To the respective Diplomatic Agents of the United States in Europe.

Washington, 5th April, 1839.

Sir -

This letter will be handed to you by Mr. James Chesnut, of Camden, ~~South Carolina~~ now about to visit Europe. By the request of the Secretary of War, Mr. Poinsett, I take leave to introduce Mr. Chesnut to you, and to bespeak for him, during his stay in your neighborhood, such attentions as you may find it convenient to bestow on him.

Very truly yours

John Forsyth
