March 14, 1954

Dear Eva;

Thanks for your letter of March 9th, with the enclosed program! And thanks even more for doing one of my arrangements on it! You know I will be very happy if you decide to do something of mine in Europe--there is nothing that you don't already know about, so hope you will select something from the works already written--some of which you have already programmed. I know in advance that you will have a great success, and hope you will continue to let us know of all your activities! As always--

Gratefully and sincerely,

Still
