In going over the old court records in the County Court Clerk's Office on Page 1; deed book-B-, I found a copy of a Lie Bill as follows:

Whereas I have offended in reporting that that is scanles a-against the Carrector of Jesse Brooks daughter, Ive. I hereby acknowledge my wrong and that I am very sorry that I ever wrote or said anything touching her charactor for I doe profess I never said anything of her that was Scandelus. Given from under my hand this 26th day of Mch, 1797.

At April Quarter Session Court, 1797, this instrument of writing was proved in court by the oath of Jesse Brooks and ordered to be recorded.
Attest in O.C.Clark. CCC.

This is all written in long hand and not very legible. Among these records I find some ddeeds for the sale of slaves. As follows:-

Deed Book-A- Page 265.

Know all men by these present that I, William Wood of Christian Co.

and State of Kentucky for and in consideration of the sum of $1.000 to me in hand paid the receipt whereof I do hereby acknowledge have bargained and sell unto Joshua Cates of the said county, one negro man named Tom about 35 years of age, and a negro woman named Jude, about 46 years of age to have and to hold the said negroes and increase to the said Joshua Cates his heirs and assigns. And I do by these present warrant the said negroes to be the slaves for life, and defend them and their increase to the said Joshua Cates and his heirs as such. And do further for myself, my heirs, etc. warrant and defend them and their increase to the said Cates, his heirs and etc. against the claim or claims of all and every Person or Persons whatsoever.

Copy of Apprenticeship

These records are not marked in the County Court Clerk's Office, but they are obtained in an old book of apprenticeship records.

This Indenture of Apprenticeship between Abraham Stites, Clerk of the Christian County Court of the one part, and Hezekiah Ricketts of Christian Co. of the other part, witnesseth that the said Abraham Stites as a clerk as aforesaid in pursuance of an order of the said court made at their presentation doth by these presents bind out Catherine, aged about 8 years, a free girl of color, daughter of John Pool, a free man of color. as an apprentice to the said Ricketts, to learn the trade of Spinster, the said apprentice as such to serve the said Ricketts from the date thereof until she shall arrive at the age of 18 years during which term the said apprentice shall faithfully serve her said master, keep his secrets, and at all times readily obey his lawful commands. She shall do no damage to her said master nor wilfully suffer any to be done by others, and if to her knowledge any be intended, she shall give her said master reasonable notice thereof. She shall not waste the goods of said Ricketts nor lend them unlawfully to any one. She shall not gamble nor contracy matrimony during said term. She shall not frequent tippling houses, or any place of gaming. She shall not absent herself from the service of her said master but in all things and at all times she shall demean herself as a good and faithful ought during said term, and the said Ricketts on his part doth agree to teach and instruct the said apprentice or cause her to be taught and instructed in the art trade and mystery of a spinster by the best means and furnish her with good and wholesome food and drink and suitable clothing and other necessaries fit and convenient for such an apprentice during the term aforesaid, and at the expiration thereof will pay unto the apprentice aforesaid $20.00 and a decent suit of new clothes. In testimony whereof the said parties have hereto set their hands and seals this 2nd day of June 1846.

Christian County Set. June 2, 1846.

The foregoing indenture of apprenticeship between the Clerk of The County Court and Hezekiah Ricketts having been executed and acknowledged by the parties and approved by the court is admitted to record by the Virtue of an Act of Assembly in that case made.

Another copy of an apprenticeship. This indenture of apprenticeship between G.H.Lawson, Clerk of the County Court of Christian Co. of the one part, and H.P.Owsley of the other part, witnesseth that the said G.H. Lawson as Clerk as aforesaid in pursuance of an order made at their June term doth by these presents bind out Henry Jackson Kinchloe, a boy, 13 years old, the 8th. day of Oct. 1849 as an apprentice to the said H.P. Owsley to learn the trade of farmer, the said apprentice as such to serve the said H.P. Owsley from the date thereof until he shall arrive at the age of 21 years during which term the said apprentice shall serve faithfully the said Owsley, keep his secrets, and at all times readily obey his lawful commands. He shall do no damage to the said Owsley nor willfully suffer any to be done by others, and if to his knowledge any be intended, he shall give the said Owsley reasonable notice thereof. He shall not waste the goods of the said Owsley nor lend them unlawfully to any. He shall not gamble nor contract matrimony during said term. He shall not frequent tippling houses. He shall not absent himself from the service of the said Owsley, but in all things and at all times he shall demean himself as a good and faithful apprentice ought during the said term, and the said H.P.Owsley on his part doth agree to teach and instruct the said apprentice or cause him to be taught and instructed in the art trade and mystery of a farmer by the best means in his power, and all necessaries fit and convenient during the term aforesaid and at the expiration thereof will pay into the said apprentice a decent suit of new clothes. In testimony thereof the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals this 8th day of June, 1863.
