Dear Chairman Vollen:

Thank you for your invitation to Dr. Eva Juszyk's "Kansas, Yours and Mine." I regret that old age complications make me a stay-at-home and I must decline.

I am wondering if you have invited President and Mrs. Jimmy Carter. If you have not I hope you will. If they should be able to come, I wonder if there is a place in your program where it would be possible for President Carter to proclaim the rose our National flower. Surely there could not be a more appropriate place than in a state which is in the center of our nation nor a better day than October 12 when we remember Christopher Columbus. If you agree you might suggest it to him.

Sincerely,

(Miss) Edith P. Seely
