Don Rasmussen (left), owner of the DHRCO Distributing Company, discusses his new insurance program with New England Life representative Reese Allen.

Agent's advice brings $125,000 sale — opens door to additional service

Reese Allen enjoys working with top-level businessmen like Don Rasmussen. Not long ago, Reese established a $125,000 insurance program for him. Mr. Rasmussen, obviously pleased with the plan, has asked Reese to meet with his attorney and assist in setting up a corporation with a buy and sell agreement and related insurance program.

The businessmen Reese Allen advises realize the importance of the services he performs for them and their companies. Their confidence is reflected in his success. His first year in the business saw him qualify for our Hall of Fame and win our Rookie of the Year award.

Perhaps a career in life insurance appeals to you. If you meet our qualifications you'll receive a generous income while you're learning. We'll be glad to send, without obligation, a booklet explaining the responsibilities and rewards of representing New England Life. Write to us at Dept. A, Boston 17, Mass.

Or, if you have specific questions please write directly to Vice President John Barker, Jr., 501 Boylston Street, Boston 17, Massachusetts.

This month's cover shows Skip Chappelle launching one of many tallies in the Yankee Conference basketball game against Vermont early in the season. Through the efforts of the highly skilled and aggressively determined basketball team, the University has received national recognition. Not only has team performance been excellent, but the remarkable record has been achieved on a completely amateur athletic basis. Among all its opponents, Maine is the only school which offers no monetary inducements to potential or established athletes. Many star high school athletes have turned away from Maine because they were offered free room and board, full tuition and additional advantages by other schools. Another reason for the exodus of some of the state's best athletes is that the University relaxes neither admissions requirements nor academic standards for athletes.

It is for the above reasons that Maine men may take pride in the accomplishments of their teams, above and beyond the good feeling of being on the winning side. Maine athletes are students first. When they are successful in competition, surrounded by the commercial atmosphere of some college athletics, it is an occasion for special pride.

Add to the facts above that tuition for residents of the State at the University of Maine ranks fourth highest in the nation among 91 public institutions reporting to the U. S. Office of Education. Maine's resident tuition of $400 is exceeded only by Penn State, Rutgers and Vermont. The average of the 91 is $228. Thus, an athlete at Maine is one who wishes above all to attend our college for particular reasons relating to the quality of the institution, his neighboring place of residence, his choice of a special course of studies or whatever else makes a significant difference in the choice of a place for his higher education.

Consider the difficulty of convincing a truly desirable student and excellent basketball player that he should attend Maine. He may wish to be a teacher, would be perhaps interested in a career as a coach or physical education specialist. He is needed in our educational system which holds to the ideal of a sound mind in a sound body, but his qualifications must be good. The pattern is only successful when these excellent young people are convinced that Maine is the place for them. Many make the choice from their own analyses of prospective schools. They know here that they can be proud of achievements made under the circumstances which do obtain.

Alumni can assist also in the selection of a university by young men and women who have merit. Maine folks have urged others to come to the University. Recommendations are strong to influence a choice, when the suggestions are accompanied by current knowledge of the offerings of the school. It is necessary to know the prospective student and his family to be able to help make the decision, a right decision. But, recruiting can and should be attempted, if your State University is to play its role in the education of youth, young athletes included. Funds are available without discrimination for student aid, based on demonstrated financial need and scholastic competence.

After all is said, there remains much satisfaction in a winning team that is not hired to play.

St. Croix Paper Gives Site For New Forestry Camp

AFTER SEVERAL driving snowstorms and seemingly endless weeks of sub-zero weather, the first semester is in the past. Occasionally now the north wind dies, the sun shines down on campus and there is a hint of spring in the air. The students bustle from class to class eager to make a fresh start on the new term as if anticipating a letdown in studying when spring finally comes to Maine.

Indoor recreation still occupies the leisure time of the students while they wait for what is left of winter to recede as February and March fade away. A welcome addition to the activities in the Memorial Union is bowling, made available with the completion of the new alleys during the in-between-semester break. (See photo at bottom of page.) Installed as part of the Phase I completion of the Arthur A. Hauck Building Fund, the new Brunswick bowling alleys are completely equipped with automatic pinsetters.

The coming of spring will be followed by commencement exercises and re-unions; but it will also bring closer to an end the last semester of Charles E. Crossland '17, Vice President for Administration, who will retire on June 30th after 44 years of service to the University and the Alumni Association. Those who are familiar with Mr. Crossland's busy career here on campus might suspect that he will not settle for full retirement. And they would be correct, since he will continue the position of Executive Secretary of the Pulp and Paper Foundation, and will remain clerk of the Board of Trustees. Visiting alumni returning for re-unions and homecomings will still find him on hand for the activities as he has always been in the past.

CHARLES E. CROSSLAND '17

Two new jobs will be created in the administration of the University at the time of Mr. Crossland's retirement. One, the new position of Vice President for Academic Affairs, will be filled by Dr. H. Austin Peck; the other, Director of Student Services, will be handled by George H. Crosby in addition to his duties as Registrar.

Dr. Peck, Professor of Business and Economics and Director of the School of Business Administration, will assume many of the duties now under the direction of Mr. Crossland.

In announcing the appointment, President Lloyd H. Elliott said: "Dr. Peck will be the chief academic officer of the University under the president, with major responsibilities for coordinating new programs, providing liaison with academic departments, and aiding in the planning of the academic expansion of the University."

DR. AUSTIN H. PECK

Dr. Peck, a native of Somerville, Mass., graduated from Tufts University in 1942. He received his master's degree from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts in 1947 and his doctor's degree from the same school in 1952.

The additional duties of Mr. Crosby, as explained by President Elliott will be: "... to exercise general supervision over the broad program of student services in the entire University. As the University grows, it becomes increasingly necessary to coordinate the efforts of the personnel deans, student health service, Memorial Union affairs, and financial aids."

GEORGE H. CROSBY

Mr. Crosby, who graduated from Colby in 1936, has had a varied career ranging from biological research in Arctic waters, to YMCA work in the Philippine Islands and the United States. In 1955 he left his position as Registrar of the medical branch of the University of Texas at Galveston to accept a similar post at Maine.

The St. Croix Paper Company of Woodland recently gave to the University, 32 acres of land on Greenland Point on Long Lake near Princeton to be used as the site of a new summer forestry camp. The company has also leased to the University, with an option to buy, an additional 32 acres if the land is needed for future expansion.

Head of the School of Forestry, Albert D. Nutting '27, said that the tract would provide an ideal site for a student forestry camp with sufficient area for any possible expansion, including the establishment of a ranger school.

APOLOGIES TO SENATOR R. D. BROOKS, JR.

In last month's issue of the Alumnus State Senator Ralph Dunning Brooks, Jr. '44 was inadvertently placed in page make-up under the heading of members of the House of Representatives. We wish here to extend apologies to Senator Brooks for the error, and to inform our readers that he should properly be listed as a member of the State Senate.

Professor Billias Receives Guggenheim Grant

George A. Billias, Associate Professor in the Department of History and Government, will be given a leave of absence for the academic year 1961-62. Dr. Billias has been awarded a Guggenheim Grant to work on a second book. His first book, General John Glover and His Marblehead Mariners, has gone into its second printing and was selected by the New York Times as one of the 250 outstanding books published in 1960. Dr. Billias's second book will be a biography of Elbridge Gerry who signed the Declaration of Independence and became Vice President during the second administration of James Madison.

A native of Lynn, Massachusetts, Dr. Billias graduated from Bates College magna cum laude in 1948. He received his master's degree from Columbia University in 1949 and his doctor's degree from the same school in 1958.

Before joining the Maine faculty, Dr. Billias was employed in civil service as a military historian for the Air Force. Since his arrival on the Orono campus in 1954, he has written numerous articles for both popular and scholarly publications. In 1958 the University of Maine Studies published his monograph on colonial currency entitled, The Massachusetts Land Bankers of 1740.

Dr. Billias plans to move his family to the greater Boston area where he will be doing research next year.

Two Coe Research Projects in College of Education

Reading Instruction Study

Assistant Professors Dr. Alpheus Sanford and Dr. Arthur Olson are Co-directors of a study being made in the College of Education to determine how best to improve the reading skills of freshman college students. In discussing the need for such a study, the directors said: "College demands greater sophistication of reading skills than previously experienced by entering freshmen. It is quite soon after the beginning of the school year that the instructor and the student both realize that the degrees of competency that would get by in earlier grades are inadequate for college level work."

The research has been carried on by giving entering freshmen in the College of Education two standard reading tests to determine reading skills of the students at the time they entered the University last fall. After this, a selected group was given a special instructional program which provided practice in paragraph and sentence construction, vocabulary development, critical reading, word analysis techniques and speed reading.

At the end of the instructional period (the first semester), another reading test was given to students who had had the special training and to students who had not.

It is hoped that a study of the data obtained from the training and testing will indicate how badly reading and study skills training is needed and how best to effect such training.

Funds to cover the costs of the research were provided by a grant from the Coe Research Fund.

A Critical Self-examination

A two year research project designed to examine the effectiveness of the professional courses offered by the College of Education, is being carried on by Professors of Education, John R. Crawford, and David R. Fink, Jr.

Setting forth the need for such a study, Dr. Crawford and Dr. Fink said: "... the College of Education faces and seeks answers to two important questions. These are: (1) How effective are the present basic professional courses (Educational Psychology in the College of Arts and Sciences and the basic sequence in the College of Education) and (2) Is the scope and content of the basic professional offerings approximately correct or should the pattern of courses be altered in either of these dimensions?"

The study will be made by giving a series of tests to senior Education majors, and the tests and data from them will be used to judge the quality of instruction and the adequacy of the courses in the College of Education. Tests used will be supplied by the Educational Testing Service, the same concern which handles such examinations as the College Boards and the Graduate Record.

Funds for the first of the two years of study will be provided by the Coe Research Fund and the College of Education.

128 Research Projects

In the Agriculture Division, the Experiment Station is by nature a research center; and the amount of research carried on under its direction is impressive to say the least.

The "Brief Description of Research Projects" of the Agricultural Experiment Station is a thirty-four page document of single spaced type with narrow margins. The one hundred and twenty-eight research projects listed are only briefly described, and they range in subject matter from studies of economic conditions, to methods of pruning low bush blueberries.

The research is done under thirteen departments: Agricultural Economics, Agricultural Engineering, Agronomy, Animal Pathology, Animal Science, Biochemistry, Botany and Plant Pathology, Entomology, Food Processing, Forestry, Home Economics, Horticulture, and Poultry Science. The range and variety of the work being carried on is so great that it is barely inclusive under the general heading of "agriculture." Almost any substance produced naturally by the land and the sea (and related topics) is fair game for the Experiment Station research staff.

Senior Alumni Scholarships Awarded

SOMEONE RECENTLY SAID in reference to alumni efforts and giving, that those who had benefited the least, give the most. When one stops to think about it, the truth of this statement becomes obvious. Back in the days when most members of the Senior Alumni were attending the University, relatively little had been done for them by private funds and efforts. Among the facilities now available which were not present before 1911, were such as the Memorial Union, the Library, and Alumni Gymnasium.

To the uninformed it might seem reasonable to suppose that the Senior Alumni, individually and as a group, would take less of an interest in promoting the welfare of the University and its students than those who graduated later and who benefited more from alumni work and generosity. That the Senior Alumni are as active and generous as any alumni, is well known by anyone who is familiar with the work of the GAA. Those members of the Senior Alumni who manage business or hold jobs are always willing to add tasks to their busy schedules to help the University and the Alumni Association. The members who have retired or who are in semi-retirement often make the objective of furthering the interests of the University their most active concern.

Scholarship Winners For '61

The three outstanding students who were selected to receive the 1961 Senior Alumni Scholarship are: Leroy P. Chipman '61 of So. Freeport, Maine; Stephen C. Ridley '63 of Guilford, Maine; and Carroll L. Wilson '62 of Portland, Maine.

Leroy Chipman, a member of last year's outstanding varsity basketball team, was active in sports in Freeport High School before he came to Maine. He played basketball and baseball for four years in high school and was captain of the basketball team his freshman and sophomore years at UMP. He also played on the baseball team at UMP for two years. He is majoring in History in the College of Education and plans to make teaching his career. He is a member of Phi Kappa Phi.

Carroll Wilson, who was born in Jamaica, W.I., now makes his home in Portland, Maine. He attended Portland High School and was a member of the track team, being elected team captain in his junior year. He was Vice President of his senior class, and he was a member of the French Club his junior and senior years. At Maine he is majoring in History in the College of Arts and Sciences. He is a member of the International Club.

Stephen Ridley was active in sports in the Piscataquis Community High School, participating in basketball, baseball and cross-country. He took part in public speaking contests and class plays. In his senior year he was elected Class President. Here, he is majoring in Biochemistry in the College of Agriculture. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

The Senior Alumni Association

The Senior Alumni Association is composed of Alumni whose graduating class is more than fifty years from the present year. The object of the Society is to promote good fellowship among its members, and by its influence to endeavor to advance the interests of the University.

All alumni, graduates and non-graduates, who have been out of the University fifty years or more are considered members of the Society, and the payment of dues is not considered a requisite for membership.

The Association holds annual meetings for business and the election of officers during the Commencement season.

Officers of the Association

The officers of the association for 1959-60 are:

President—Mr. A. P. Wyman '07 of 112 Mayflower Hill Drive, Waterville, Maine.

First Vice President—Mr. Henry W. Bearce '06 of Hebron, Maine.

Second Vice President—Mr. William J. Ricker '05 of Turner, Maine.

Secretary-Treasurer—James A. Gannett '08 of 166 Main St., Orono, Maine; Auditor: Freeman M. Sampson '05, Orono.

Executive Committee—Mr. Emerson P. Lambe '07 of 37 Knox St., Thomaston, Maine; Mr. William A. Cobb '08 of P. O. Box 25, Belfast, Maine; Mr. Earle N. Vickery '08 of 12 Libby St., Pittsfield, Maine. (Special thanks from the Senior Alumni Assoc. are due to L. E. Little '04, former Secy.-Treas.)

Lewis O. Barrows '16 Appointed To Board Of Trustees

Lewis O. Barrows '16

WITH THE APPOINTMENT of former Governor Lewis O. Barrows '16 to the University Board of Trustees, Governor John H. Reed '42 selected one of Maine's most active and loyal alumni. Climaxing a career of over forty years of service to the University, his community, state and country, Governor Barrows brings a varied wealth of experience to his new position on the Board of Trustees.

Governor Barrows was born in Newport, Maine, attended the public schools there, and graduated from Hebron Academy. He received the B.S. Degree in Pharmacy from Maine in 1916 and was granted the LL.D. Degree from Maine in 1937 and the LL.D. Degree from Colby College in 1938.

In 1916 he enlisted for service with the Second Maine Regiment, participated in the Mexican Border campaign, and in 1917 returned to Newport where he became associated with his father as a partner of Barrows and Barrows Pharmacy. Although his first experience in political life came in 1907 when he became a page in the State Senate while his father, George M. Barrows, was a State Senator, he was first elected to public office as Town Treasurer of Newport in 1920, holding that position until 1932.

During the period between 1926 to 1933 he was elected to membership of the Republican State Committee three times and to the Governor's Council three times, serving in the latter capacity until 1933. Two years after this, in 1935, he was elected Secretary of State by the State Legislature.

The following year in 1936, he won the Republican gubernatorial primary election and on September 14th was elected Governor of the State. In 1938 he was re-elected to a second term and served until 1941.

Returning to private life in 1941, Governor Barrows moved to Boston, Mass., where he joined the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company. He was appointed Secretary of that organization in 1943, and in the following year was also appointed Secretary of United Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

It was at this time that the Office of Civilian Defense in Washington, D. C., requested his services to assist in establishing air raid warden schools in the six New England states, as well as in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Delaware.

In the period of time between World War II and the present, Governor Barrows has served in such capacities as: a Director of the Transportation Association of America; membership in the Corporation of the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy; membership in the Corporation of the Charlestown Five Cents Savings Bank; Hebron Academy Board of Trustees; and President, the Newport Trust Company.

Always active in alumni affairs, Governor Barrows is President of the Class of 1916. He served on the Alumni Council from 1953 to 1958, and in the closing years of World War II, he was chairman of the alumni committee in charge of a post-war employment program for Maine alumni in the armed forces.

Perhaps the best way to illustrate Governor Barrows's dedication to the Alumni Association and the University, is to quote from a letter written to the Alumni Office by one of his classmates:

"...he became Secretary of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company. He immediately jumped into the alumni work here in Boston, serving on several committees and finally being elected President of the local association. On the two drives for funds for the Library and the Union Building, Lew Barrows gave most unselfishly of his time and energy...I know of no time when he has been asked to do anything for the University that he refused to do it...He is a grand fellow, respected by all, and with a love, loyalty, and devotion to his college that should be most inspiring to all Maine men..."

Two Alumni On Executive Council

Mr. Treworgy who has a long history of alumni activity is presently serving as Treasurer of the General Alumni Association. He is Vice President of the Class of '49 and is an Alumni Representative on the Board of Directors of the University Store Company.

He resides in Orono and is manager of Treworgy's Department Stores. After completing a three year term on the Orono Board of Selectmen, Mr. Treworgy was elected to the State House of Representatives in 1958 and served one term in the 99th Legislature.

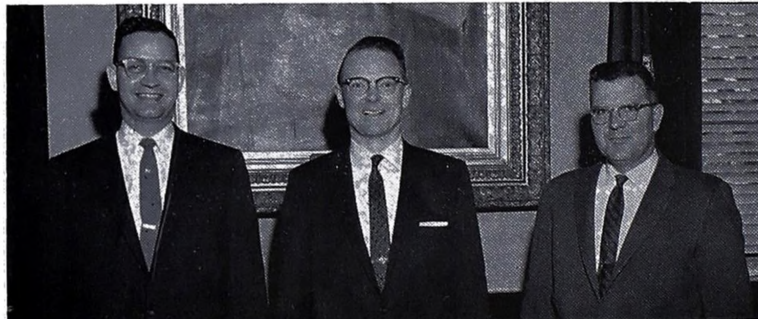

A three-year veteran of service in the European theater with the Ninth Air Force, he was discharged in 1945 and served with the CAP in 1951-52 as an officer and pilot.

He is married to the former Charlotte Harris '49. Mr. and Mrs. Treworgy live with their three sons at 18 Spencer Street, Orono.

Mr. Speers of Winthrop was formerly Information and Education Division Chief and Public Relations Director of the Maine Dept. of Inland Fisheries and Game. He also served the State of Virginia as Associate Editor of Virginia Wildlife Magazine and as Chief of the Information and Education Section of its Fish and Game Dept., before returning to Maine.

Mr. Speers has been President of the Board of Trustees of the Winthrop School District; Treasurer of the Winthrop Recreation Assn., and is Chairman of the Winthrop GOP County Committee.

An Air Force Veteran of World War II and a member of the Alfred W. Maxwell, Jr. Post American Legion, he is married and has three children.

Local Associations

Auburn-Lewiston Alumnae

The group met on January 18 at the home of Mrs. Hazel (Sparrow '31) Russell, Walker Ave., Lewiston. Mrs. Eleanor (Byron '53) Gove presided over the business meeting. A discussion was held of the meeting to follow, a joint dinner with the Auburn-Lewiston Maine men to hear President Elliott.

The principal speaker was Joseph Sovignano, Juvenile Officer of the Auburn Police Department, who spoke on "The Problems of Youth."

Auburn-Lewiston Alumni

The Auburn-Lewiston men gathered on January 19 at the Stephens House, 2 Union St., Auburn, for an informal dinner meeting. Vice President John L. McCobb '25 conducted the session.

Speaker was T. Russell Woolley '41, Executive Director, General Alumni Association.

The joint meeting of March 1, combined with the women's club was held at the Elm Hotel, Auburn, Oscar Hahnel '49, presiding. Dr. Lloyd H. Elliott spoke on "Financing the Growth of the University of Maine." Also present were Russ Woolley '41 and Margaret Mollison '50.

North Shore, Mass. Alumni

January 24 was the date of a reorganization meeting of the North Shore Alumni, called by the Past Presidents of the club. Leland F. Carter '42, presided over the excellent planning session. Vice President, Alvin S. McNeilly '44 of the General Alumni Association attended. The gathering was held at the Memorial Building at Ipswich. Business consisted of discussion of forthcoming meetings, arrangements being made for a March 4 session with Coach Hal Westerman as speaker.

South Kennebec Alumni

A large gathering of men and women from the Augusta area met for dinner February 1 at the Worster House in Hallowell. Robert B. McLeary '42, alumni council member, was master of ceremonies for the special occasion.

President Lloyd H. Elliott spoke to the club about the State of the University. Margaret M. Mollison '50, Assistant Executive Director, G. A. A., also attended from Orono and spoke briefly.

Portland Alumnae

Women of the Portland group met February 2 at Payson Smith Hall, University of Maine in Portland, Dorothy (Currier '45) Dutton presiding.

A very interesting program was given by Sylvia Johnson '54 and Ann Feehan, summer session '60, who talked about and showed slides of their recent tour of Europe.

Announcement was made of the March 1 meeting with Dr. Lloyd H. Elliott, President, at a joint session with the men's club. Also, announcement was made of the April 29 Annual Scholarship Dance.

South Kennebec Alumnae

A "coffee" was served by women of the Augusta area on February 15, following the hearing of the University's appropriations request before the Appropriations Committee of the 100th Legislature. The affair was held at the Maine State Grange Headquarters, State Street, Augusta, and was attended by many friends and alumni of the University. Edith (Talbot '32) Ness was chairman.

Waldo County Alumni

A meeting was held February 15 at the First Church Parish House, Belfast. Jacob S. Holmes '31, Chairman, was aided by Wendell Smith '39 and Fred Webster '18.

Dr. Austin Peck, head of the School of Business, spoke on the "Needs of Our Expanding University." Rena (Campbell '21) Bowles, a University trustee, Russ Woolley '41 and Margaret Mollison '50 also attended.

Portland Alumni

March 1 was the date of a joint men's and women's meeting at Payson Smith Hall in Portland to enjoy a fried chicken dinner. Mrs. Dorothy (Currier '45) Dutton and Richard F. Edes '50 were co-chairmen for the event.

Speaker for the evening was University President Lloyd H. Elliott, who talked on the financial affairs of the University. Russ Woolley '41 and Margaret Mollison '50 were there, too.

Alumnus Honors Father In Scholarship Fund

Future students in the field of economics will benefit from the generosity of a Maine alumnus who has established a scholarship fund in memory of his father.

The Nathan Levitan Scholarship Fund was established with the University of Maine Foundation in 1960 by Dr. Leon B. Levitan of the Class of 1938. The principal sum of this Fund is currently $5,000.

Income from the Nathan Levitan Scholarship Fund will be awarded to graduate or undergraduate students in the field of economics who are in need of financial assistance, and whose scholastic standing indicates promise of high academic success.

A former teacher of economics, Dr. Leon Levitan received his B.A. from Maine in 1938, his M.A. and Ph.D. from Boston University. He is currently engaged in the precast concrete industry.

Through his generous action, Dr. Levitan has honored the memory of his father through assistance to worthy students at his Alma Mater.

Maine Wins YC Title

WHILE MAINE'S basketball team was in the process of losing three out of its last four games, another University team was making Yankee Conference history. At Durham, N. H., under the guidance of Coach Sergeant David M. Bell, the sharpshooters of Maine's rifle team defeated the five other New England land grant university riflemen to annex its third consecutive Yankee Conference title. Considering the fact that the YC has had this competition for only three years, Maine rules as undefeated champions in the history of the YC sport.

Because rifle is not a spectator sport (there is no room for onlookers), the success of the Black Bear shooters has not received the publicity it deserves. Labeled as a minor sport, rifle competition, to paraphrase the words of Capt. James W. MacDonald of the ROTC when he spoke at the last sportswriters' luncheon, soon becomes the major sport in the event of a shooting war. But whether or not it is considered a minor sport, the ROTC personnel who have coached Maine students to three straight Yankee Conference championships deserve congratulations for a job well done.

Team scorers at the match in Durham, N. H., were: Maine—1400; N. H.—1388; Vermont—1385; UConn—1375; R. I.—1365; and Mass.—1286.

Individual scoring for the Maine team was as follows: Mert Brown, 288; Ken Wickstrom, 286; John Almond, 277; Mal Waskiewicz, 275; and Dick LaBrecque, 274.

Maine Loses To Dartmouth

On Saturday, February 11, in the indoor fieldhouse, Dartmouth's powerful track team swept nine of thirteen first places and won the dual meet by a score of 70 $\frac{2}{3}$ to 45 $\frac{1}{3}$. In the action packed contest, meet and University records were broken in all events except the high jump.

Winners of the events were as follows: 35 lb. weight, T. Horne (M), 53-5 $\frac{1}{2}$; shotput, T. Horne (M), 42-4; 600 yd. run, Will Spencer (M), 1:13.4; mile run, Keith Jenkinson (D), 4:19.4; 50 yd. dash, Jerry Ashworth (D), 5.5; high jump, T. Holzel (D), 5-10; 45 yd. high hurdles, Baron Hicken (M), 5.9; broad jump, John Knight (D), 21-7 $\frac{1}{4}$; two mile run, Tom Laris (D), 9:11.4; pole vault, Greg Millett (D), 12-9; 1000 yd. run, Tom Komarek (D), 2:18-1; 65 yd. low hurdles, J. Ebers (D), 7.7.

The mile relay was won by Dartmouth in the record-breaking time of 3:22.7. In this race Maine's Pete McPhee started the last leg, ten yards behind his man and finished in second place only by a matter of inches. This record, the fastest ever recorded in the state, was doomed to last as such for only a week until February 18, when the state AAU meet was held at Orono. (See following story.)

MAINE ATHLETES STAR IN STATE AAU

Recovering from the defeat by Dartmouth on the previous week, Maine trackmen starred in the state AAU meet in the indoor fieldhouse on February 18, taking firsts in eleven of thirteen events.

The meet, occurring during winter carnival week-end on campus, was open to individual amateur athletes within the state, and was not scored by team performance.

The most exciting race of the day was the mile run in which Dan Rearick, who is back at Maine working on his second bachelor's degree from the College of Technology, tied his own state record and set a new fieldhouse record with a time of 4:13.3. Later in the day he set a new meet record in the 1000 yd. run with a time of 2:17.3.

The biggest upset of the meet came when Terry Horne who usually dominates the 35 lb. weight event, had to take second place to teammate Dick Nason. The meet record toss was registered at 56 ft., 2 in.

The Maine mile relay team, determined in advance to regain the fieldhouse record established by the Dartmouth track team the week before, achieved their aim by running a 3:21.8 mile. Members of the team were: Dave Parker, Keith Stewart; Wil Spencer, and Pete McPhee.

In the 65 yd. low hurdles, Baron Hicken (M), who had previously won the 45 yd. high hurdles, took first place with a time of 8.7 to tie the fieldhouse record and set new records for the University and meet.

Maine Skiers Win

On the Bald Mountain ski slope in Durham, Saturday, February 18, the Maine Ski team easily won the University Winter Carnival Ski meet.

Outstanding in the Maine win was Brett Russell who won his third straight skimeister award for the meet. Taking first in the jumping and slalom, he was second in the giant slalom and tenth in cross country. His total for the four events was 371.8.

Maine won the meet with a total of 387.8 points, while the University of New Brunswick came in second with a total of 346.2. Third place Colby scored 345.8, and Bowdoin was in fourth place with 188.3.

Hope Dims For YC Basketball Title

Maine's flashy basketball team, riding high with a rating of seventh best in the country among small schools and fourth ranked among all New England Colleges at this writing, slipped in the won-lost records when they dropped three out of their last four games.

The first indication of the sudden reversal of success came when Bowdoin pulled what has been called the upset of the year in defeating the Black Bears at Orono, 79-72. Until this game Maine had not lost a game on its home court in twenty-five outings. A combination of overconfidence and an off night for Maine and an incredible shooting performance by Bowdoin accounted for the upset. With Billy Cohen of Bangor dropping in nine out of ten attempted long set shots, and with an overall team shooting average of fifty percent success in shots from the floor, it is small wonder Bowdoin defeated Maine which was able to put in only thirty-four percent of its shots.

At Connecticut Maine was beaten 73 to 60 by a good team with a height advantage and with the further edge of playing on their home floor. It was that simple; and although the Bears were close all the way up until the final few minutes, it was not an unexpected loss.

On Tuesday, February 14, Maine returned to winning ways by defeating Bates at Orono, 78-71. It was not an easy victory, and the Bears had to work hard right up to the final buzzer to keep the lead they held throughout the game. This win gave Maine a 6-1 record in state series play and assured them of not less than a tie for the title. A win over Colby (at Colby) or over Bowdoin (away), will give the pale blue the state series championship.

On Saturday, February 18, the most important Yankee Conference game of the year was held at the Memorial Gym—Maine vs. Rhode Island. In the two previous meetings of the teams this year, Maine lost a close one at Kingston (77-72) when Rhody pulled a freeze to protect a slender lead; and at the Downeast Classic championship match in Bangor, the Bears got revenge by coming from behind in the last minutes of play and defeating the Rams, 69-65.

Although Maine lost this last and important clash with Rhode Island by a score of 76-66, it is doubtful if they played a better game all season. Maine was behind during most of the game, and had caught up and taken the lead 64-63 at the four minute mark. With three minutes left Rhode Island was ahead again by four points and elected to freeze the ball. In frenzied attempts to gain possession of the ball, Maine committed many fouls and left openings for Rhody to slip in with quick lay-ups.

The top three teams in the Yankee Conference now stands as follows: Rhode Island 7-1; Maine 6-3; Conn. 6-3. Rhode Island has games remaining against Connecticut and Massachusetts, and both teams could pull a "nothing to lose" upset. Maine has one game left with New Hampshire at Durham, and a slim chance for a first place tie.

Many Alumni Contribute Sustaining Dues

Your editors are glad to present here the names on record of the sustaining members of the General Alumni Association. A sustaining member is one who has decided, upon appeal of the dues committee, to pay annual dues of $15.00 as an indication of extraordinary interest in the welfare of the General Alumni Association, and one who is willing to show his interest by this extra financial support.

There are many members who have given gifts, also indicating extraordinary interest in the welfare of the Association and of the University, by payments beyond dues amount, yet are not defined as sustaining members. They do not, therefore, appear in this list.

MEMORIAL STUDENT UNION

CYNIC You can tell him by his favorite food—sour grapes. According to the cynic, there's an opportunist in every public office, an Elmer Gantry in every pulpit, a racketeer in every union local. No worthy cause can possibly succeed, he believes, because the world is full of schemers. A master of the negative, a veteran wet blanket, he dampens dedication, chills initiative. And while the cynic sits and grumbles, doctors answer midnight calls . . . artists create works with more concern for art than applause . . . school teachers help their students, not their bank accounts, grow. Where would America be today if the cynic's view had always prevailed? Human advancement proves that people can, and usually do, work together for the common good. In this nuclear age, is there any other choice?

Career hunting? *The amazing growth of NATIONWIDE is clear testimony to the power of new ideas. Founded in 1926, NATIONWIDE today is the world's second largest mutual auto insurer in cars insured—and one of America's leading underwriters of fire, life and general insurance. Our representatives also have the opportunity to sell mutual funds. If you'd like to work for this dynamic company, NATIONWIDE is hiring sales representatives now. 1901 60th Reunion, June 9-10-11, 1961

Howard W. Worth now resides at 195 Bradley St., Portland, Me., with a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Worth Gailey.

1903 Mr. Harvey D. Whitney
698 Minot Ave., Auburn
Paul D. Simpson of Seal Harbor sends his greetings but no news.

Guy O. Small of Kennebecport sends his regards. Silas G. Small of St. Petersburg, Fla., mentions many of the old timers who attend the Maine meetings. He states the weather is fine, but a little on the cool side.

Mellen C. Wiley writes from Hampshire, Ill., that since retiring from the engineering line he bought a large farm and keeps busy and active with fine health.

Mrs. Joseph W. Crowe (Edee D. Gammon) of Boise, Idaho, sends her regards and often recalls the former days at U. of M.

1904 Arthur E. Davenport resides at 3670 Dubsdread Circle, Orland, Florida and is retired

Vaughn Jones of Wichita 3, Kan., reports a change of street address to 1840 Lisa Lane.

1905 Mr. Horace A. Hilton
385 Union St., Bangor

Samuel B. Lincoln has authored a book (850 pages) just published, telling the story of Lockwood Greene Engineering Co. It is a prodigious work of collecting, organizing, and correlating a great mass of material and telling an interesting story about it. Mr. Lincoln was president of Lockwood Greene from 1949 to 1954 and since then chairman of the board. He has homes in Greenwich, Conn., and on Cape Cod. In 1958 Mr. Lincoln received an honorary degree from the University of Maine.

1906 Mr. Henry W. Bearce
1115 Aragon Ave., Winter Park, Fla.
Not much to report this time. The Bearces attended the January Luncheon of the St. Petersburg Alumni and visited with the usual friends, including Gertrude (Jones) Nutter of our class. On the way back to Winter Park we called on Pink French and his wife, and came away with a liberal supply of their fine oranges and grapefruit. We understand that the Charlie Princes and Mrs. Earle Richards are in Florida, but have not seen them.

A letter from Shorty Southard indicates that he and Jeanne are healthy and happy and still love Maine; as shown by the recent planting of a white birch tree in their yard.

How about making some plans to be at Commencement this year. It is our 55th you know?

1907 Mr. Karl MacDonald
27 Nelson Avenue, Wellsville, N. Y.

Charles E. Davis, 20 Wayside Ave., Bridgton, on Jan. 15 expected to start for Connecticut in a few days. After visiting there, he was going to decide whether to go South or perhaps to Arizona.

Emerson P. Lambe, 37 Knox St., Thomaston, evidently gets around. He took in all the football games Maine played in the state except the game in Portland. Sent the writer a clipping of the engagement of Nancy E. Pendleton who was a granddaughter of the late Arad Barrows.

A Christmas card from Alvin L. Gilmore, 505 S. Crouse Ave., Syracuse 10, N. Y. Said he was very busy. Was in pretty fair health but is slowing up a little with age. His army doctor says he is holding up well.

Bill Alexander's family had a Thanksgiving Reunion at his son's home in Delmar, N. Y. The first time they have all been together; 23 sat down to dinner. Three generations; the oldest grandchild was 20; the youngest was 6.

Erwin H. Hussey, 18 Camellia Drive, Ormond Beach, Fla., said hurricane Diana last fall kept them up all night mopping up water. A ventilator let in a lot from the driving rain. No great damage done but the TV antenna had to be fixed some and the east end of the house had to be repainted as the wind and sand scoured off the original paint.

Albert C. Colley, 417 Elliott St., Beverly, Mass., writes; "Found your card when we came home from Europe. I am fine and we have 1,100 tax appointments ahead of us so we will be very busy until April 17. Then we are taking a bus tour thru the U. S. for a month."

Eva (Libby) Jordan, 840 11th Avenue, South, St. Petersburg, Fla., writes; "I arrived home Oct. 3 after a nice summer in Maine. Visited Gertrude (Jones) Nutter, '06, one weekend while in Maine. She is in St. Pete for the winter. Also had a nice letter from Mary (Knight) Jensen at Christmas. We roomed together at Maine I had another grandson born July 5, 1960. He makes the third. Am still secretary and treasurer of the Maine Society here. We had a meeting Jan. 3 and a picnic and dance Jan. 6."

A Christmas card from Guy H. Roberts, 320 N. 7th St., Santa Paula, Calif., which showed he was alive at that time, but there was no note written on it.

1908 Mr. James A. Gannett

William L. Waldron, Law '08, who has been the Clerk of Courts of Somerset County since 1947, retired on January 1, 1961. He is leaving Skowhegan, the county seat of Somerset County, and returning to Pittsfield where he formerly made his home while practicing law in that town. He holds the degrees of M.A. and LL.B. from Maine and the B.A. degree from Colby, class of '99. He attended the University of Indiana, 1905-06.

In Mid-January Mrs. Gannett and I called on Mrs. Stacy C. Lanpher at Sebec Station. She has made a good recovery from her accident mentioned in the May '60 Alumnus and now has nearly complete use of her arm.

An interesting letter from Mrs. Warren D. Trask at Christmas time brought news of the Trask children and grandchildren. Virginia lives in Wilbraham, Mass., where Sarah spent Christmas. Virginia has two daughters: Sidney, a junior in high school and Gretchen, a freshman and a son, Sherman, Jr., 11 years old. Allen Trask '38 has four boys and a daughter. Sarah writes "The youngest is Warren Dudley, 2nd. He looks like 'Ditto'; same complexion and smile. 'Ditto' would be so proud of his namesake. He saw him once when he was about a year old. George, Allen's oldest, is a senior in high school this year. Will take up some kind of engineering, probably chemical. On honor roll all through, says proud grandmother!"

1909 Mr. Fred D. Knight
9 Westmoreland Drive,
W. Hartford 17, Conn.

This month your class notes must, by necessity born of the reluctance of my many classmates to write me a note now and then, be largely about several highly satisfying personal experiences of the Knights during the past few weeks.

First was a half day, including a delightful lunch, with Dr. Mary Ellen Chase in Northampton. It was so good to renew an old friendship and to learn of her genuine affection for the University. We discussed and exchanged views and views of many old friends which made, for us at least, a real stimulating day of it. Mary Ellen lives on the Smith College campus in a fine, old, four square house which has been beautifully remodeled and furnished to suit her own good taste. If space permitted I could write lengthily of this short visit. But I will stop with this one interesting sidelight on a successful author's chores: In January alone, Mary Ellen received approximately one thousand letters from admiring and questioning readers of her latest book "The Lovely Ambition" all of which were faithfully and thoughtfully answered.

On our leisurely trip down to Florida we detoured to Deland, Fla., and had a good, but all too brief, visit with the Bill Osgoods. Bill insisted on filling all vacant space in our automobile with oranges from his small, but productive citrus grove. We had no end of enjoyment from this delicious fruit.

A note from Vira Towle informs us that Elton had, in early December, a slight warning that he must slow down to the pace most of us have already been forced to accept. Why don't you cheer Elton's days of convalescence with a letter? We all know what a wonderful fellow he is and recall how much he did for 1909 during our undergraduate days. His address: 315 Hamilton Ave., Glen Rock, N. J.

Soon after our arrival in Florida six dear friends—the Naumans, the Nashes, and the Masons—staged for us a wonderful reunion in Sarasota. It was a grand dinner and evening and must be briefly described by one word, not "Ah!" but "Wow!"

On New Year's day we enjoyed a very pleasant coffee hour with Wallace '24 and Virginia (Chase '23) Perkins. Several other Maine people were also present and it is certain we started the New Year off on the right foot.

In previous issues of the Alumnus I have already given several winter addresses. Here are a few corrections and additions: Irene (Richardson) Durgy, Manatee River Hotel, Bradenton; Malcolm M. Soule, 711 7th Ave., North, St. Petersburg; George H. Harmon, 79 N. W. 10th St., Homestead; Jesse H. Mason, 438 Golden Gate Point, Sarasota; the Knights, 500 West Venice Ave., Venice.

And finally the weather here is a vast improvement over what we left in New England. It is cool—some say cold—nights and sunny days with plenty of sheltered spots for sunbathing, but definitely not beach weather yet.

1910 Mr. George P. Goodrich
14 Lawn Ave., Portland

A little news has trickled in this month and I am happy to share it with you. The grapevine has just informed us that Harold L. Barker of Auburndale, Mass., has recently made a very substantial donation to our 1910 Class Fund and that it has been credited to same and turned over to the University of Maine Foundation. Harold has been a very faithful attendant at our past class reunions but could not attend our 50th last June as his son was graduating from the U. of M. (M is for Massachusetts) on the same date as our reunion in Orono. He has established a fine precedent and if any of you who haven't contributed, but would like to at this late date, I assure you it will be most timely and most heartily accepted.

You will be pleased to know that Albert K. Gardner, representative to the 100th Maine Legislature, was recently appointed Co-Chairman of the Agricultural Committee which serves both houses. He should be most valuable in this work as he is a former Commissioner of Agriculture.

During a recent trip to New York, President Ernie and Mrs. Lamb had dinner one night with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richardson (Arthur, President of Class of 1911) at the Plaza and a rather unique incident happened.

Four members of the orchestra came to their table and asked if there was something they would like to have played. They, naturally, said "The Stein Song." While the song was being played they sang, causing many people to stare at them. At the conclusion of the song a gentleman came over to their table, said they did a wonderful job and then reminded them he was a Bowdoin Man and quite emphatically remarked that Bowdoin beat Maine last fall. After a little diplomatic maneuvering Ernie and Art explained that it was not good for the sport to have Maine win all the time, and consequently Maine had to lose a game now and then. They are not sure that it registered. But it was a darned good game—I saw it and both teams merited praise.

We won't ask you for any news for the next issue of the Alumnus—April. You'll know why later, but please send something about yourself, and your doings, before March 20th so I can have it in the May Alumnus. Happy New Year and Best Wishes, if it isn't too late.

50th Reunion, June 9-10-11, 1961

The time is rapidly approaching, namely June 9th, 10th, and 11th for the Great Reunion of the Greatest Class ever to matriculate (I like that word especially since I looked it up) at the University of Maine.

Marty McHale writes, "Some time ago you wrote a piece in which you stated 'What a Class 1911 turned out to be.' A very true comment, my lad, but a real understatement. 'Tis my opinion that the Class of 1911, from its inception was 'tops,' a natural big league group."

Editor's Note:

Space will not permit us to print Mr. McHale's excellent letter in its entirety here; however, copies have been printed and mailed to all the 1911ers. If other alumni would like a copy, a postcard to the Alumni Office will bring you one by return mail.

President Arthur L. Deering reports gratifying response to his recent letter regarding the 1912 Gift Fund to be presented to the University at our 50th in 1962. He intimates, however, that we still have a long way to go to obtain our goal. Nine more "lost" 1912 alums have been "found." They are:

Charles Albert Batty who lives at 113 Haverhill St., Reading, Mass.

Thomas Ephraim Cassey, who has been principal electrical engineer, Bureau Engineering, Navy Dept., Washington, D. C., now resides at 601 Irving Street, Manassas, Va.

Roger Eveleth lives at 23 Prospect St., Auburn, Me. His occupation is listed as a power shovel operator.

Ralph James Flint is a surveyor and lives at East Hiram, Me.

Leonard Ramsden Hartill has been a resident of Florida for the past 20 years. He lives at 1331 Marion Drive, So., St. Petersburg, Fla.

Arthur Gordon Hayes resides at 54 Pleasant St., Norway, Me.

George Thayer Holbrook may be reached at The Augusta Trailer Park, Riverside Drive, Augusta.

Dana Charles Sanborn has retired from a career as a teacher and lives at Bradford, N. H.

Bernice M. Rich (Mrs Chellis Smith) lives at Oakfield, Me.

Many thanks to you who have sent in news items, and also to those who are going to, but have not yet got around to it.

Class Mates:

I received a very fine letter from "Flicky" Richards from St. Louis, Mo., the latter part of December. It came too late to tell you about in last month's column so will give you a few excerpts from this "live wire," who has a lot of interest in class performance and progress. His opening paragraph is typical—he says "Your Dec. 10th report doesn't inspire too much optimism. It is not exactly a 'Down-the-Field-and-on-to-Glory Story.' Let's see if we can't get out of the fog—you know a cubic mile of fog only contains about a gallon of water.

"As the guy said—let's have it with the bark on.' Probably, 75% of the 110 people in the class are now retired and not working—another 12 to 15% are only partially employed and the rest are still working, possibly to buy gas for the Cadillac.

"Participation in our class project has not been as good as that in the Hauck Fund—that is almost 40% of us will buy bricks while less than half as many seem willing to buy prestige; as a class, naturally there is little difference in the two, because both, eventually benefit the University.

"So, before we put the sheeps on the right and the goats on the left, perhaps we can get some repeats.

"Each of us is some part or detail of what the college world about us sees when they look at our class organization."

As my report to you on Dec. 10th is certainly none too flattering to the class as a whole for the effort we have made to date in providing for that Class Gift to the University, I feel that "Flicky" has put a little shame in our hearts. Those of you who can, I make the appeal for your contribution.

Just received a nice check from John D. Wilkinson of 867 Main St., South Portland—part for the Class Expense Fund and also money to buy a bond. Thanks, John, sure was glad to hear from you and appreciate your gift. Hope you will be with us in '63 and before then if possible.

As was the case with some others of our classmates, Charles M. Kelley, Jr., had his chosen career interrupted by two World Wars. He served with distinction in both, and in 1951 was retired as a Captain in the United States Naval Reserve with 23 years of service. "Mike's" first job on leaving Orono was with the Western Electric Company in Chicago. A'ter two years there he transferred to the Bell Telephone Laboratories in New York City where he worked on research and development of components for vacuum tube circuits. Leaving this job for service in World War I, he picked his civilian work up again after the war, with the American Telephone and Telegraph Company long lines department in New York as a transmission engineer. "Mike" was in on the ground floor of radio broadcasting. With the Graybar Electric Co., he was sales engineer for radio equipment and for large public address systems. He also got in on sound pictures, transferring to Electrical Research Products, Inc., where he worked as a supervising installation engineer. Then came World War II. Following the war he joined the faculty of Hackley School, Tarrytown, N. Y., in 1947 where he taught mathematics for eleven years. He also coached track and cross country.

The Navy took so much time out of Mike's active career we think a brief summary of his naval service is in order. He went on active duty in the Navy in 1917 to 1919 as Radio and Communication Officer of a division of battleships, Atlantic Fleet. He returned to civilian life in 1919. Then in June 1940, he was called to active duty in Washington, D. C., to become associated with the business of protecting ships against magnetic mines. In 1945 he was ordered to the Service Force, 7th fleet in the Pacific. He was based ashore and took over command of three different facilities. These were at Tacloban, Leyte; San Juan, Mindoro; and La Pata, Samar. He later served on the staff of the Commander, Philippine Sea Frontier, Manila.

Charles concluded his letter: "I am in excellent health and devote much time to ham radio, particularly with U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary communications. My radio calls are KIGAD and NAIBE. I also have two acres of lawn to mow! My son is a First Secretary at the U. S. Embassy in Khartoum, Sudan Republic. He has four children. My daughter is married and lives nearby. She has one son. My wife died in 1948 so I retired from teaching and came to the old farm I had purchased here in Ipswich. It is on the edge of the salt marshes and consists of 14 acres of an old apple orchard."

We do not have news items from any 1915ers for the February Alumnus. We do want to have a column in the Alumnus and only members of the class can make it possible. A long letter is not necessary. Even a post-card would be most welcome. This is an S.O.S. for news. Please do something about it today. It doesn't have to be startling or shocking—just something about YOU.

GUY LUCIANO—an avid sports fan, has coached himself to "stardom" selling insurance!

If anything interests Guy Luciano more than sports, it is "meeting and talking to people." Guy manages to do both admirably. In his spare time he coaches semi-pro baseball and basketball teams. On the job, as a New York Life Agent, he meets hundreds of people—and with notable results.

During the last three years, Guy has qualified for the Company's "Star Club," a select group of leading agents. In the last two years, he has sold over a million dollars worth of life insurance protection. Says he: "Insurance selling is the business for anyone who likes meeting people and a good income!"

As a Nylic Agent, Guy's future success is limited only by his own ambition and industry. Would such a career interest you? . . . or someone you know? If so, write us for information.

The Class of 1916 Scholarship award for the fall semester of 1960 was made to Miss Judith Fowler, '61, of East Corinth. Our congratulations and best wishes are extended to Miss Fowler.

I have so much news this time that I hardly know where to begin. Part of it is a little old, but much of it came in notes and letters in answer to my Christmas cards, and I was very grateful to hear from so many.

Dr. Currier C. Weymouth of Farmington, practicing physician and surgeon in Franklin County for 28 years, retired from the practice of medicine last summer. He has been a member of the medical and surgical staff at Franklin County Memorial Hospital since his coming to Farmington in 1932. For 13 years he was a medical practitioner and surgeon at Hopedale, Mass. Since coming to Farmington, he has taken an active interest in all civic and community affairs. He has been the "family doctor" for many families in Farmington and surrounding communities. He has one son, Lt. Comm. Burton R. Weymouth, U. S. Navy Air Force, who will complete a three-year term in June, 1961, stationed at Maguire Field, N. J. Dr. and Mrs. Weymouth are constructing a new home in Farmington.

We feel much honored that Gov. John H. Reed '42 nominated former Republican Gov. Lewis O. Barrows of Newport for the University of Maine Board of Trustees. We are sure that he will do all he can to help the University.

Karl M. Currier writes that he has retired, but still manages to average several days a week as a consultant.

Burke Bradbury, of Syracuse, N. Y., retired Nov. 1, 1958, from the General Electric Co.

Mrs. Fredericka (Marie Foster) Merchant has moved from La Jolla to San Diego, Calif.

We have finally located Mrs. Mildred Dow

(Charles S., '15) Allen, who has been "lost" for some time. She is living with her husband in Manchester, Me.

Once again your reporter must apologize for falling down on her job. We did not get home from our trip to Texas in time for me to send in notes for the January Alumnus. Then, on Dec. 26th, we had a slight fire, but terrific smoke damage, in our apartment and I couldn't get anywhere near my desk, so I failed to report for a second issue. I will certainly try to do better.

Another of our classmates has retired from active business. Warren B. Beckler has retired as manager of the La Tuque International Paper Company mill in La Tuque, Quebec. He had been associated with the mill for forty years, and had been mill manager since 1954. At the time of his retirement, Warren was honored by the town, as well as by the paper company. Both he and his wife were presented with gifts of luggage at a reception which brought together guests representing the town, the clergy, and local business and company officials. They were also honored at other functions. Warren and his wife have returned to their native town, 283 Turner St., Auburn, Maine.

A new address has been received for Betty Bright. She is now in the Larchwood Lodge, 221 Worcester Lane, Waltham, Mass. This is a nursing home; as you know, Betty has been a semi-invalid for some time, but she still loves to hear from her classmates.

Maurice Jacobs was guest speaker at the Brotherhood Layman's Service of Temple Emanuel in Lawrence, Mass. Mr. Jacobs is president of the Maurice Jacobs, Inc., publishing firm of Philadelphia, Pa.

I enjoyed receiving Marion (Emery) Cole's Christmas bulletin, with the latest news of her family. Their son-in-law, Steve Simonds, has recently become Director of Welfare, for Maine, and he and his family have moved to Augusta. Marion is still commuting to Boston once a week, studying at Boston University.

Noel Godfrey retired last September after thirty-two years as professor of history at New York University. He was honored at a testimonial banquet by his colleagues and former students, and also at the annual dinner of the New York Alumni Association. At the University, Noel's services also included chairmanship of the discipline committee, and the committee on the granting of scholarships. He is now a member of the University of Maine Extension Division, and will continue instruction in History. He is giving a course on Contemporary Europe at Calais. We shall look forward to seeing him at our Class Reunion in 1962, as he has already written me that he plans to be there.

I have been wondering if any of you have new ideas to suggest for our Class Reunion in 1962. After all, that isn't far away, and we should all be thinking about it. Why not send your Class Reporter some suggestions?

He has been a member of the Rotary Club since 1928 (president in 1940), belongs to the Masonic bodies, and Civil Service commission of So. Portland. His hobbies are boating and swimming, but he says he is not old enough (?) to play golf.

Carl W. Perkins, Scotch Hill Inn, Ogunquit, has spent the years since leaving the University teaching. After one year at Franklin, Me., he went to Orange, Mass., for five years, and until 1956 he was head of the science dept. at Fitchburg, Mass. High School. He retired to the old family home at Ogunquit, but after two years he began to feel life a bit boring so he returned to teaching chemistry at the Portsmouth, N. H. High School, commuting from Ogunquit daily. He has three sons, one a supervising chemist at Electric Boat Co. in Groton, Conn., one a geologist who is teaching, and the other, a graduate of Maine, also a teacher. He is a member of the local school committee, and he spends his summers operating a guest house with apartment and cottage rentals.

Christine Northrup has taught Latin in the Brocton, Mass. High School since 1925 and has been head of the department of foreign and classical languages since 1950. She belongs to the College Club of Brocton, the Theatre Guild of Boston, and also a bridge club. She spends her summers in Coopers Mills, Me., and would be pleased to have Maine friends call on her.

Lloyd Douglas, 31 Chestnut Road, Verona, N. J., reports one son, William, with Bridgeport Steel Co. and his other son, Norman, with the Investment Dept. of New York Life. There is one grandson. Lloyd expects to retire April, 1962, after 42 years with the Telephone Company.

Stan Currier writes, "First, shortly after return from Fla., we had a granddaughter born at Bangor to daughter Joan '59, wife of William Parker '60. Then in May we got our new Howard Johnson open at Brunswick.

"While we were planning a trip to the Mediterranean and the Olympics, Priscilla spent about six weeks in the hospital and missed our Reunion at Maine. She got out just in time to make the boat and we sailed on Excalibur, August 5. Living on the boat we visited Cadiz, Seville, Gibraltar, Barcelona, Marseilles, Naples, Alexandria, Cairo, Beirut, Gaalbak, Athens and left the boat at Naples, Sept. 1, going right to Rome where we saw all of the track and field events at the Olympics and had a wonderful time. Didn't mind the heat a bit. Then we visited Naples again, Capri, Florence, Venice, Catania and Palyano in the Dolomites, Milan and the Italian Lakes and Lugano, Switzerland. Then to Nice and Cannes for a few days and back to Marseilles where we caught the Exeter of America Export Line. Then back to Italy for visits to Genoa, Leghorn and Pisa. Then back to Barcelona and Montserrat and back home on October 18 after two and one half months. We brought back 1,200 slides and many fond memories. Now I'll be working to catch up on my work for sometime, so there are no future plans. Naturally I hope to attend our 45th!"

Gorden E. Brewster, a senator to the 100th Maine Legislature, was recently appointed co-chairman of the Sea & Shore Fisheries Committee, which serves both Houses. Gordon's home address is Box 44, Ogunquit.

Rena (Campbell) Bowles has the right idea about vacations. . . For a "Fun in the Sun" Xmas vacation in 1960, Rena flew by jet to some of the islands in the Caribbean. Each place featured a myriad of activities. St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands, San Juan, Puerto Rico, scenic Haiti, and Jamaica offer much for a wonderful vacation. Unique shops and markets for shopping, warm ocean, blue water for swimming every day, and the opportunity to enjoy beaches and sunshine to get a real sun-tan has advantages over "Winter-Wonderland" in the north in Rena's estimation.

Hear from you in April or May. See you in June. Plan YOUR vacation for June reunion time.

The idea of area reporting has been tried before. It is however most encouraging to have received letters from Everett P. Welch, Dr. Spurgeon English, Estelle Nason, and Homer Ray. And I wish to thank them one and all for their help and kind remarks.

Estelle Nason has promised to help in the Orono-Bangor area. Thanks Estelle for your nice letter and your promise to help. As a former class secretary, you are aware of the difficulties in reporting. Estelle sent two items which I know are of interest: Her sister Frances Nason has retired from Home Economics teaching and Management of the School Lunch Program in Ansonia, Conn., and is now located at 59 Deering St., Portland, Maine. She also reports that our friend since college days, Ardis Lancey Moore (Mrs. George) of Pittsfield will be at Clearwater Beach, Florida, at 699 Bay Esplanade, after January 20th. Ardis was class secretary for a long time, and when I last saw her in Orono it was apparent that the Florida winters were very kind to her.

Doc English wrote a nostalgic letter which is very much appreciated. I am sure that Doc will send along any news he can. Thanks, Doc, for your splendid letters—let's have more.

Homer Ray came through again with a most interesting letter of his visit again to the U. S. Northwest and Juneau, to see his doctor son. Thanks, Homer, for your letter and we will send any alumni names in your area to you.

The December 8, 1960, Kennebec Journal reported a testimonial dinner for Leroy S. Huckins of Winthrop, formerly from Lubec. Hutchins and Huckins lined up almost side by side in the R.O.T.C. and Chapel, it is therefore no surprise that we knew each other. Leroy was Superintendent of the Hallowell schools since the early 1930's. Our congratulations go out to you, Leroy, for over 30 years of top grade service in selecting teachers, etc., in such an important area of our State. The overall impact by the teachers upon our youth can never be measured, however, the long years of service for our youth in teaching or supervising their activities comes near the top as our number one problem today.

I was delighted to hear of Dr. Doris Twitchell Allen's outstanding work as follows: "Have just returned from Oslo, Norway, where I attended a meeting of the International Board of Directors of Children's International Summer Villages. I have just completed my term as chairman of the board and also as international president. The headquarters are being moved to Oslo, until the next triennial meeting." Doris's address is at 30 West Fountain Ave., Glendale, Ohio.

Sincere congratulations go also to Kenneth F. Woodbury. When Jersey City State College conferred an honorary degree of Doctor of Letters upon him, the citation said in part: "As chairman of the Commissioners Committee on School Health, as member of the Delegate Assembly of the New Jersey Education Association, as president of the New Jersey Department of Superintendents, as president of the New Jersey Association of County Superintendents, and as president of the New Jersey Adult Education Association here truly is a dedicated man who has given his whole life in service to his fellow-men." He is now Assistant Commissioner of Education in New Jersey and resides at 100 Hauxhurst Ave., Weehawken, N. J.

Dear Classmates:

Ted Hatch, industrial health engineering expert and professor at the Univ. of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Public Health, will act as chairman of an Occupational Health Committee to study health problems in the State of Pennsylvania.

Michael C. Gentile of Lewiston has been appointed by the Maine Merchants Association to serve on its committee to help promote Maine and its products. This committee will meet from time to time with the Department of Economic Development with a view to being of assistance to the State.

Irene (Guppy) Parsons is asst. supt. of the Presbyterian Home of Maryland, Inc., which is a church residence for elderly people in Towson 4, Md. Irene writes that she enjoyed a recent trip back to Maine and also a visit with her older son and his family at Akron, Ohio. Her son is Dr. Robert L. Parsons '51 who married Beverly Pettengill '53 and they have four children.

The only news from our home in rural Maine is that we are having some perfectly beautiful snowstorms this winter. We have had a great deal of pleasure feeding wild birds. They have a difficult time in cold snowy weather.

Our best greetings are extended to you all.

Robert "Bob" Haskell, president and director of the Bangor Hydro-Electric Co., has been reappointed by Gov. John Reed to the Advisory Board of the Department of Economic Development for the State. "Bob" was also reelected a director for his 15th year of the Merchant's National Bank of Bangor, and elected as a vice president of the bank for the coming year. He is also a director of the Penobscot Chemical Fibre Co., of Boston, with mills in Maine and Mass. "Bob" is president of the board of trustees of the Eastern Maine General Hospital. As a hobby, "Bob" makes antique furniture reproductions. For the past few years he has made cribbage boards, using rare woods and in-lays, and given them to hospitals and institutions.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Grant of Augusta are the proud grandparents of David Charles Dudley, born Nov. 17, 1960, son of Carol (Grant) and Charles O. Dudley. Carol graduated from Gorham State Teachers College in 1959 and Charles is a student at the University in the class of 1962. They reside in Orono. The Grants also have a daughter, Margaret, who is a senior in high school.

I am very sorry to report the death of Harry Stern following a long illness. Harry has been most prominent in the legal profession, locally and state wide. Our sympathy goes to his wife, Miriam, and to their two daughters, Mameve and Roberta Stern.

John Stewart shares honors with a number of other onetime residents of Bar Harbor. Samuel Eliot Morison, the eminent historian, has written "The Story of Mt. Desert Island, Maine" in which he mentions John as being the Dean of Men at the University of Maine and comments on his prominence in educational circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton (Cuddy) Bockus had the great pleasure of entertaining their one year old grandson during the holidays. Their daughter, Sue, and her husband and son arrived in this country after a tour of duty in Germany.

What a welcome relief this blizzard is. There are no mid-year exams, and it gives me a chance to watch the Inauguration. I'm looking through the crowd for a view of "our Representative," but I wouldn't blame him if he wasn't out in the 20 degree weather. Representative Clifford McIntyre did, however, close his area offices in Bangor and Washburn in December and return to Washington. Enroute he and Mrs. McIntyre spent Christmas with a married daughter, Mrs. Malcolm Andrews, in Littleton, Mass. He will reopen his offices when the 87th Congress adjourns.

There is no news from our classmates this month, so I am writing a few notes of interest about some of the sons and daughters of '33.

Lawrence Libby (Winthrop '32 and Betty '33), a U. of M. junior, was one of the recipients of an A. and P. scholarship recently.

Lynne Josselyn (Laura '33 and Robert), was one of the winners at the Maine Bear Debate Tournament at the University of Maine.

John Wilson's sons are: Tom, a junior at Brown University, is a member of Delta Upsilon. He played on the first rugby team in Brown history. Jack, a senior in high school, is captain of tennis and hockey. Chuck, a sophomore, plays varsity football. John is president of the Barrington Boosters Club which works to further promote athletics.

Lew Baldwin (Tom '32 and Martha '33), is a plebe at the United States Naval Academy.

Please help to keep '33 in print by sending along some news.

Our thanks go to Fern Turbyne for her generous contributions for the news. My instructions, "keep items brief—cover as many classmates as possible," is heart rending with all these wonderful Christmas letters that Fern has let me borrow.

"Millie" (Haney) Berdeen, who lives at 517 N. Kenmore St., Arlington, Va., is very happy with a new granddaughter. Her daughter "Ann is happy in her new home with Donna, just 3, and Laura, just!" "Millie" attended the National World Book Childcraft convention in Chicago this last fall. Her son Tom is a third year pre-med student and Bob is the last year of High. -What is all this about skin diving, Millie?

Tom Hersey, glad to hear you were elected chairman of the Penobscot County Commissioners for the third time.

Elizabeth (Blethen) Francis's husband is the first Nuclear Power Supt. at the Pearl Harbor Naval Shipyard so they have moved and are right on the water inside the ship yard. Betty's address is Code 205, U. S. Naval Shipyard, Navy #128, c/o FPC, San Francisco, Calif.

Besides being a homemaker, Shirley (Young) Brawn teaches English and social studies at Camden High School. Her address: 9 Jacobs Ave., Camden. Shirley's oldest boy is about 12 and played Little League last summer. Her other sons are named Robert and Jeffery. With the boys, homemaking and teaching, I am not surprised that Shirley is wishing for a 30-hour day.

Early in January, Frank Myers and our class president, George Cobb, happened to meet in the airport in New York and flew together to Portland. Starting January 1, George has a new position—vice president of Standard Packaging Corp. and general manager of Brown and Bigelow Co.—a remembrance advertising company. At the present time his address will be: c/o Brown and Bigelow, 1286 University Ave., St. Paul 4, Minn. He plans to move his family from Connecticut to St. Paul in June. George and Arlene (Higgins '36) have four children: Ralph, at Harvard Business College; Cynthia, at Garland Junior College in Boston; Marilyn, at Rosemary Academy in Greenwich, Conn.; and Jeff, at Brunswick School in Greenwich, Conn.—elected captain of football team, plays hockey and baseball.

Frank Myers of Old Town was chairman of 1935's 25th Reunion last June. He is associate director of the Summer Session at the University of Maine. Married to Eloise (Hutchinson '38), who teaches at Old Town High School, he has a teenage son and daughter.

William Jones, 29 Oak Manor Lane, Pittsford, N. Y., is now executive vice president of the Central Trust Co., Rochester, N. Y. Bill's oldest daughter graduated from Mt. Holyoke in June. The James' also have a son and two younger daughters.

Donald MacNaughton, president and treasurer of Roger's Jewelry store in Bangor, has moved his business from Hammond Street to 10 Broad Street. It is a lovely new store and we wish Don much success. Don and Naida (Sanders '37) live in Hampden and have two sons, Thomas, 12, and David, 5.

Carolyn (Currier) Lombardi was recently re-elected to the Dental Health Advisory Committee in Bangor, and Ed Webster was elected to the Bangor Planning Board.

More news from the Websters in the announcement of Judy's engagement to William Underkoffler, son of Dr. and Mrs. Leland Underkoffler of Woodcliff Lake, N. J. Bill is doing graduate work in Electro-Chemistry at the U. of Wisconsin. They plan to be married in June.

Natalie (Harvey) Welch (Mrs. Bernard) lives at 4 Wingate Court, Bangor, and has four children, Thomas, 13; Mary, 10; John, 8; and Robert, 4. Her husband is a member of the Bangor Police Dept.

Nat said she had heard from Mary (Trenor) Divinal (Mrs. Charles) who lives in Tilton, N. J., and has three sons, the oldest of whom graduated from high school in June.

This is the last opportunity that I will have to plead with all of you who have not donated to the Class Fund to do so before March 31st if possible. We would like to break the record for 25 year giving. At present writing (Jan. 23) only 54 members, out of a mailing list of 400, have participated. That's a pretty poor percentage, but I hope that many of you intend to give, but have just neglected to send your contributions in. Actor Abbott and his committee have given a lot of time and effort to this campaign over the past four years—now let's make one huge effort to cooperate with them. Make your checks payable to "Class of 1936 Gift Fund" and mail them to Mrs. Richard Clarke (Ann Eliasson), 79 Viscount Road, Longmeadow, Mass.

We were much pleased at President Elliott's announcement that Bill Whiting was to be in charge of the summer school at the University of Maine in Portland. His title will be Assistant to the Director of the Summer Session and the General Extension Division. Bill, who was Assistant Professor of Speech at the University for some years, went to the Portland campus in the fall of 1959. There he has combined teaching speech with student advising and other administrative work. The Whitings are living at 941 Broadway, South Portland.

Another '37 "name in the news" is Dick Berry. Dick, a former Fire Commissioner of Malden, Mass., a former member of the Common Council of that city, and for some time a consulting engineer in Cape Elizabeth, has purchased the Cape Elizabeth home of Bette Davis, a most attractive house and certainly a glamorous place to live. He is also serving this area in the 100th State Legislature.

Among the attractive girl skiers whose pictures heralded the 1961 winter sports season in the Portland Sunday Telegram's society pages, was Patricia Brewster, daughter of our classmate, Wendell Brewster. Patricia attends Miss Wheelock's school in Boston.

From the Alumni Office, we learn that John Grady is President of the Maine Reduction Company in Brooks, Maine, his address being RFD 1, Belfast.

John Averill is owner of the John F. Averill Co., Farm Equipment and Supplies, Fort Fairfield. His address is 2 Brown St., Fort Fairfield.

Cranston Folley, who lives on Ocean View Road, Kennebunk, is a project engineer with Saco Lowell Automotive Division, Saco.

I understand one of the popular teachers at Old Town High is our own Eloise (Hutchinson) Myers. Husband Frank is associate director of the U. of M. Summer Sessions.

And Les Tarbell is a candidate for the Walpole School Committee.

Among the past King Lions of the Bangor-Brewer Club honored recently was Howard Goodwin. Also noted Arnie Veague's name among the officers of the Penobscot Bar Assoc.

Met Dick Waldron's wife at the Sunday River Skiway recently. Dick was home baby-sitting. Their youngest had just had an emergency appendectomy. Dick is a forester in charge of the woodlands for the Chapman Lumber Co. in Bethel.

Heard rumors of Bob Schoppe being in the hospital recently—something to do with appendicitis?

Also heard rumors of an old Bachelors apartment being revived in New York City. Gossip has it that the first two tenants were named Buzz and Rod. Couldn't be Sherry and Elliott—Holy Mackerel—it just could be, at that!

Being class secretary does have its compensations—you hear from people! I've had two letters this month. This was very pleasant.

The first was from Evangeline (Anderson) Jackson, "Vangy" to many of us. She expressed a thought that I believe many of us share—"I always enjoy reading about what others are doing, but never think to send along anything about myself." Know what I mean? The Jacksons live at 11-02 Bellair Ave., Fair Lawn, N. J., close to the George Washington Bridge. Cliff Jackson, a Columbia graduate, is director of guidance for Thomas Jefferson Junior High School. Mr. & Mrs. Jackson have recently been feted by the school.

The second was from Bill Hilton. After nearly 20 years in the Engineering Dept. of duPont Bill recently transferred to the Textile Fibers Dept., as a senior research engineer in their New Products Division. His particular specialty is economic evaluations. It sounds good to me, Bill.

Bill and Mary have four children—Mary Jane, 16, now a junior who has started the inevitable job of trying to decide which college she wants; Susan, 12, in 7th grade; Peggy, 7, in 2nd grade; and Bill, 6, in the 1st grade. Bill listed as one of their many activities—"chauffering—which never ends—(does anyone live within walking distance of an activity anymore?)."

Stan Titcomb had sent a note to the Hiltons at Christmas time—enclosing a picture of his eight children—which probably explains his long silence to quote Bill. Wonderful, I say!

Charlie Leavitt of Howland, grand high priest of Maine, was installing officer for Mount Moriah Chapter when they and the Bangor Council of Royal and Select Masons held a joint installation at Masonic Temple, Bangor, recently.

Bill St. Germaine writes that he finally has taken his family for a look around the Campus.

Honey (Dougherty) Mesrobian spent the summer in Camden where she saw Skip (Creamer) Wilson.

Issie (Garvin) Maasen is busy trying to keep up with her two boys—seems like a hopeless task as they are both taller than she. Craig is even taller than Jack.

By the time this is in print, Madeline (Smart) and Wally Beardsell '40 will have returned from a Virgin Island vacation with all sorts of tall tales. They are departing with Ellen and Bob Robertson '40 which should make for quite a trip.

Ginny (Jewett) and Larry Muzzroll have been having themselves a time—both good and bad. Larry has been awarded a special coaching insignia by the Athletic Dept. at Loomis School. Ginny has been in the hospital but, from her report, is well on the road to recovery. Linda is 13 and in the 8th grade.

From the Kenneth Robertsons came their wonderful Xmas poem. They have had a vacation in Vancouver, B. C., which must have been fun.

This is short but sweet this month. We are being evaluated at the High School and I am about out of my mind with reports. If you find me a nervous wreck at Reunion, you'll know the reason why. I hope that the airlines will be loaded and the roads full of cars bringing you back to campus. Bring all of the strength and energy you can muster! Two bits of news that Warren sent along about classmates are that Joe Higgins is now at 3531 Green Acres Terr., Dallas 34, Texas, having left New Hampshire about a year ago.

And Lt. Col. Loren Stewart is attending the Army's Command and General Staff School at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. Warren says that is "where future generals get their training," so maybe we'll have a general in the class one day!

Erna (Davis) Wentworth wrote an interesting note on her Christmas card saying that she has taken a part time job as program consultant for the Eastern Maine Tuberculosis and Health Association (she mentions, too, that Howard Cousins is a Director of this Association). Erna's husband, Paul, had a very successful first season last summer of running the Toddy Pond Lake Side Marina—featuring boating, bathing, and picnicking. The Wentworths live in Orland, which is near Bucksport, and Toddy Pond is in that same general area. Thurlow Pitts, who is principal of Ellsworth High School, has been named president-elect of the Maine Teachers Association. He takes office a year hence.

Richard Doile has been elected vice president of Burton Saw and Supply Corporation of Worcester. This was a newly created post, and Dick was formerly manager of the same company.

Robert Washburn of Augusta was recently nominated by Governor John Reed to head the State Division of Veteran Affairs. He has been serving as the department service officer for the Maine American Legion. The appointment is a four year term.

Otis served three years as Guilford's town manager and was an engineer employed by the General Electric Co. prior to his employment by the KWPC. He is active in several organizations of a civic and service nature. Mrs. Bacon is the former Katherine Gilbert. She and Otis have three children.

Recently, the engagement of Nancy Marshall to John Everett, Jr. was announced. The bride-to-be attended Drexel Institute and the University of Pennsylvania. She is a graduate of Barnard College. John graduated from the Cornell Law School and is a lawyer with the Federal Power Commission in Washington. Much happiness to you both!

Christmas cards from many of you brought news for the column. It has actually been too long lately and has had to be cut—I'll try to work everyone in gradually!

Mary (Bilings) Orsenigo wrote that they had visited the Charles Chapmans in Oklahoma last summer. Their sons are 5 and 3½ and they are still in Belle Grade, Fla.

Joe and I just returned from a week's skiing—saw many U. of M'ers, but no '44ers on the slopes. We talked with Jinny and Joe Hay and spent a wonderful evening with Max and Arline Carter. I hear from Dolly & Walter Reed and I'm sure all of you have seen theirs and their children's pictures in the write-ups of the Governor's family.

Charles and Anita Stickney wrote a letter with news of them and their four lovely children. Their home is Cutter House, Yarmouth.

My card from Rhoda (Tolford) & Walt Schwartz came from Hawaii this year—32 McGrew Loop, Aila, Hawaii.

Ginny McIntire took time to write a nifty note. She and Clarence went to Bermuda last spring. Ginny had seen Esther (Randall) Bacas and her babies last summer. Their new addition, Bridget, is a St. Bernard puppy.

"Boxcar" Jones wrote from Hawaii—he and his wife and 5 children love it there! Their children range from a senior in high school to a 2 year old.

Heading the Student Health Service at the University is Dr. Robert A. Graves. After graduating from the University of Rochester's Medical School, he spent two and a half years in Army service, mostly in Japan, and had more than seven years of private practice in Fort Fairfield. He and Josephine (Otto) are living in Orono.

At a recent meeting of the Maine Veterinary Medical Association Dr. Camille A. Gardner was elected its new president. He will also serve as hospitality chairman when the New England veterinary Medical Association holds its convention at Poland Springs in October. Dr. Gardner resides at 937 Main St., Lewiston.

Mary P. Boone was elected recently to be the new vice president of the Maine Teachers Association at a meeting in Augusta. Mary is a social studies teacher and guidance counselor at Calais Memorial High School.

Dottie (Currier) Dutton sent along the following information: Priscilla (Moore) Cannon and family have moved back to Maine and are in Limestone. Their daughter, Jean, has Doris (Dexter) Thompson as her scout leader. Besides Jean, Priscilla and Wilbur have a son, Jeff. Jean (Ritchie) and Hol-yoke (Hokie) Adams are living in Rockville, Conn., R.F.D. 2. Their children are Peggy in the 7th grade, Doug, 4th, and Sarah, 1st. They also have two pre-schoolers. The Robert Angels '44 are in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and are enjoying the winter there. Dottie also sent along a very newsy letter from Virginia (Stewart) Hall saying that she and Gene are living at 4642 Hilltop Dr., El Sobrante 11, Calif. Their children are Stewart, 13, David, 9, and Bonnie, 5. Ginny is a real busy person, with all her outside activities and she has a real estate license.

Last week at a meeting of the North Shore U. of M. Alumni, I saw Betty (Collis) Eck. They have recently moved to 49 High St., Newburyport, Mass.

15th Reunion, June 9-10-11, 1961

Well, the Christmas mail brought greetings and news from a few '46ers which I'm glad to pass along.

Class President Ginny (Tufts) Chaplin wrote about her family's busy year, with Jim, 11, and Billy, 9, active in scouting, sports, and camping; Anne, 4½, occupied with ballet lessons, Sunday school, and keeping her mother company; Joe involved with P.T.A., Boy Scouts, church and an expanding business; and Ginny working hard with various boards and women's societies. Their August vacation through parts of Canada, New York, Vermont, and New Hampshire with a 15-foot house trailer sounded like a lot of fun.

The trailer idea was apparently a popular one last summer. Mary (Libby) and Dick Dresser wrote about taking off for Philadelphia with a camping trailer and seeing the sights of the city and the surrounding Amish country in daily sorties from their pondside campsite. Apparently living back in Maine is proving quite pleasant, too. Glad to hear it!

John and Barbara Brookings's card showed a whole skating rink full of Brookings—parents plus Linda, Judy, Jacky, Bruce, Barby, and little David.

New addresses: Mrs. Carroll M. Ross (Marion McCurdy), 33 Andrews Ave., Falmouth, Portland; Mrs. Walter Witham (Fern York), 34 Drum Lane, Box 53, Sudbury, Mass.

Save the dates of June 8 & 9. That's when our 15th Reunion comes up. You'll be hearing details.

It is always good to see Maine grads taking an active part in government, I think, and want to report that two new members of the Governor's Executive Council are Ronald Speers, Braside St., Winthrop, and Harry Treworgy, Orono, who replaces Bob Browne '48, Bangor. And in Bangor, Gerry Rudman was reelected for a three year term to the Civil Service Commission.

By the time you read this Richard Perkins will be back in Ipswich, Mass., 48 North Perley Ave., but he'll be telling friends about his six weeks in Buenos Aires. Just imagine going into a summer climate! Perk is with Sylvania Electric as supervisor of product engineering.

The Jim Beaudrys (Joan Martin, GSTC) welcomed their third child, Rebecca Joan, on Nov. 4. Beth Ann is 2½, and James Martin, 14 mo. Jim is teacher-coach at Norway High School and the family is living at 22 Tucker St.

Ralph Flynn, Bangor, has been promoted from captain to major in the Maine Air National Guard. Ralph is director of administrative service for the 101st Air Defense Wing.

Word has drifted down of a party held way last Labor Day weekend at the James Gilchrist's in Bar Mills. Among those present were Oscar Paradis and Jacques DuPont, George '50 and Norma (Moore's '52) Gray, Bob Brewster '45, Sally Gilchrist '55, and Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Milliken '50. Sojnds as if everyone had an excellent time.

Perhaps some of you saw the article on Ted and June Gridley in the Portland Sunday Telegram. The Gridleys are active volunteers in behalf of Portland's Cerebral Palsy Center. June does a great deal of speaking, and conducts group tours through the Center while Ted often shows CP films to groups. The Gridleys live at 743 Stevens Ave. with their four children. The youngest attends sessions at the Center.

Norman E. Smith, Jr., 801 Robinhood Lane, La Grange Park, Ill., writes that he has returned to Illinois Bell Telephone Co., Chicago, from two years on loan to Western Electric Co., Defense Projects Div., New York City. The family bought a new home in La Grange.

M-Sgt. Duncan M. Robinson was recently assigned to the 2nd Armored Div. at Fort Hood, Tex. Sorry that I haven't his complete address for you.

Dr. Walter Murray, GP, opened his office in Plainville, Conn., in December. Before going to Conn., Dr. Murray had a private practice in Old Town and Castine. The new address is 12 Maiden Lane

I still have a few news items from dues cards, so if any of you are wondering what ever happened to the news you sent, be assured that I have it and will get it into the column as soon as possible.

Next month is a special issue of the Alumnus, so I'll be seeing you in May.

Hello classmates, especially to you in the warm climates. It may please you to know we've had a good old fashioned Maine Winter—lots of cold and snow!

Congratulations are in order for Phil and Doris (Toabe) Nectow—their third child, second son, Barry Steven, joined the family in August. They'd love to hear from "some of the old gang" at 679 Morraine St., Marshfield, Mass.

The engagement of Joyce B. Schneider to Maurice Weisman has been announced. Maurice attended Maine and is a graduate of Suffolk University and Miss Schneider was graduated from Boston University School of Education.

Wedding bells rang in December for Maurice Aspinall and Madaline Merriam. Mrs. Aspinall was graduated from Farmington State Teachers College and has done graduate work at Maine and Maurice has his Masters Degree from Maine; both are elementary school teachers in Auburn. The newlyweds are residing at 134 Russell St., Lewiston.

Sheila Bell and Robert C. Jameson are engaged. Robert is employed by Universal CIT in Bangor. Cynthia Dunham has been appointed an instructor of nursing at the University. Cynthia received her R.N. and Master of nursing degree from Yale University School of Nursing in 1957.

Hazel and John Staveven write that John has been promoted to Captain. On the same promotion orders were fellow classmates Tom Fallon and Dave Thurlow. The Stavevens number five now, with three children ages 4, 3, and 1, and would love to see any visitors at Quarters 8631, Fort Lewis, Washington.

Have you seen your name in this column, lately? ? ?

We welcome Joe Mawson back into our ranks! Joe, who received his masters degree from Duke University in 1958, is an instructor in the forestry department at the University of Massachusetts. He and Betty (LaFurley '54) have two sons, Jay and Christopher, who celebrated his first birthday on July 12. The family resides at 314 North Pleasant St., Amherst, Mass.

Reginald Bowden had his bags packed for a cruise to the Mediterranean with the Maine Maritime Academy when he was offered the post of press secretary to Governor John Reed. He says that it was an opportunity that he could not pass up so he reported to Augusta on January 16. We wish you "Good Luck" in your new venture, Reggie!

However, Robert Atwood is representing our class on the M.M.A. training vessel, State of Maine. He is among the 350 officers and midshipmen who sailed on January 3 for the following ports of call: Funchal, Madeira; Ceuta, Spanish Morocco; Barcelona, Spain; Marseille, France; Naples, Italy; and Gibraltar. They will return to Castine on March 19.

Chris '58 and Laura (Little) Moen welcomed their third child, Deborah Revere, on October 24. The little gal is named after Paul Revere's mother, who was her great, great, great, great grandmother. Sandra and Christopher III make the family complete. The Moens have been living in Ann Arbor, Michigan, while Chris attended the University of Michigan Law School.

Kristi was added to the family tree of Al '54 and Mary Alice (Hastings) Bancroft on December 30. Brenda is 3½ and Leslie was two last month. Al, who is an agricultural engineer with Agricultural Engineers, Inc., Gorham, and the "women in his life" reside at 200 Spurwink Ave., Cape Elizabeth.

Tommy Hussey is the bright spot at 111 West Monroe St., Chicago 3, Ill., where he lives with his parents, Barbara and Charlie. His daddy is associated with a local law firm.

5th Reunion, June 9-10-11, 1961

Winter may be approaching its end at long last! According to the newspapers, Anchorage has had an even milder winter than Maryland. What a revoltin' development that is! Did manage to get in some skiing and skating, though, so all was not lost. On with the news—

Via Jack Coffin we have finally received news of Norm Roux and wife Marilyn (Noe, of Roselle Park, N. J.). Norm and Marilyn have a son and are living at 5A Garden Drive, Roselle, N. J.

A note from the Bill Hammans tells us that they are living permanently in Cincinnati, Ohio, where Bill is a salesman for the inorganic branch of Monsanto Chemical Co. Big brother Mark and little brother Scott complete the family. The Hammans live at 2079 Forestlake Drive, Cincinnati 44, Ohio.

Another '56'er heard from—Alice (Kelson) Longmore and husband Mike are still at Fort Sill, perhaps for another year or so. Mike is writing mat notes for gunnery, and housewife Alice is raising Scott and a little newcomer, whose name we've not heard yet.

Pat (Fortier) Doten and Herb are living at 8 Gilbert Street, Orono, while Herb is working on his Master's and instructing full time at the University. They have three daughters—Debbie, Dotie, and Kathy.

Ruth and Bill Meyer are living in Ithaca, New York, at 220 S. Geneva Street, where Bill is with Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. Daughter Linda is one and a half and quite the young lady!

Lester S. Shapiro is teaching social studies at Hollis High School. He and his recent bride, Claudia F. Moynihan of Portland, are living at 201 State Street in Portland.

First Lieutenant George A. Quirk has been assigned as executive officer of the Lewiston-Auburn Marine Corps Reserve Unit, 103rd Rifle Company. Joseph and Judy (Sawyer) Dell are living at 412 So. Albany Street, Ithaca, N. Y.

Harold D. Baker is teaching English at Newport High School, and is living at 117 Elm Street in Newport.

More news next month, folks. Plan now to attend Reunion in June—it's a big one this year.

Jan (Putnam) and Art Lazarus '57 moved soon after Labor Day from Machias to Raynham, Mass. The Lazarus family now numbers four—Elaine is almost two and Margery Ann is six months.

News comes from San Carlos, Calif., that Anne Wyman is keeping busy and happy getting settled and teaching Grade One in Sunnyvale. Her address there is 836 Walnut St., Apt. 9.

Liz Collins is within 25 miles of Anne at 2009 Vallejo St., San Francisco 23.

Congratulations to Barbara (Tyler) and Robert Gray '56! Their son Laurence made his debut at 12:01, Jan. 1—the first born in Bangor or Brewer in 1961! Laurence is the Grays' (142 Pine St., Bangor) first baby.

News has come that Dana Kierstead married Patricia Hobbs in St. Petersburg, Fla., last Aug. 6. The couple are making their home at 502 Maxwell House Apts., 1002 Greene St., Augusta, Ga.

Joyce (Stewart) Wickett, Box 16, Stillwater, a medical technologist, is now head of the Hematology Dept., Eastern Maine General Hospital.

Ronnie Burnham, recipient of a Master's Degree from Maine last June, is now teaching chemistry and science at Cony H. S. in Augusta. His home address—RFD 2, Monmouth.

Bill Treworgy has been appointed municipal manager of Essex and Essex Junction, Vt. Formerly Bill had been assistant manager of Stokie, Ill., a Chicago suburb.

Stanley Hanson of Farmington will be Congressman Stanley Tupper's executive assistant. Stan, father of two, is also assistant sales promotion manager of the Farmington woodturning concern and president of the Franklin County YGOP. Sounds great!

And the month would hardly be complete without one engagement—Gene Carter and Judy Kittredge '59 will be married in Bangor on June 24. Gene is a senior at NYU School of Law in the Root-Tilden Scholarship Program and is chief clerk of the Moot Court. Very best wishes to you both!

Snow and more snow. Those of us down here in the New Jersey and New York area might very well feel as if we were still in Maine. The month of January seems to be a popular month for weddings. Starting the new year off right are H. Elston and Judy (Bjorn) Hobbs, now living in Bradley, where Judy is an elementary school teacher. Elston is a junior at Maine. Gerard and Judy (Pride) de Grandpre spent their wedding trip in Kentucky, where Gerard is stationed at Ft. Knox. Living in Anniston, Ala., are Kenneth and Janice (Jordan) Christian. Ken will shortly report to the Officer Training School at Fort McClellan, Ala. Married in December were Willard and Louise (Getchell) Farnham who are living at 1 Newhall Street in Fairfield. Louise is an economic teacher at Lawrence High School in Fairfield, and Bill is director of physical education at Farmington High School. Living in Bangor are Richard and Edith (Cheney) Hooke. Richard will graduate from the University in June with a B.A. degree in psychology. Another marriage of interest is that of Rena Hilton to James McAllister of Saugus, Mass.

The following engagements have been announced: Sylvia Stody to Edward Dodge. Sylvia is teaching at King Philip Junior High School in West Hartford, Conn., and Ed is presently an agent for the Farm Bureau Mutual Insurance Co. Barbara Connor to Neal Doucette. Babs is teaching at the High School in Saugus, Mass., and Neal is a senior at the University. An April wedding is planned. Kay Fraser to Douglas Covell. Kay is a junior at Maine, and Doug is presently on active duty with the U. S. Army at Fort Dix, N. J. Jeanette Benn to Robert Anderson. Jeanette is a senior at Colby College. ELECTED TO LEGISLATURE

Elected to the 100th Maine Legislature to fill the vacancy created by the sudden death of Lester E. Brown '14L (See Necrology), was Richard N. Berry '37 of Cape Elizabeth.

A native of Malden, Mass., Mr. Berry moved to Cape Elizabeth in 1950. In Malden, he was a city councilor, fire commissioner and member of the GOP city committee. During World War II he was an officer in the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, serving in both the South Pacific and European theaters.

Mr. Berry is married to the former Katherine Cook Bunker '37 of Calais. The Berrys have three sons.

from Lockland Air Force Base, Texas, where he was with the National Guard. Patricia McGuire to Frank Domingos of Gloucester, Mass. Pat is teaching first grade in Lexington, Mass., and Frank is doing graduate work at Maine. They plan to be married this summer. Also in Lexington is Jane Small who is teaching in the elementary grades. Her address is 21 Spring Valley, Arlington, Mass. Sidney Cousins is employed with the Suffolk Farms in Chelsea, Mass. Fred Varricchio is presently attending the University of Connecticut School of Law. Eddie Carrier is employed with the Bank of America in California. His address is 661 No. Church St., Gelroy, Calif. Felecia (Schroetel) Webster is currently teaching high school English to the "cane-brake children" of Louisiana. This semester she begins graduate studies in Library Science at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge. Richard C. Roy has completed the Cadet Engineering Training Course at Barby Meter Company and has been assigned to the Company's Pittsburgh district office as a sales-service engineer.

For the first time I am adding something new to our column, and I hope that news like this will continue to come to me from now on. A Christmas present to Charlie and Jean (Toothaker) Chapman was Peter Hugh Chapman, born on Christmas Eve and weighing 8 lbs, 6 ozs. Charlie is principal of Addison High School and is also teaching Math and Science. Born on December 13th was Dorothy Anne Warren to Gene '59 and Julie (Tripp) Boothby. They are living at R.D. 1, Route 24 in Phillipsburg, N. J. Gene is a development engineer for Ingersall-Rand Co. Art and Judy (Clark) Rankin are living at 418 Dean St. in Waverly, Ohio, where Art is employed in the Tech. Service Dept. of the Meah Corp. Paper Co. They have a daughter, Debbie, who is 17 mos. old.

For those of you know Priscilla Anderson living with me here in New Jersey—she became engaged to Robert Leach of Rockland. Bob is a junior at Husson Business College in Bangor.

AEROSPACE INTELLECTS

Creative technical intellects constitute a very substantial percentage of our nearly 5,000 employees. Our 15 or so really great scientists — national authorities on electronics, computers, propulsion, optics, magnetic phenomena, solid-state physics, applied mathematics and other phases of aerospace science — are only a small fraction of the full range of Kollsman brain power.

Our hundreds and hundreds of highly specialized engineers and technicians are an all-important part of it, and so are our master lens grinders who can hand-polish a lens to tolerances of a few millionths of an inch.

Some of these men can trace their career back to the days when Kollsman became a household word among fliers as the flight instrument company. We still are. But ever since the boundary between air and space disappeared, we have been finding ourselves more and more in the space part of the aerospace business.

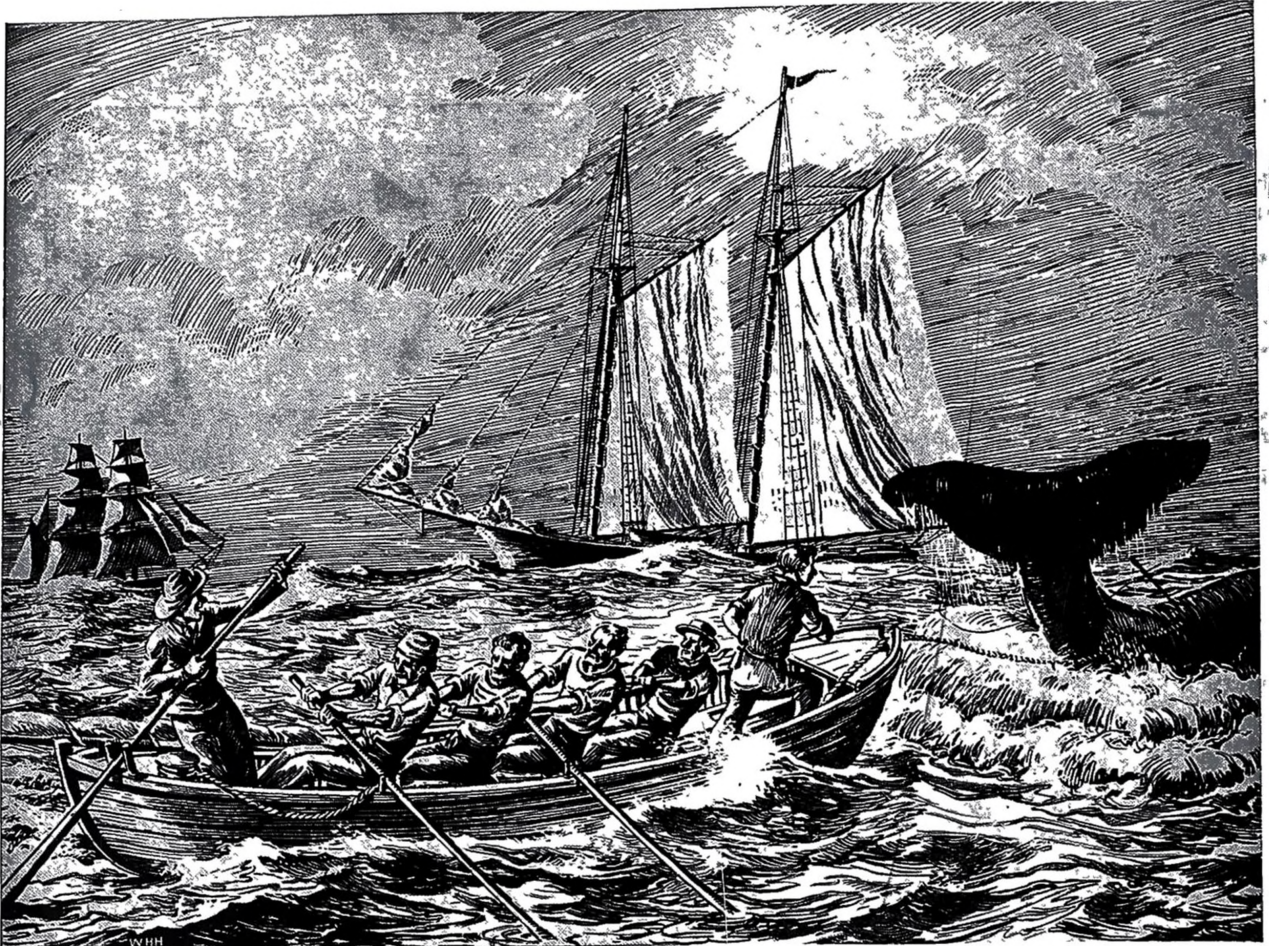

Some people think, for example, that we are the astronavigation company today. And we may easily be the company for the particular aerospace business you have on your mind. Our best minds — the industry's leading aerospace intellects — are at your service.

Here is what we are delivering to our customers today:

- Astro Trackers
- Automatic Astro Compass
- Air Data Computers
- Electromechanical Systems
- Missile Components & Systems
- Jet Engine Instruments
- Flight Instruments
- Kollsman Integrated Flight Instrument System
- Optical Systems & Components
- Doppler Computation Systems
- Sextants (Periscopic, Handheld, Photoelectric)
- Controls for Aircraft, Missiles & Space Vehicles
- Flight Simulator Instruments
- Laboratory Test Instruments

Whaling

NEW BEDFORD is the New England town usually associated with early whaling days. The great, graceful "whalers" were known over the entire world as the sturdiest, finest ships afloat, and the term "New Bedford Whaler" was applied to all of them. Their fame will last in song and story and their beauty never fade from great paintings. They were about the last of the great sailing ships, and as far cry indeed from the ugly if efficient "factory" ships of today.

What is not too well known is that some of those same whalers were built in Portland. Neal Dow in his "Reminiscences" tells of sailing, when a young man, "in a new and clean ship just built in Portland for New Bedford parties engaged in the whaling business, and to be fitted as a first class whaler."

Whales were not unknown from early days around Portland waters up to the latter part of the nineteenth century. They yielded quantities of fine quality oil, but the Massachusetts town to the south had already established itself as a whaling capital and home port for the whaling industry.

The great ships were frequently seen in Portland Harbor, where they would seek shelter from storms, and the sight of one making port must have been thrilling to even the most sea-hardened of Portlanders.

Captain Benjamin Willard in his "Life History and Adventures" tells of one amusing incident in 1866, when all the shipping in the Harbor was alerted by the presence of a 30-foot whale. The unwelcome visitor eluded all efforts to capture him, but back and forth all day long, churned between Vaughan's and Portland Bridge. Crowds collected on the banks and bridges, cheering when the whale surfaced to "blow" and peering anxiously when he submerged. Finally, on flood tide, he escaped to the open water beyond Portland Bridge and was seen no more. Shortly after this a seven-ton blackfish was captured by Captain Willard. It measured twenty-four feet in length and twelve feet in circumference. Another whale Captain Willard tells of sighting "was between fifty and sixty feet long." When harpooned, he towed Willard's little ship, the "Nettle," many miles before he tired and was brought to side.
