The interest-bearing debt has been increased from last year $1000, viz.:

Interest-bearing debt, Feb. 21, 1890	$5,085 00
Interest-bearing debt, Feb. 21, 1891	6,085 00
	$1,000 00

Upon an examination of the foregoing exhibit, it will be perceived that the interest-bearing debt of the town has increased from last year $1000. By examining the appropriations made at the annual town meeting, March 10, 1890, it will be seen that the town made no appropriation for the reduction of the town debt. $2000 was raised for incidental expenses, which, being insufficient, rendered it necessary for the treasurer—by virtue of the authority vested in him by a vote of the town—to borrow money on the credit of the town to meet pressing demands upon the treasury for money, thereby causing an increase of the town debt, as appears by the foregoing exhibit.

A. H. BOWDEN,

B. F. ROGERS,

Overseers of Poor, 1890-91.

The annual visit of the town officers to the almshouse, was made on Thursday, Feb. 19th. We were highly gratified with the neat condition of the house throughout, and the tidy and comfortable appearance of the inmates, evincing a desire on the part of the matron of discharging her arduous duties in a manner conducive to the comfort of the unfortunates under her care. The appearance of the premises is evidence of the care of the superintendent, and the interest he has in the discharge of his duties, and the town is fortunate in securing the services of one so efficient. Although the past season was unfavorable for the raising of farm crops, we found on hand 9 tons of hay, 49 traces of corn, 30 bushels of floor corn, 10 bushels of beans, 16 bushels of barley, 17 bushels of large and 60 bushels of small potatoes, 50 bushels of turnips, 1-2 barrel of beef, and 1 barrel of pork. The loss of two valuable swine reduced the amount of pork usually found on hand, on taking the annual inventory. There is also a sufficient quantity of supplies for the year ending March 31, 1891. The stock on the farm remains the same as last year, with the exception of one swine less. It is seldom that so large a quantity and so good a quality of wood is found here, there being 30 cords in the yard ready for use, and 10 cords, cut and housed. It is pleasing to note that the town has recently taken some action, having in view the erection of more suitable town farm buildings to take the place of the present old and dilapidated buildings, which will be more commodious and furnished with better arrangements for the occupancy and comfort of those who are so unfortunate as to seek support and a home in an institution of this kind. We have carefully examined the books of the selectmen, overseers and treasurer, and find the accounts correctly cast, with corresponding vouchers therefor.

This report is herewith respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE SUPERVISOR OF SCHOOLS,

FOR THE

Year ending February 21, 1891.

To the Citizens of York:

The Supervisor of Schools makes his annual report with mingled satisfaction and regret. Most all of our schools have maintained their usual standing, have made good advancement, and have been very satisfactory. Some have not come up to so high a degree of excellence as might be desired. There has been a lack on the part of some of our teachers; inexperience will account for this in part. A river does not rise higher than its source—it generally flows lower—likewise students do not rise above their teachers.

The new text-books which were introduced into our schools at the beginning of the fall term have proved of great benefit, and are appreciated by the pupils. Under this system no scholar is without the book he needs to study; and in many cases there are more studies pursued. Every teacher is supplied with a desk copy of each book used in the school.

The expense accruing from this supply of free text-books for our schools will be more than many of our citizens imagine. Your Supervisor has spared no pains in making this selection of books, the cost of which will be submitted at our next annual town meeting, when an appropriation for the same will be called for. Your Supervisor was appointed one of the committee to investigate regarding the location of a new school building at York Beach. The committee have visited that section of the town, and are unanimously agreed upon the location selected. All of them are of the opinion that the needs of this locality require a school building, the particulars of which will be given at our next town meeting, when it is hoped all will agree to give this part of our town such a school building as their case demands. The new school at the Beach has been kept in a private house. The three terms have been well attended. The school has prospered and ranks well with any in our town. Appended will be found Abstract from Register and Roll of Honor.

SPRING TERM, (CENTRE).—Charles S. Flanders, A. B., teacher. Whole number attending, 20 ; average attendance, 18.

FALL TERM, (SCOTLAND).—George T. Crediford, teacher. Whole number attending, 21 ; average attendance, 20.

WINTER TERM, (CAPE NEDDICK).—Robert S. Baker, teacher. Whole number attending, 29 ; average attendance, 26.

The schools have been located as last year, with different teachers, and, for the most part, different scholars in each school, thus giving the benefit of one term only to each pupil. The spring term was taught by a competent teacher. The school was small in numbers, but made great advancement. Was well pleased with the school.

The fall term was a great success. The teacher took an interest in his work, and the scholars on their part showed an appreciation of his services. It has never been my pleasure to visit a more satisfactory school than this. There are some fine scholars in this school, who have made a big showing during the past two years.

The winter term was composed of a number of scholars who had not been to school for a year. It was hoped they might receive great benefit from this term. The teacher failed to create an interest and appeared to lack energy in his work. It seemed that very little had been accomplished during the term. There are some quite good scholars in this school, who will do well even under ordinary circumstances. The school did not meet my expectation.

We have closed our second year of Free High School. It seems that no better results have been attained than last year. It has been my purpose to do all in my power to bring this school to a high standard, and I regret very much that it has not been a success in every sense. I am more convinced than ever that the only way to meet the requirements of this school (or any other high school) is by locating permanently at one place. We have pupils in different parts of our town with qualifications sufficient to constitute a good school. These scholars need the advantage of a school of this kind, where they can take a regular course of study and continue the same each term till they can graduate. It is hoped our citizens will see the importance of a change in the system of this school, unite their forces and locate at the Corner. By so doing the success of this school is assured.

Respectfully,

E. A. CHAPMAN,

Supervisor of Schools.
