XAVIER UNIVERSITY

166TH
COMMENCEMENT
MAY 15, 2004

“This composition of our time and place embraces six billion people with their faces young and old, some being born and others dying, some white and many brown and yellow and black. Each one is a unique individual, they all aspire to live life, to use their talents, to support their families and care for their children and elders, to enjoy peace and security and to make tomorrow better.

Thanks to science and technology, human society is able to solve problems such as feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless or developing more just conditions of life, but stubbornly fails to accomplish this. How can a booming economy, the most prosperous and global ever, still leave over half of humanity in poverty?

Injustice is rooted in a spiritual problem, and its solution requires a spiritual conversion of each one’s heart and a cultural conversion of our global society so that humankind, with all the powerful means at its disposal, might exercise the will to change the sinful structures afflicting our world.”

Rev. Peter-Hans Kolvenbach, S.J.
Superior General of the Society of Jesus
Santa Clara University, October 6, 2000

AND HONORARY
DEGREE RECIPIENT

CYNTHIA L. CROWN

Over the past 16 years, Cynthia Crown's love for Xavier University has touched those around her in countless ways. An energetic mentor, master teacher, devoted scholar and inspiring colleague, Crown has served the University in a number of capacities and has used her own research to help ensure that the Jesuit mission is effectively integrated into the curriculum and communicated to students.

Crown graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree from the honors programs of the University of Maryland Baltimore County in 1978, and completed her master's degree in community clinical psychology at the same school in 1980. She received her doctorate in social psychology from the University of Delaware in 1984.

Prior to Xavier, Crown had teaching experience at the University of Delaware, the University of Maryland Baltimore County and Thomas Jefferson University in Philadelphia. She held research appointments at Thomas Jefferson University and Columbia University where she continues to hold an honorary research position.

She came to Xavier in 1988 as an assistant professor of psychology, became an associate professor in 1992 and a professor of psychology in 1997.

Crown has been a member of a number of professional associations, including the American Psychological Association, the American Psychological Society, the Society for Research in Child Development, the Acoustical Society of America, the International Society for Infant Studies and the American Association of University Professors.

During her time at Xavier University, Crown has been the recipient of numerous grants, honors and awards, has published widely, and has served on a vast range of boards and committees. She has chaired the faculty committee, the faculty development committee and the search committee for the academic vice president.

In recognition of her achievements, professionalism and dedication, Xavier University is proud to present Cynthia L. Crown the Paul L. O'Connor Leadership Award.

PAUL L. O'CONNOR LEADERSHIP AWARD

DAVID C. FLASPOHLER

In many ways, David Flaspohler exemplifies the Xavier University family. Devoted both to the University as an institution and to those who work and learn here, Flaspohler has, during the course of his combined 45 years as a student and instructor immersed himself deeply in the life of all that is Xavier.

A Cincinnati native, Flaspohler received his bachelor's degree in mathematics from Xavier in 1961, then earned his master's degree from the University in 1962. He then went on to Rutgers University, where he received his doctorate in statistics in 1971. He began teaching at Xavier in 1962, then spent 1969 to 1970 teaching at Montclair State College before moving on to teach for a year at Clemson University. He returned to Xavier in 1971 and became a full professor in 1975.

During his career at the University, Flaspohler has been called on to fill a number of roles, including chair of the department of mathematics and computer science; dean of the graduate school; acting registrar; interim director for admission; director of institutional research, records and registration; and associate academic vice president for enrollment services. He also chaired the steering committee for the University's North Central Reaccreditation. Since 1999, he has served as the director for the Xavier Center for Excellence in Education.

Active outside the University as well, Flaspohler has published and presented in a wide range of venues. From 1980 to 2004, he authored or co-authored numerous proposals that led to more than $3 million in grants and contracts for professional development for teachers of kindergarten through grade 12. He is a member of Mathematical Association of America, Pi Mu Epsilon, the American Statistical Association, the Consortium for Mathematics and Its Applications, the National Council for Teachers of Mathematics, the Ohio Council of Teachers of Mathematics, the Greater Cincinnati Council of Teachers of Mathematics, and the American Association of University Professors.

In recognition of his dedication and long service, Xavier University is proud to present David C. Flaspohler with the Paul L. O'Connor Leadership Award.

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNUS AWARD

JAMES C. EIGEL

Throughout his life, James C. Eigel has been a steadfast believer in the immense value of education in general—and Jesuit education in particular. As a young man, that belief led him to finance his own education by working his way through Xavier. Later, as he carried his career to greater and greater levels of success, that belief manifested itself in his generous desire and willingness to make sure that others could receive the benefits of an education as well.

A Cincinnati native, Eigel received his BSBA in economics from the University in 1956 and began his professional career in sales later that year at Procter & Gamble. In 1960, he moved to the St. Regis Paper Company, again working in sales. In 1967, he founded his own company, Viking Resources Corporation, a crude oil and natural gas production company. He served as Viking's CEO until his retirement in 1999.

Eigel's belief in education has in part contributed to his deep passion for making Cincinnati a better place and for helping inner-city children improve their lives. He has been involved with the Catholic Inner-City Schools Education Fund focusing his energy on Corryville Catholic Elementary School, where he serves on the development board. But Eigel's dedication extends far beyond the inner city. He served on the board of trustees of St. Xavier High School from 1980-1988, is a member of the Friends of Ursuline Academy and serves on the development board for the Sisters of Notre Dame.

Eigel has been a tireless supporter of the University as well. Along with Delrose, his wife of 48 years, he established the James C. and Delrose M. Eigel Scholarship at the University in 1997. His gifts also have helped make possible the establishment of the University's Community Building Collaborative.

An avid golfer and sports fan, Eigel is a longtime supporter of the Musketeer men's basketball teams. In 1984 he stepped into the sport of kings when he became the owner of Rosemont Farms in Lexington, Ky. There, he's involved in breeding and racing thoroughbred horses.

A devoted family man, Eigel has five children and seven grandchildren who know him not only for his dedication and strong values, but for his warm smile and quick sense of humor as well.

In recognition of his professional achievements, his generous spirit and his love of education, Xavier University is proud to present James C. Eigel with its Distinguished Alumnus Award.

HONORARY DEGREE CITATIONS

YAFFA ELIACH

As a child in Lithuania, Yaffa Eliach escaped death in the Holocaust, which claimed the lives of more than 200 members of her family, by hiding in the forest and later in caves that belonged to Polish friends of her family. As World War II came to an end, she returned home, only to witness the brutal murder of her mother and her baby brother. These experiences of unspeakable violence and hatred might naturally elicit feelings of revenge, anger and despair. Yaffa Eliach, however, molded these experiences into an unwavering, lifelong commitment to community, peace and hope.

As professor of Jewish history and literature at Brooklyn College, Eliach taught others about the Holocaust and the way of life it destroyed. In 1982, she published "Hasidic Tales of the Holocaust," the only major collection of Hasidic tales and anecdotes to have been compiled from the Holocaust experience. These tales engage central questions concerning good and evil, destruction and redemption, faith and loss of faith in God and others. In "There Once Was a World: A 900-Year Chronicle of the Shtetl of Eishyshok," Eliach describes the rich history of the village of her youth. In addition to these and other publications, Eliach founded America's first Center for Holocaust Studies, served on President Jimmy Carter's Holocaust Commission and created the "Tower of Life"—a permanent photographic exhibit spanning three floors of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C. For her tireless efforts to preserve the memory of Jewish life in Europe and to promote unity among peoples, she was named Woman of the Year by CBS in 1995. She served as the Edward B. Brueggeman, S.J., Chair in ecumenical and interreligious studies at Xavier in 2003.

Now a professor emerita, Eliach continues with unabated energy to document through stories and photographs the rich history of Jewish life in Europe. With the same vigor, she continues to promote and to celebrate the "togetherness" of people of different faiths and backgrounds. Her two latest projects embody this dual commitment: a living history museum in Israel that re-creates Jewish life in the Diaspora by building a shtetl—a Jewish town common in Eastern Europe prior to World War II—and an exhibit that chronicles Pope John Paul II's longstanding relationship with the Jewish people.

In recognition of her efforts and achievements, and for embodying so gracefully the University's own best ideals, Xavier University is proud to present Yaffa Eliach with the degree of Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa.

XAVIER'S HERITAGE

Xavier was founded in 1831 by Bishop Edward Dominic Fenwick, O.P., pioneer Catholic bishop of Ohio, as the first Catholic institution of higher learning in the Northwest Territory.

Known as the Athenaeum, the college's first building in downtown Cincinnati, was largely financed by European Catholics and particularly by Catholic citizens of Vienna. The first class numbered 60 students. From its beginning, the school was dedicated to the patronage of St. Francis Xavier. The Athenaeum attracted students from as far away as New Orleans, Mexico and Central America, and its educational quality drew many local Protestant students.

At the invitation of Bishop John Purcell of Cincinnati, the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) assumed control of the institution in 1840, ensuring a steady source of faculty. Under John A. Elet, S.J., the first Jesuit president, the institution was renamed St. Xavier College.

Xavier offered its first evening classes in 1841 and summer courses were introduced in 1914, thus beginning a tradition of serving the unique needs and schedules of professionals and aspiring professionals in the Cincinnati community.

In 1920, the college moved to its present site in Avondale, and in 1930 was renamed Xavier University, reflecting its growth and complexity. While women had been attending Xavier's evening college since its early years, Xavier's undergraduate "day" college became coeducational in 1969. In 1980 Xavier acquired the Edgecliff College programs and integrated them with those at Xavier, and by 1987 Edgecliff faculty, staff and students were moved onto the Xavier campus.

Xavier's growth in over a century and a half since its founding reflects its origins as a teaching institution which soundly prepares students for careers or graduate study or both. A Xavier education, particularly at the undergraduate level, is marked by the emphasis on liberal arts learning contained in Xavier's core curriculum. Equally important in the Xavier tradition is the synthesis of human, cultural and ethical values; concern and respect for people; and an appreciation of the worth and dignity of the self and others.

The College of Arts and Sciences, Xavier's largest and oldest college, enrolls approximately 1,700 undergraduate and 90 graduate students, and accepts the primary responsibility for the liberal arts education of all Xavier undergraduates. The Williams College of Business enrolls 935 undergraduates and 900 MBA students, and is dedicated to preparing business students for positions of responsibility and leadership. The College of Social Sciences enrolls 1030 undergraduate and 1,760 graduate students in specialized areas of human services.

Xavier has been an innovator in graduate education, establishing, for example, the first graduate program in Montessori education in the United States. Its graduate programs in education have produced the second highest number of school administrators in the state of Ohio. Xavier's graduate program in health services administration is a recognized innovator in the field. The Executive MBA Program, the Health Services Administration Program and the MEd in Human Resource Development educate upper level managers, professionals and executives while they maintain their current positions in their respective organizations. The Department of Psychology offers a master's degree with specializations in General Experimental and Industrial/Organizational. While some of these graduates continue their education, many assume responsible positions in corporate America. The Doctor of Psychology (Psy.D.) Program holds the distinction of being the first doctoral program at Xavier.

ACADEMIC APPAREL HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE

The history of academic dress and its significance has its beginnings from the earliest days of the old universities. As early as the fourteenth century some colleges required scholars to wear long gowns. Specifications of academic apparel became greatly diversified in Europe.

In May 1895, representatives from colleges and universities in the United States met at Columbia University to adopt a national standardized intercollegiate academic apparel code.

The "Intercollegiate Bureau of Academic Costume" was formed in 1902 to serve as the information source in matters pertaining to academic dress. In 1932 the American Council on Education appointed a committee to revise the apparel codes established in 1895. Review and revisions to the 1895 academic apparel codes occurred in 1932 and 1959.

GOWNS

The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is worn closed. The master's degree gown has oblong sleeves which open at the wrist and is designed with fasteners so that it may be worn open or closed.

Both the bachelor's and master's degree gowns are black with no trim. The robes worn by Xavier's doctoral candidates are blue. The sleeves of the doctoral robes are longer than the master's, are trimmed in black velvet and have three velvet bands around each sleeve above the elbow. Doctoral gowns from other universities are most often black, but some universities have adopted colors.

HOODS

Hoods are worn for the master's degree. The material of the hood is black and is made of the same material as the gown. The master's hood should be three and one-half feet in length and lined with the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree. The edging is to be three inches of velvet or velveteen with the color being distinctive of the subject to which the degree pertains. The colors that pertain to Xavier's degrees are as follows:

Arts ..... White
Business ..... Drab
Education ..... Light Blue
Science ..... Golden Yellow

Health Services

Administration ..... Kelly Green

Nursing ..... Apricot

THE DOCTORAL HOODING CEREMONY

The hooding ceremony is the traditional ceremony for conferring the doctorate. The Xavier Doctor of Psychology degree (Psy.D.) is based in the practitioner-scientist model. This means that graduates are skilled in the practice of clinical psychology and in the research process that develops the scientific base of such practice. The hooding ceremony reflects this model. Graduates are greeted and escorted by the Director of Clinical Training, while the hooding itself is carried out by the Chair of the student's dissertation committee and the Chair of the Psychology Department. Thus, clinical work, research activity, and scholarship are all represented.

CAPS

Black mortarboards of the same material as the gown are to be worn with the tassel of the color pertaining to the degree fastened to the middle point of the top of the cap.

PROCESSIONAL BANNERS

The banners carried in today's ceremony represent Xavier's three colleges. A banner precedes the students from each college.

THE COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Wisdom, revealed by Christ and discovered by human reason, was seen in the Middle Ages as a lamp, and the university was created to be the lampstand that would make it shine before all.

THE WILLIAMS COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

The ship of commerce recognizes that the earliest business communication and trade between nations was by merchant ships. The spirit of these early entrepreneurs sparked the growth of modern day business.

THE COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

The orb is symbolic of the many cultures who benefit from the associate through doctoral degree programs offered in professional and liberal arts disciplines. The quill represents devotion to the advancement and dissemination of knowledge locally, nationally and internationally.

THE MACE

The mace symbolizes the legal and chartered authority of Xavier University. It is brought into the gathering immediately before the President. Historically, the mace was a war club. In the Middle Ages it was carried by a bodyguard to defend a person of authority. Today, its purpose is strictly ceremonial and carried by the Grand Marshal. During the ceremony the mace rests at the front of the stage in its holder.

A mace is a custom-made piece of art and sometimes crafted from relics of the university. It can be decorated with gems and precious metals, sometimes in the official university colors. The Xavier University mace was designed and crafted by Bernard Schmidt, Professor Emeritus, of the department of art.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photographs of the graduates will be taken by a professional photographer during the ceremony. Guests are permitted to take pictures from the floor area by the stage. Please use the stairs between sections. In consideration of others, please limit your time in the photography area.

THE SEAL OF XAVIER UNIVERSITY

The seal of Xavier University combines three principal ideas: St. Francis Xavier, patron of the university; the Jesuit order of which he was a distinguished member; and the university. The five vertical stripes suggest the coat of arms of the Xavier family. A right arm wearing the Jesuit robe holds aloft the crucifix, signifying St. Francis Xavier preaching Christ crucified. The three sea shells signify the three journeys of Xavier into the Orient. Above the shield is the Jesuit seal, IHS, the first three letters of the name Jesus in Greek. Below is the Jesuit motto, AMDG [Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam], which translates “to the Greater Glory of God,” and the words Vidit Mirabilia Magna, a phrase from the psalms applied to St. Francis Xavier, which translates “he has seen great wonders.”

ALMA MATER XAVIER

Dear Alma Mater Xavier!
Undying troth we pledge to you
That we the living shall hold true
The faith of those of years now gone
Inviolate kept and thus passed on.
So may the trust within us dwell
And may this song our voices swell
Until resounds o'er hill and dell
Dear Alma Mater Xavier.
