FOREWORD

There has been a genuine interest in previous volumes of sketches and pictures of Ministers serving in South Carolina Methodist Churches. The first two were edited by the late Rev. Watson B. Duncan, D.D., under the title of "Twentieth Century Sketches," 1901 and 1914; the next was edited by the late Rev. E. O. Watson, D.D., entitled, "Builders," 1932; the present volume is the third under the title, "Methodist Ministers in South Carolina." The 1942 edition was edited by the late Rev. George K. Way and the late Rev. C. E. Peele, D.D. The 1952 edition was edited by the late Rev. George K. Way.

At the 1959 session of the South Carolina Conference a resolution was adopted expressing a wish that a new edition be published in 1960. Bishop Nolan B. Harmon named Adlai C. Holler, Allan R. Broome, Eben Taylor, R. Bryce Herbert and J. Marvin Rast the committee to make plans for publication. At the 1960 session definite plans concerning printing and financing were approved and the committee authorized to bring out this volume during the Conference year 1960-61.

The Rev. Adlai C. Holler, D.D., editor of the South Carolina Methodist Advocate was elected by the committee to be editor and business manager.

As in former editions, the pictures and sketches here are designed to show the features of the ministers of this day and give some measure of their accomplishments. We trust that it may have historic value as well as serving to make a larger number of our ministers known to the churches of the Conference.

NOTE: The South Carolina Conference was divided in 1914 into the South Carolina and the Upper South Carolina Conferences. They were re-united in 1948. Dates for appointments are the calendar years following the actual date of appointment. For example, appointments made at the 1960 Annual Conference are listed for the 1961 Calendar year.
