REPORT OF THE PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE, 1943

Public health nursing is part of the whole community health, medical and educational. The public health nurse is responsible for recognizing health problems and related social problems of families and individuals and for assisting them to formulate and carry through plans for the protection and promotion of their own health.

What a child needs for health and growth is to be well born. Being well born depends on the health of the mother during prenatal period and upon the child's being born safely. Visits were made during the year to expectant mothers to assist them in carrying out their physicians' instructions, to provide the patient with general information as to diet, personal hygiene, and to assist the patient in making arrangements for pre and after care. To develop good health habits, the baby should from the first have regular hours for eating, sleeping, sunshine and play, but the schedule should be flexible and adjusted to his individual needs.

Three well child conferences were held this year. Children under six years of age were given a complete physical examination. Immunization against diphtheria and smallpox were offered at the conference.

Homes were visited by the public health nurse to advise parents regarding the care of their children and to demonstrate to them how much care may be given. Protection from communicable disease depends upon the extent to which the community cooperation in recognizing and securing treatment of early symptoms.

An important function of the public health nurse is the crippled children's program with facilities for locating crippled children and giving them medical, surgical, hospital and after care services, to aid in their physical restoration and social readjustment.

I wish to express my appreciation also to all other individuals who have assisted with the program, especially the busy physician. It is to be hoped that the health work will be increased during the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

THERESA McNEIL,
Public Health Nurse.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

It gives me a great deal of pleasure to present to you my second annual report as your Superintendent of Schools. This year has shown to me, and to those of you who are vitally interested in the welfare of your children and their education, what can be accomplished when grades and children of about the same ages are segregated and each teacher has a fewer number of grades with which to work. Divisions can be made and those whose work seems to come a bit slower can have an opportunity to work more at his own speed and obtain from the teacher individual help. Every school in our Town has shown a marked improvement in the amount of work accomplished and the grade of work done.

Your Superintending School Committee found itself confronted with a very difficult problem at the beginning of school last fall, that of an increased enrollment of about forty pupils. (We have averaged thirty-four the entire year). This problem presented the following fact, that two of our buildings must house over fifty children. This in itself was an impossibility, also, at least twenty-five of the new pupils must be transported. After careful study it was found, that a graded system could be set up with the same amount of transportation which must be required and to leave the lower grades in most cases, at their own school. The results of the above arrangement can be easily seen. New books have been purchased, seats for thirty or more have been bought, and additional cars have been secured for transportation. These extra expenditures have been caused, to a large degree, by our increased enrollment. Next year will be even larger, which brings us face to face with our major problem—transportation. I believe the most satisfactory and economical solution to this is the purchase of a suitable school bus. The need is apparent and should be settled once and for all. I believe it is possible to obtain a bus through the Office of Defense Transportation and if voted at your annual meeting, I will attempt to obtain this type of conveyance. Much credit is due the ladies and gentlemen who have attempted this huge task of carrying the children to and from our schools. The great expense has been more on the individual owners than on the Town as cars cannot be replaced at this time. I am sure our taxpayers and parents will give this consideration and support.

The overdraft is caused entirely by the cost of textbooks, new seats, increase in cost of fuel and additional transportation. Again may I remind you that forty additional children have been entered since last June. Our private cars are traveling a total of 173 miles daily at their owners' expense, exclusive of wages.

I wish to urge our parents and friends to visit the schools, cooperate with the teachers concerning absences, homework, and above all be mindful of the fact that when we again return to normal living, an education will be a priceless treasure.

We are very fortunate in having our present staff of teachers. They are loyal, interested, and well prepared for their work.

Only the necessary repairs to the school buildings have been made. Each schoolhouse was thoroughly cleaned. It will be necessary to do painting at several school houses in the near future.

The increased budget is to care for reasonable teacher increases, additional conveyance, and increased tuition cost. The last, being a compliment to our schools as more of our boys and girls are remaining in high school.

I am reasonably sure that our present overdrafts will be met by Federal Maintenance and Operation Funds for which our Town is eligible due to increased enrollment in defense areas.

MISCELLANEOUS
