

Pittsburg State University

Pittsburg State University Digital Commons

Eva Jessye Correspondence

Eva Jessye Collection 1885-1994

2015-01-01

Letter, 1978 December 3, from Thurston J. Dox to Eva Jessye

Thurston J. Dox

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.pittstate.edu/ejc>

Recommended Citation

Dox, Thurston J., "Letter, 1978 December 3, from Thurston J. Dox to Eva Jessye" (2015). Eva Jessye Correspondence. 333.

<https://digitalcommons.pittstate.edu/ejc/333>

This Manuscript is brought to you for free and open access by the Eva Jessye Collection 1885-1994 at Pittsburg State University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Eva Jessye Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Pittsburg State University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact mmccune@pittstate.edu, jmauk@pittstate.edu.

December 3, 1978

Ms. Eva Jessye
Miller Manor
Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103

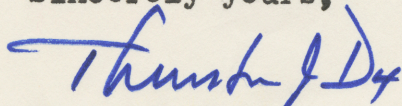

Dear Ms. Jessye:

I am preparing to publish an annotated index of oratorios and dramatic choral works of that genre, by American composers. My primary interest is with works for which the score is available.

I would like very much to know if the score of your Paradise Lost and Regained is published or if it is possible a copy of it could be made available to me. I would be interested in any information about the composition of the work which you could share with me. I would like my publication to be as useful to choral conductors and as current as possible. If you have written any other works of this type, I'd be equally interested to know. I would not want to overlook any thing you have written.

Any assistance you can give me will be appreciated. I thank you, and do look forward to hearing from you. I regret it was never my pleasure to hear your famous choir.

Sincerely yours,

Thurston J. Dox
Professor of Music

Corresponding address:

26 Cedar Street
Oneonta, New York

Copy

December 3, 1978

Ms. Eva Jessye
Miller Manor
Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103

Dear Ms. Jessye:

I am preparing to publish an annotated index of oratorios and dramatic choral works of that genre, by American composers. My primary interest is with works for which the score is available.

I would like very much to know if the score of your Paradise Lost and Regained is published or if it is possible a copy of it could be made available to me. I would be interested in any information about the composition of the work which you could share with me. I would like my publication to be as useful to choral conductors and as current as possible. If you have written any other works of this type, I'd be equally interested to know. I would not want to overlook any thing you have written.

Any assistance you can give me will be appreciated. I thank you, and do look forward to hearing from you. I regret it was never my pleasure to hear your famous choir.

Sincerely yours,
Thurston J. Dox
Thurston J. Dox
Professor of Music

Corresponding address:

26 Cedar Street
Oneonta, New York

You see how imperative it is that I prepare the score + have it published - have had many such inquiries -
ED

Hartwick College/Oneonta, New York 13820

Telephone (607) 432-4200