Two 1961 Innovations—

The Karl J. Alter Classroom Building

Xavier's new classroom building honors the Archbishop of Cincinnati. In 1960 Archbishop Alter observed the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination, the thirtieth of his episcopal consecration, and the tenth of his coming to the Archdiocese of Cincinnati.

The Alter Building is air-conditioned throughout. Erected at a cost of $1,175,000, it contains 32 classrooms, four seminar rooms, administrative and faculty offices, the University bookstore, closed circuit television facilities, the Edward H. Kelly Lecture Hall, and the Verkamp Psychological Services Center.

Summer Evening College Classes

In 1961, for the first time, the Xavier University Evening College will offer courses in several departments. Classes will meet on Monday and Thursday evenings in the air-conditioned Alter Building from June 12 to July 31.

The Graduate School

The Graduate School, established in 1946, offers programs for the degrees of Master of Arts in classics, English, history and political science, and philosophy; the Master of Science in chemistry and mathematics; the Master of Education; and the Master of Business Administration. The School is coeducational.

For a full description of graduate degree programs write to the Dean of the Graduate School and mention the specific program in which you are interested. The following is a brief outline of the requirements for the various degrees.

THE MASTER OF ARTS AND THE MASTER OF SCIENCE

The Master of Arts and the Master of Science require—

Undergraduate prerequisites that assure the candidate's educational background.

Completion of the Miller Analogies Test.

A reading knowledge of a foreign language.

Twenty-four credit hours of graduate study in the subject.

Production of a thesis acceptable for six additional credit hours.

Completion of a comprehensive oral examination.

Applicants in chemistry must have had an undergraduate major in the subject, eight to ten hours of physics, and mathematics through calculus. Candidates in mathematics need an undergraduate major in the subject or at least twelve hours of mathematics beyond six hours of calculus. Plan A in mathematics allows students to complete twenty-four hours of class work and a thesis. Plan B includes thirty hours of class work and a research paper.

THE MASTER OF EDUCATION

The Master of Education requires at least twelve undergraduate credits in education. Candidates must complete these requirements:

Twelve credit hours in four general surveys: Philosophy of Education, Educational Psychology, Educational Administration, and Education Research.

Twelve hours in an area of concentration: administration, guidance, or elementary and secondary education; or in a subject area (especially recommended for high school teachers): business, chemistry, classics, English, history, political science, mathematics, modern languages, philosophy, communication arts, and, in summer sessions, biology and theology.

Six hours in pertinent electives.

An extensive written examination in the general field of education covered by the surveys and in the area of concentration.

THE MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

In summer sessions as well as during the academic year students may work for the Master of Business Administration. As prerequisite they must have had either thirty hours of undergraduate business subjects, including six in the Principles of Accounting and six in the Principles of Economics, or at least two years of experience in business and the prescribed courses in accounting and economics.

Candidates must complete these requirements:

Twelve hours in four general surveys: Economics of Business, Research in Business, Managerial Accounting, and Administrative Operations.

Nine hours of concentration in accounting, personnel, management, marketing, transportation and traffic, advanced business economics, and hospital administration.

A three-hour seminar: Advanced Business Problems.

Six hours in pertinent electives.

A written comprehensive examination in the general field covered by the surveys and in the area of concentration.

Candidacy

Students must apply for candidacy for all graduate degrees after they complete six hours at the University. Those judged unfit will be advised not to continue their work.
