War Work Drive On Fifteen Xavier Men

St. Xavier to Fill Quota of Two Thousand Dollars

HALF THIS SUM PLEDGED BEFORE CAMPAIGN

The campaign for the Y. M. C. A., K. C., and the five other morale-strengthening organizations whose work for the soldiers and sailors is recognized by the Government, is being conducted this week. The colleges of Ohio are asked to contribute $125,000.

In some of the institutions the campaign had to be postponed for a week, owing to the closing of the schools on account of influenza. This condition does not hold at St. Xavier's, where it is hoped that by the time this issue of the "Athenaeum" is out, the boys will have gone over the top.

Rev. John McCormick, S. J., is Faculty Chairman of the campaign committee. Under his direction the captains of the various teams have been active for some days. Before the campaign began on Monday, November 11th, a thousand dollars had been subscribed by students. State officials of the United Campaign at Columbus, Ohio, to whose notice this fact had been brought, publicly commended the St. Xavier students in a circular letter sent to all the state colleges.

Following is a quotation from the aforesaid letter:

"Catholic students, mobilizing for the campaign in Cincinnati, are not waiting until the opening of the drive, November 11th. The Students' Army Training Corps of St. Xavier's College, Cincinnati, has already raised $1,000 under the leadership of John McCormick of that city.

"That payment of the first real money in the drive should be made a week ahead of time, and that men preparing to fight for democracy should be the first donors, is indicative of the patriotic spirit of the biggest money-giving campaign ever attempted."

Last year a fund of a million dollars was raised among students for the welfare of American soldiers, though no general organization had been attempted. It is expected that with the co-operation of all American colleges this year the sum will be increased to $5,000,000.

Now that the war is over it is recognized that there is greater need than ever to create a large fund for recreational purposes among the soldiers. The boys will have more leisure; hence the proper kind of entertainment will have to be promoted more extensively.

Second Lieut. John B. Hardig.

John Hardig was one of the most prominent students in St. Xavier College for several years past. In the spring of 1918 he won the medal donated by the Alumni for the best oration and that given by the college for the best rendition in elocution.

Mr. Hardig was one of the men selected to take a six-weeks' course at Fort Sheridan, Ill., during the summer, as a representative of St. Xavier's. At the end of that period he was commissioned and sent to the Small-Arms School at Camp Perry, where he specialized in the study and use of the rifle. Now he is rifle-instructor at Toledo University. Mr. Hardig was a member of St. Xavier class of 1920.

DEATH OF FATHER STENGER.

Rev. Leo J. Stenger, assistant pastor of St. Aloysius Church, Covington, Ky., died as the result of pneumonia on Sunday, November 10th. Father Stenger graduated from St. Xavier's in 1911 and was ordained at Mt. St. Mary Seminary in 1916. His friendly disposition made him a great favorite at college, and priestly zeal characterized his work in the ministry. The death of Father Stenger was a shock to his many friends and parishioners.

FIRST GRADUATES S. A. T. C.

Second Lieut. Harold E. Rieckelman.

"Ricks" acquired a good deal of fame as an athlete at St. Xavier's, particularly as a member of the football and basket ball teams. At Fort Sheridan, this summer, he took up bayonet work as his specialty, and received a certificate as instructor in that branch. Since October 1st he has had charge of a company of drafted men belonging to the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical Training Detachment, College Station, Texas. Lieut. Rieckelman was a classmate of Lieut. Hardig at St. Xavier's.

MARRIAGE OF LIEUTENANT HUNTINGTON.

Our Commandant, Lieut. Charles A. Huntington, Jr., pulled a surprise on the boys by quietly slipping away from the base of operations on the afternoon of Thursday, November 7th. His objective was somewhere close to the Eastern coast. He reached it in safety and successfully carried out carefully laid and long-matured plans. The following Sunday evening he returned victorious to Cincinnati. But, strange to say, the captor seems himself to have been captured.

The bride was Miss Margaret Stinson, of Windsor, Conn.

To the newly wed couple all the members of the Unit offer their best wishes. Though married in war, may they live in peace.

The first call has come for St. Xavier to send forward a selection of the most promising and best seasoned officer material in the S. A. T. C. The order came to have fifteen men report on November 15th at Camp Grant and Camp Gordon.

The loss of fifteen men will, without a doubt, put a hole in our Unit. Naturally, too, those who are leaving are considered the best we have. That, however, is precisely the way in which the Government's plan works out and is designed to work out in all the S. A. T. C. schools.

The vacancies in the various units of the S. A. T. C. throughout the country will be filled by new inductions. The existing educational requirements have been relaxed so that the schools may be kept up to their full allotted strength. Young men who have not the fifteen high-school units heretofore required will be received if the head of the institution and the Commanding Officer of the unit to which they apply, jointly judge them to be competent enough to pursue the program prescribed for the S. A. T. C. Due consideration is to be given to such high school training as applicants have had, as likewise to vocational and business experience, previous military training, and such personal qualifications as are desirable in an army officer.

The purpose in this new arrangement is not to abolish educational standards, but to permit such relaxations as are necessary to bring the strength of the various corps to their total authorized strength.

KEEP UP WAR INSURANCE.

The Bureau of War Risk Insurance has sent out two and one-half million certificates already. More than $35,000,000,000 worth of insurance has been taken out by the men in the service. Applications are coming in at the rate of $1,000,000,000 a week.

It is unnecessary to write to Washington for certificates. They will come in due time. In the meantime, the family of every man in the service should urge him to take out insurance, and when he has taken it out to keep up his payments.

THE S. A. T. C. MAN'S JOB.

We have in mind an old, moss-grown maxim, much used by graduating classes in days gone by. It consists of three Latin words, "Age quod agis", which, being interpreted in familiar English, may be rendered, "If you're going to do a thing, DO it". If your job is to empty out the office waste basket, to brush some other fellow's shoes, to perform the duties of the now happily obsolete K. P., or to do anything else of whatever nature, put your shoulder to the wheel as though you meant business, and see how fast you can make that old wheel spin. Doing little jobs to the best of one's ability is said to be the secret of success.

Now moralizing of this sort is admittedly redolent of the stone-age. It was ancient when our fathers' grandfathers went to school. Can it therefore be dismissed with a contemptuous "piffle!"? We think not. It does not seem to be so out of date as its hoary-headedness might lead us to surmise. For there are one or two shining examples of action along the lines of these principles, which, we think, ought to come home to us all very closely indeed. One of these is the way in which our own beloved country, in the short space of eighteen months, has, by a scrupulous and minute attention to the smallest details, progressed from the position of a nation of very dubious military efficiency, as was shown in the Mexican fiasco, to that of one of the chief, to put it mildly, military nations on the globe today. She put her mighty shoulder to the wheel with a vengeance,—with what results we all are aware.

As another example of the working of the same principle we might point to the spirit in which our boys "over there", as individuals, have gone at the business in hand. There is no need to repeat the story of their heroism. For the past year or more the columns of the daily press have been full of accounts of their prowess, as individuals and as military units. "Age quod agis" has been, at least implicitly, the motto of every mother's son.

Our present work has not the glamor that helps to urge one on. In a sense, it is far harder to study than to fight. But Uncle Sam, bless his weather-beaten old heart, expects us to make of our studies a matter of as much importance as do the "boys" the immediate preparation for going over the top. And it IS a matter of as much importance. For a member of the S. A. T. C. to shirk any part of the work assigned him is as great a stain upon his honor as an American soldier, as yielding to sleep or other remissness would be for a sentinel appointed to keep under his eye a section of No Man's Land. And we do not believe that any soldier-student would deliberately shirk in his studies. The purpose of this editorial is to call attention to the fact that an immense amount of thorough-paced shirking can be done indeliberately and before one is aware of it. Classes, except the naturally interesting ones, may become periods of day-dreaming, study-hours a time for interesting oneself in everything but the preparation for classes. Human nature, and not any ill-will, is at the bottom of this; but the soldierly honor of one of Uncle Sam's army will suffer just as much from the one cause as from the other. "Age quod agis." Paste it in your hat!

OUR THANKS AGAIN.

As an illustration of the fact that the United States soldier gets more remuneration than is put in his pay-envelope, we recall that when Father Spalding sent an S. O. S. message last month to Mr. Fred Kenkel, of the Central Bureau, St. Louis, explaining that the Xavier Unit needed football equipment, the answer came promptly in the shape of a huge consignment of togs that outfitted our squad in a first-class manner. Had the individual members of the team been obliged to pay for their own uniforms, they would have been financially embarrassed, with their thirty-dollar salaries. Had the Athletic Association been required to foot the bill, it would have gone insolvent.

Soldiers, your civilian brethren have done the handsome thing by you. The case in point is but an example. As you go on in the course of your army experience, you will meet many another instance in which you can see what others are doing for you.

This week—today and tomorrow—you have a unique opportunity to show that you are not of the niggardly sort who are looking out first, last, and forever for Number One. Contribute at least your share to the United War Fund.

We thank those kind benefactors who sent the football goods. More power to them. They are genuine Americans. And we hope those khaki jerseys will never be trailed in the mire of defeat.

S. A. T. C. STUDENTS TAKE NOTICE!

Committee on Education and Special Training.

To Commanding Officers, District Inspection Officers, District Educational Directors, and Heads of S. A. T. C. Institutions:

A plan for the future selection of men for Officers' Training Camps has been prepared and will shortly be issued. This plan provides that all men shall be rated for: (1) Intelligence, as indicated by Academic record (35); (2) Character (25); (3) Military ability (20); (4) Physical and athletic ability (20). From these ratings an eligible list will be created, and no men will be considered as officer candidates who fall below a certain place on this list. The importance of impressing upon men the need for strict attention to their studies is therefore self-evident.

Committee on Educational and Special Training,

ROBERT I. REES,
Brigadier General, U. S. A. General Staff, Chairman.

TWO MORE GOLD STARS.

The past couple of weeks brought news of the death in France of James Wallace Costigan, ex-'12, and John King, ex-'09.

"Bud" Costigan was one of those scrappy Kentucky boys who enlisted in the spring of 1917, shortly after the United States entered the war. He wanted to FIGHT for his country, so he joined the Marines, becoming a member of the famous Sixth Regiment. His death on the field was reported some time ago, but official confirmation came but recently. "Bud" gave up his life on July 31st.

John King belonged to Cincinnati Base Hospital Unit No. 25. He was overcome by pneumonia. His brother, Dr. Edward D. King, was located at the time but thirty miles away, with another unit. John died on October 14th. Just before he sailed for France he was married to Miss Marie Moser, of Covington, Ky.

JUDGE GEOGHEGAN'S APPOINTMENT.

Mayor Galvin recently announced the appointment of his former law partner, Judge William A. Geoghegan, as the Democratic member of the Board of Rapid Transit Commissioners, to succeed former County Treasurer William A. Hopkins, whose term expires November 16th. The appointment is for a term of ten years.

In announcing the appointment of Judge Geoghegan the Mayor said he had taken the first opportunity afforded him to accord recognition to his intimate friend of opposite political faith. Mr. Hopkins was not an applicant for re-appointment, but he said yesterday he would have accepted the position had it been offered to him.

His successor, Judge William A. Geoghegan, retires from the Common Pleas bench next February, having declined a nomination for a second term—Cincinnati Enquirer, November 11th.

Judge Geoghegan received his A. B. degree at St. Xavier's in 1899.

ENSIGN F. J. FOX.

Attorney William F. Fox has received word that his son, Francis J. Fox, who enlisted in the United States Navy shortly after this country was forced into the war, has been graduated from the Officers' Material School at Pelham, N. Y., and has received his commission as Ensign.

BATTALION NOTES.

Colonel George L. Converse made an official inspection of the St. Xavier S. A. T. C. in the course of the week. The Colonel is at the head of the Military Department of the S. A. T. C. for the Sixth District, which includes Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia. He expressed himself very much pleased with conditions both at the Fenwick Club and at the College. He commended the Officer in charge, especially for the excellent discipline among the members of the Unit. In the course of next month the academic inspectors will make their official visit.

The following appointments have been made: Alphonse J. Lammeier, Acting First Sergeant; Joseph F. McCarthy, Acting Supply Sergeant; Leo E. Oberschmidt, Company Clerk (Corporal); Joseph R. Meara, William G. Hardman, Albert J. Weimer, Edward V. Bedinghaus, and John E. McDonogh, Acting Corporals; Paul T. Meagher, Acting Sergeant.

As a result of the physical examination only three were disqualified out of two hundred and forty.

Orders have been received from the War Department that a monthly record of the academic grades of the members must be sent to the Committee on Education and Special Training. A similar report must be made at the end of each term.

Dr. P. H. Dorgier, who has been lecturing on Military Sanitation and Hygiene, has received a commission in the Medical Corps, with orders from the Surgeon General to report at Yale University before the end of the month. Dr. Dorgier's lectures have been most instructive and interesting; and the members of the S. A. T. C. regret very much the loss of his valuable services.

Dr. M. L. Bates has volunteered his services as instructor to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Dr. Dorgier. Dr. Bates is specially equipped for the military course in Sanitation and Hygiene. His medical studies were made in Europe under specialists; and to his experiences gained in foreign study and travel he has added literary taste and an easy charm of expression.

Rev. Henry S. Spalding, S. J., has written two pamphlets for the use of soldiers. One is entitled, "The Name of God—A Warning Against the Evil of Profanity"; and the other, "Saluting the Commander—The Soldier's Need of Prayer". Both publications are issued by the Central Bureau, 201 Temple Building, St. Louis, and are distributed free to the soldiers in the various K. of C. halls in the camps. Over ten thousand of the first publication were issued during September.

"Now, Lieutenant Tompkins," said the general, "you have the battalion in quarter column, facing south—how would you get it into line, in the quickest possible way, facing northeast?"

"BULL" BRAUN INJURED IN BATTLE.

Carl Braun, ex-'17, the plunging, low-bucking fullback who carried the ball for Xavier some five years ago, was recently reported severely injured. Carl is a member of the 15th Machine Gun Battalion. We venture to say that it took a full-sized German to stop "Bull", if the fight was hand-to-hand.

To the flag with the six white stripes.
And here's to each of the forty-eight stars,

And the oceans that lap its shore.
We've a million things in our land to love,
And they're all worth fighting for.

Blue and White Make Great Impression

Defeat Hanover, Smother Kentucky Military

St. Xavier 10, Hanover College 7. Noppenberger's toe-work and a steady, even game throughout the four quarters, resulted in a neat victory for the Xavier S. A. T. C. eleven in its first time out. The game was played with the Hanover College Unit, and was a battle all the way through.

In the first quarter, after repeated bucks that brought the play into the shadow of Hanover's cross-line, Xavier lost the ball. On the next play, however, Cushing intercepted a delayed pass and ran for a touchdown. "Noppy" kicked goal.

Hanover at once set to work to make the game worth while for the student-soldier spectators. In the second quarter a fumble on our ten-yard line gave the Indiana boys their opportunity. Mainly through the plunging of Captain Huntley the ball was pushed across. Huntley kicked goal, leaving the score tied at the end of the half.

The big feature of the game was pulled in the third quarter. With the teams lined up near the center of the field, full-back Noppenberger of St. Xavier took a poorly passed ball and booted it across the bar for three more tallies. This proved to be enough to win.

The work of the Xavier lads, especially their interference pleased the Blue and White followers. Hellenthal, Cushing, McCarthy and Noppenberger were the individual stars.

St. Xavier 48, Kentucky Military Institute 0.

Seven touchdowns and six goals were scored in the second game. The coaches, Schmidt and Lambert, had reason to feel satisfied that they have developed a winner. In delivering this crushing defeat to K. M. I., Xavier's team had occasion to show that it has a variety of plays in stock.

Eberts on the Job.

In the past year one of the weak points in the Xavier grid machine was the center position. Eberts, from Columbus, now seems destined to hold that position through all-around excellence. While Lubrecht is sure in passing the ball, he is not as aggressive. The followers of the Blue and White are already putting Eberts in the class of the famous O'Meara of 1903. Eberts is individually a wonderful runner, a deadly tackler, and a man who can stand a lot of punishment and still last through the season.

After the first few minutes of play it was readily seen that K. M. I. was no match for its opponents. Though K. M. I. was never dangerous it must be said that those S. A. T. C. boys put up a very scrappy game in the first and second quarters. In the first quarter K. M. I. received, but was unable to solve the defensive tactics of the opponents, and Owens punted to Captain Hellenthal. Then St. Xavier began to work fast. Bucks, end runs, and cross bucks seemed equally successful. When on the thirty-five-yard line Cushing, with brilliant interference, took the ball over. Noppenberger kicked goal.

One of the surprising features of the second quarter was the work of Captain Hellenthal. Besides running the team in fine style, he pulled a little end run for forty-five yards. This bit of work by the Captain put K. M. I.'s goal in danger, and after a few plunges Cushing went through right tackle for the second touchdown.

In the third quarter Hellenthal smashed through center for the third touchdown; Hellenthal kicked goal. This touchdown was followed by another in quick succession. On the kick-off Noppenberger sent the ball to the K. M. I. goal line. Owens brought the ball back ten yards. Unable to make downs K. M. I. punted. Hellenthal received the ball and ran fifty yards for St. Xavier's fourth touchdown.

St. Xavier injected fresh blood by making many substitutions in the fourth quarter. Up to this time forward passes were very little resorted to, but for variety Noppenberger shot a forward to Grause, who went over for the fifth touchdown. The other four . n points came quickly. Toward the close of the fourth quarter Garinger made a great run for forty yards and placed the ball behind the uprights for the seventh touchdown. Hellenthal kicked goal. The line-up:

For I deem a word to you
From a friended source is due,
Now that you aspire to be

My request is very brief;
Observe it, and you'll spare me joy:
Do not strew the study-floor
With paper-junk, as heretofore;
Put it in the basket, please,
And our quarrel straight will cease.
Then I'll call you bully-boy
And to me fresh source of joy.
