My dear Eva Jony —

I got your letter about a year and three months ago, and to my stupidity, lost the letter and I found it before I came to Sydney. I was so upset with myself for doing such a thing, but as you know, that's us. But it was so sweet of you to write to me and ask; you know it was such a great honor to be asked to appear in your bio of Graham. I know you must have printed by now so forgive me for that Bos-Bos! Anyway I have often wanted to see you and

Our Leto-Leto, in Toronto. I do hope you have been fine. I have not seen Astor ~~Spencer~~ Gately. I suppose he is still doing his thing!

There are all of those marvellous people you were with in Toronto. I shall never forget.

I am on my way home and will arrive in L.A. June 22nd. If my come to the east for a day! if so I shall definitely come to see you. Will get your telephone also. (245-3359) Practically Enjoy all the love to offer my dear and God do Bless you. Your sweetest -
Paul, Earl Grant
