Miss Eva Jessye,
207 West 133rd St.,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Jessye:

I congratulate you on all your good work and am happy to know that "A Short History of the American Negro" was able to be of some little service to you in connection with your special program on the 4th. My one regret is that, as I was away in the West for the week, the special letter which you kindly addressed to me at the University did not reach me until I returned home yesterday; so that I missed the big event. Let me say, however, that if in the future there is some point on which I can help, I trust you will not fail to let me know.

Very truly yours, Benjamin Brantley.
