MAINE ELECTRICALS SERVING IN FRANCE

Prof. Barrows recently received a letter from Elect. Sgt. W. H. Bransfield '18, who is in France. He went over in the Italian transport Re D'Italia landing at Brest, France. After spending ten days in Brest he traveled two days and three nights to Trelaye. Here with a squad of other men they repaired telephone lines over a twenty-five mile area. After this Sgt. Bransfield was transferred to the headquarters company of the 52nd Reg't. At present he is with the 54th R. A. R. stationed at Chateau Beaumanor about three miles from Angers. Sgt. Bransfield does not expect to start for home for about two months. He says the electrical systems used in France are very inferior to those in this country. The electric railroads are run on 110 volts. Carlton '18 and Carlson '18 are both stationed near Sgt. Bransfield.

PROF. CRAIG TALKS ON POET BURNS

On Friday morning Professor Craig spoke on Robert Burns. He said in part:

"Robert Burns was born of poor parents, and brought up among common people. Some think that his genius came merely by accident—that his poetic power cannot be explained. I wish to say that this is not correct—that his genius was partly due to his birth. His father came from a people who were noted for intelligence and poetic expression. His mother was artistic, and this combination seemed to make him the genius that he was. Tho we know that his training had much to do with influencing his life, from his childhood on his mind was stored with bits of poetry and wisdom which formed a considerable basis for his own works. He lived in the atmosphere of poetry, so his works were born from a long experience."

Professor Craig said that the best way to portray a poet was to read his poetry and he showed us some of the merits of Burn's poetry by reading from two of his poems. The one most familiar to us was "Cotter's Saturday Night" which shows Burns as a democrat and is written in dialect—practically Old English—that delightful "Burns style."

MASSACHUSETTS CLUB HOLDS MEETING

A regular meeting of the Massachusetts Club was held in the library on Thursday evening Feb. 6, and had opened with a large attendance. Plans were discussed for the dance to be given in the gymnasium on March 1, 1919. The following members were elected for the social committee: Miss Jackson, Miss Ritter, P. V. Armstrong, P. I. Flavell, and R. H. Foyle. It was also voted to have the club picture taken in Bangor on Sunday Feb. 9. Dues were fixed at $1.00 per year. The speaker of the evening was "Dave" Beach who gave a very interesting talk on "The French and the French People." The next meeting of the club will be held on Thursday evening March 1, 1919.

MAINE 2NDS WIN FROM BANGOR HIGH

The collegians proved to be too fast for Bangor High at the City Hall on Friday evening. Playing under professional rules, the game developed into a rough house at times. Once, several spectators took a hand in punching some of the Maine players.

Woodman of the seconds and Oaks of Bangor scored the greatest number of points. Each caging four baskets and Woodman a foul. De Rocher and Reardon also played well for the winners. Goldstein, Toole and Short excelled for the Bangor team.

A large number of Maine supporters were present at the game and enjoyed the dance afterward. Palmer's Jazz band furnished the music.

"GOBS" DODGE MILITARY COURSE

It was announced by the university this last week that naval men would not be compelled to take military. Orders were received from Washington that naval reserve men could under no condition join the Reserve Officers Training Corps. Since there are so few "gobs" signed up for the military course it did not seem expedient for the university to start a naval unit.

In the face of these facts it was decided that naval men on inactive duty would have to let their military slide until they were discharged from the navy, or if not discharged before graduation not to let this military stand in the way of a diploma.

This seems a very satisfactory arrangement and it surely wins the assent of the "boys in the navy blue."

Forty-seven per cent of the 10,256 Harvard men who served in the war were commissioned officers.

The Track Club will conduct a dance in the gym, Feb. 14. Music will be furnished by a good four piece orchestra. Don't forget the date—Feb. 14.

THE EAST INDIES BRING NEW PROBLEMS

One of the empires of the future about which we hear little today lies in the East Indies. For long those islands with the exception of Java have been thinly inhabited.

But recently there has been an invasion from the continent, so that before the war a quarter of a million Chinese and over one hundred thousand Hindus were pouring into the islands every year. These immigrants not only do the manual labor, but the Chinese handle the greater part of the business.

At present sugar, rubber, cotton, spices, copra, and rice are produced on the huge plantations in large quantities. Mines, especially of tin, are worked in a twentieth-century manner. Modern cities are springing up. Many factories are being built. The interest taken in education was shown recently when $500,000 was raised by the Chinese merchants of Singapore in one day for a university.

The islands have a total land surface equal to that of the United States. When they are all as thickly settled as Java is now, they will hold a population of 200,000,000.

This island empire is now mostly under Dutch control. Its future is undoubtedly to be under Asiatic influence, probably Chinese, as it is receiving the virile, best blood of Asia.

On the future ideals of this great mixed civilization springing up in the antipodes will rest some of the problems of the United States.

Will this restless people remember us as their friends or as indifferent spectators?

CAMPUS DEMOCRACY DISCUSSED AT Y. W. C. A.

On Thursday evening, January thirtieth, Miss Dorothea Beach spoke to the Young Women's Christian Association on "Campus Democracy."

By way of introduction, Miss Beach brought out the historical development of democracy. First of all she said that Christ stood for the spirit of love toward God and toward one another. She touched upon the American Revolution, the Civil War and the present war.

In speaking of life on the campus, Miss Beach emphasized all groups—the roommate, the dormitories, the fraternities, the students living off the campus, the faculty and their wives, helpers—janitors, cooks, etc.; sororities, clubs and Y. W. C. A.

In concluding, Miss Beach said, "How are these groups to be welded together to form one University of Maine?"

"For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members have not the same office, so we, who are many are one body in Christ, and severally members one of another."

"This may be accomplished by (1) the attitude toward one another, (2) by spirit and loyalty toward the institution and all its component parts, (3) by standing for high ideals—intellectual, physical, moral and spiritual, (4) by service—the spirit of Christ."

EDITORIAL

A short time ago there was brought out and discussed in this column the great need for a memorial to the sons of Maine who have given their lives in the service during the participation of the United States in the world war.

Here is a wide range of choice. Memorial tablets have served well in many cases. Such a tablet however is usually placed so that it is not seen by all and in time becomes entirely forgotten.

A building of some sort which would be of great value to all the university would seem to be the sort of memorial which would fill the demands of permanence, visibility, fitness and service.

In another part of this issue appears a cut of Captain Shepard's football team, Champions of 1912. It is the plan of the "Campus" to print each week following this, the picture of a former Maine athletic captain, nearly all of whom have lead winning teams if you know them all. Maine has athletic traditions and records well worth reminding newcomers of, and it is the hope of the "Campus" and of the student body that in future years, Maine may look with pride upon the athletic comeback of 1919.

HISTORY FEATURES

One of the most important figures in History, which we failed to note on the last issue of our number was Captain John Smith who with 199 men and 2 ships started out to colonize Virginia.

Other great hangings that didn't occur were the Hanging of Jeff Davis to a Sour Apple Tree and the Kaiser hanging his hat up in Paris.

During his stay in America Smith was injured by the Indians and finally put in chains.

Other great Americans in chains are Houdini, Woolworth's chain of Ten Cent Stores and Jones' Pork frankfurts.

After a time Smith was released thru the aid of Pokahontas and started on his homeward voyage. The crew decided to make a Jonah out of him so dumped him overboard to the sea lions.

BASKETBALL TEAM BREAKS EVEN

The Varsity basketball team broke even in two out of town games played.

In a game played Friday evening at Foxcroft, Maine lost 4 to 30. The unfamiliarity of the team with a small floor contributed to the loss of the game.

Maine won the game Saturday night at Newport from the Newport A. A. by a good margin, retrieving the defeat of the night before.

RELAY SQUAD WORKING HARD

The relay squad is rapidly getting into shape for the B. A. A. games. About thirty men are on the squad and Coach French is working them hard.

NEXT INTERFRATERNITY MEET FEBRUARY 22

The second Inter-Fraternity Meet will probably be postponed until Feb. 22. Coach French will be at the B. A. A. Games, Saturday, running for the Navy relay team.

HEAR SUPT. CAMPBELL AT AGGIE MEETING

Superintendent Campbell of the Ayerdale Farm, Bangor, will speak before the Agricultural Club on Wednesday evening at 7.30.

LETTERS OF A FRESHMAN

H. H. H. Feb. 10, 1919

Dear Folks at Home:

Just take my pen in hand to let you know there is nothing to say.

We are having exams here Ma, and I guess the way the Prof. are giving them to us.

One of the fellows handed in a theme Ma in History Class. It was called 'History of Great Men and Women.' 'The U. S. has produced some great men. They have become national-wide. First there was William Penn who was first in peace, first in war and first in the hearts of his yellow Indians.

Another great figure was General Sherman who said after he had marched 300 miles from Atlanta to the sea "War is Hell," well ain't it Hell to walk three hundred miles.

Other great men are Uncle Tom, Prof. Whitmore and Benj. Kirk. Another figure of special importance was Pokahontas, an indian squaw captured on Long Island. She it was who put New England on the map especially Old Town, Me.

He wound up his theme by saying that 'all men are born free and equal.' Ma that's wrong. A Freshman ain't.

Well Ma I hope you and Pa are well. I am.

Your Loving Son,

Afeelus

P. S. Tell Wildelia I don't care if she don't write cause I've got a girl in a place called Veazie.

POVERTY BALL PLEASES MANY

The Poverty Ball given by the 'M' Club last Friday night was a marked success. Everyone was fittingly dressed for the occasion.

Corduroy trousers, misfitting clothes and loud ties seemed to predominate in the case of the gentlemen. Middy blouses were by far the most popular among the girls. The belle of the evening was Nathan True '19.

Music was furnished by Rice's Orchestra and refreshments were served by the Sophomore Owls.

THETA CHI FRATERNITY ENGAGES MATRON

Mrs. Kate L. Pinkham of Cape Porpois has been engaged as matron at the Theta Chi House. Mrs. Pinkham's son, Seth H., is a member of the class of 1921, a Sophomore Owl, and prominent in track activities.

THE CEMETERY

There are many clubs in this college that are gradually "going under," so to speak, and find everlasting days in the quiet and peaceful realm of the cemetery.

Was it because their principles were poor? Was it because they served a vain purpose or was it because they lacked support?

The support of an organization is the life blood of it, its backbone, and without support, it cannot exist. Are you going to allow your club to be caught in the cog of the wheel? Is your club going to fill a place in the already overcrowded cemetery?

Wake up! There are possibilities in everything; even if a club is weak. Stir up a spirit. Bring it back to life and help it grow. Join and support a club!

"BUNNY" WHITNEY, EX '20 HAS NEW HONORS

Gov. Milliken has recently commissioned Miss Bernice Whitney of Thomaston to administer oaths, acknowledge deeds and solemnize marriages. Just note that last clause and then think! If "Bunny" comes back to Maine next year as she planned to do when she left college this fall to accept a government position in Washington, what power will there be amongst the ceds of Balentine Hall! The usual spring fever of fraternities may then become really serious with so convincing and business like person as "Bunny" on the campus.
