SONG OF APPLE DAY POEM

(1)

This is the song of Alma Mater Day,
A story of a century: The way
A college institution came to be
Here, with children in reality
Around the world; a past as clear
As any amongst free men; a story dear.
The deeds of men live first
In Dreams!

(2)

Our home of Louisian Purchase, then
A territory named for Kanza men,
Became a state with land. This acreage
Where Alma Mater stands, used to assuage
A homeless Indian tribe of Cherokees.
But they preferred the cash. Far from the seas
Which beat on shores of east and west,
Traveling white men sought with longing and with zest,
Homes. Bits of land in Kansas. Peopled soon
By Pioneers, whose cattle grazed on prairie boon,
Here, a trail, a military road
Became our Broadway

(3)

On this abode
Of ours, this campus, sod was turned by Ox;
With our great brick-laid structures of today.
Wind whistled through cornfields: a paradox
These walls exist because a Dreamer came this way,
A teacher, sent his dream into the heart
Of Public Servants. A school apart
From other schools came into being then,
To grow and quicken acres here again
Into a college harvest.

All hail a founder,
A man of dreams and deeds, named R. S. Russ!
To his great zeal to bring a victory
To College dream, and persuade men to see
Our need, . . . he sat, a weary man, in sacred pew
Of legislators. For this rule, of which he knew
Not, he paid a fine, a barrel of apples, red,
But WON THE VOTE. When all was said
The apple seemed a symbol of success
And meant a campus home,

Each year that students pass
Commemoration Day, we pause to eat
An apple, to remember those who turned defeat
And won.

A glorious way
of honoring our founders. . . . Apple Day!

(4)

Here on an old cornfield arose Russ Hall
With eighty rooms to house, enthrall
And bind into a unit, student band.
Faculty came to lend a guiding hand;

e to abide by the rules set up by the n clean living, cooperation, fair play,

GOLD and CRIMSON

On the plains of Southeast Kansas
Neath an ever cloudless sky,
Far away from surging ocean
And the storm bird's plaintive cry,
With her prairies rolling westward
Where the Redman once roamed free;
With her ensign proudly waving,
Stands our dear K. S. T. C.

Let us greet the Gold and Crimson
With a strong and cordial cheer;
Let our hearts be ever loyal
To our Alma Mater dear!

Former Pitt Student To Colorado School

Raymond J. Young, a former student of the College, entered the University of Colorado, Boulder, Colorado, in March of this year to complete his work on a doctor's degree.

Mr. Young has been awarded a University Fellowship in the College of education for three consecutive quarters beginning in June, 1949. He now holds a graduate assistantship in the college of education there.

Alpha Party

Members of the Alpha Sigma Alpha held a party in Horace Mann gym April 14. The evening was spent in playing cards. Refreshments of popcorn, cokes and candy were served. Sponsors attending were Mrs. Perva Hughes and Dr. Jane Carroll.

Mrs. Claire Anderson, alumnae guest, invited the sorority to attend an informal dinner May 3, to be given by the alumnae honoring senior girls.

THE PITTSBURGH HEADLIGHT

OPERETTA WILL BE TONIGHT.

Horace Mann Pupils in Program in College Auditorium.

"A Date to Remember," an operetta, will be presented by pupils of the Horace Mann laboratory school at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the College auditorium.

An annual production of the school, the theme will be the presentation of each month of the year by symbols of holidays which fall in that month.

CLEAN UP CONTEST FOR ALL GRADE SCHOOL PUPILS

Sponsored by the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce Civic Affairs Committee

1. Eligibility - All pupils from first to sixth grades, inclusive, at Lakeside, Forest Park, Central, Eugene Field Lincoln, Washington, Douglass, Horace Mann and St. Mary's Schools.
2. Objective - To cooperate in the citywide clean up campaign by cleaning up your own yard, around your house and also the neighborhood, if possible.
3. Prizes -
 - (A) Free theatre ticket from Tom Steele and Fox Midwest theatres to all eligible grade students who submit letters to their room teachers showing an effort made by the student toward helping in the third annual Chamber of Commerce clean up campaign. "The more free tickets I have to give out, the better," Mr. Steele says.
 - (B) Cash building prizes of $1.00 each for the best showing by the boy and girl pupil in each of the nine schools in the clean up campaign. Total cash prizes $2.00 to each school and $18.00 for the nine schools.
 - (C) Additional grand prizes, two bicycles, one boy's and one girl's, for the best showing in the clean up effort from among the eighteen building winners, nine boys and nine girls. So every one wins a prize, with each pupil entering receiving a free theatre ticket good at any of the three local shows; eighteen of the contestants will receive an additional $1.00 each, and two of the eighteen also will receive the grand prizes, a brand new bicycle for the boy winner and a brand new one for the girl winner.
4. Rules - Starting Monday, April 18, and ending Friday, April 22, pupils competing for the prizes should make a cleanup effort around their home and neighborhood. After the work is finished, the pupil should write a brief essay telling what he or she has done toward cleaning up the city this spring, and turn the essay, signed by his or her name and countersigned by a parent or both parents, in to the pupil's teacher. These essays must be handed to the room teacher before the close of school on Friday, April 22.

CLEAN UP CONTEST IS ENDED

Much Improvement Noticeable in City During Past Week.

The clean-up week contest for children in the local schools came to an end at the close of school today as the city approached the concluding phase of its annual clean up week campaign. The contest is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

Favorable weather during the week has enabled residents to conduct extensive clean up activities, eliminating possible fire hazards and improving the appearance of property throughout the city.

In addition to cleaning up trash, many residents have improved their lawns by sowing grass seed and preparing flower beds which already are beginning to add color to the landscape.

Grade school pupils who participated in clean up activities at their home or in their neighborhood were scheduled to turn in written accounts of their efforts to their teachers this afternoon.

Prizes in the contest include new bicycles for the boy and girl clean up champions. There also will be $1 cash prizes for eighteen school champions, while all entries will receive a free theatre ticket from Tom Steele of the Fox theatres here.

Black Attends Topeka Meeting

Dr. William A. Black, head of the Department of Education, has returned from a meeting of the Kansas Commission on Life Adjustment Education held in Topeka on April 20.

The commission, established by State Superintendent Adel F. Throckmorton, hopes to help Kansas high schools do a better job of preparing young people for more constructive and happier lives. The Life Adjustment program includes teaching a pupil to make himself understood by talking and writing, and to provide training in home and family living, good health habits and in citizenship.

Honor With Tea

The Pittsburg branch of the American Association of University Women honored the senior and graduate women of the 1949 class with a tea last Wednesday afternoon, in the social rooms of Carney hall. The guest speaker was Edith Crowell, who is studying on AAUW fellowship at the University of Oklahoma.

Each teacher should list the name of entrants in her room, and take this list, together with the letters, to the principal of the school, who will make arrangements to select the boy and girl winners at that school for the two $1.00 cash prizes furnished by the Chamber of Commerce. Principals are to hold list of students' names which were turned in by the room teachers and report only the number of winners to the Chamber of Commerce. The decision should be made on the best effort in the clean up and not on the merits of the essay. The essay is only the signed statement of what was done by the pupil. So each of the nine schools will have one boy and one girl in the finals for the city championship and a chance to win the two bicycles.

The principals will send the names of the two school winners and their essays to the Chamber of Commerce Civic Affairs Committee, % of the Chamber of Commerce not later than Tuesday, April 26. The committee members will select the grand prize winners as the 1949 clean up champions of Pittsburg. The winning essays will be published in the Headlight and The Sun and the grand prizes will be presented to the two winners as soon after the selection is made as possible.

Remember, the essays must be in on FRIDAY, April 22, to be considered and the school principals should see that the winners from each school are received at the Chamber of Commerce office not later than Tuesday, April 26. The judging will be rushed so the prizes can be distributed without delay.

We thank you for your cooperation in cleaning up and beautifying Pittsburg.

The Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce
Civic Affairs Committee

CLEAN UP CONTEST IS ENDED

Much Improvement Noticeable in City During Past Week.

The clean-up week contest for children in the local schools came to an end at the close of school today as the city approached the concluding phase of its annual clean up week campaign. The contest is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

Favorable weather during the week has enabled residents to conduct extensive clean up activities, eliminating possible fire hazards and improving the appearance of property throughout the city.

In addition to cleaning up trash, many residents have improved their lawns by sowing grass seed and preparing flower beds which already are beginning to add color to the landscape.

Grade school pupils who participated in clean up activities at their home or in their neighborhood were scheduled to turn in written accounts of their efforts to their teachers this afternoon.

Prizes in the contest include new bicycles for the boy and girl clean up champions. There also will be $1 cash prizes for eighteen school champions, while all entries will receive a free theatre ticket from Tom Steele of the Fox theatres here.

Black Attends Topeka Meeting

Dr. William A. Black, head of the Department of Education, has returned from a meeting of the Kansas Commission on Life Adjustment Education held in Topeka on April 20.

The commission, established by State Superintendent Adel F. Throckmorton, hopes to help Kansas high schools do a better job of preparing young people for more constructive and happier lives. The Life Adjustment program includes teaching a pupil to make himself understood by talking and writing, and to provide training in home and family living, good health habits and in citizenship.

Honor With Tea

The Pittsburg branch of the American Association of University Women honored the senior and graduate women of the 1949 class with a tea last Wednesday afternoon, in the social rooms of Carney hall. The guest speaker was Edith Crowell, who is studying on AAUW fellowship at the University of Oklahoma.

ENROLLING AT HORACE MAN

Expect More Than 200 Pupils for Summer Term.

Enrollment figures at Horace Mann training school indicated that more than 200 children would attend the 7-weeks summer session beginning Monday, Dr. Jane Carroll, principal, said today.

The regular enrollment period was held this morning. Those who were not able to register today were asked to come to the school office at 9 a. m. Friday.

Included on the summer school program besides the regular school work will be swimming, arts and crafts, music and dramatics.

A repeat performance of "A Date to Remember" will be given at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night at the College auditorium for those who were not able to see it the first time it was given.

PREPARE FOR SUMMER STUDY

Horace Mann and College High Offers Courses.

With the end of the regular grade school year approaching, interest is growing in the summer session of the Horace Mann laboratory school which is expected to attract a large number of pupils this summer.

Summer classes at the College high school are likewise expected to draw a substantial number of students wishing to garner extra grade credits.

Enrollment for high school will be held the morning of June 6 in the high school office located in Russ hall. Regular classes will get under way June 8.

Children who have not been enrolled in Horace Mann during the year will enroll between 8 a. m. and 10 a. m. June 8. Regular work for this group will start June 10, while students who are regularly enrolled in the school will start work June 13.

Dr. Jane Carroll, director of the school, pointed out this morning that the summer session at the laboratory school provides an opportunity for a program of remedial work to overcome specific difficulties for the child who is weak in a particular subject and prepares the child to do better work in the following grade.

Subjects and activities to be offered are crafts, swimming, orchestra, trips and excursions and art.

Classes will begin at 9 a. m. each day. Special classes have been arranged for the afternoon. The afternoon classes are optional.

College high is offering subjects beginning at the seventh grade level and up through the twelfth grade.

Among the subjects to be offered are mathematics, general shop, English, history, general science, typewriting, business law, government, biology, chemistry and driver education.

GOLD AND CRIMSON

On the plains of Southeast Kansas
'Neath an ever cloudless sky,
Far away from surging ocean
And the storm bird's plaintive cry,
With her prairies rolling westward
Where the Redman once roamed free;
With her ensign proudly waving,
Stands our dear K.S.T.C.

Let us greet the Gold and Crimson
With a strong and cordial cheer;
Let our hearts be ever loyal
To our Alma Mater dear!

Let her worthy sons and daughters
For our College proudly stand,
Shielding zealously her honor
In one brave unbroken band;
Let them hold aloft her banner
With a stout and steady arm,
Rallying her children 'round it
From the city, town, and farm.

A CHILD WITH DIM SIGHT GETS A BREAK AT SCHOOL

Special Facilities in the Kansas City System Take Care of Youngsters With Faulty Eyes, Ears or Legs—Aim at Self-Sufficiency.

By EDWARD R. SCHAUFFER.
THE school children with two strikes on them in the matter of health get an unusually good break in the Kansas City public schools. The dim of sight, the hard of hearing, the children recovering from rheumatic fever, the "slow learners," all receive special training in the Kansas City public schools to enable them to earn a living.

Public school pupils, recovering from infantile paralysis, receive special teaching in Mercy hospital's public school before they are able to leave their beds. In the R. J. DeLano school, 3708 Linwood boulevard, children recovering from polio (infantile paralysis) receive special physical exercises and swimming, as well as "book learning." Guided exercise enables their bodies as well as their minds to grow stronger. Mrs. Nelle Dabney is principal. Negro children, recovering from polio, attend special classes at the Attucks school, 1818 East Nineteenth street.

For Those Who See Dimly.
 A dozen white children with dim eyesight receive special training at the Sanford B. Ladd school, 3640 Benton boulevard. They learn to read from special textbooks printed in large type. They learn to operate typewriters with unlettered keyboards, which write in unusually large letters, easier to read. A dozen boys and girls are in the sight-saving classroom at the Ladd school. Four of them are sixth graders, three fifth graders, three in the third grade and two in the second grade. They range in age from 7 to 14.

The room is large, airy, pleasant. It has north windows with special glass which shuts out glare; dull finish, light apple-green walls and indirect lighting for gray days. The children make plaster of Paris figurines from molds supplied last Christmas by the Kiwanis club. When the figurines have hardened, the youngsters paint them in bright colors.

A similar sight-saving room for Negro children has been set up this year in the summer grade school at 2121 Charlotte street. It has nine pupils.

The children in the sight-saving room at the Ladd school are taught to live as nearly as possible like children with normal sight. They act as inside safety patrols, attend student council meetings and join in group singing. Everything is done to enable these dim-sighted children to go through all the normal activities possible.

Miss Mary Parker, a teacher in the sight-saving room at the Ladd school, says: "Our aim is to teach them everything possible—to build confidence in themselves; to prepare them to meet later competition and to live as normally as possible."

To Be Self-Supporting.
 To live as normally as possible is the general goal of all the special schools in the Kansas City public school system. The idea is to prepare children for earning their own livings and supporting themselves as they grow up.

"We have many shifts and changes in our daily program to rest their eyes," Miss Parker says. "Much oral teaching is done, always with a summary, for the purpose of training very close attention, for these pupils must receive their learning by means of their ears."

While the dim-sighted children learn largely through their ears, the deaf and hard-of-hearing children depend to an unusual extent upon their eyes. They also learn by "hearing through their fingers." The smallest children in the Benton school, 3004 Benton boulevard, where sixty-four deaf and hard-of-hearing children are enrolled, place their finger tips against the young teacher's cheek and catch the vibrations that way.

These are the beginners, 6 or 7 years old, who are just beginning to push through the silence. As they grow older they learn how to read lips. Sign language is not encouraged. It is pretty to see the children's faces light up as they understand what the teacher is saying. It is as if a cloud of perplexity has dissolved suddenly.

"Health improvement" rooms are maintained in twelve grade schools, ten for white children and two for Negroes. For the most part these rooms are for victims of rheumatic fever, who must be careful not to overstrain their hearts. These children have three rest periods a day, one in the morning, one at noon lunch hour, and one in the afternoon, of a half hour each.

Cots for Relaxation.

They are provided with cots on which to rest. Their games are limited in scope, to prevent overdoing and straining their recovering hearts. The rheumatic heart children, for instance, play basketball, but they do not run as far with the ball as ordinary children.

The children at the Henry A. Kumpf school, 4423 Olive street, are proud of their special equipment in two rooms. Certainly they are as gay a collection of youngsters as could be imagined. These children are mentally normal, or above normal; bright, alert, proud of their special rooms, and going ahead rapidly. There is no hint of self-pity about them; they are as flip and gay, as cheerful and forward-looking as anybody could be. And they learn fast.

If you do not care to be sentimental about these handicapped children, you can take a practical viewpoint of them. Although they cost more to educate than perfectly well children, in the long run they save money for the taxpayers because, although their education costs more than that of the normal child, it enables them to support themselves.

College Conducts Lunch Institute

The second annual school lunch institute to be held June 21-23, at the College will be conducted by the department of home economics, the division of elementary education and the state department of education.

Directors will be Dr. Jane Morrow Carroll, professor of education and principal of Horace Mann laboratory school, Miss E. Louise Gibson, professor and head of the department of home economics and Miss Annie Marriott, professor of home economics and director of the College cafeteria.

Leaders of the institute will be W.W. Wright, director of the school lunch program, state department of education, Topeka, and Miss Ruby Sholtz, supervisor of the school lunch program for the state department of education.

The institute is designed to assist persons in charge of the planning, preparing, and the serving of the school lunch. Problems for consideration include planning well balanced, varied menus, making out work sheets and food orders, studying food and labor costs, and the selection, use and care of lunch-room equipment.

It is very probable that we will not have the course "Integrated Study of Elementary Children and Program", 21. For that reason I have scheduled you each for one week, only. If persons enrolled in course 21 or the number in Elementary Education 45 and 46 becomes too large, we will need to have other divisions. This we will not know until enrollment day.

I have left the last week for final examinations since the period you have with these people is very short. It will not be necessary to give examinations other than the final unless you wish.

PITTSBURG PAIR GAINS FAME WITH MANY HAND WROUGHT PIECES IN BRASS, COPPER

Tomorrow's heirlooms may very likely include pieces of copper and brass, hand-wrought of original design, made in a basement shop maintained by William and Mary Hankammer in their home in Pittsburg.

Typical designs produced in the Hankammer shop range from small candle snuffers, combining the beauty of twisted brass handles and a polished copper snuffer, and Boston post lamps, to large platters of peened copper, 16 x 30 inches, antique finished, with polished native Kansas walnut handles.

The Hankammers, firm in the belief that there are many fellow Kansans and others who still treasure and value the beautiful in skilled handicraft, set up their bench less than a year ago and with forge, shears and sandbags are producing many trays, ladles, pitchers, platters and other interesting pieces. Some of the articles show the influence of early American design while others reflect the modern trend.

Both husband and wife are students of the arts, holding degrees from Kansas State Teachers College in Pittsburg. Mary is the consultant in design; Bill spends long days with hammer and art metal stake completing the article under consideration.

Superior craftsmanship and the quality of original designs already have brought many persons to the Hankammer shop and "Hankammer" pieces of copper and brass may be seen in many homes in southeast Kansas and surrounding territory. Some shipments have been made to

New Chinchilla Ranch

William H. Avery, Jr., has established a chinchilla ranch in Comanche county and is housing the animals in a sixteen-foot square building with each chinchilla in an individual wire pen. A water-evaporator cooler has been installed to keep temperatures in the summer below 90 degrees. Avery, a World War II veteran and native of Comanche county, bought the animals in Denver.

Chicago and Detroit. Sales are made through direct advertising and personal contact.

Materials and equipment are obtained through wholesale houses, but none of the special tools were designed or made in the Hankammer shop.

SHERRY BRADSHAW IS DEAD

Eleven-Year Old Boy Succumbs to Acute Leukemia.

Sherry Dale Bradshaw, 11-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Bradshaw, 205 East Belleville, died at 9:30 o'clock this morning at Mt. Carmel hospital. He had been ill since last September with acute leukemia.

He had been taken to a Kansas City hospital for treatment before entering Mt. Carmel. Sherry was a member of the Methodist church and was in the fifth grade of Horace Mann school. Born Nov. 4, 1937 in Pittsburg, he had lived here all his life.

In addition to the parents, he is survived by two brothers, Martin Daniel and Walter Lee Bradshaw, of the home, and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira C. Bradshaw, Weir, R. R. 1.

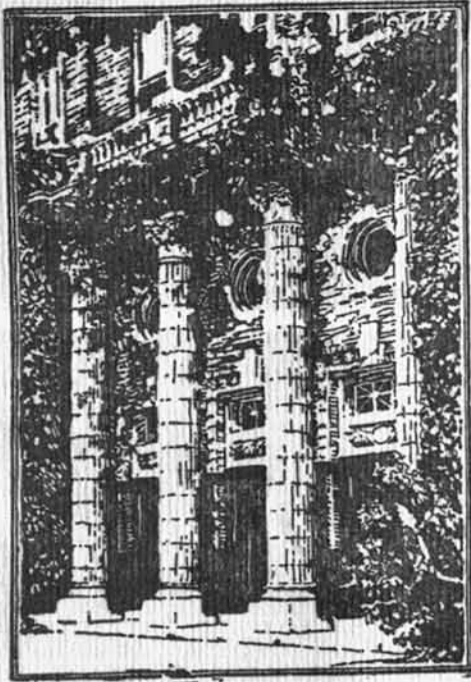

Funeral arrangements are not complete. The body is at the Brenner chapel.

Horace Mann Students Present Operetta

⁶⁻¹⁵⁻⁴⁹
The students of Horace Mann Laboratory School presented the operetta, "A Date to Remember", last Thursday evening to a large audience in the College auditorium. The same operetta had been presented earlier in the spring and by popular request was staged a second time.

The program was arranged and directed by Mrs. Edwina Fowler with Dr. Jane M. Carroll serving as general manager.

The theme of the operetta was centered around the different festivities that mark each month of the year. A large mixed choir provided the background music while each of the special numbers dedicated to a particular month were presented.

VISIT HOSPITAL AT PARSONS

College Class on Trip Yesterday; to Topeka Tomorrow.

Two classes on exceptional children went to Parsons yesterday morning to visit the state hospital for epileptics. They were accompanied by their instructor, Miss Ruth Fleishchaker, assistant professor of educational psychology at Horace Mann school.

Saturday, the classes will visit the industrial school for boys at Topeka, and on Tuesday, July 19, the students will visit the Columbia grade school at Joplin.

Outstanding authorities in the field will appear before the classes at the College during the summer.

William M. Pulford, supervisor of the vocational rehabilitation service, state board for vocational education, Topeka, will visit the College July 12. He will discuss "State Rehabilitation Service" before joint meetings of Prof. Clyde R. Baird's class on general survey of rehabilitation service, and classes of Miss Fleishchaker in overview of education for exceptional children and techniques of instruction of exceptional children.

Mrs. Zelta M. Schmeling, supervisor of the speech center at the University of Kansas medical center, also will visit the campus July 12. She is in charge of the speech clinic held here on the campus each month.

Richard S. Dabney, director of special education for exceptional children in Missouri, will speak July 14, and 15, to the College classes of Miss Fleishchaker. He will discuss "Directing Special Education in Schools."

Stanley L. Roth, superintendent of the school for the deaf at Olathe, will visit the campus during the first week in August. He will be accompanied by several specialists from the school.

Two classes of exceptional children went to Parsons yesterday morning to visit the state hospital for epileptics. They were accompanied by their instructor, Miss Ruth Fleischaker, assistant professor of educational psychology at Horace Mann school.

Saturday, the classes will visit the industrial school for boys at Topeka, and on Tuesday, July 19, the students will visit the Columbia grade school at Joplin.

Outstanding authorities in the field will appear before the classes at the College during the summer.

William M. Pulforg, supervisor of the vocational rehabilitation service, state board for vocational education, Topeka, will visit the College July 12. He will discuss "State Rehabilitation Service" before joint meetings of Prof. Clyde R. Baird's class on general survey of rehabilitation service, and classes of Miss Fleischaker in overview of education for exceptional children and techniques of instruction of exceptional children.

Mrs. Zelta M. Schmeling, supervisor of the speech center at the University of Kansas medical center, also will visit the campus July 12. She is in charge of the speech clinic held here on the campus each month.

Richard S. Dabney, director of special education for exceptional children in Missouri, will speak July 14, and 15, to the College classes of Miss Fleischaker. He will discuss "Directing Special Education in Schools."

Stanley L. Roth, superintendent of the school for the deaf at Olathe, will visit the campus during the first week in August. He will be accompanied by several specialists from the school.

The students of Horace Mann Laboratory School presented the operetta, "A Date to Remember", last Thursday evening to a large audience in the College auditorium. The same operetta had been presented earlier in the spring and by popular request was staged a second time.

The program was arranged and directed by Mrs. Edwina Fowler with Dr. Jane M. Carroll serving as general manager.

The theme of the operetta was centered around the different festivities that mark each month of the year. A large mixed choir provided the background music while each of the special numbers dedicated to a particular month were presented.

BOARD MEETING, HONOR
DINNER TODAY AS PRE-LIMINARIES.

Expect 500 Visitors for 3-Day Convention at College; Full Program; Elect Saturday
At Final Session.

Preliminary activities for one of Pittsburg's major 1949 conventions, the Kansas P. E. O. Sisterhood, were started today but regular sessions of the convention will not start until tomorrow. The meetings will continue through Saturday.

All sessions will be held in the Music hall auditorium on the College campus, with 500 visitors, including 300 official delegates, expected. Most of the visitors will be housed in the women's dormitory at the College and in sorority houses nearby.

Dinner Tonight.

Today's sessions include a meeting of the executive board of the Kansas state chapter at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Hotel Besse; a dinner at 6:30 o'clock at the Hotel Besse with Mrs. Grace Banta Dodt of Kansas City, Kas., state president as hostess, and a second meeting of the executive board and the past state presidents at the home of Mrs. Katharine Stelle following the dinner.

Honored at the dinner will be honor guests of the convention, the convention executive committee, past state presidents and present state officers.

The convention proper will open at 8 o'clock Thursday morning with registration of visitors and delegates in the library building at the College.

Dr. Jane M. Carroll of the College faculty and general convention chairman, will preside at a meeting of standing and appointed committees at 9:30 a. m.

To Attend Commencement.

Most of the convention visitors present at the time are expected to attend the annual College commencement exercises at 10 a. m. tomorrow as guests of the College. Dr. Ralph W. Sockman of New York City will give the address.

One of the convention highlights will be the "hour of remembrance," to be held Thursday noon in honor of the 71 Kansas chapter members who died during the past year. This ceremony will be in charge of the Kansas City, Kas., chapters, with Mrs. Letitia Streeter as chairman.

The program will include an organ prelude by Mrs. Wanda Schwartz; scripture and prayer by Mrs. Maxine Behrend; violin solo by Miss Jean Fry, accompanied by Mrs. Pearl Fry; tribute to the founders by Mrs. Arlene Billingsly and Miss Gussie Reeds; tributes to two past presidents, Mrs. Anna Searcy of Leavenworth and Miss Bertha Sallee of Nickerson, by Mrs. Mildred Kent; meditation, led by Mrs. Zella Taylor; roll call of memory by Mrs. Streeter and Miss Leona Dreyer, and organ postlude by Mrs. Schwartz.

Organ Recital.

An organ recital by Mrs. Martha Pate of Pittsburg will open the afternoon convention session at 1:45 o'clock, with a processional by the P. E. O. choir, directed by Miss Gabriella Campbell of the College, scheduled at 2 p. m. Trumpeters will be Max Henderson, Robert Hardesty and Prof. Charles Minelli.

Mrs. Stelle of Pittsburg will lead the pledge of allegiance with the president's greetings from Mrs. Dodt to follow. Appointments of guards, pages, appointed and standing committees and convention assistants then will be made.

Honor guests, past presidents, state officers and convention assistants will be introduced, as will the honorary convention chairman, Mrs. Stelle and Mrs. Helen Chubb of Baxter Springs; the convention chairman, Dr. Carroll; members of the convention executive committee; president of the hostess chapters in Pittsburg, Girard, Columbus, Baxter Springs, and convention

Present New Chapters.

Dr. Carroll will give the address of welcome to the visitors with the response to be made by Mrs. Virginia Cleland of Atchison, first vice president of the Kansas chapter.

New chapters will be presented by Mrs. Katrina Cross of Council Grove, state organizer and charters will be presented to this group by Mrs. Bessie Raney of Chicago, supreme president. The response will be made by Mrs. Zoe Whiteford of Mission. There will be a piano solo by Mrs. Pate.

An address, "A Philosophy for Living," will be given by Dr. Winona Evans Reeves of Chicago, past president of the supreme chapter and editor of the P. E. O. Record, official organization publication.

Original Numbers.

Another feature of the afternoon program will be vocal solos by Mrs. Catherine Cooper Stover of Coffeyville. She will sing "Tie My Shoe, Please," and "Blue Eyes," original compositions by Mrs. Isabel Hughes of Pittsburg, who will be the accompanist. Numbers by the P. E. O. choir will close the program.

Thursday night's program will start at 8 o'clock with an organ recital by Mrs. Helen DuBois of Pittsburg.

There will be an educational hour, with Mrs. Mildred Raney, second vice president of the state chapter, presiding. It will feature reports on Cottey junior college at Nevada, Mo., sponsored by the P. E. O. Miss Jane Casper will talk on "A Junior Looks at Cottey," and reports on the school activities will be made by eight Cottey students, Miss Mary McClelland, Miss Estella Thomas, Miss Alma Ellis, Miss Betty McCain, Miss Myrth Weatherwax, Miss Mary Helen Frazer, Miss Marilyn Anderson and Miss Jean Arnot, with Floella P. Farley as director.

Election Saturday.

There also will be a report on late news of Cottey College by Mrs. Raney, the supreme president, and an address, "I Saw the Morning Break," by Mrs. Nell Farrell Stevenson, recording secretary to the supreme chapter.

There will be sessions Friday morning and afternoon, followed by the convention banquet at 7 p. m. in Mirza Shrine Temple. A reception honoring state officers and special guests will follow the dinner.

The final session will be held at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, when new officers will be elected and installed.

Guests were honor visitors at the convention, the convention executive committee members, past state presidents and state officers.

BANQUET, ELECTION TO END P. E. O. MEETING

RECEPTION TO FOLLOW DINNER TONIGHT AT MIRZA TEMPLE.

New Leaders Selected Tomorrow Morning at Final State Convention Session; Full Program Today.

A banquet and reception tonight, followed by a meeting tomorrow morning to elect new officers and receive committee reports, will wind up the 47th annual convention of the Kansas P. E. O. Sisterhood, in Pittsburg.

The convention has been in session almost continuously since yesterday morning and many of the visitors were here for several pre-convention meetings Wednesday.

Tonight's dinner will start at 7 o'clock in the banquet room of the Mirza Shrine Temple. The program will include numbers by the Treble Clef Music Club string ensemble and a musical skit in costume, "Thirty Minutes with Stephen Foster," directed by Mrs. Lavon Graham Holden.

Reception Tonight.

Following the dinner program, there will be a reception honoring state officers and the convention guests.

Two full sessions this morning and afternoon occupied the attention of the 300 official delegates and many other visitors. Both sessions were held in the Music hall auditorium at the College.

A check on registration today disclosed 318 official delegates and 282 guests were in attendance today, with registration continuing. The guests included 251 from the hostess chapters in Pittsburg, Girard, Columbus, Baxter Springs and Galena and 31 from out of the state.

Hear Supreme Head.

An address by Mrs. Bessie Raney of Chicago, supreme president of P. E. O., was the feature of the morning program, which was running slightly behind schedule because of the press of business.

In her talk on "A Trail Becomes a Highway," Mrs. Raney outlined the history and development of the P. E. O. organization.

She mentioned the start of Iowa Wesleyan College at Mt. Pleasant, Ia., as one of the first colleges west of the Mississippi river, and the organization of the first P. E. O. chapter there in 1869 by seven girls. Then she pointed out that P. E. O. now has more than 100,000 members in chapters in virtually every state of the Union and Canada.

Aid to Education.

Her "trail" also mentioned the establishment of the P. E. O. Record, official publication, in 1889, and the founding of the educational fund in 1907. Loans have been made to more than 9,000 girls from this fund, allowing them to complete their higher education. Educational loans have totaled $4,500,000, she said.

P. E. O. acquired Cotney College, a junior college for girls at Nevada, Mo., in 1927. Mrs. Raney mentioned these as some of the spectacular things accomplished by P. E. O., and also praised the work of individual members in helping to build the sisterhood.

An organ recital by Mrs. Helen DuBois of Pittsburg opened the morning program. There were violin solos by Marjwood Holmes of the College music department, accompanied by Mrs. Holmes and a play, "Dream House," written by Mrs. Shirley Miller of Fort Scott, with Fort Scott members in the cast.

Original Numbers.

Original compositions of Mrs. Glad Robinson Youse of Baxter Springs were sung by Mrs. Betty Dorsey Smith, with Mrs. Martha Pate as accompanist. The numbers were "My Dream of Springtime," "April Is Forever," "Red Bird" and "Today."

Reports on the welfare and trust fund board, by Mrs. Stella B. Haines of Augusta, and on the proposed Kansas P. E. O. home, by Mrs. Etelka Kreiger of Larned, also were on the morning program.

This afternoon's session started with an organ recital by Mrs. Lorraine Knock of Columbus. There also was a model meeting presented by a Wichita chapter, a piano solo by Miss Ruth Stamm of the College music department, and recognition for members who have been in P. E. O. for 50 years.

Panel Discussion.

Mrs. Christine Davis of Wichita presided over a panel discussion of P. E. O. aims under the topic of "Let's Talk It Over." Ten members took part in the discussion.

Mrs. Holden was vocal soloist in three numbers, the lyrics for which were written by Mrs. Grace Davis and the music by Mrs. Isabel Hughes, both Pittsburg members. The violin obligato was by Mrs. Dorothy Strawn, with Mrs. Martha Pate as accompanist. Supreme President Raney also led a question box discussion.

Tomorrow's final session will open with an organ recital at 8:45 o'clock by Mrs. Hazel Spencer of Pittsburg, with the convention call to order at 9 o'clock.

Election Tomorrow.

Mrs. Bernice Fields of Columbus will lead the recital of the organization's objects and aims, with Mrs. Harriet Oldham of Hutchinson leading the devotions. Mrs. Katherine Loy of Great Bend will make the credentials committee report, with the election of new officers to follow. Mrs. Grace Banta Doot is the retiring state president.

Committee reports scheduled at the final session by chairmen include:

Memorial, by Mrs. Letitia Street-er of Kansas City, Kas.; post-war work by Mrs. Helen Chubb of Baxter Springs; P. E. O. file by Mrs. Mamie A. Fay of Pratt; historian by Mrs. Mary Hartley of Wichita; chapter reports by Mrs. Verona Skinner of Lincoln; president's letters by Mrs. Christine Morris of Augusta; chapter year books by Mrs. Virginia Cleland of Atchison; chapter by-laws and special work by Mrs. Katrina Cross of Council Grove; delegation to supreme meeting by Mrs. Alpha Boys of Independence; finance by Mrs. Wilma Beeler of Beloit, and resolutions of courtesy by Mrs. Maxine Anderson of Dodge City.

To Hear Choir.

The P. E. O. choir, under the direction of Miss Gabriella Campbell, will sing an anthem as one of the closing events. Mrs. Pate will be the organist; Miss Starn will be at the piano, Mrs. Strawn will be the violinist and Miss Jo Ann Sell of Girard will be the vocal soloist.

Installation of the new officers will be the final business of the convention, with adjournment expected by noon.

P. E. O. as a philosophy for living was discussed yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Winona Evans Reeves, past supreme president, and editor of the P. E. O. Record, who mentioned P. E. O. as one of five of life's essentials.

Life's Essentials.

Among life's essentials outlined by Mrs. Reeves were environment, work, leisure, religion and P. E. O. The environment of home, Mrs. Reeves said, is the nearest essential to women.

She said everybody works at something and the higher a person goes, the greater are his responsibilities and the more difficult the task becomes. Mrs. Reeves declared women need not apologize for work since women are working in everything and making their contributions.

Leisure is not the same as idleness and is not killing time, Mrs. Reeves explained. She said the use of leisure should go into the making of one's soul.

Community Spirit.

Turning to religion, Mrs. Reeves said peace in a person's own soul must come individually and must be a human experience and that it must work.

P. E. O. was described by Mrs. Reeves as a community spirit, a living experience, a part of the philosophy of one's life.

Many flowers, gifts from the P. E. O. and the B. I. L., composed of husbands of P. E. O. members, helped to make the Music hall auditorium at the College an attractive setting for the meeting.

New Chapters.

During luncheon and dinner hour at the College cafeteria, musical numbers were furnished by Betty Jo DeLappe, Jean Freeto, Judy Timmons, Kay Newman, Elizabeth Sutterfield, Doris DuBois, Harriett King and Diane Walker.

New chapters in the state were presented by Mrs. Cross, state organizer. They are chapters FN of Mission and FO of Ellis.

"DREAM HOUSE"

TIME: Wednesday Nite, 8:00.

PLACE: The modern apartment of Opal Brown. It is the nite for Opal's P.E.O. Bridge foursome which meets weekly. As the curtain rises she is busily preparing the living room for the arrival of her guests.

CHARACTERS: (In order of their appearance)

MISS OPAL BROWN — Arleen Purcell.

A piano teacher, intelligent, prim and a little lonely with no family.

MRS. JENNIE FAIRCHILD — Lou Atkins.

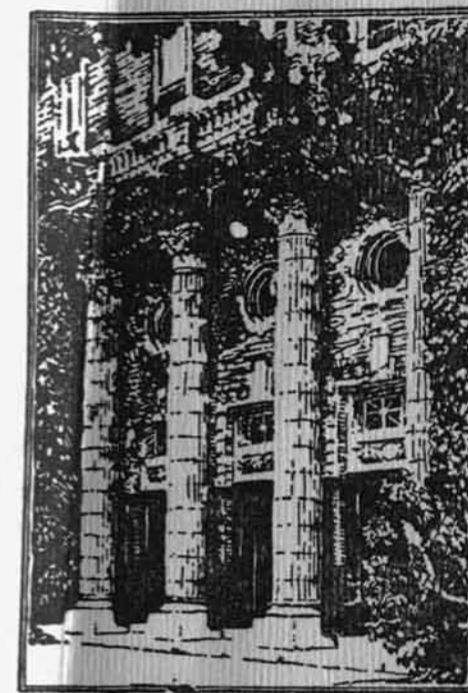

A middle-aged house wife, whose husband and grown children are her prime interest.

MRS. SELMA ABBOTT — Irene Calhoun.

A youngish widow, peppy and sophisticated. She has no children, but is financially independant.

MRS. EMMA SYLVESTER — Margaret Cook.

A widow of many years who taught school to support her three children until they were grown. She is now dependent on them.

FIRE NOTICE— Look around now, choose the nearest exit to your seat, and in case of disturbance of any kind to avoid the dangers of panic, WALK (do not run) to that exit.

Dear Members of P.E.O. Committees and Presidents of Hostess Chapters:

Mrs. Dodt has asked that the introduction of the local group be quite formal and she is particularly anxious that all persons be present for the introductions. Will each of you be at the Music Hall auditorium Thursday afternoon, 2:00 p.m., and remain at the back of the room until Mrs. Dodt asks for the introductions of the local group?

As I am introduced, will you come to the two sides of the auditorium in the order designated below? Following that, as I call your name, will you please come to the front of the auditorium and stand until all have been introduced?

We should like each of you to be at the head table Friday night at the banquet at the Shrine Mosque. The banquet will be at 7:00 p.m. and we should like you there a bit earlier.

Please let me know if it is not possible for you to be at the introductions and at the banquet.

If you have any announcements to be made during the convention, please send them directly to me.

P.E.O. SISTERHOOD
CONVENTION SONGS
Pittsburg, Kansas 1949

I. (Tune: "O du Lieber Augustine")

We're glad to be together, together, together,
We're glad to be in Pittsburg at Convention time.
For your friends are my friends
And my friends are your friends
We'll know each other better as we sing each line.

As sisters sing together, together, together,
As sisters sing together our bond grows so strong.
When I sing - then you sing
When you sing - we all sing
So now let's sing together our P.E.O. songs.

II. (Tune: "Tipperary")

It's a good time to get acquainted,
It's a good time to know
Who sits so close beside you
And to smile and say "Hello".
Goodbye lonesome feeling,
Goodbye glassy stare
Here's my hand -- my name is -----
And I'm glad you're here.

III. (Tune: "That Certain Party")

Has she got starry eyes?
Yes, she has got starry eyes,
That sister, P.E.O. sister.
You know the one I mean,
Sure you know the one I mean,
P.E.O. sister of mine.
Starry eyes, all aglow
Rosy cheeks -- ready to go
Life of the party.
Has she got loving ways
Sure, she has got loving ways
That P.E.O. sister of mine.

IV. (Tune: "Pretty Baby")

Everybody loves a P.E.O.
And we all love her too,
P.E.O. sister, P.E.O. sister.
Every P.E.O. you know
Is always loving, kind and true,
P.E.O. sister, P.E.O. sister.
Remember seven sisters founded it in love,
And it's lasted all this time.
Everybody loves a P.E.O.
And we all love her too
P.E.O. sister of mine.

V. (Tune: "Reuben, Reuben")

WINONA REEVES, YOU are a darlin'
And we're glad you're here today
It's an honor just to have you
How we wish that you might stay.

BESSIE RAINEY you're a wonder
Always loving, sweet and gay
We will all say "YES" by thunder"
To each word we hear you say.

BESSIE STEVENSON you're lovely
And our neighbor -- not too far.
We are glad you came to see us,
Glad you wear the Golden Star.

Kansas sisters all are beaming
And the reason we know well
So we sing to our "Boss Lady"
GRACIE DODT we think you're swell.

Now a toast to Mildred Raney,
Katie Cross, Juanita Barnes,
Jean Kampschoeder, Mary Broadie,
We are all proud of your charms.

VI. (Tune: "Alice Blue Gown")

When I first wore my pin with the Star
Then I knew joy that nothing could mar
I was both proud and shy
As I met every eye
And at every new sister
I'd smile passing by.
For in P.E.O. fashion I knew
That love bound me dear sisters to you.
So while life lasts, I swear it,
My pin - I shall wear it,
The symbol of dear P.E.O.

VII. (Tune: "Buttons and Bows")

East is East and West is West
And the right one I have chose;
Let's go where we'll keep on wearin'
Those Stars and flowers and
B.I.L.'s our Beaus
Hearts that sing and B.I.L.'s our Beaus.
O, bury me in this prairie
Where the yellow sunflower grows;
Let's move down to some little town
Where they love a gal who's a P.E.O.
And we'll step out with the B.I.L.'s our Beaus.
Our flower is the marguerite
And stay as sweet as you are
And I'll love you longer, stronger
Where your friends all wear the Star.
My bones denounce the modern bounce
And I hurt way down to my toes;
Let's stay here where gals keep wearin'
Those Stars and actin' like P.E.O.'s
And we step out with B.I.L.'s our Beaus.

Patter

Gimme western trimmin' where women are women in P.E.O.
and always be so
With faith in the past and to the future "Let's Go"
And we'll step out with B.I.L. our Beaus.

VIII. (Tune: "I'm a Sunflower")

I was born in Kansas
I was bred in Kansas - "Greetings"
I'm a P.E.O. in dear ol' Kansas.
We are true blue gals, who promised to keep faith
For the seven founders of the Iowa state.

Refrain:

The Marguerite's our flower
Our pin, "The Star" has power
And I know we'll never part.
She's our one flower, She's our own flower
She's the flower of our hearts.

Skies are fair in Kansas,
Clouds are rare in Kansas,
Never saw a place that could compare with Kansas.
We've been workin' hard to keep Convention date,
For the P.E.O.'s from the Sunflower state.

Troubles end in Kansas, folks unbend in Kansas
Everyone you meet will be your friend in Kansas
And they'll all be here to help us celebrate
The best Convention ever held in the state.

(Chapter)'s Stars are brighter and her thoughts are purer
And the gals are sweeter and their hearts are truer
And I'm here to state --- is really great
She is (age of chapter) --- and that brings us up to date.

ALLA VAO
I WAS BORN LONG AGO
WHEN I WAS ONLY A BYE AND BYE
AT (TUNE: "WITTE BYE GONE")

IX. (Tune: "Auld Lang Syne")
A Benediction

To P.E.O.'s, our sisters fair,
We wish you all Godspeed,
And pray that this occasion rare,
Will prove a joy indeed.
And as we now asunder part,
A rich sweet memory
Will linger in each loving heart,
For life - in me and thee.

X. To Our Founders
(Tune: "Long, Long Ago")

Tell us the tales we delight so to hear of
Our P.E.O. - of our P.E.O.
Sing us the songs of our Founders so dear of
Long, long ago, long ago.
Now we are come our devotion to show
To seven radiant dream girls - their talents rare we know
Let us believe that we love as they loved so
Long, long ago, long ago.

Do you remember the stile where they met?
Long, long ago, long, long ago.
Ah, yes, it has been told ne'er can we forget
Long, long ago, long ago.
The charm of each girl - with face all aglow
As they whispered each oath so tender and low,
And pledged allegiance to their own P.E.O.
Long, long ago, long ago.

Thru the mist of that dear yesteryear
Long, long ago, long, long ago.
There comes to us down mem'ries lane so clear
The message of P.E.O.
The vision of our Founders - with hearts so tried and true
The glow from their Star - will e'er guide us thru -
Keep us ever faithful to the solemn vows they knew of
Dear P.E.O. - P.E.O.

OPERATING BUDGETS IN STATE SCHOOLS UP

REGENTS APPROVE FIGURES
$2,212,877 HIGHER THAN CURRENT YEAR.

Provides for Approximately 200
More Full Time Employees and
Faculty Members; Salary Increases.

Topeka, June 2.—(P)—The Kansas board of regents today approved a total operating budget of $16,780,961 for the nine educational institutions under its jurisdiction in the school year starting July 1.

The budget, including legislative appropriations and fees, exceeds the figure expended in the current year by $2,212,877.

Of the increase, $1,607,464 will be for new positions and salary raises and $605,413 for maintenance and repairs.

More Employees.

Hubert A. Brighton, secretary of the board, said the budget provides for approximately 200 additional full time employees and faculty members, mainly employees.

Salary increases will average between five and ten percent, he said.

Operating budgets by schools (1948-49 figures in parentheses):

University of Kansas $5,610,978 ($4,971,578).

Medical center $2,935,703 ($2,135,711).

Kansas State College $4,391,808 ($4,137,370).

Emporia State $1,183,091 ($1,040,099).

Pittsburg State $1,177,453 ($1,068,060).

Fort Hays State $844,357 ($809,530).

School for the blind, Kansas City, $215,500 ($149,545).

School for the deaf, Olathe, $255,650 ($212,659).

Kansas vocational school, Topeka, $166,426 ($143,632).

Distribution.

Increases by schools will be distributed as follows (new positions and salary hikes and maintenance and repairs shown in that order):

University of Kansas $598,880 and $40,520.

Medical center $456,342 and $348,050.

Kansas state College $236,349 and $118,184.

Emporia State $109,012 and $88,080.

Pittsburg State $106,431 and $3,862.

Fort Hays State $62,472 and a decrease of $27,645.

School for blind $11,617 and $54,338.

School for the deaf $16,027 and $26,694.

Kansas vocational school $9,734 and $13,060.

Does Not Include Building Funds.

President Rees H. Hughes said this afternoon that the operating budget approved by the board of regents for the coming fiscal year does not include appropriations for building purposes on the campus. To be used only for maintenance and operating expenses during the year, it includes money to be received from appropriations and fees.

Building projects provided in another fund include $160,000 for Mechanical Arts building addition, $60,000 for expanding heating requirements, a $500,000 girls dormitory and $100,000 to be added to a $450,000 high school building appropriation.

President Hughes said that it is hoped that construction can start on the new student union building this summer or in early fall.

COMMENCEMENT AT COLLEGE TOMORROW

10 A. M. FOR 410 DEGREE CANDIDATES.

Senior Class Day Activities Hold
Spotlight Today; Members Go
On Visit to Buildings in Farewell Rites.

Traditional senior class day activities were held today on the College campus for the 1949 graduating class. The week of ceremonies will be climaxed at 10 a. m. tomorrow when 410 baccalaureate and masters degrees are conferred at commencement.

The senior class day program started at 9:30 o'clock this morning when the seniors garbed in caps and gowns, visited eleven buildings on the campus. A faculty member and student spoke briefly before each building.

The group assembled in the Music hall auditorium at 10:30 o'clock for the reading of the class will, history and prophecy. Presentation of awards to seniors was made. Three students, James Pike, Mary Dell Morrison and Norval Phillips, were presented the Kappa Mu Epsilon mathematics award for making the highest average grades as mathematics majors.

Awards.

Charles Thomas won the Pi Omega Pi commerce award. Seniors making "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" included Clayton Clark, Donald Cooper, Jack Helbig, William Lyle, Edwin Walbourn, Jewel Bridges, Violet Hall, Betty Lloyd, Ernestine Johnson and Pat Scalet.

Cooper, who is president of the senior class, made the presentation of the memorial which was accepted by President Rees H. Hughes.

A solo was sung by Robert Gobetz and Ollie G. Buck played a piano selection.

A senior-graduate banquet will be held at 6 o'clock tonight in the College cafeteria. The class president will act as toastmaster and Dr. Eugene Dawson will give the invocation. Miss Hazel Cave will give the toast from the faculty and the graduate response will be made by Darlene Haring. Bob Tolman will make the senior response.

Prof. R. W. Hart will speak as will President Hughes.

Largest Class.

Commencement exercises for the largest class in the school's history will be in College auditorium.

The traditional graduation procession around the campus oval will be led by President Hughes, Lieutenant Governor Frank L. Hagaman, and Dr. L. B. Spake, a member of the state board of regents. Administrative officers, faculty members and the degree class will follow. The College band will play.

The commencement speaker will be Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, Christ church, Methodist, New York, whose topic will be "For a Time Like This."

President Hughes and Dr. Spake will confer the degrees.

Dr. Gordon B. Thompsea, pastor of the Methodist church, will give the invocation and the benediction. Otis J. Mumaw, head of the music department, will sing "Pilgrim's Song" accompanied by a string quartet.

The commencement speaker, Dr. Sockman, has served as president of the Federation of Churches and has been active on the world peace commission of the Methodist church. A poll conducted recently named him as one of the six foremost clergymen of all denominations in the country.

BEGIN SUMMER TERM AT COLLEGE MONDAY

CLASS WORK TO GET UNDER WAY TUESDAY AFTERNOON AT COLLEGE.

Several Faculty Members on Leave
For Graduate Study and Travel;
Resignations of Two Announced.

Enrollment for the 8-week summer term at the College will be held Monday in Porter library and will continue Tuesday morning.

Classes will meet Tuesday afternoon for textbook and lesson assignments.

Students seeking housing were arriving on the campus this week-end and officials expressed the belief that enrollment for the summer would compare favorably with past years, despite the decrease in veteran enrollments which is being experienced in colleges and universities throughout the country.

Higher Teaching Standards.

Emphasis on instruction in the summer months will be placed on giving present and prospective teachers an opportunity to improve their qualifications, and to work toward meeting the higher specification standards which have been set by the state department of education, Dean of Instruction Ernest Mahan said.

Resignations of two members of the faculty were announced today by President Rees H. Hughes.

Dr. Phyllis Ann Bate, assistant instructor in the department of history and social science, has resigned to go to Des Moines where she will be married June 12 to David Sparks, a member of the department of history at the University of Maryland.

To Nevada Hospital.

R. Ross Lamoreaux, instructor of psychology, has resigned to accept a position as head of the out-clinic of the state hospital at Nevada, Mo.

Faculty members on leave for the summer months include Prof. Paul Bartolini, head of Porter library, who will do work toward a doctors degree at the University of Illinois; Dr. Claude Leist, associate professor of biological science, who will travel in the Pacific northwest; Clay DeFord, assistant professor in the language and literature department, who will do work on his doctors degree at Oklahoma University; Miss Evelyn Triplett, assistant professor in the health and physical education department, who will do graduate work at Oklahoma University; Helen Kriegsman, instructor of mathematics, who will do graduate work at Ohio University; and Pearl Garrison Strawn, associate professor of home economics, who will travel in the western states.

The enrollment procedure for the summer will be as follows:

Students with 90 or more hours will enroll from 8 a. m. until noon Monday. Those with 45 hours or more will enroll that afternoon from 1 until 5 o'clock. Students with 44 hours or less will enroll Tuesday morning.

Entrance Examinations.

This year all freshmen will be required to take the freshmen entrance examinations sometime after enrollment. Photographs for the College personnel records will be taken during enrollment and students will have an opportunity to purchase copies later.

All enrollments for nine hours must be approved by the enrollment committee and all enrollments for fewer than six hours will have to be approved by the dean of instruction.

Dr. Paul Murphy, dean of students, is director of the summer session.

EXCEPTIONAL PUPILS AIDED.

Classes at College Stress Way to Teach Better Students.

Instruction in the care and teaching of exceptional children is emphasized with the addition this summer of two new courses to the curriculum at the College, according to Dr. Jane M. Carroll, principal of the Horace Mann laboratory grade school.

Taught by Miss Ruth Fleischaker, fifth grade supervisor, the courses are "Overview of Education for Exceptional Children" and "Techniques of Instruction for Exceptional Children."

A permanent member of the teaching staff, Miss Fleischaker received her training for this type of work at Missouri and Columbia universities.

The classes journeyed to Kansas City last Friday and Saturday to visit schools for crippled children. They then went to Kansas City medical center to observe specialized form of treatment for these children.

Other trips are planned for the summer, Dr. Carroll said.

It is very probable that we will not have the course "Integrated Study of Elementary Children and Program", 21. For that reason I have scheduled you each for one week, only. If persons enrolled in course 21 or the number in Elementary Education 45 and 46 becomes too large, we will need to have other divisions. This we will not know until enrollment day.

I have left the last week for final examinations since the period you have with these people is very short. It will not be necessary to give examinations other than the final unless you wish.

HORACE MANN LABORATORY SCHOOL
KANSAS STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
PITTSBURG, KANSAS
June 17, 1949

Dear Parents:

In order to insure safety for the children while swimming, we ask the following:

1. That all children taking swimming come alone on swimming days, Tuesday and Thursday, if possible. Parents who need to bring the children are requested to wait outside the school or in the Horace Mann Laboratory School. There will be open house for parents on Wednesday and Thursday, July 27 and 28, where the parents will have an opportunity to watch the children.
2. Before and following the swimming classes, the children are not to wait at the pool for a brother or sister nor visit another class. If it is necessary for any child to wait, he may stay in the Horace Mann Laboratory School in his own room.

It is difficult for Miss Cave and her helpers to check children in and out of the pool with visitors about. We are sorry to ask parents to remain outside, but feel it is necessary to insure safety for the children.

Sincerely,

Jane M. Carroll
Professor of Education
Director of Laboratory School

June 24, 1949

Dear Faculty Member:

Will you please make the following announcement to your classes today and Monday:

The workshop, Education for International Understanding, will be held in the Horace Mann Auditorium from Monday, June 27, to Friday, July 8. Dr. Carleton Washburne, Director of Information Service, U. S. Department of State, Washington, D. C., will speak each morning at 9:00 a.m. Dr. Alvin Proctor will speak each morning the first week, June 27 to July 1, at the 10:00 o'clock period. Professor Oestergaard will speak Monday, June 27, at 2:30 p.m. Visitors are welcome. Anyone wishing to earn a two-hour credit will need to attend all workshop periods.

Sincerely,

Jane M. Carroll

Dear Supervisor:

Attached you will find:

1. Suggestions for writing letters to parents.
2. The please program.

As to number one above, I would suggest that you immediately assign to each of your teachers children -- one, two, three or more, as necessary -- for them to study and finally write a letter to the parents concerning the children. These letters would necessarily need to be checked by you and in some cases rewritten. However, I believe in most cases only suggestions would be needed. Your name would finally be signed to the letter sent to the parents -- not the student teacher's name.

If you wish enough of these "Suggestions for Writing Letters to Parents" for each one of your teachers, we will be glad to supply you.

Sincerely,

Jane M. Carroll

JMC:lh

SUGGESTIONS FOR WRITING LETTERS TO PARENTS

- I. Begin the letter with encouraging news.
- II. Close with an attitude of optimism.
- III. Solicit the parents' co-operation in solving the problems if any exist.
- IV. Speak of the child's growth-social, physical and academic.
 - A. Social (Citizenship traits)
 1. Describe traits: Attention, attitude toward school, care of property, co-operation, honesty, effort, fair play, neatness, truthfulness, obedience, promptness, reliability, self-control, self-reliance, concentration, courtesy and consideration, thrift, patience, appreciation, kindness, sympathy, orderliness, interest in associates, discrimination, politeness, respect for the rights of others.
 2. Undesirable traits: Selfishness, wastefulness, dishonesty, spitefulness, slow to respond, imprudence, carelessness, untidiness, rudeness, noisiness, insolence, cheating, courtesy, tattling, snobbishness, conceit, impatience, stealing.
 - B. Academic
 1. Interests: (a) In school activities; (b) In extra-school activities.
 2. Methods of work: (a) methods of attack; (b) purposing; (c) planning; (d) executing; (e) judging; (f) consistency in finishing work.
 3. Achievements: (a) Growth in knowledge, appreciation, techniques; (b) list subjects in which the child is making progress and those in which he is not making progress; (c) Relationship of his accepted standards to his capacities.
- V. Compare the child's effort with his own previous efforts and not those of others.
- VI. Speak of his achievements in terms of his ability to do school work.
- VII. Remember it is our professional duty to know the reason why if the child is not making what, for him is normal progress. (Some suggestive reasons for lack of progress-late entry; absence; lack of application; health defects such as hearing, sight, under-nourishment.)

FUN AS PART OF STUDY

TRIP TO AIR TERMINAL LAYS GROUNDWORK FOR A SCHOOL.

Demonstration Course of Five
Weeks for 76 Boys and Girls
Also Will Include Imaginary Flights.

The University of Kansas City really meant it when they said "demonstration" school, seventy-six boys and girls are finding out. What could be more demonstrative of "Wings Over America," than a visit to the Municipal Air Terminal, to hear the roar of engines on a real plane, to take a walk through the interior of a Constellation and to watch operations from a control tower? Besides that, there was the added experience of having sandwiches and milk at the terminal restaurant.

TO BUILD SMALL PLANES.

The trip was a part of a 5-week course which started last week at the William Rockhill Nelson school under the sponsorship of the university. During the course, children of elementary school age will take imaginary flights to various parts of the world and will construct model planes.

To wind up the "Wings Over America" theme, they will participate in a festival at the end of the course which will involve a demonstration of their knowledge of planes and of the culture, including singing and dancing, of the peoples they "visited."

Just to get off to a good start, Miss Elsie Schaefer, who is in charge of the school, decided something had best be learned about the planes in which the imaginary trips are to be made. Consequently, the visit Friday morning to the airport.

A long queue of boys and girls stood out on one of the runways, with instructors and guides closely supervising them, to march through the large Constellation.

"Could you get seasick in an airplane?" one youngster asked another.

"Well, maybe if the plane flew over an ocean, you could," the child answered.

INTEREST INCLUDES EVERYTHING.

While the children quietly mounted the ladder leading to the plane's interior, a near-by plane began to warm its engines. Immediately there were squeals and shouts and the pupils stopped to watch the operation.

Escorting seventy-six children through a plane is no easy task, but the guides and teachers did it with a minimum of difficulty.

Although most of the boys and girls were fairly excited by the expedition, Bruce Houdek, 11 years old, 4432 Jarboe street, considered the Constellation somewhat of a come-down for him.

"I went to see the Constitution last week," he said. "It was a lot bigger. Of course, I've never been up in a plane. In fact, I've never even been on a train."

"I thought the cockpit was awful interesting," Clark Ruhlman, 13, of 1704 Northern boulevard, Independence, who was walking with Bruce, remarked. "But they had the control board roped off, so I couldn't examine it."

The chatter about airplanes was thick as the group was led back to the terminal building.

FLEW OVER FLOOD AREA.

Nancy Davidson, 13, of 7217 Terrace street, enthralled the boys and girls around her with an account of her first plane ride.

"It was during the flood out in Washington," she said. "We lived in Richland and were in Seattle when it happened. We flew back to Richland and we could look down and see all the flood. It was quite exciting. When we got to Richland, we found our house had not been reached by the water."

Nancy moved here about three months ago with her family.

When the children return to the classroom Monday, Miss Schaefer explained, they will start work immediately on projects which have been assigned to the groups into which the boys and girls have been divided—primary, intermediate and upper.

MONSTROUS ENGINES on a Constellation catch the attention of seventy-six boys and girls from the University of Kansas City demonstration school and their instructors on a visit to the Municipal Air Terminal. The trip was a part of a 5-week program of activities for the children involving the theme, "Wings Over America." The demonstration school is being conducted at the William Rockhill Nelson school. In the photograph, George Robinson, a master mechanic for Trans World Airline, is explaining the operation of the four engines on the planes. He is pointing toward one of the engines.—(Kansas City Star photograph).

SUNDAY, JUNE 19, 1949.

Your comforting expression of sympathy will always be held
in grateful remembrance

The Walter Bradshaw Family

The primary group will take a make-believe plane trip to a dude ranch in the United States; the intermediate will concern itself more with activities about an airport, and the upper will take a flight west, finally "landing" at a point in the Pacific ocean.

Assisting in the program are six directors, all from the Kansas City public school system, and twenty-seven training students who are gaining college credit for their work.

The demonstration school also includes a reading clinic for another group of boys and girls who have been enrolled for the purpose of reading improvement.

THROCKMORTON AT COLLEGE

State Superintendent of Public Instruction on Workshop Program.

Adel F. Throckmorton, state superintendent of public instruction, will appear as consultant and speaker at the College at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon as a participant in the 2-week workshop on international understanding.

Appearing with him will be Miss Ursula Henley, state curriculum director.

After individual and group conferences tomorrow morning, Dr.

ADEL F. THROCKMORTON.

Carlton W. Washburne, one of the workshop leaders, will make an address. Dr. Alvin H. Proctor, member of the social science department, will discuss "Geopolitics in the Pacific."

Prof. Lewis H. Caldwell, director of visual education, will present a discussion on "Visual Education and International Understanding."

Concluding tomorrow's program will be individual and group conferences conducted by Dr. Washburne, Miss Hazel Kier, director of elementary education in Kansas City, Kas., and Victor Klotz, director of secondary education in Coffeyville.

Today's program included addresses by Dr. Washburne and Dr. Proctor, this morning and a talk by Miss Mary E. Sherfy of the College library staff on "Magazines Which Contribute to International Understanding."

International Understanding Is Theme Of Workshop

Furbay, Oestergaard To Conference Which Opens At College On June 27

Dr. Carlton Wolsey Washburne, director of information service, United States Department of State, Washington, D. C., and Professor Ulf Oestergaard, guest professor from Denmark, will lead the second annual workshop on International Understanding and Cooperation which will open at the College on June 27 and will close July 8.

"This workshop", according to director Dr. Jane M. Carroll, "will be concerned with what can be done to promote international cooperation and understanding in various subjects and activities from the elementary school through the junior college. The workshop will consist of a series of lectures, conferences, discussions, and assignments, designed to give teachers a better comprehension of how the whole school program may, at different levels in all its activities, promote better understanding and appreciation of other peoples, and develop a spirit and a desire which will lead to cooperation."

Assisting Dr. Washburne and Professor Oestergaard with the program of the workshop will be Mrs. Hazel Kier, director of elementary education at Kansas City, Kansas; Dr. Victor Klotz, director of secondary education at Coffeyville and Dr. John H. Furbay, director of air world education, Trans-World Airlines of Kansas City, Missouri. Dr. Furbay will also speak at the College assembly program on Tuesday morning, June 28.

Other out-of-town speakers will include Mrs. Ruth Gagliardo, director of book exhibits, Kansas State Teachers Association, Topeka; Mr. Adel Throckmorton, state superintendent of public instruction, state department of education, Topeka; and Mrs. Ursula Henley, state curriculum director, state department of education.

College faculty members who will assist with the workshop are Professor Lewis H. Caldwell, director of photography and visual education; Mrs. Julia Ross Christie, library; Miss Mary Sherfy, library; Miss Bertha Spencer of the art department and Dr. Alvin Proctor, social science department.

President Rees H. Hughes and Dr. William Black will bring greetings to the group.

The workshop sessions will begin at 8:00 a.m. and end at 4:00 p.m. each day with noon hour intermissions.

The workshop is being sponsored by the National Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, the Kansas state department of the National Education Assment of education, and the Pittsburg Teachers College. Two semester hours of either senior college or graduate credit may be earned by those enrolling in the workshop.

Dr. Carroll said, "we are indeed fortunate to have such outstanding leaders as Dr. Washburne, Professor Oestergaard and Dr. Furbay for the workshop period."

THE PITTSBURG HEADLIGHT

BEGIN WORKSHOP ON WORLD UNDERSTANDING

INFORMATION DIRECTOR OF STATE DEPARTMENT AT COLLEGE.

Two-Week Session Begins Monday; Prof. Ulf Oestergaard of Denmark To Be Co-Leader; Furbay On Program.

Headlining the workshop on international understanding and cooperation which opens at the College Monday for a 2-week session will be Dr. Carlton W. Washburne, director of information service for the United States department of state, and Prof. Ulf Oestergaard, guest professor from Denmark, as leaders.

Assisting with the workshop will be Dr. John H. Furbay, director of air world education for Trans-World Airlines and UNESCO member. Dr. Furbay will also speak at the College assembly program Tuesday morning, June 28.

The workshop, according to Dr. Jane M. Carroll, director, will be concerned with what can be done to promote international cooperation and understanding in various subjects and activities from the elementary school through the junior college.

Others Assisting.

The workshop will consist of a series of lectures, conferences, discussions, and assignments.

Also assisting with the workshop will be Miss Hazel Kier, elementary supervisor in the Kansas City, Kas., schools, and Victor Klotz, director of secondary education at Coffeyville.

Other out-of-town speakers include Mrs. Ruth Gagliardo, director of book exhibits for the Kansas State Teachers Association; Adel Throckmorton, state superintendent of public instruction; Miss Ursula Henley, state curriculum director, and J. Galen Saylor of the National Education Association.

College faculty members who will participate in the program are Prof. Lewis H. Caldwell, director of visual education; Mrs. Julia Ross Christie, library; Miss Mary Sherfy, library; Miss Bertha Spencer of the art department, and Dr. Alvin Proctor of the social science department.

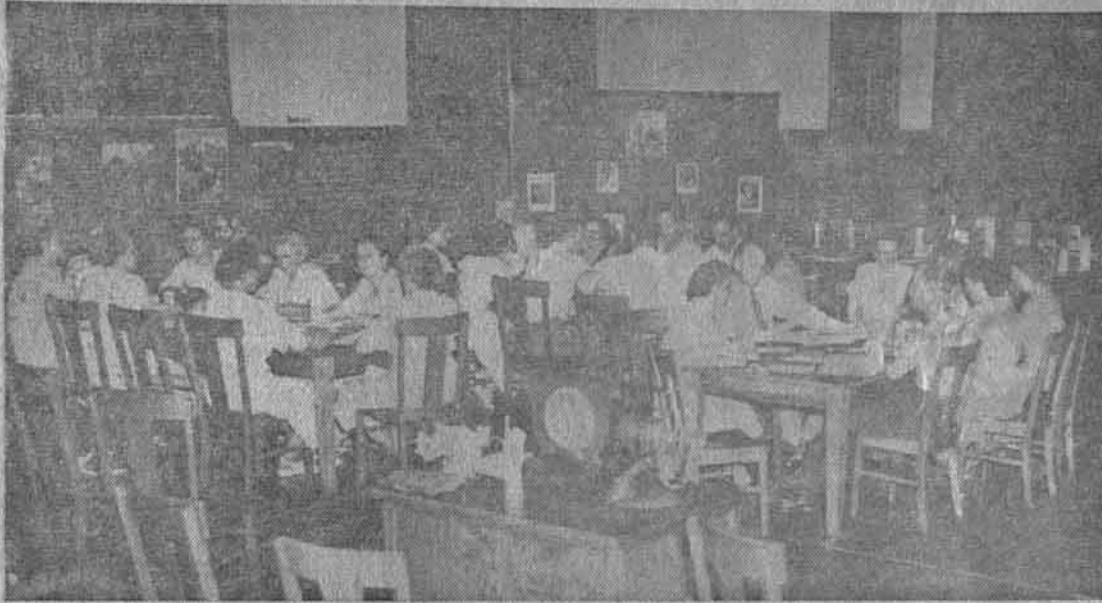

College Credit.

Dr. Rees H. Hughes, president of the College, and Dr. William Black, head of the education department, will bring greetings to the group.

Sessions will begin at 8 o'clock each morning and end at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Two semester hours of college credit may be earned by those enrolling in the workshop.

In International Understanding Workshop

WORKSHOP IN ACTION— Shown above is one of the sections of the international understanding and cooperation workshop now in session at the College meeting with the leaders. Interest groups are divided into lower elementary, upper elementary and secondary education levels. In the picture above, second from left, the view of her face obstructed, is Miss Hazel Kier, director of elementary education in Kansas City, Kas., while in front of the left edge of the bulletin board is Dr. Carleton Washburne, leader. Facing the camera at the right hand table is Victor Klotz, director of secondary education at Coffeyville. At the same table, facing the camera is Dr. Jane M. Carroll, director of the workshop.

AUTHORS, LECTURERS, TRAVELERS— Shown at right are Dr. Carleton Washburne, leader in the workshop, and Mrs. Washburne. Dr. Washburne is using his pipe to point out a publication of particular interest. The Washburnes, who are authors, lecturers and travelers, plan to leave the College Friday for San Francisco enroute to Australia. There they will lecture under the auspices of the New Education Fellowship, of which Dr. Washburne is international president. Dr. Washburne is head of the department of education at Brooklyn College and is educational reconstruction specialist for UNESCO.

Now in its second and final week at the College, the workshop on international understanding and cooperation has been attended by approximately 100 persons, Dr. Jane M. Carroll, director, said yesterday. Persons from nearly twenty different cities have enrolled in the workshop for credit, Dr. Carroll said, some of whom have been sent by their boards of education with expenses partly paid. Working with Dr. Carleton W. Washburne as co-leader of the workshop has been Ulf Oestergaard, visiting professor from Denmark. Serving also as leaders and consultants have been Miss Hazel Kier, director of elementary education in the Kansas City, Kas., schools and Victor Klotz, director of secondary education in Coffeyville. Dr. Washburne, who with his wife will leave for Australia Friday, said concerning the need for such workshops: "Everyone realizes that unless the problem of world peace is solved in this generation, there will not be another generation to solve the problem." At one time Dr. Washburne was superintendent of the experimental schools at Winnetka, Ill. He then studied experimental schools abroad including trips to Russia and the Orient. He became director of education for the Allied military government in Italy and was decorated by the Italian government. Dr. Washburne will be the speaker at the College assembly at 10 o'clock Thursday morning in College auditorium. Dr. Washburne will discuss "The Development of Social Consciousness." In charge of the assembly will be President Rees H. Hughes. Following an organ prelude and the national anthem, Charles Corporation, president of the student council, will give the devotions. Special music will be provided by the music department.

THE KANSAS CITY TIMES,
TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1949

IN AN INTERNATIONAL STUDY. Workshop on Understanding to Continue Two Weeks.

PITTSBURG, KAS., June 27.—Headlining a workshop on international understanding and co-operation which opened today at the Kansas State Teachers college for a 2-week session is Dr. Carleton W. Washburne, director of information service for the United States State department, and Prof. Ulf Oestergaard, guest professor from Denmark, as leaders.

Assisting with the workshop is Dr. John H. Furbay, director of air world education for Trans-World Airlines and UNESCO member.

The workshop, according to Dr. Jane M. Carroll, director, is concerned with what can be done to promote international co-operation and understanding in various subjects and activities from the elementary school through the junior college.

Prof. Harl Roy Douglass, director of the college of education at the University of Colorado, will lead a conference on life adjustment education at the college here June 30 and July 1.

Joining with him as co-leaders will be Dr. Merle C. Prunty, director of student personnel at Stephens college, and Dr. Washburne, both of whom are on the campus in connection with the workshop on international understanding and co-operation.

Life adjustment education, according to Dr. William A. Black, head of the education department and director of the conference, represents an attempt to serve a majority of secondary school youth with a more functional educational program.

Kindergarten, Grade School Pupils at Horace Mann School Learn Typing

Typewriting instruction starts early at the Horace Mann training school at the College. Under a new project kindergarten and grade pupils get practical training in courses recently established. At top, above, Miss Thelma Carnegie is shown giving instructions to four of her second grade pupils. Below, Mrs. Daphne Cross is shown with some of her third graders.

By ROBERT LEE WOLF,
College Journalism Student.

Whenever one thinks of students in a typing class, he usually thinks of them as being either juniors or seniors in high school or even college students. However, if one were to visit the typing classes which are being conducted in the Horace Mann training school at the College he would not see high school nor college students at work. He would no doubt, be completely amazed to find pupils in the kindergarten as well as those of the other six grades, using the typewriter as an educational tool.

Undoubtedly the first question that would come to the observer would be something like "What can they be teaching pupils of the elementary school about typing?"

A brief chat with the teachers and a glance at the course of study would soon answer such questions, and many more, concerning the use of the typewriter in doing classroom work.

First of all, they are taught the names of the various parts of a typewriter. They also learn the use of these various parts as well as how to care for them. Of course, all this is presented to the pupils in an interesting way and on their level of understanding.

They are also taught proper typing posture, how to insert and remove the paper from the machine, the location of the letters on the keyboard and proper fingering.

At the present time each pupil is given a period of typing experience each day. Later on, they will use the skills which they are learning in their actual school work.

This experience-in-typing program was set up in the Horace Mann school by Mrs. Elsa Tabrizi. Her services and the portable typewriters which are being used in the classes are made available to the school through the educational research committee of the Office Equipment Manufacturers Institute of Washington, D. C.

Research work in the field of typing in the elementary schools and the actual extension of the work to such schools as Horace Mann have been made possible by grants from the typewriter educational research bureau of the three manufacturers of portable typewriters.

Mrs. Tabrizi will be at the Horace Mann school for three weeks. During that time the program will have been set up, and the activities will be carried on by the supervisors and student teachers in the school.

Interest in this experience in typing came about as the result of a 3-year study of the subject made by Dr. Ben D. Wood of Columbia University and Dr. Frank N. Freeman of the University of Chicago.

In their study Dr. Wood and Dr. Freeman found that a typewriter was one of the greatest aids that could be given a child. According to their report, it makes school work easier and report cards better. It was found that the typewriter does not retard handwriting. In fact, children who use the typewriter write more by hand than children who write everything with pen or pencil.

Dear Supervisor:

The reports to parents for the summer session are to be in the form of a letter. I would suggest that you ask each student teacher to prepare at least one letter for one child and as many more as you wish them to write.

I am enclosing the letter form and suggestions for the writing of letters as used in Montclair, New Jersey. The letters written by the student teachers will need to be carefully supervised and criticized by you and possibly finally written by the supervisor. I believe the students will enjoy writing these letters and you will be interested in compiling the results.

My dear Mr. and Mrs. _____

We are pleased to share with you some of the things noticed about Charles' personality, growth and development during the year. If you would like to discuss further any of the things mentioned, we shall be glad to have you call us for a conference.

We have found Charles to be a very cooperative child, both with teachers and playmates. He seems to have a happy and contented disposition and has been a pleasant person with whom to live.

At first he was a little difficult to get acquainted with. He doesn't seem to mingle readily with either children or adults. Even now in a game or on the playground he is inclined to want to watch the others, rather than to get into the play himself. We often have to urge him to join another child or group of children at play. This has been especially evident on the playground. Unless urged to participate, he stands and watches the other swing, play with the balls or with the wagon. He doesn't have the traits of a shy child; it seems more like reserve, wanting to be sure he is accepted before he mingles with the others. Of course he has been absent quite a bit, and the size of the group may have emphasized his feeling of insecurity.

In a discussion group he shows none of those qualities. He talks easily and expresses himself very well, and his conversation shows an excellent background and understanding of the things about him. He has many interests, and a good memory, with attention to detail, which make his contributions to a group discussion really interesting and worthwhile.

One of his special interest in school is rhythms. He has made a real effort to take part in the rhythms, even those in which he lacked coordination, and is proud of his accomplishments. He often asks for rhythms in the day's program.

When the group sings together Charles rarely participates, but watches closely.

Charles has seemed to enjoy using the materials in the room. He likes blocks and wood especially, although he has experimented with the other things too. In his play with blocks he shows good forethought and planning in carrying out his ideas. Quite often he built forts; recently he built a prison which showed exceptional thought for detail. He also plays with the things he constructs, which bear noting, as many children's interests last only during construction. Charles has also spent much time at the workbench.

July 6, 1919

We feel that it is important for Charles to develop more self confidence. He is afraid to try new things, and new situations bring out the reserve I mentioned above, although once he is started he is all enthusiam. This trait may or may not influence his work in first grade, particularly, at the beginning of the year before he has become adjusted to a new situation.

I have enjoyed working and playing with Charles this year. He has been a good member of the group, and we anticipate a successful year in first grade.

Sincerely yours,

SUGGESTIONS FOR WRITING LETTERS TO PARENTS

- I. Begin the letter with encouraging news.
- II. Close with an attitude of optimism.
- III. Solicit the parents' co-operation in solving the problems if any exist.
- IV. Speak of the child's growth-social, physical and academic.
 - A. Social (Citizenship traits)
 1. Describe traits: Attention, attitude toward school, care of property, co-operation, honesty, effort, fair play, neatness, truthfulness, obedience, promptness, reliability, self-control, self-reliance, concentration, courtesy and consideration, thrift, patience, appreciation, kindness, sympathy, orderliness, interest in associates, discrimination, politeness, respect for the rights of others.
 2. Undesirable traits: Selfishness, wastefulness, dishonesty, spitefulness, slow to respond, imprudence, carelessness, untidiness, rudeness, noisiness, insolence, cheating, courtesy, tattling, snobbishness, conceit, impatience, stealing.
 - B. Academic
 1. Interests: (a) In school activities; (b) In extra-school activities.
 2. Methods of work: (a) methods of attack; (b) purposing; (c) planning; (d) executing; (e) judging; (f) consistency in finishing work.
 3. Achievements: (a) Growth in knowledge, appreciation, techniques; (b) list subjects in which the child is making progress and those in which he is not making progress; (c) Relationship of his accepted standards to his capacities.
- V. Compare the child's effort with his own previous efforts and not those of others.
- VI. Speak of his achievements in terms of his ability to do school work.
- VII. Remember it is our professional duty to know the reason why if the child is not making what, for him is normal progress. (Some suggestive reasons for lack of progress-late entry; absence; lack of application; health defects such as hearing, sight, under-nourishment.)

Dear Parents:

We are sorry to have been so long in getting these pictures to you, but since this is student work it is often delayed as in this case.

If by any chance you did not get the pictures you ordered and paid for, please write or call me.

Sincerely,

Dear Supervisor:

We are planning a bulletin on "Activities in the Horace Mann Laboratory School and wish to have it published the first semester next year. We are anxious to get a number of activities of the summer school taken. Carl Bradley will be over next week. I will give you his schedule later. Will you in the meantime be thinking of the activities which you would like to have pictured in the bulletin and talk them over with me? I should like to have everything ready for Carl when he arrives.

Sincerely,

Jane M. Carroll

Book Exhibit

In connection with the workshop on international understanding and cooperation the College has an exhibit of books designed to appeal to the interests of children and youths at different levels. Viewing the books above are, left to right, Mrs. Lois Anna Burdette of Winfield, Mrs. Ruth Gagliardo, director of books exhibits for the Kansas State Teachers Association; Guy Coonrod, director of guidance in the Hays public schools, and Miss Grace Hilkey of Minden.

THE PITTSBURG HEADLIGHT

Begin International Understanding Discussions

Ahdal Rahmanan of Iran (Persia), left, and Ulf Oestergaard of Denmark, center, meet with President Rees H. Hughes of the College around the office world globe. Their discussion might well concern the shrinking size of the world since their visit was in connection with the second annual workshop on international understanding and cooperation being held at the College starting today and continuing through July 8. Rahmanan is a student at the College working on his degree in electrical engineering while Oestergaard is a visiting professor in the language and literature department.

Dear Parents:

The first grade children and teachers will go to visit the quail farm and the pottery Friday a.m., July 15, at the 10:00 o'clock hour.

If you wish your child to go on this trip, please sign your name on the following line and return this note tomorrow. No child will be permitted to go without the parents signature.

Sincerely,

Dear Supervisor:

Please remember to make a carbon copy of the letters you send to the parents concerning the work of the children this summer. I forgot to mention this on the Please program. The carbon copy will be put in the folder with each child's permanent record card. The folders for the children who attended summer school only will contain just the letter.

Dear Parents of the Kindergarten Children:

We have been fortunate this past year in having with us in the kindergarten Bodil Oestergaard, the child of Professor and Mrs. Oestergaard of Denmark. Mr. Oestergaard has been a visiting professor on our campus this year.

When Bodil came to us last September she was not able to speak a word of English but at the present time her father tells me that even in the home she speaks the English language. Bodil is a charming little girl and all the boys and girls have enjoyed knowing her and have felt that she truly was one of them and she has been.

The Oestergaards are leaving for their home in Denmark on August 1. Mrs. Peck and I thought it might be nice for the kindergarten children to give her a gift before she left. If you would like your child to contribute to this gift, please send 5¢, 10¢, or 25¢ and we will try to buy something for Bodil which will make her happy both in the United States and in Denmark.

The money will have to be sent this week in order that the gift may be presented to Bodil and that a place be made in the Oestergaard luggage for the trip to Denmark.

Sincerely,

Ethel Peck, Supervisor
