kind in the State. He was a member of the Legislature of 1883, resigning therefrom to accept the appointment as Judge of Probate for Oxford County, which position he now holds by election. Judge Wilson was elected treasurer of the South Paris savings bank when it commenced business in 1873, and has served as such continuously to the present day. The remarkable success and strong financial standing of this bank affords proof of his honest and business-like ability. A true friend of the soldier, an ardent member of the G. A. R., Comrade Wilson will always be found advocating fraternity, charity and loyalty.

GEORGE L. LEWIS.

GEO. L. LEWIS was born in the town of Naugatuck, State of Conn., July 26, 1843; educated at Yale College; enlisted in the 4th Conn. Infantry; afterwards changed to 1st Conn. Heavy Artillery; enlisted in May 1861, and discharged in October 1865. He served four and one-half years, going through the Peninsula campaign with Gen. McClellan; also served with Hooker, Burnside and Grant, in their campaigns when with the Army of the Potomac; was present at the capture of Fort Fisher; was at the front nearly all through the history of the Army of the Potomac, except about six months when detailed on recruiting service, and a short furlough on account of a wound. He was among the youngest soldiers in the service, being only 19 years of age when enlisted. He was detailed as mounted orderly for Gen. Henry L. Abbot, who had charge of the defences of Petersburg and Richmond, in which capacity he served for two years, and was at Grant's headquarters often. He was in Petersburg and Richmond the day after the evacuation, and at the time of Lincoln's visit to Richmond was personally complimented by both Lincoln and Grant for soldierly bearing and good horsemanship. His name was frequently mentioned for promotion on account of gallant conduct, but e preferred to remain with his General rather than to return to his regiment and have a commission. He is at present engaged in the insurance business in Portland, Me.

COL. MARK F WENTWORTH.

IN response to the call of the President, April 16th, 1861, the above named officer volunteered with the Kittery Artillery, of which he was captain, for three months, and was ordered into Fort M'Clary.

On the 10th of September, 1862, he enlisted as a private in Co. E, 27th Maine Infantry, on the 19th of the same month was elected Lieut. Col., said 27th Maine Infantry, which organization he had assisted to recruit. On the 1st of February, 1863, he was detailed as a member of a commission for the examinations of qualifications and fitness of volunteer officers in 2d Div., 22d A.C., in connection with Col. Grey, 6th Mich. Cavalry, and Lieut. Col. Tevis, 4th Del. Infantry, leaving the regiment in command of Lieut. Col. Stone. On the 24th of March, Col. Wentworth was ordered back to the frontier of the defences of Washington. On the 26th, although the term of the enlistment of the regiment had expired, he returned to Arlington Heights, and at the request of the President of the United States and Secretary of war, remained with three hundred and fifteen of his command during the threatened danger of the invasion of Washington by the army of Gen. Lee, then in Pennsylvania and Maryland, for which special service Congress awarded them medals. Immediately after the battle of Gettysburg, the 27th was relieved from duty and ordered to proceed to Maine, where it was mustered out July 17, 1863.

On the call for two additional regiments of Infantry, in Feb., 1864, the subject of this sketch assisted in recruiting the 32d Regiment, and was appointed Colonel. The organization being completed on the 6th of May, Col. Wentworth left the State on the 10th, when, having joined the battalion which had preceded him, at North Anna river, he participated in the actions at Hanover Court House, Tolopotomy Creek, Bethesda Church, Cold Harbor, Gaines' Farm, before Petersburg and in Burnside's mine, in which latter, with his command, he was among the first to enter the rebel works. He soon afterwards received a severe wound in the left side from a Minie ball, causing partial paralysis of the leg and hip, from which he never fully recovered. He had also received a flesh wound. In consequence of these wounds, Col. Wentworth resigned in October, 1864, and for gallant and meritorious service was in the following March brevetted Brig. General.

QUILLEN H. SHINN.

QUILLEN H. SHINN was born near Clarksburg, Harrison County, Va., January 1, 1845. He worked on a farm when a lad. When the war broke out and his State seceded from the Union, he volunteered with other Unionists to assist in guarding the "old flag," and did picket duty before any Union soldiers came from the Northern States.

In September, 1861, he joined the 3d Virginia brass band. In September, '62, the 12th Virginia Infantry was organized, and Mr. Shinn was one of the first sworn in. He served as private in Co. G until the close of the war, making the period of his service as an enlisted man three years and six months.

In June, '63, young Shinn was wounded and taken prisoner to Belle's Island. In October, 1863, he rejoined his command at Martinsburg, having been paroled, and continued with his regiment. Marching to Harper's Ferry, thence up the valley and down the valley, advancing and retreating, under Wallace, Seigel, Hunter, Crook, ~~Sheridan~~. Fighting at Piedmont or Staunton, and Lynchburg, Hunter's Raid, Singer's Ferry, Winchester, Berryville, Fisher's Hill, Cedar Creek, etc. In December, '64, he went with his command to the army of the James. Served in the 24th Corps. His division was sent over to Hatcher's Run, where it went into the rebel works April 2nd, '65. When Lee surrendered, April 9th, they stood in front, between Appomattox and Lynchburg. In June '65, the 12th Virginia was mustered out.

When Mr. Shinn returned to his home, he found the first free school ever kept there in session, and entered it for the one week remaining of the term. He had never been a full term at school, and being twenty-one years old, felt that there was no time to lose. In the spring of '67, he attended Mt. Union College in Ohio. In the fall of that year he entered the theological department of St. Lawrence University, at Canton, N. Y. Graduating from that institution in June, 1870. He was ordained and installed as pastor over the Universalist church in Gaysville, Vt. Mr. Shinn has been a member of the G. A. R. fourteen years. He first united with Post 42, in Lowell, Mass., and was transferred from there to Post 5, in Lynn, Mass., where he was chaplain two years. From Lynn he was transferred to Post 42, Plymouth, N. H., and from there to Bosworth Post, No. 2, Portland. Soon after settling in this State he was elected department chaplain, in which position he has served two years, and at the recent session in Portland he was re-elected for the third time.

DR. JOHN F. TRUE.

JOHN F. TRUE was born in Deerfield, N. H., in 1817. He had but limited educational advantages in early life, but by diligent application qualified himself for the practice of medicine as a botanic physican. This course of practical study and experience has resulted in the discovery of "True's Pin Worm Elixir" which has done more for the relief of those suffering from that form of disease than any other known remedy. For the past thirty-five years he has devoted his entire attention to the natural history, species and habits of the various kinds of worms which infest the alimentary canal of the human species, together with the diseases to which they give rise, and the unpleasant symptoms from which so many suffer, not knowing the cause.

Very Respectfully, Your Obedient Servant,

JOHN F. TRUE.

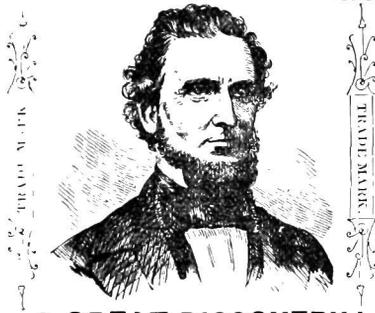

Proprietor of True's Pin Worm Elixir, Auburn, Maine, U. S. A.

TRUE'S ELIXIR.

As a general family medicine, True's Pin Worm Elixir positively has no equal. For headache, a coated tongue, irregularities of the bowels, feverishness, biliousness, liver trouble, constipation, canker, humor in the stomach, or for any of the ills constantly coming up, it is a sure cure. Thousands of families always have it on hand. A small dose taken in time saves many dollars in doctor's bills. No family should be without a bottle handy. Sold by all druggists, prices 35 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00 a bottle. Dr. J. F. True & Co., proprietors, Auburn, Me.

⚡Tape Worms a Specialty. Tape Worms removed in from one hour and thirty minutes to three hours.

BIDDEFORD, Sept. 20, 1871.

DR. TRUE, Dear Sir—We feel it a duty, and also take great pleasure in giving our testimony to the value of your Worm Medicine, by which our little boy has been restored to health, after a very painful illness of ten months. He was first taken with diarrhoea, canker, and inflammation of the bowels, attended by an attack of cholera morbus, reducing him very low. We tried several physicians, but nothing they could do was of any avail. Finally, we took him to Auburn, where a few days' use of your Worm Elixir caused him to discharge a large quantity of long round worms, giving him immediate relief and he is now strong and well. There is no doubt about your medicine saving his life. We feel very grateful to you, and pray that your life may long be spared to make many sorrowful hearts glad, as you have ours.

BENJAMIN B. HILL,
ANGELINA HILL.

BANGOR, January 14, 1859.

Your Worm Elixir is deserving of great praise, too much cannot be said in its favor. I have used it in many cases, and its effects in expelling worms have been in some instances truly wonderful, and in all highly satisfactory. It is a safe and potent remedy, no family should be without it.

C. SEAVEY, M. D.

AUBURN, ME., March 10, 1875.

Dr. J. F. True, Dear Sir—One year ago my daughter, then two years old, was taken sick. She became emaciated, and several physicians were called in at different times. I suspected that the child was troubled with worms, and requested the doctor to give medicine for that difficulty. They each declared that the child did not have worms. The child grew worse, and for seven weeks was very sick; indeed, had fits, and the doctors said she could not recover. A friend recommended the use of your Worm Remedy, and although but little hope was entertained that the medicine would do any good, I procured a bottle, and the third dose brought away a WORM SIX INCHES IN LENGTH, and since then a large number of worms have been expelled. The child is now healthy and robust, has a good appetite, and I think this result is wholly due to your valuable remedy.

T. T. MARSTON.

Dr. D. T. Parker, an eminent physician of Farmington, N. H., in ordering a supply of Dr. True's Worm Elixir recently, says that he finds it the best preparation of the kind he has ever used. We are gratified to notice the success which Dr. True's valuable medicines are meeting in other States as well as this.—Lewiston Journal.

SAVE Believing that anything that is beneficial to the canine world should be known to all interested, I will say that I have lost many promising puppies from worms, but think I have found a remedy that as an all-around medicine cannot be beat. This morning I took from a puppy, whelped May 18, twenty-two worms, some measuring eight inches and over. After one dose I have, on most every occasion, had no trouble in killing them. The medicine is known as True's Worm Elixir, and is put up in Auburn, and sold by all druggists. I think that the worms which I carefully preserved in alcohol, and would be pleased to show YOUR person who would wish them, as I have several bottles put up in the same way, are now twenty-nine in number. If this will help anyone I am paid by letting him know how I give it. One tablespoonful at the morning meal before or after eating; follow for two or three days, then watch if the puppy still continues dimpled, do not lose faith in the Elixir, but continue, and I will wager that it kills worms every time if they are there. I have used it now for three years and know whereof I speak.

AUBURN—There has been much building in Auburn during the past year, and one of the prettiest houses, and the one in which everybody takes a special interest and pride is that of Dr. J. F. True, the well-known proprietor and manufacturer of those excellent family remedies which no household should be without, True's Worm Elixir and True's Triumphant Tincture. The doctor has long owned one of the most desirable building lots in the city, on Drummond Hill, overlooking Lewiston; and the beautiful modern house with its cosy piazzas and square tower observatory is the most conspicuous object seen as one walks down Main St. Inside the wood work is entirely of the hard, western white wood polished like a mirror and stained the color of different rare woods. The parlors and halls are of light and dark mahogany, the library black walnut, the dining room oak, the kitchen cherry, and the bath-room ash. The chambers are of the natural color of the wood, nearly as light as olive wood but shaking on antique oak, of exquisite grain and a soft satiny lustre. There are eight large airy chambers, and the whole house is heated by steam and thoroughly plumbed, with hot and cold water upstairs and down. Back of the kitchen and spacious back hall is a large laundry and the doctor's office. His laboratory is in a separate building back of the house, and his packing is done in the basement under the ell. We congratulate the doctor upon owning so beautiful a home, and wish him and his estimable wife and family a long life of happiness under its hospitable roof.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the advertisements of Dr. True's Family medicines, as we are intimately acquainted with very many of our most respected citizens who have used these medicines and pronounced them to be invaluable. Dr. True is a citizen of this place and is favorably known as a high minded and excellent physician, and those who purchase his medicines may rest assured that there is no quackery about them.—Lewiston Journal.

Dr. True of Auburn is meeting with very marked success in the treatment of cases of tapeworm. The doctor's remedies recently expelled a tapeworm seventy-five feet long from a young man in Auburn, who has long been an invalid—and no wonder. The doctor is fast winning fame in his specialties, and what is quite important—decided pecuniary success. The doctor is a good man, the inventor and compounder of good medicines, and we are glad to give him this quantity of printer's ink, as our tribute to his well-recognized merits.—Lewiston Journal.

Saved the Child.—An Astonishing Cure.

DR. J. F. TRUE, Auburn, Me.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., June 17, 1879

DEAR SIR:—A man from your place, whose wife I was attending, lives here about six miles in the country; his neighbor's child was suffering from Ascarides. Yesterday when I visited the man's wife, he took me over to his neighbor, who told me that he had engaged nine different doctors, without help for his child, and that he saw your remedy advertised in an Eastern paper, and sent for a bottle. The child had just had a passage of the bowels, and I was astonished to see the discharge, it was most all alive, and the child felt entirely new. I took a copy from the bottle concerning your remedy. Please send me one of your circulars as I have an intention of using the remedy in my practice.

Respectfully, C. H. BLECKEN, M. D.

SOMERVILLE, Feb. 20, 1866.

DR. TRUE, Dear Sir:—For more than three months one of my children had been troubled with spells of vomiting and symptoms of Fever nearly every week, together with Canker Sores about the nose and mouth, disfiguring his face most shockingly. I obtained about two weeks ago two bottles of your Worm Elixir, in Boston, and before the first bottle was exhausted they were entirely healed, and no appearance of his vomiting or fever spells has ever returned, and I really believe that the lives of thousands of children, suffering from Worms or Canker might be saved by a timely and judicious use of your Worm Elixir.

Yours truly, J. L. HAMMETT

AUBURN, Oct. 1, 1885.

DR. TRUE, Dear Sir,—I was troubled for more than four years with Canker in the stomach. Everything I ate distressed me, and it is impossible to describe what I endured. None but such as have been similarly afflicted can imagine half what I endured. Oh, the nights and days and weeks of pain and agony and suffering! My mouth was one mouth of sores. The little I could eat distressed me so that I dreaded to eat at all. The grave seemed opening to receive me. And thanks to you for prescribing your Worm Elixir, six bottles of which entirely cured me. I never intend to be without in my house again, for I find it a valuable remedy in dyspepsia and loss of appetite as well as canker.

Signed, OLIVE McCAIN

AUBURN, Nov. 22, 1859.

Dr. True,—I have long felt it a duty I owe to you and the world, to say something in recommendation of your Worm Elixir. Indeed I feel that nothing I can say will express but a small part of the gratitude I feel for the relief it afforded me and my child. I was confined to my bed several weeks with Canker, and suffered more than I have words to express. After trying many things I began to despair of ever obtaining relief, but I am happy to say that a few bottles of your Worm Elixir completely restored me to health. And I would further state that I verily believe it saved the life of my little daughter. She, with me, was given up to die. The canker settled in her eyes, making her almost blind, and no tongue can describe the suffering she endured. Nothing seemed to do her any permanent good until I began to use your Worm Elixir, when she began to mend at once. And I have great reason to give thanks to my Heavenly Father for placing within my reach so sure a remedy for that dire disease, the Canker. I feel that I cannot confer a greater blessing upon those suffering from like complaints than by publishing this to the world.

Respectfully yours, MARTHA STANWOOD.

A Word That Dr. True Should Prize.

DR. J. F. TRUE, Auburn, Maine.

Dear Sir:—Here is another testimonial to add to your already swollen list. Without hesitancy I write the following: When I applied to you to know if you thought you could help me, my case seemed to me almost hopeless, as I had suffered a number of years with some unknown disease, evidently, as the different physicians I employed could give me no permanent relief, and finally told me they didn't know what ailed me. I was perfectly colorless and many told me I looked like a walking corpse. I was subject to severe sick spells and would be so sore around my kidneys, and often the whole length of my left side, as to be unable to walk for days together. I was treated for rheumatism, also neuralgia, kidney troubles and everything pertaining to those awful diseases. Well, I had about made up my mind to die, when I took up an old Lewiston Journal, and the first thing I saw was Dr. True's advertisement. I had no faith to begin with his medicines, but after a few days thought, concluded to make one more trial for my family's sake, so forthwith sent to Dr. True for a bottle of his Worm Elixir, and had not taken it all when it brought from my person pieces as large as half of a good-sized orange and of the same color. I have since learned that it is called a cyst tumor, that had been killing me. Immediately on the removal of the cyst, my health improved rapidly, the color came to my cheeks and ears, and I was so much changed in looks my friends would raise their hands and say, "What did you find? what could you take that has helped you at last?" I am not cured, but this Worm Elixir has given the doctors a chance to see and know that the True Elixir can do what they can't. My health is so much improved that I owe it good care of six and seven in a family this last winter, and I can truly say that I owe it all to the Elixir. I can never forget Dr. True and his great kindness to me if I am spared on earth as long as old Methuselah. My wishes for the doctor are that he may live many years to do good and heal the sick and suffering, and when he dies I know there will be a crown for him with many stars, in that home beyond the skies.

Yours respectfully, MRS. E. M. SWETZLER, North Yarmouth, April, 18, 1887.

TRUE'S PIN WORM ELIXIR

A WONDERFUL REMEDY,

MARVELOUS IN ITS EFFECTS.

A GREAT DISCOVERY

Among the most remarkable and successful achievements of this great remedy is the removal of

A LIZARD 8 INCHES IN LENGTH ALIVE

And spotted, belonging to the water species, and looking like a veritable young alligator, from the stomach of Mrs. ELLEN KELLEY, of Bangor, Maine. Dr. True has in his possession

A SPOTTED LIZARD 6 INCHES LONG

Expelled alive from the stomach of another woman in the eastern part of the State. Dr. True's Elixir expelled from the stomach of a son of G. W. Vickery, of Danville, Maine,

A LIVING CREATURE ABOUT 18 INCHES IN LENGTH

And 1 1-4 inches in circumference,—species of snake. Dr. True's Pin Worm Elixir expelled from the stomach of a young man of Fair Haven, Conn.,

A LIVING CREATURE 20 INCHES IN LENGTH

And 2 1-2 inches in circumference,—species of snake, in Oct. 1884. Dr. Tapley, of Lynn, Mass., prevailed upon a young woman to try Dr. True's Elixir, the result of the experiment being that she was relieved of

A Tape Worm, Alive, 30 Feet in Length.

Benj. J. Hill of Auburn, Me., late Captain 9th Maine Volunteers, was likewise relieved of A Tape Worm upwards of 70 Feet Long.

A child of John Ferguson, of Lewiston, aged about 5 years, was relieved of

A Tape Worm, Alive, 69 Feet in Length.

PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 16th, 1885.
MESSRS. J. F. TRUE & CO. Dear Sirs:—Please send us 5 gross True's Pin Worm Elixir. It continues to be the most popular and best selling Pin Worm remedy that we have in our stock.

Dr. J. Haley of Brunswick, says of True's Worm Elixir—It is a safe and effectual remedy. For Pin Worms it has no equal, and is an excellent remedy for Canker in the Mouth and Throat.

TURNER, ME., January 25, 1870.
DR. J. F. TRUE, Dear Sir:—Having used your Elixir in my family for many years, I deem it proper, without solicitation, to say a few words in its favor. After having satisfied myself of its superior merits particular for any irregularity or want of action in the stomach or bowels, I recommended it to my neighbors who now very generally use it, and I consider it one of the very best medicines now in use, especially for children.

∴ DRUGGISTS. ∴

The company was organized under the laws of the State of Maine, in October, 1887. The Stock of the company is authorized at $50,000 and is wholly held by leading business men of Auburn. The business of the company is a general Apothecary and Drug trade, with special attention to the introduction of well tried and valuable remedies manufactured by them under the supervision of H. C. Packard and W. B. Kilbourne.

PRACTICAL PHARMACISTS

of much experience. The ambition of Mr. Packard when a boy at school, in the Maine Wesleyan Seminary at Kent's Hill, and studying chemistry with Dr. H. P. Torsey, was at some time to be in charge of a perfectly equipped Pharmacy.

In the place where he now is he finds his hopes of 25 years ago fully realized. "The mills of the God's" have turned out a grist not of dollars, but of what to him is far more satisfactory, popular Remedies of his own invention and entirely unlike all others, elegant in their appearance, effectual in their action, and endorsed by high medical authority. The work of the company will be to push these medicines into new fields, where they will doubtless soon reach the popular position they now occupy at home. The cut at the head of this article gives but a poor idea of the beauty of their store and laboratory, which are models of convenience and neatness, and where constant care and skill are united in all their labors.

CARBOLATED \bowtie \bowtie PETRO-SEVUM

Is a name which is manufactured for the purpose of pointing out the properties of a most Valuable Ointment. Carbolic Acid enjoys a high reputation as a cleansing and healing agent when properly used, and as this is the chief constituent of this ointment we give it the first place. Next, Petro, a contraction of the word Petroleum is to indicate the fact that the ointment in some degree holds this product of nature, valued as a medicine from the time of Egypt's palmy days till now. "It has been credited with singular virtues as an embrocation, in paralysis, contraction and stiffness of the joints, in chronic rheumatism, tumors, chilblains, etc," for all eruptions it is very useful often working great cures. "Sevum," is to bring out the fact that lambs fat is another ingredient of its composition, it also contains a substance not indicated by the name. The whole combines virtues unequaled by most salves.

No Secret.

PHYSICIANS justly condemn secret remedies. PIX LIQUIDA COMPOUND is not of this class. We furnish physicians with an exact statement of the composition of this ELEGANT COUGH CURE, and they use it and give it their unqualified endorsement.

An eminent Kennebec Doctor writes us: "Have used your preparations, sent some to California to a patient there. Am glad to see pine tar put into an available preparation."

Dr. A. R. Knapp of Ridgeville, Ind., ordered some of this syrup, also Dr. J. L. Eaton of Centerville, Mo. Four leading physicians of Androscoggin County have written us giving the medicine a splendid recommendation.

"They are elegant. I shall be pleased to use them in my practice," says one. "I have used your syrups and like them," says another. "I tell you its a great thing," says a third. And now we ask the public not to trifle with their ill. Chemical combinations are often startling in their effects, and in the hands of the ignorant bring dire disaster. Secret remedies may be dangerous. See to it that the medicines you take come from the hands of those who know what they are doing when they make them. Beware of Great Discoveries and mysterious things generally.

Ask who we are, where we are, and what we are, and take PIX LIQUIDA COMPOUND for your cough.

COUGH CURE.

The most popular Cough Remedies of the day are those which contain the drugs mentioned above, and this is so in spite of the unpleasant taste and appearance which the tar gives to them. Knowing this, we have endeavored to produce something in the form of a Syrup that should hold in solution the active ingredients of these valuable curatives, and at the same time present an attractive appearance and agreeable taste. How perfectly we have succeeded, the medicine itself will attest. We defy the efforts of every manufacturer in the wide world to produce results superior to what we show you in this elegant compound of TAR, BLOODROOT AND WILD CHERRY, and

We Challenge every Cough Cure in the Market

To effect greater cures than this has done, Especially in Chronic Bronchitis and Irritated Throats, caused by poisonous secretions from Catarrhal troubles. We realize the fact that no one remedy will meet the demands of all cases. Coughs arise from many causes, and require a proper diagnosis and the application of appropriate remedies that the best results may follow treatment, but there are very many people who suffer from Coughs that are not to be mistaken as to their origin, and may be safely treated by the sufferers themselves when they resort only to safe remedies, the composition of which are known, and known to be harmless as well as potent. There is no secret about this remedy, except the process of making. It contains just what we tell you, and nothing more. It is perfectly healthy to use, or in other words, it produces no results that are not good. All Cough remedies containing opiate derange the stomach. This Cough Syrup contains nothing but drugs which have a tendency to aid digestion.

Use it and be cured. Take it and you will be thankful for the pleasant results. Sold by all druggists, and by the proprietors,

SARSAPARILLA

Best Tonic, Best Blood Purifier, Best Alternative, Best Kidney and Liver Cure.

This Extract does not depend solely upon the Sarsaparilla which it contains, but its curative properties are augmented by the addition of one of the most valuable drugs which nature has yet disclosed for and its alternative effects are doubly enhanced by Iodide of potassium. These three drugs alone would make a compound more valuable than most of the "Great Blood Purifiers" now on the market, but our TWENTY years' experience in dispensing physicians' prescriptions has given us knowledge of their best combinations, and without depending on any one "Great Physician" for a formula, we are able rather to combine in this valuable remedy the richest experience of a hundred, and yet keep our remedy as simple and harmless as the medicine of your grandmother. We have kept in view three objects in writing our formula, i.e., to Purify the Blood, to aid the Liver and Stomach in the proper discharge of their functions, and to stimulate the Kidneys to a healthy action. The use of a single bottle will decide for you the fate of our combination in your case.

REV THOMAS TYRIE.

COMRADE THOMAS TYRIE was born in Perth, Scotland, May 6, 1848. He came while a child, with his parents, to this country. Educated in the schools of Boston and vicinity, at the age of fourteen he moved to Derry, New Hampshire. Early in 1864, at the age of sixteen, he enlisted in the 1st New Hampshire Cavalry at Concord, New Hampshire, and was assigned to Co. H, Lieutenant Chas. Patrick commanding. The regiment was occupied in picketing along the Potomac from Washington to Harper's Ferry, and in the famous raid against Gen. Early in the Shenandoah Valley. Comrade Tyrie was twice promoted, and was discharged as sergeant of his company.

At the close of the war, entering the Amoskeag Machine Shop, he served an apprenticeship of nearly three years, building steam fire engines. His health failing on account of close confinement he was for a time in the employ of the Manchester Mirror. From thence he went to Tilton, N. H. to prepare for the ministry, and in 1873 was ordained. In 1879 he joined the Maine Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was stationed at Gorham, Maine. Two years later became pastor of Hampshire street, (now High street) Methodist Church in Auburn. It was at this place where he joined the G. A. R., being a charter member and first commander of Burnside Post, No. 47, and to his efforts the success of this Post is largely due. He is now pastor of the M. E. church at Plymouth, N.H.

CAPT. DELANCE YOUNG.

CAPT. YOUNG was born November 14, 1840, at Byron, Oxford County, Maine. In early life he was engaged in farming, attending winter schools after the summer's work. At the age of twenty years he enlisted in Co. C, 8th Regiment, Me. Vol. for three years as a private. The regiment was on duty in South Carolina and Florida for about two years, and was then ordered to join Butler's Command at Bermuda Hundred. Soon after this, Captain Young was taken prisoner with about two thousand others, at the battle of Drury's Bluff or Fort Darling, and conveyed to Libby Prison. After a short time he was transferred to Andersonville Prison in Georgia, where he remained from June, '64, till the following October. He was then transferred to the prison at Savannah, where he remained a short time, when he was transferred to a stockade at Milan, Georgia. Here he remained until Sherman's approach compelled the rebels to make another transfer, and he was carried to Andersonville again on Christmas Day.

In April, 1864, he was taken to Thomasville, and there gave his "parole of honor" which is now in his possession, and was released and started for the Union lines which were encamped at Jacksonville. Here fourteen other prisoners were placed under his charge with orders for all to report to Augusta, Maine. The following August he received an honorable discharge at Augusta, Maine, having served his country nearly four years. In the year following, Mr. Young assisted in the organization of the Auburn Light Infantry—an organization of which he was later commissioned as Captain, being the immediate successor in that office of the late Captain A. C. Pray.

Captain Young was one of the original charter member of Burnside Post, G. A. R., and was the second commander of that Post. In May, 1885, Captain Young was commissioned by President Cleveland as Post-Master at Auburn, and is still efficiently serving the public in that office.

CAPT. J. E. ASHE.

COMRADE ASHE was born in Buckfield, Oxford County, Maine, January 5, 1833. When quite young he moved with his parents to the town of Turner, where he has lived the greater part of his life. Was twice elected to serve on board of selectmen of his town. He served in the 23rd Maine Regiment, Co. D, enlisting September 10, 1862. Was promoted to sergeant, and mustered out with his regiment July 15, 1863. He re-enlisted March 13, 1865, and was commissioned 1st Lieutenant in Co. C., 1st Battalion Maine Infantry. Was on duty in Washington at the time of the Great Review, June, '65. Was stationed at different places, as follows: Savannah, Georgetown, Florence, Cheraw, Chesterfield, Charleston, Walhalla, Anderson, and Lurens, and was also provost-marshal. Was in command of the provost guard at Anderson, S. C., with one half of his own company mounted, and a detachment of the 6th Regular Cavalry under his command. Was appointed quartermaster, and also member of Military Court.

Was detailed for special duty by order of Gen. Sickles, and subject to orders from Military Court at Charleston. Was mustered out with his command April 5, 1866.

Since his return from the army he has been interested in the shoe business. Was one of the projectors of the corporation known as the North Auburn Boot & Shoe Co. For nine years past has been in the employ of J. F. Cobb & Co.

COL. C. S. EMERSON.

The subject of this sketch was born in the town of Litchfield, Kennebec County, January 19, 1831. He lived and worked on his father's farm until he was eighteen years of age. In 1850 he came to Auburn and entered the employ of Albert Folsom as a carriage ironer. In 1853 he bought out and carried on the business until 1861. During this time he was elected lieutenant of the Auburn Artillery Company.

April 23, 1861, the law passed the legislature providing for the enlistment of troops under the call of President Lincoln for 75,000 men. On the evening of the same day a large "war meeting" was held at Auburn Hall, and Col. Emerson was the first man to enter his name on the rolls. It is worthy of special mention that Col. Emerson was the first man enlisted in the State of Maine as a volunteer soldier in the civil war. With the exception of the above mentioned no enlistment roll bears an earlier date than April 24, 1861.

Col. Emerson was elected captain of the Auburn Company and was promoted to Major, Lieutenant-Colonel, and Colonel, for gallant service. He was in the battles of Cedar Mountain, South Mountain, Antietam, Sabine Cross Roads, Hilton Head, Winchester, Fisher's Hill, and battles in front of Washington. It will be seen that Col. Emerson was in the armies of the Potomac, the Gulf, the James, and the Shenandoah. He was in Washington with his regiment at the time of the Grand Review. He was mustered out June 21, 1866, and thus honorably closed a term of service extending over a period of more than five years. Since returning home he has been engaged in business in Auburn.

EDWIN T. STEVENS.

EDWIN T. STEVENS enlisted as a private in Capt. Thomas J. Little's Company D, 1st Battery, Heavy Artillery, Mass. Vol., May 25, 1863, to serve three years. He was discharged August 14, 1865, by Special Order No. 410 A. G. O. War Department, Washington D. C., July 31, 1865. He served as high private in the ranks at Fort Warren; as clerk in the Quartermaster's office at Concord, N.H., under Brig. Gen. Hicks; as prisoner's clerk at Fort Warren, and as Sergt. Major of the Post at Fort Independence for about nine months; was made Sergeant under date of June 9, 1864.

At the organization of Burnside Post, No. 47, Department of Maine, G. A. R., in 1881, was elected Quartermaster, and served in that capacity for four or five years. He is now Commander of the Post and a member of the Department of Maine G. A. R. Business, Grocer, at 203 Turner Street. Residence 215 Turner Street, Auburn.

THE subject of the present sketch enlisted in September, 1861, as a member of the 10th Maine Regiment Band, and went to Baltimore with the regiment, leaving Portland October 6th. After playing with the band three months was promoted to the position of baritone soloist. Thrilling episodes are not wanting in his army life, following the fortunes of his regiment through some of the most trying events of the war. Among these were Bank's retreat in the Shenandoah Valley, and Pope's retreat across the Rapidan, and the Red River Expedition. He was mustered out September 8, 1862, when all musicians were discharged by act of Congress, and enlisted again as a private in the 29th Veteran Regiment, February 6, 1864. He was at Alexandria, La., at the time of the building of the famous dam across the Red River. Was afterward in the Shenandoah under Sheridan.

In 1865 the regiment again went South, and while most of the band were at home on furloughs, Mr. Crafts took charge of a plantation of 300 acres near Darlington Court House, North Carolina. Was mustered out March 23d, 1866. Mr. Crafts has been identified with the interests of vocal music in Auburn and Lewiston for many years. Mr. Crafts is now engaged in a large grocery business on Court Street, Auburn.

L, First Maine Cavalry, September 21, 1861; re-enlisted as a veteran volunteer December 28, 1863; discharged on account of the close of the war June 12, 1865.

He was detailed orderly on the staff of Gen. Reynolds and with him took part in the battles of Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Antietam and Gettysburg, being with his general at the time of his death. Served with his successors, Gen. Doubleday and Gen. Newton, during the remainder of the battle of Gettysburg. He returned to his regiment and served under Gen. Sheridan in his raids around Richmond. On the last one of these raids he was wounded, his horse killed under him and he taken prisoner, in a cavalry charge in an engagement near Ground Squirrel Church, Va., May 12, 1864. From then, until December of the same year, he was confined in rebel prisons; Libby prison at Richmond Va., Milan and Andersonville, Ga. Taught

COL. WM. T. EUSTIS.

WM. T. EUSTIS left a partnership in one of Boston's largest hardware concerns to enlist as a private in Co. B, 5th Regiment, Mass. Volunteers, April 19, 1861; enlisted at Somerville at 4 o'clock P.M., and the regiment assembled in Faneuil Hall at 7.30 P.M., leaving for the front at daylight, the 20th. It was the first regiment at Annapolis. Marched to Riley House, and after standing guard one day, marched to Washington and was quartered in the Treasury building. He was assistant Provost-Marshal of Alexandria, and, notwithstanding the earnest petitions of its citizens, rejoined his regiment and with them was engaged in the hottest part of the first battle of Bull Run in Franklin's Brigade. After the three months term had expired a number of the regiment re-enlisted and it was recruited to the maximum. He then went out as Adj. General, and was such about eight months, when Col. G. A. Pierson, commanding, was promoted to Brigadier-General and Adjutant Eustis was made Major. He was several times honorably mentioned, and was twice offered the position of Lieutenant-Colonel on the staff of Major-General J. S. Foster, but declined, preferring to remain with his old commander. He was engaged in all the battles of North Carolina, and on their return home was elected Colonel, but resigned, as the war was practically over, and he returned to his old position in business life. He is a resident of Dixfield, Oxford County, Me. He has twice been the candidate of the Prohibition party for Governor, and at the last election was the choice of the Prohibition and a portion of the Labor parties for Congress in the 2d district, receiving about 4,000 votes. He is now about fifty years of age, and has the misfortune of being an old bachelor. Upon going out as Adjutant, the jobbing hardware trade of Boston presented him with horse and equipments, costing over one thousand dollars.

GENERAL DUTIES OF LETTER CARRIERS.

DELIVERY OF MATTER.

Sec. 648. The mails must be assorted and the Carriers started as early as practicable. Mail matter directed to box numbers must be delivered through the boxes. Mail matter addressed to street and number must be delivered by Carriers, unless otherwise directed. Mail matter addressed neither to a box-holder or to street and number must be delivered by Carriers if its address is known, or can be ascertained from the City Directory, otherwise at the general delivery.

Sec. 642. Article 3. Carriers are not allowed to throw mail matter into windows or halls, unless specially instructed to do so, but they must ring the bell and wait a reasonable time for an answer, and deliver to some one of the household in the habit of receiving it. By a little attention paid by the public to this last article a great deal of time might be saved the Carrier, and help him to go over his route diligently. When the Carrier rings the bell don't stop to look out of the window to see who it is, but come and see for yourself; don't send your little one, for in nine cases out of ten they cannot open or unlock the door and have to run back and call some older one to their assistance. All this time the Carrier is at your door, in the rain or snow, cold or heat, waiting patiently for you to get your mail so he can hurry to the next house, and he is glad to know that it is provided with a letter-box and there will be no delay. This is one of the most simple and best things in use, and is a great convenience to the Carrier as well as the public. It saves time to all concerned. When a box is at the door your mail is deposited by the Carrier. If there is anything of importance, like letters or subscribed papers, he will ring the bell, if nothing but circulars, medical advertisements or other such mail he will leave it in the box and go along, and you are left undisturbed at your business. Where two families reside in one house, and are both provided with boxes, your name should be on your box so that the Carrier will not deposit your mail in the wrong box. By paying attention to these few points you will avoid trouble for yourself as well as the Carrier. Bear in mind that the Carrier's time is limited. He must go his rounds, deliver his mail, and return to the office with his collection at just such a time. If you delay him in any way it is just so much time lost. Answer to his call in the same way that you expect to be answered when you call at the office. When you present yourself at the window you are in a hurry and want to be waited on immediately. You do not wish to be detained unnecessarily, then do the same by your Carrier. If you are not provided with a letter box it is easy to procure one, the cost is trifling compared with its utility. A. A. Tubbs of Auburn, No. 24 Miller street, has on hand a large line of samples of these goods costing from fifty cents to five dollars, and all orders by postal card or otherwise will receive prompt attention.

MAJ. B. J. HILL.

MAJOR HILL was born in the town of Stetson, Penobscot County, February 13, 1840, where he lived until he was twenty years of age. He received his education in the public schools and the old Stetson Academy. In 1861 he enlisted in Co. C, 9th Regiment Maine Volunteers and joined the army of the Potomac. Entering the army as a private he was soon made Corporal and then in time was promoted to 2d Sergeant, Orderly Sergeant, Sergeant Major, 2d Lieutenant, 1st Lieutenant in 9th Regiment, and detailed Captain on Gen. Granger's staff, and Captain and Aide-de-Camp on the staff of Major Gen. J. L. Chamberlain, and Major and Quartermaster on the staff of the same officer.

During his term of service he took part in the battles of Cold Harbor, Wilderness, Explosion of mine front of Petersburg, Drury's Bluff, and Ft. Darling, Chaffin's Farm, Va., Ft. Wagner, and all the engagements of Sherman's March to the sea and through the Carolinas. He was mustered out in the fall of 1865, having served continuously for a term of nearly five years. He received wounds at the battles of Deep Bottom and Chaffin's Farm.

Since leaving the army he has been engaged in the Wholesale Dry and Fancy Goods Business, being a member of the firm of Hill Bros. of Auburn. He was a member of the House of Representative for '83 and '85, and of the Senate for '87, of which body he is now a member.

He was Commander of Knox Post of Lewiston, Maine, during the first years of its existence. At present he is a member of Burnside Post, No. 47, and is ready on all occasions to do his full share for the boys that wore the blue. He is also Major of the 1st Regiment of the Maine Volunteer Militia.

PERFECT SIGHT. We take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of this vicinity that we have secured the agency for the BERTIER PARABOLA SPECTACLES. So well known are these beautiful Spectacles, that to most people it is unnecessary to say more than that we have them for sale; but as this may fall into the hands of some unacquainted with their merits, we would add that on account of the form of the lenses the wearer can see through all portions of the glass with equal distinctness. They are very hard and therefore retain their beautiful polish with many years use. Their pellucid clearness renders their use pleasant and agreeable to the most sensitive eyes. Beware of peddlers claiming to sell them. The genuine have "BERTIER PARABOLA" on every pair in gilt letters. Fine Gold, Steel, and Nickel Spectacles. COMRADE B. F. BEALS was born in Turner, Maine, June 9, 1841. Before the war he was engaged in farming. He enlisted September 10, 1862, as private in Co. D and 23d Regiment Maine Volunteer Infantry, and was mustered out with the Regiment, July 15, 1863. Re-enlisted October 20, 1863, as private in Co. A, 30th Maine Regiment; was promoted to Sergeant of his company. His regiment was assigned to the 19th Army Corps, under Gen. Banks, and was in the Red River Campaign in 1864. Was wounded in the right arm April 9, 1864, at Pleasant Hill, La. Was sent to St. James Hospital, New Orleans, where his arm was amputated. Was discharged June 16, 1864. In 1866 removed to Auburn, Maine, and was with Chase Brothers', Nurserymen, as traveling salesman for about ten years. Has also been in the fruit and confectionery business in Auburn about six years. He has been one of the most active G. A. R. men in the State. He was the first originator of Burnside Post of Auburn, and secured 105 signatures on petition, 74 of which were mustered as charter members. In 1883 he was appointed Assistant Quartermaster General of the Department of Maine, G. A. R., and has been re-appointed to the same position every year since, which position he now holds. He was elected by the 17th Annual Encampment as delegate to the National Encampment, and during the year 1883 he received an appointment on the staff of the Commander-in-Chief, and the same year recruited and assisted at the muster of eight new Posts of the G. A. R. He has probably the honor of recruiting more men for the G. A. R. than any other comrade, the number being over 450. He was in the years 1884 and 1885 elected as common councilman of Auburn city government.

GEN. WALTER S. PAYNE.

WALTER S. PAYNE was born in Victoria Mills, N. Y., May 19, 1837. In 1857 he went to Wisconsin, where he took up the business of telegraphy. He followed this business in connection with rail-roading until the war broke out. He enlisted April 19, 1861, in Company D, 4th Wisconsin Infantry. He was connected with the 19th Army Corps, under General Banks and Butler, and was promoted to Adjutant, Captain, Assistant Adjutant-General, and Inspector-General of a division. He resigned on account of disability, and returned to the North, August 15, 1865. He established a flourishing business in Fostoria, Ohio, his present residence, manufacturing water works supplies. In August, 1884, he was elected Commander of the Second Grand Division, Sons of Veterans, at Washington, D. C., and on the 19th of September was elected Commander-in-chief without a nomination.

HENRY AUGUSTUS SHOREY.

HENRY AUGUSTUS SHOREY was born in Waterville, Maine, in 1840, but removed to Bath at an early age. On account of the death of his father he was compelled to leave school when a mere boy, and entered a printing office as an apprentice when but fourteen years of age. He "served his time," and only dropped the "shooting stick" to grasp the "shooting iron" at Abraham Lincoln's first call for troops. He enlisted as a private in the "Bath City Grays" for the 3rd Maine, but was rejected by the examining surgeon as not sufficiently robust for military service. He, however, recruited a detachment under a subsequent call, and was commissioned 2nd Lieutenant in the 15th Maine Volunteers, being mustered in December, 1861. With his regiment, he served in the Butler Expedition against New Orleans; in Bank's Expedition to the northern coast of Texas; in the Red River Expedition in western Louisiana; in the Shenandoah under Sheridan; and at the close of the war served in South Carolina and Georgia for a year or more, being mustered out in July of 1866. He was promoted to the grade of 1st Lieutenant and Captain, and brevetted Major for "gallant and meritorious services during the war."

Upon his return to Maine he became publisher of the Bath Daily Times and American Sentinel, the Maine Temperance Advocate, and later established the Bridgton News, of which he has been editor and publisher for eighteen years. He has been prominent in the fraternal and temperance organizations, having served as chief officer and secretary of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars of Maine, and for a dozen years was President of the Odd Fellows Mutual Relief Association of Maine.

Major Shorey is one of the pioneers in Grand Army matters in Maine. A charter member and Adjutant of the first Post organized in New England (at Bath). He was commissioned an Aid on the staff of the Commander-in-chief, and upon the organization of the Maine Department was chosen Assistant-Quartermaster-General, in which capacity he served several terms. He is at present Commander of Farragut Post, No. 27, at Bridgton.

CAPT. C. W. KEYES.

CAPTAIN CHARLES W. KEYES, of Farmington, in this State, was born in Wilton, Maine, Feb. 1st, 1833, and was educated in the common schools and at the seminary at Kent's Hill. He enlisted August 10th, 1862, and was mustered into the 28th Me. Reg't, as a private, at Augusta, being attached to Co. B, and served with his organization until it was mustered out of service, by reason of expiration of time of enlistment, August 31st, 1863. Capt. Keyes took part in the siege of Port Hudson and the battle of Donaldsonville, being severely wounded in his left arm at the latter engagement. He also was promoted to 2d Sergt. and Hospital Steward. Nov. 10th, he enlisted again for a term of three years and was mustered into the service from that date and assigned to Co. F, 2d Maine Cavalry, as a private, in which capacity he served until Feb. 27th, 1864, being the date of his discharge by reason of promotion. On April 2d, 1864, he was commissioned 1st Lieut. of Co. E, 32d Maine Reg't, and immediately left for the front with the new regiment joining Burnside's corps. He joined the forces of Gen. Grant at the opening of the great battles of the Wilderness. Capt. Keyes was with his company every hour of the awful fighting of the seven following days, losing his left leg the last day at Spottsylvania Court House, Va. By reason of this disability he was discharged the 27th of the next September. He was twice brevetted for "gallant and meritorious conduct. To 1st Lieut. for his services at the battle of Fort Butler, La., June 28th., '63, and for his valor at the battle of Spottsylvania C. H., 12th of May, '64.

Capt. Keyes was appointed a 2d Lieut. in the U. S. Army, Nov. 30th, 1866, and passing his rigid mental examination and receiving his confirmation and commission he was ordered to report to the commander of the 44th Regulars, which were in camp at Washington, D. C. He was promoted to 1st Lieut. and Capt., receiving both commissions the same day. In Dec., 1869, was sent to Kentucky as Military Supt. of the Freedmen's schools. On Dec. 31st, 1870, at his own request, Captain Keyes was placed on the retired list of the U. S. Army. He now belongs to John F. Appleton Post, No. 25, of which he has twice been Adjutant, and was a delegate to the last State Encampment. From Feb., 1875, to June, 1886, Capt. Keyes was editor and proprietor of the Farmington Chronicle and one of its publishers.

AUBURN STORE.

F. BARTLETT & SON.

Having enlarged and improved our Store, we are better able to attend to the wants of our customers than we ever have been.

DRESS GOODS.  DRESS GOODS.

We call Special Attention to our Stock of Dress Goods at the very lowest prices. We are opening daily, new goods in all the new shades. We have a full line of Silk Warp Henriettas in all Shades. Our Silk Warp Henriettas we are selling for $1.00 are a great bargain.

SILK AND SATIN RHADMAS.

We keep the best makes of Silk in the market. Our Suinet and Regetta we warrant every yard. If you intend to buy a Silk Dress, be sure and examine our Stock. We have just received a new line of Satin Rhadmas which we think are very cheap.

In addition to the above, the following goods can be found in our Stock and at lowest prices: Prints, Gingham, Satteens, Chambrays, Century Cloth, Shirtings, Duck, Cottonades, Woolens, Cotton Cloth, Crashes, Table Damask, Bed Spreads, etc., etc.

We shall offer MANY BARGAINS EVERY WEEK, but space does not admit of mentioning them. We will be pleased to show them to all that may grant us a visit.

F. BARTLETT & SON,

NO. 1 GOFF BLOCK,

AUBURN, MAINE.

Representative men as a rule fail to receive the comendations of their fellow men, while in active life. Pioneers make work! Leading business men search for work! Stop and think! Contemplate the work in the "Seven Wonders of the World!" Another wonder of the 19th century, greatest of all, the annihilation of space. Consider this: The greatest power given man is to make laws. Think within living memory that it took years to hear from the Old World. More, it took months to hear from the near-by cities in our own land. It took weeks to hear from our nearest neighbors. Praise to our Pioneers! They worked, they planned, they pushed ahead, they found laws made in the earliest Eon's!

In force, those laws have banished space! Now circling the World in eighty days, Old World greets the New World before the sun kisses with its golden radiance its mountains. Voice meets voice, tho' hundreds of miles apart. Space has been shortened. Leading business men have taken advantage of this wonder. A any one who wishes for comforts and conveniences can be answered at once by

THE ATKINSON HOUSE FURNISHING COMPANY.

The above President of our Company has pioneered, planned, and proven that no barrier shall be between us and our customers.

We can be reached from any place, from the city or the hamlet. Take to yourself the blame, in refusing to put this to the proof that we do as we advertise.

THE ATKINSON HOUSE FURNISHING CO., AUBURN.
