Dear Carson Robison,

I was about to write to you to see if I could interest you in our club, when I heard you'd beaten me to it by enrolling with my good friend Joe Nicholas. I'd like to express my thanks for this gesture on your part as I feel that having you as a member will be of great benefit to us over here in our attempt to create even more interest in the kind of music we like.

I don't know as yet if Joe Nicholas has sent you a copy of our small journal, but have done so myself to make certain you do receive at least one copy.

Recently I had the good fortune to meet a fellow record collector who corresponded with you a few years ago. Stan Smith of Finchley, London, perhaps you recall him?

Could I ask you, if possible to supply a suitable photograph with your written permission to have this copied to use either as a cover feature, or to distribute among club members. Also, time permitting, any articles by yourself on your personal career, etc, would be very welcome by us for future inclusion in our journal. I was going to ask if you could clear up some of the mysteries surrounding the many recording aliases under which your recordings were issued.....but this would probably be as confusing to you as it is to collectors!

Hoping that you will like our club journal.

Sincerely,

George Tye

George Tye.
