Pittsburg, Kansas
October 8, 1978

Dear Dr. Jessye:

Enclosed is a clipping from the Kansas City Star of a story (mine) about
the performance of your oratorio,
"Paradise Lost and Regained," given at Pittsburg State University October 1
on your beautiful "Eva Jessye Day"
in Kansas.

After reading it over carefully I found
only one mistake - your illness (inside)

earlier this year was called an "injury."
It was reported as an "illness."

Please accept my apologies for missing your luncheon. I am embarrassed and ashamed and have no excuse to offer except that I simply was not tracking right
that day and got the time wrong.

The oratorio was magnificent and you are a delight. You said
your favorite vacation was teaching.
Even though our acquaintance was short and our conversations few,

I learned a great deal from you.

Thank you for coming to Pittsburg.

The Lord's Blessing
(and my humble thanks)

Gladys M. Wendt
