Dr. O. P. Dillinger
Kansas State Teachers College
Pittsburg, Kansas

My dear Dr. Dillinger:

I have your letter of December 14 regarding the election of President Brandenburg as President of the Kansas State Teachers Association. I wish to say that you and I see eye to eye in this matter. The honor President Brandenburg has just received is one which he should have received many years ago. Personally, I am very happy that he now has this recognition. I am sure that he will make a fine president of our organization, and I am confident that during his administration we shall break all former records in membership and in general accomplishment in the organization.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Secretary
