Dear Sir

When I saw you in town I had not seen the letter you wrote to me the week before, but I received it on my return home. I have delayed to answer it because I had not determined in what way I could best comply with your wishes. Without acknowledging any other obligation whatsoever to assist you in your difficulties ~~through the~~ ^{of} friends here & protectors ~~the~~ claims of these are so thoroughly felt ~~that~~ as to induce me to do any thing for you not incompatible with my duty to my creditors & my family. I will inform you in a few days what I will do.

Yr. friend

Wm Harrison
