Nationally acclaimed sports artist Ted Watts of Oswego, Kan. has been capturing the spirit of Pittsburg State football with beautiful colorful artwork for many years. Watts, who earned a fine arts degree at Pittsburg State in 1966, was commissioned this summer by the PSU Foundation to paint a color mural commemorating the Gorillas 1991 NCAA Division II National Championship. A limited number of prints of the 1991 national championship artwork (shown at right) are still available through the PSU Foundation for $25. To order your 20-inch by 16-inch print, contact the Wilkinson Alumni Center at (316) 235-4758, or send your order to the PSU Foundation, Wilkinson Alumni Center, Pittsburg State University, Pittsburg, KS 66762. Watts also created the artwork for this year's game program cover and schedule poster as he has done since 1981.

Gorillas Win NCAA National Title

After coming so close to winning a national title several times during the last decade, the Pittsburg State University Gorillas finally realized their dream of winning it all in 1991.

Under the direction of second-year head coach Chuck Broyles, Pittsburg State won the NCAA Division II National Championship last December, posting a 23-6 victory over the Gamecocks of Jacksonville (AL) State in the championship game at Florence, Ala.

Pitt State's victory over the previously undefeated Gamecocks capped a 13-1-1 campaign, in which the Gorillas bounced back from a rough 2-1-1 start with 11 consecutive victories to end the season.

The 1991 championship is the football program's first national title in 30 years, and the Gorillas first national championship since the program joined the NCAA in 1989.

'I can't say enough about how hard this team worked. In my 22 or 23 years of coaching, I've never seen a team play harder or work harder... we had to overcome a lot of adversity to have the type of season everyone expected.'

- Chuck Broyles

Pitt State had won NAIA national titles under Coach Carnie Smith in 1957 and 1961, and PSU also reached the NAIA championship game in 1981, finishing as the national runner-up. The Gorillas also advanced to the national semifinals four times in the last five years (1986-90), but each time came up short of reaching the ultimate goal.

But PSU would not be denied in 1991, winning its third national title with a very diversified and explosive offense, and a defense that was truly dominant at times.

In the semifinal playoff game at Portland State, the Gorilla offense racked up 636 total yards — including 510 on the ground — in a 53-21 victory. Pitt State's defense shutout a potent Portland State offense in the second half.

In the championship game, PSU's offense relied on the pass catching of Ronnie West early Jacksonville State's national title hopes faded when QB Nickey Edmonson left the game in the third period with a sprained ankle after being sacked by Gorilla linebacker Kris Mengarelli.

(6 catches for 106 yards, 1 TD in the first half), then wore down Jacksonville State's defense with a grind-it-out attack in the second half. Meanwhile, the PSU defense held its opponent scoreless in the second half for the second straight game.

The Gorilla offense, led by West — the winner of the Harlon Hill Award honoring the NCAA Division II Player of the Year — the running tandem of Darren Dawson and Ronald Moore, and a massive offensive line, averaged 37 points, and 454 total yards per game.

West established new PSU records for career receiving yards (1,779) and career receiving TDs (21), and finished with the highest punt return average (15.7 ypr) and kickoff return average (29.8 ypr) in school history. He also set PSU single season receiving records for catches (50), yards (1,044) and TD's (12), and established a new NCAA-II record for receiving yards in a post-season playoff series with 451.

Dawson, with 1,698 yards and 22 TDs including playoff games, and Moore, with 1,576 yards and 20 TDs, proved they were the finest backfield duo in the nation. Dawson finished his career second on PSU's all-time rushing yardage list with 3,530 yards, while Moore is now No. 4 on the chart with 2,435 yards and a season to play.

Sophomore Brian Hutchins and true-freshman Jeff Moreland did an outstanding job at QB. Hutchins began the year as PSU's starter, but was sidelined by a shoulder injury. Moreland then directed PSU to a 8-0-1 record as a starter, setting a PSU freshman record for total yardage (1,779 yards). Hutchins returned as PSU's starter in the playoffs.

The defense, which allowed just three points in the fourth quarter in the four playoff games, was led by MIAA Defensive Player of the Year, linebacker Shane Tafoya, and defensive end Troy Wilson, who finished the season with 23 sacks, including 12 in the playoffs. Defensive end Phil McCoy, linebackers Jamie Goodson and Michael Rose, and many others also made significant contributions on defense in '91.

"I can't say enough about how hard this team worked," said Broyles, who was named the Kodak College Division I National Coach of the Year. "In my 22 or 23 years of coaching, I've never seen a team play harder or work harder. We've grown to the point where we're expected to win, and we had to overcome a lot of adversity to have the type of season everyone expected."

Ronald Moore celebrates Pitt State's victory over East Texas State in the 1992 quarterfinals.

CHAMPIONSHIP PIZZA FOR A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

By Bill McMillen, Sports Editor
The Morning Sun
 Mon., Dec. 16, 1991

Even before the kickoff of Saturday's game at Florence, AL, I was overcome by a feeling of pride.

Proud to have attended Pittsburg State University. Proud to be from Pittsburg. Proud to know the players, coaches and fans who were the 1991 Pittsburg State University Gorillas.

And when singer Lee Greenwood belted out his now-famous "I'm Proud to be an American," during pregame ceremonies, that wave of pride returned.

When you see some 3,500 fans who dropped everything to attend one football game, you have to feel proud. Proud that the Gorillas have such a loyal following, that nothing—expense, distance, inconvenience—could keep them from being a part of the event.

When you see the way that the players and coaches handled the pressure of playing for a national title, it, too, makes you proud. The Gorillas were a class act all the way, making time for the other activities yet keeping their focus on the purpose of the trip, you can't help but swell up inside.

The players and coaches, bombed by media requests from across the country as well as from the Shoals area, were accommodating. And they were sportsmanlike, saying how good Jacksonville State was and how tough a game it was going to be. There was no boasting, just a quiet confidence. They handled it with diplomacy.

They knew within themselves that they controlled their own destiny. Jacksonville Stat might win, they said, but it would take a great game by a great team to beat the Gorillas.

Harlon Hill Winner Ronnie West

The Gorilla entourage was treated well by the people of the Shoals, the four communities of Florence, Sheffield, Tuscumbia and Muscle Shoals that combine efforts to stage the annual championship in the northwest corner of Alabama. The Gorillas treated those people well, too. They all thanked the folks for their hospitality. And they thanked the dedicated fans of Pittsburg for their loyalty.

It is easy to be a gracious winner. But the Gorillas probably would have been equally as gracious regardless of the outcome.

The Gorillas are not only good football players, they are good people. It would be hard to find a better running back than junior Ronald Moore. It would be harder to find a better person than Ronald Moore.

The same could be said for virtually every member of the Gorilla team.

I was proud to be both a friend and associate of Pitt State head coach Chuck Broyles and his staff. They put in long hours—coaches work a lot harder than most people think—and deserved a reward for their efforts. The national championship, in their profession, is the ultimate reward.

I was proud to be both a friend and associate of Pitt State players Mike Brockel, James Jenkins and Darren Dawson when they were named to the GTE Academic All-America team on Thursday, so proud that I wanted to be the one to let them know of their selection and be the first to shake their hands. They prove that you can mix academics with athletics and be successful at both.

I was proud to be a friend and associate with Ronnie West when he was named the 1991 Harlon Hill Award winner as the top player in Division II football. In fact, I was proud to know West long before he was named a finalist for the trophy.

I was proud and happy for Pittsburg State Sports Information Director Shawn Ahearn, who worked so hard publicizing West to the national media and to his fellow SIDs, the people who voted for the award. I was especially happy for him because he got to share the moment with several members of his family, including his father and two sisters who drove from Pennsylvania to be a part of the event.

I was happy for the four fifth-year seniors—offensive lineman Kendall Gammon and Jeff Mundhenke, linebacker Jamie Goodson and safety Michael Wilber—who have meant so much to the Gorilla program during its transition from an NAIA power to the top program in NCAA Division II.

I was happy for the other seniors on the Gorilla squad—tight end Brian Pinamonti, running back Dawson, placekicker Jenkins, offensive lineman Brian Hoover, West, defensive end Phil McCoy, defensive tackles Ky Kiger and Kline Minnifield, linebackers Michael Rose, Shane Tafoya and Doug Deines—who had the chance to finish their collegiate careers as national champions.

Gorilla Fans Show Support in Alabama

I was happy for freshman quarterback Jeff Moreland, without whom the Gorillas would not have been in Alabama on Saturday. Moreland didn't get to play—sophomore Brian Hutchins earned his starting spot back for the playoffs—but it was Moreland, an 18-year-old kid two weeks into his collegiate career, who had to take over when Hutchins was hurt, carrying more of a load than he or anyone else expected him to have to bear at such an early stage of his career.

I was happy for Todd Hafner, who might have been the starting QB this year were it not for a knee injury suffered during spring football. Hafner was still very much a part of this team, helping tutor Hutchins, Moreland and PSU's other young quarterbacks. He couldn't play, but he didn't abandon the Gorillas. He was there in film sessions, in unit meetings and at practice to lend a hand.

I was happy for people like John Roderique, Jay Padden, Dale Fuchs, Ted Adams, Tim Sinclair and Bryan Mahnken, guys who played at Pitt State and felt that they, too, should have won a national title. They finally got one, albeit as graduate assistants or student assistants. Those players, and others like them, helped Pitt State get to a level where they contend for the national championship every year. This season, they helped the Gorillas get to the top.

And last, I was happy for myself. In my profession, I'm supposed to remain as impartial as possible. I write for a Pittsburg newspaper, for Pittsburg-area readers, yet I must try to maintain a balance. Yet because of my job duties, I know all of the Pitt State players and coaches, both on a professional and personal level. It is difficult to separate the two, yet that is part of my job.

Except now, for a day or so, that separation need not exist. It's OK for me to be a Gorilla fan. And believe me, I'm proud to be one.

Pittsburg State University, a dynamic four-year liberal arts university, is starting its 90th year serving as the educational hub of southeast Kansas.

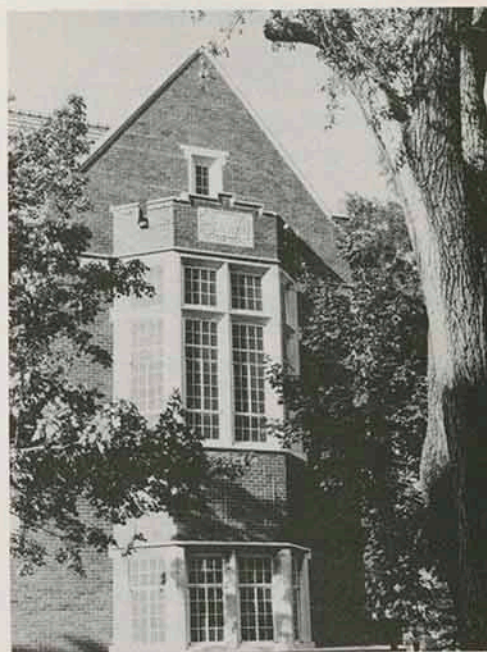

Founded in 1903, the University has grown on a 142-acre site in the southern part of Pittsburg, which has a population of about 18,000 residents. The University is easily accessible, located approximately two hours from major metropolitan areas such as Kansas City, Wichita, Topeka, Springfield, and Tulsa.

Pittsburg State began as the Auxiliary Manual Training School under the State Normal School of Emporia and grew into a four-year college by 1913 and was known as Kansas State Teachers College. It was during this time that the institution developed graduate degree programs.

By 1959, the year that KSTC became known as Kansas State College of Pittsburg, the school had an enrollment of 2,800, and more than 20 buildings on campus. In 1966, the current structure of four schools—education, business and economics, technology and applied science and arts and sciences—and the graduate division was established.

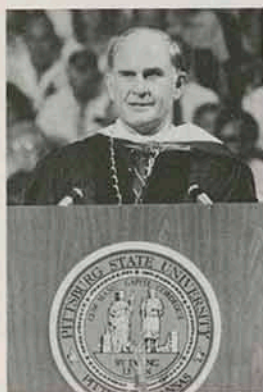

On April 21, 1977, KSCP achieved university status when it was named Pittsburg State University. Today, the university has an enrollment of over 6,000 students.

Since 1977, PSU has added new facilities, including the McPherson Nursing Education Building, the Leonard H. Axe Library, and Heckert-Wells Hall. Construction will begin in 1994 on a $25.7 million East Campus expansion for technology programs.

Dr. Donald W. Wilson, President

Dr. Donald W. Wilson became the President of Pittsburg State University in December of 1983. During the past nine years, he has been a tremendous leader on campus, in the southeast Kansas community, and in international circles as well.

Dr. Wilson's educational philosophy is based on the belief that colleges and universities should help develop the entire person: mentally, physically, aesthetically and spiritually. He has a special personal and professional interest in cross-cultural understanding, which stems from his varied international background.

Born in Poona, India, the son of missionary parents, Dr. Wilson attended school in Australia, Singapore and Indonesia. He has lived in six countries and has speaking or reading knowledge of eight languages.

During Dr. Wilson's tenure at PSU, many accomplishments have been realized, including: enrollment records that continue to be broken; the establishment of an Honors College; cooperative exchange agreements signed with more than 65 universities around the world; and the renovation of Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium has been completed as part of a major capital campaign.

Dr. Wilson previously served as president of Southampton (NY) University for four years, and as president of Castleton (VT) State College. He is an avid sports participant, as well as the No. 1 fan of PSU athletic programs.

Pitt State Offers Variety of Programs

The curriculum features a variety of academic, cultural and social programs. PSU offers more than 100 undergraduate and graduate degree programs in the schools of business, technology, and education, and the college of arts and sciences. In addition to associate, bachelor's and master's degree programs, the curriculum also offers certificate courses and education specialist degree opportunities.

Pittsburg State currently has an enrollment of more than 6,000 students with more than 350 dedicated faculty members. The student-faculty ratio is approximately 19:1.

PSU also is an important resource for the community, hosting nationally-recognized speakers and artists, as well as a competitive intercollegiate athletic program.

Pittsburg State provides a wide array of specialized services to Pittsburg and the four-state region through outreach programs such as the Institute for Economic Development, and the Center for Technology Transfer.

Campus life at Pittsburg State is an exciting blend of experiences. PSU offers more than 100 student organizations and is the home to several national Greek fraternities and sororities.

Athletics at Pittsburg State

Pittsburg State University's athletic program joined the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division II and the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association (MIAA) in 1989, after a long and successful membership in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA).

PSU has a very competitive athletic program, which includes six men's and five women's varsity sports. Men's programs are baseball, basketball, football, cross country, golf, and track and field. Women's sports include basketball, cross country, track and field, softball and volleyball.

Philosophy On Athletics

The mission of PSU's Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is two-fold and simply put, that mission is to strive for both academic and athletic excellence.

The university's goal for each of its student-athletes is graduation, while athletic excellence can be measured by success in NCAA Division II national competition, as well as within the MIAA.

The Pittsburg State Gorilla

The Pittsburg State University Gorilla is without a doubt one of the most unique mascots on any university campus today.

In 1920, a group of young men dissatisfied with the state of school spirit, organized themselves as the Gorillas in order to "accelerate college spirit and enthusiasm until it shall permeate the state."

Thereafter, the Gorillas (a 1920's slang term for roughnecks) sponsored pep rallies, freshman hazing, special trains to athletic events, mock burials and weddings, and "nightshirt stampedes" through downtown Pittsburg. Their membership quickly grew in just a few years.

In 1923, the Gorillas had art student Helen Waskey make a drawing of their new mascot. Two years later, they offered their symbol as the official mascot of the school. On January 15, 1925, the student body unanimously adopted the "ferocious beast...as a name and synonym for the athletic teams."

During his first half century, the Gorilla became less ferocious and more loveable in appearance, being dubbed "Gus" and eventually finding a mate, "Gussie" (created by Charles Galvin in 1952 for a Student Union display). Gus became a cartoon figure (first by Lee Green, Kanza art editor, in 1952) and a regular "Joe College" before the Class of '65 had him cast in fiberglass by Larry Wooster and set in front of the Student Union.

On October 31, 1989, another chapter in the history of the Pittsburg State's Gorilla was written. Members of the women's athletic teams voted to change their name from Gussies, which had been used since the women's program began in 1974, to Gorillas.

Pittsburg State is proud to be the only college in the nation with the Gorilla as its official mascot for its men's and women's teams!

Young Team Ready to Defend NCAA Title

Pittsburg State University head football coach Chuck Broyles must replace 14 seniors from last year's NCAA Division II national championship team, including six starters on offense, and five starters and several key reserves on defense.

Broyles, the 1991 Kodak College Division I national coach of the year, begins his third season at the Gorilla helm with a solid nucleus on each side of the football. Senior fullback Ronald Moore, a 5-11, 220-pound candidate for the Harlon Hill Award honoring the NCAA Division II player of the year, will lead PSU's option veer attack, while senior All-American Troy Wilson anchors the defense from his end position.

Harlon Hill Candidate Ronald Moore has rushed for over 2,800 yards and 32 TDs the past two years rushed for over 4,500 yards in his career, linebackers Shane Tafoya, Michael Rose and Jamie Goodson, several offensive linemen, including Kendall Gammon, an 11th round pick in the NFL draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers, defensive end Phil McCoy, and several others.

MOORE LEADS OFFENSE

Even though Dawson and West accounted for nearly 50% of Pitt State's all-purpose yardage last year, Gorilla offensive coordinator Jerry Kill is excited about who is returning, especially at fullback and quarterback.

"Ronald is definitely one of the premier running backs in the nation -- he's got such power and strength as a runner and blocker, then has that outstanding speed to break plays wide open," said Kill.

"Look at the numbers he put up the last two years... and that's playing with Dawson and West in an offense that really spread the ball around."

A two-year starter at fullback beside Dawson in PSU's split-back set, Moore and Dawson both rushed for over 1,000 yards the past two seasons in regular season games. Moore enters his senior year ranked fourth on PSU's all-time rushing list

(2,435 yards) and eighth on the school's rushing TD list (26). Including playoff contests last year (15 games total), Moore gained 1,544 yards rushing and scored 20 TDs. He also paved the way for Dawson, who gained 1,698 yards and scored 22 TDs.

With Dawson and West both gone in '92, Moore will most likely shoulder more of the offensive burden and should have a great season. Perhaps good enough to become PSU's second straight Harlon Hill winner.

"Ronald will probably carry it a little more this year," said Broyles. "He shared the duty the past two years, but he'll probably be more of a focus in our offense this season. But we feel good about our whole group of backs. We have a strong group of experienced athletes."

Two-year letterwinners Craig Jordan, Don Tolar, and Joey Tobin have good experience, while Niel Smith and several talented newcomers including Sean Scott and Jarron Cherry look to make an immediate impact.

DEEP AT QUARTERBACK

The key to the Gorilla option game is the triggerman, and PSU is deep at quarterback. Junior Brian Hutchins started the Gorillas' first two games last season, injured his shoulder, then returned to lead Pitt State through the playoffs. While Hutchins was out, Jeff Moreland, a true-freshman at the time went 8-0-1 as PSU's starter, leading Pitt State into the playoffs. In 15 games, the duo combined to complete 100 of 187 passes (53.5 percent) for 1,905 yards with 17 TDs and only 8 INTs. They also combined for 952 yards and 13 TDs on the ground.

Junior Todd Hafner, who missed the '91 campaign with a knee injury and most of spring ball this year with a muscle pull, should also return next fall. Sophomore Benny Borden, PSU's No. 3 quarterback last season, is expected to red-shirt.

"We feel great about our situation at quarterback," said Kill. "With Todd healthy, we'll have three quarterbacks who are very capable of running our offense effectively."

Shad Klinge, Ray Staton and Chris Wilkerson lead PSU's wide receiving corps. Klinge, a 5-8, 168-pound junior, has been PSU's No. 2 receiver the past two seasons behind West. He caught just 12 passes for 195 yards in 15 games last year, but had a clutch 24-yard reception in PSU's championship game win. Staton is a transfer who was a quality wide receiver at West Virginia University last year.

Junior center Doug Bullard, a third-team All-MIAA selection last year in his first season as a starter will anchor the line again, along with Mike Brockel, a first-team All-MIAA pick

'The character of this year's team will be a little different than the last two. You just don't replace some of the players we had... but with the young players we have in our program, and the talented newcomers we brought in, we should challenge for another MIAA title and NCAA playoff berth.'

-Coach Broyles

After guiding the Gorillas to a 25-2-1 overall mark in two seasons — including a school-record 13-1-1 overall record last year — Broyles must rely more on younger players and newcomers to defend the title.

"The character of this year's team will be a little different than the last two," Broyles said. "You just don't replace some of the players we had who played such a key role in our success. But with the young players we have in our program, and the talented newcomers we brought in, we should challenge for another MIAA title and NCAA playoff berth."

The losses from the '91 championship team were many. For the first time in two years, PSU will be without wide receiver Ronnie West — last year's Harlon Hill Award winner and a two-time Kodak All-American who is now a member of the Minnesota Vikings — tailback Darren Dawson, who at guard, and veteran tackle Andy Kesinger, a starter the last seven games last season. Sophomore Chris Sharp and a host of other young players will battle for starting positions and playing time up front.

DEFENSE SHOULD BE SOLID

With many experienced players back, PSU's defense — which led the league in points allowed, rushing yards allowed, total yards allowed, and passing efficiency — should be strong once again.

The secondary "is probably the strength of the defense" according to Broyles, with several top performers returning.

PSU is deep at cornerback as four players with starting experience return, including: seniors Joel Thornton, a third-team All-MIAA pick last season, Duke Palmer, a two-year letterwinner, and Eric Perks, along with junior Bob Tavernaro.

At safety, sophomore letterwinner Brian Carson and newcomer Birk Sopsher, a junior transfer from Antelope Valley (CA) Junior College, had excellent springs. Both have excellent speed and close on the ball quickly. Either player could move to outside linebacker to keep them both on the field.

Pitt State's defensive line should also be strong, led by All-American defensive end Troy Wilson who recorded a total of 23 sacks last year, including 12 in four playoff games. At the other end, senior Ronnie Fuller returns after missing the entire '91 campaign with a shoulder injury, along with junior letterwinner Derek Blackburn. Pre-season All-American (Football Gazette, College Football Preview) Chris Hanna is the only returning letterwinner at tackle, but junior college All-American Chance Rudzik from Garden City (KS) CC, could earn a starting role immediately.

"Our line won't be very deep, but we have some very solid players and one of the premier players in the country in Troy Wilson," said Broyles.

At linebacker, Pitt State must replace three of four starters, including Shane Tafoya, the '91 MIAA defensive player of the year, and the team's leading tackler the past two years. Fifth-year seniors Lance Gosch, a starter beside Tafoya last year, and Kris Mengarelli should do the job inside with support from Kevin Crane, Andy Sweet, Jason Gardner and several newcomers.

The Gorillas must also replace a pair of additional first-team All-MIAA picks on the outside, three-year starter Jamie Goodson and two-year starter Michael Rose. Returnees Jerry Boone, Tim Wheeler and Denny Routh will fight for spots along with several newcomers including Carlos Nevins.

All-American Troy Wilson recorded 23 sacks last year, 12 in the playoffs

BROYLES ON THE MIAA

"The league gets better and better every year," said Broyles. "Even though we're still undefeated in the conference, we haven't completely dominated. We've had a few scares — two close games at Southwest Baptist and against Central Missouri State, and two really hard-fought battles with Northwest Missouri State. Kirksville (Northeast Missouri State) is going to have a great offense once again, and so is (Missouri) Southern. Missouri Southern went 8-3 last year and was a good football team."

"If you look around the league, you'll find a lot of MIAA players on pre-season All-America teams," he continued. "And they are legitimate picks. The league had three players drafted last year, so we have some great players in our league and the talent keeps getting better and better. People from around the country are realizing that our conference has some teams with great players, and teams that are on the rise."

DEFENDING THE TITLE

"There's always pressure here at Pittsburg State to win, and winning the national championship did nothing to change that," said Broyles. "The expectations are extremely high again, we always play under a lot of pressure. You always worry about being able to compete in the MIAA and getting into the playoffs."

"We lost 14 quality players, but we feel we had a great recruiting year," Broyles continued. "So in one sense, it's hard to replace a Harlon Hill winner, a 1,000-yard running back, three 280-pound offensive linemen, three starting linebackers. But, on the other hand, we have some pretty good players in our program, and some quality athletes joining us in the fall, so we still feel we'll be pretty good on both sides of the ball."

Good enough to win another national title?

"It's too early to speculate," said Broyles. "I think there are about 15 or 20 teams every year that have a legitimate shot at winning it all. We hope we'll be one of them. It's certainly our goal."

"I'll say this about winning the national championship," Broyles continued. "It's a done deal. Right now (August), we are the champions of NCAA Division II football, and nobody can ever take that away from us. Sometime soon, we'll start being referred to as the 'defending' national champions. Then on Sept. 5, we'll be just one of 127 teams that will be competing for the national championship. So very soon, we'll be back on the same level as everyone else."

After winning more football games (70) than any other college program at any level the past six years (1986-91), claiming seven straight conference titles, and making seven consecutive trips to the national playoffs, it's a pretty safe bet the Gorillas will be very competitive again in 1992. And if some young players excel in key spots as the season progresses, maybe competitive enough to challenge for another national crown.

Chuck Broyles, Head Coach

1991 AFCA/Kodak College Division I National Coach of the Year

Pittsburg State University head football coach Chuck Broyles directed the Gorillas to the 1991 NCAA Division II National Championship last December in only his second year as a college head coach.

He was honored by the American Football Coaches Association as the Kodak College Division I National Coach of the Year (includes NCAA Division II and NAIA Division I schools).

Broyles, an All-American defensive tackle at Pitt State in 1968, has led his alma mater to a 25-2-1 overall record the past two years -- a winning percentage of .911. PSU posted a 12-1 overall mark and reached the semifinals of the NCAA Division II playoffs in 1990, Broyles' first year as head coach. Last season, the Gorillas set a school record for victories during the team's 13-1-1 national championship campaign.

After a rocky 2-1-1 start last year, Broyles' leadership was instrumental in turning the season into one of the best in school history. Pitt State ended the season with 11 consecutive victories, including a 53-21 victory at Portland (OR) State in the national semifinals, and a 23-6 win over Jacksonville (AL) State in the NCAA Division II championship game.

"I have a great deal of respect for the tremendous job Chuck and his staff have done the past two years," said PSU athletic director Bill Samuels. "The expectations at Pittsburg State are always high, and Chuck has handled the pressure admirably. He provided great leadership last year when the team had some early season setbacks, and because of his character and work ethic, our team regrouped and won the national championship when we could have folded."

Broyles became head football coach at Pittsburg State on December 6, 1989 after serving as the Gorillas' assistant head coach and defensive coordinator the previous two years.

His first team matched the school record for victories, won the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association title, and extended the nation's longest regular season winning streak to 55 games.

'I believe the only way you can be successful as a player or coach is through hard work. But at the same time, we try to run a fun program where everyone can enjoy their work and the success they achieve.'

- Chuck Broyles

But Broyles' first squad will always be remembered for the near-upset of eventual national champion North Dakota State at Fargo, ND. In one of the greatest games in school history, PSU lost to the powerful Bison, 39-29 in a game that featured seven lead changes.

About the only thing that Broyles, the co-recipient of the MIAA Coach of the Year honor in 1990, could do for an encore was direct the Gorillas to the national title. And that's exactly what he did!

"I believe the only way you can be successful as a player or coach is through hard work," Broyles said. "But at the same time, we try to run a fun program where everyone can enjoy their work and the success they achieve."

Broyles came to Pitt State from the University of Missouri-Rolla, where he served as the Miners' defensive coordinator from 1974-1983, and during the '86 and '87 seasons. At Rolla, Broyles helped guide the Miners to a share of the MIAA title in 1977, and the outright conference crown and an undefeated season in 1980. UMR also shared the MIAA title in 1983, just after Broyles left the program to become defensive coordinator at Miami (OK) High School, where he served for three years (1983-85). Broyles also was the head baseball coach at Rolla from 1974-83 and Miami.

For the past four years, Broyles has directed a PSU defense that has been ranked among the best in the nation. Last year's unit was 12th in NCAA Division II statistics in points allowed (14.1 ppg) and 19th in rushing defense (118.5 ypg). In 1990, the defense was ranked eighth in scoring defense (13.4), and 13th in total defense (258.3 ypg). In Pitt State's first season of NCAA Division II competition in 1989, the Gorillas were ranked sixth in scoring defense (11.1 ppg) and ninth in total defense (233.1 ypg). In 1980, Broyles' defense at Missouri-Rolla was one of the best in the country, allowing just 34.6 yards per game on the ground, tops among NCAA Division II schools, while forcing 7.2 turnovers per game.

Broyles was an eight-man football standout at Mulberry High School, before playing both offensive and defensive line for the Gorillas. Broyles earned four varsity letters under Coach Carmie Smith, and as a senior captain in 1968, he earned NAIA All-American honorable mention honors at defensive tackle and was selected PSU's most outstanding player. Broyles earned a free agent tryout with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers the next year.

Chuck completed his bachelor's degree in education at PSU in 1970 while serving as a student coach, and earned a master's degree as a graduate assistant in 1972-73. After a year as head football and track coach at Stockton (MO) High School, he accepted his first full-time college coaching position at Rolla in 1973.

In addition to coaching responsibilities, Broyles also has additional administrative duties as Pittsburg State's associate director of athletics. Chuck is married to the former Helen Ellwood of Cameron, Mo. They live in Pittsburg with their three sons, Scott 18, Kyle 13, and Mark 12.

What has winning the national championship meant to your program? I don't know all the things it's meant to our program, but I know this, they can never never take it away from us. Right now, we are the champions of NCAA Division II football, and it feels good. Sometime soon, we'll start being referred to as the defending national champions, then on September 5, we'll be one of 127 teams that will be competing for the national championship. So we'll just be back on the same level as everyone else. But our players feel good about themselves. Our coaches feel good. Our fans feel good. It's helped our recruiting. It's been exciting for everyone.

Chuck Broyles is an intense competitor on the PSU sidelines.

Now that PSU has won the national title, is there any less pressure on your team? I don't really think it takes any pressure off us. There will always be a lot of pressure to succeed at Pittsburg State. Winning the national championship is a done deal. Our fans are very happy we won, but now the question is 'can you repeat?' We play under a lot of pressure and just do our best to meet the high expectations. But the pressure can be good in the sense that it creates a situation where you strive for more than just a winning season, more than a conference championship or play-off berth. We set our goals high and try to achieve them.

Talk a little about the Pitt State tradition. When I'm asked what's so special about Pitt State football, the first thing I think about is the tradition. The only way I can describe it is that it's an honor to be a Gorilla. There's only one group of Gorillas and that's here at Pittsburg State, and Gorillas stick together. Our football lettermen are so supportive of our program that you feel honored to be a part of that group. When we played for the NCAA championship this year, there were 25 or 30 lettermen from the 1957 and '61 teams in the stands. Our lettermen established the tradition, and now they play such a key role in our success through their financial contributions, and by attending games home and away.

What about the '92 Gorillas — how will you replace some of the key players you lost? You can never replace some of the personalities. Last year, we knew we had players with more talent than we ever had here before in four or five positions. Not just Ronnie West, who was a great player, but many others who are gone now. You can't replace some of those guys with a player who's as good or better. We've got some good football players, but we don't have the great athlete to replace them. We have some question marks, some people who are transferring in and some young talented freshman that we hope will come through for us. We'll only be as good in some positions as some of the people transferring in here, but there still unknown quantities.

What are the strengths and weaknesses of your team? Offensively, we feel good at every position we have except for the offensive line, we'll be young. There's two places you don't want to be young, on the offensive line and in your defensive secondary. But, in that line you have three returning starters and we have two tight ends back. We'll need to find a tackle and a guard. There's no doubt we'll miss some of the players up front who have been such a key part of our success, but we've got some back-ups who are hopefully ready to step up. We may have to move someone over from the defense. We feel very good about our running backs and quarterbacks.

Defensively, we felt our strength last year was the depth on our defensive line, and that will be a little bit of a concern there this year. We also lost three All-Conference linebackers who we need to replace, and we don't have the great linebacker we've had in the past. But we've got several good solid football players, and maybe that will be better than one great one. The key for us to be successful will be our secondary having a great year, and we hope they'll do that. We have good depth in our secondary and should be fairly solid overall.

Talk a little about your players. For the most part, we try to recruit talented players who are willing to work hard and know what it takes to win. One thing that is so special about our football program is that our older players take care of and teach our younger players. From the first day a new player joins our program, they learn from the example our older players set. Our younger players see the work ethic on the practice field, in the classroom, in the weight room. They quickly learn how important being a part of the campus and community is to our program. It's an honor to be a Gorilla, and we're very proud of our players.

How does the MIAA look this year? The MIAA has improved every year. Everybody seems to be getting better. Even though we're still undefeated in the conference, we've had a few scares — two close games at Southwest Baptist and against Central Missouri, and two really hard-fought battles with Northwest. Kirksville (Northeast Missouri) is going to have a great offense again, Missouri Western can put some points on the board, Emporia State is improving defensively. Missouri Southern finished 8-3 last year and was a good football team. If you look around the league, you'll find a lot of MIAA players on pre-season All-America teams, and they are legitimate picks. The league had three players drafted last year, so we have some great players in our league. And I think us winning the national championship has brought a lot of notoriety not only to our school but to our conference. People realize that our conference has improving teams with great players.

Talk about the commitment of your coaching staff. I have some extremely dedicated, hard-working, loyal coaches working with me. All of our coaches are willing to do whatever it takes to get the job done. I think our players respect our coaches and enjoy playing for them, and I believe our coaching staff has earned respect from our peers. We have great coaches who put everything they have into their jobs. They're great people.

Would you explain the program's commitment to academics? We try to do everything we can to give our players the best chance to earn a degree. We're striving for a 100% graduation rate whether you're an NFL prospect or a scout team player. We have a tremendous support system in place led by a full-time academic advisor. We have mandatory study halls for any player below a 2.5 GPA, and an excellent academic enhancement program for new players. And again our older players are committed to helping our younger players adapt to college life as a athlete and in the classroom.

What about the support you receive from the local community? There are so many people who are very sincere and caring about what we're doing. We're so fortunate to have a supportive administration led by President Wilson, who is our No. 1 fan. He has a proper perspective of academics and the role intercollegiate athletics plays in the college experience. Our fans want to see us win, but not at all costs. Our program is built on integrity and loyalty, and is part of an excellent university. The people associated with our program make it great.

Chuck Broyles and Ronnie West visit with ESPN's Craig James and a national television audience after PSU won the Division II title.

Tim Beck Defensive Coor.

Tim Beck begins his fourth season as a full-time assistant football coach at Pitt State, his first as defensive coordinator, after serving as a graduate assistant coach at PSU for two years.

Beck worked with defensive ends, tight ends, and receivers as a GA, before concentrating primarily on the linebacking corps for the first time in the 1989 season.

He was named a full-time assistant during the summer of 1989, after completing work on his master's degree at PSU. He also serves as Pitt State's recruiting coordinator, and also plans PSU's football camps.

Beck was a two-year football letterwinner at Pitt State, playing defensive back for the Gorillas from 1985-86. He was a team captain as a senior in 1986, and his playing honors included two seasons on the Central States Intercollegiate Conference All-Conference team, and one year on the NAIA All-District 10 team. He was also a recipient of the Carnie Smith Scholarship.

Beck played football at Dodge City Community College for two years, before joining the Gorilla program.

In addition to his coaching duties, Beck has taught classes on football coaching, and he works closely with the PSU football camps and clinics. He is married to the former Gena Thomas, who ran track and cross country for PSU from 1987-88.

Jerry Kill Offensive Coor.

Jerry Kill is in his third season as Pittsburg State's offensive coordinator, and sixth year as an assistant football coach at PSU. Last year, he directed a Gorilla offense that was ranked fifth among NCAA Division II schools in rushing yards per game (320.6 ypg), sixth in scoring (37.7 ppg) and seventh in total offense (447.9 ypg).

Kill rejoined the PSU coaching staff in January of 1990 after leading Webb City High School to the Missouri Class 4A State Championship. Webb City compiled a perfect 14-0 overall record en route to the state title, and Kill was named the 1989 Missouri State Coach of the Year. The Cardinals were 25-1 during his two seasons as head coach.

Prior to his tenure at Webb City, Kill served as an assistant coach at Pittsburg State for three years (1985-88). He attended Southwestern College in Winfield, Kan., where he played football and earned a bachelor's degree in 1983.

Kill coached at Southwestern the following year, served as an assistant football coach at Midwest City High School during the 1984-85 season, then joined PSU's staff in 1985.

Kill also serves as PSU's assistant athletic director for promotions. Jerry is a native of Cheney, Kan. He is married to the former Rebecca Smith of Liberal, Kan. They have two daughters, Krystal Nicole, 3, and Tasha Marie, who turned 18 months in July.

Fred Redd Offensive Line Coach

Fred Redd enters his third season as offensive line coach at PSU, after serving as head football coach at Springfield Catholic High School for two years. He guided Catholic to a pair of conference titles and two district crowns as head coach, while Catholic compiled a 29-1 regular season record his last three years.

Redd has over 15 years of football coaching experience at the collegiate and high school level. He was an assistant coach along with PSU head coach Chuck Broyles at Missouri-Rolla from 1976-79, and later served as offensive coordinator at Central Methodist College (1985-86).

He also was a defensive assistant at the United States Military Academy, West Point from 1969-72, and has held a variety of teaching and administrative positions.

Redd was born in Kansas City, Missouri, and attended Westport High School. He played football at Southwest Missouri State University from 1957-60. Upon graduation, he served in U.S. Army for 20 years, attaining the rank of Regular Army Major.

Redd earned a master's degree in education at Central Missouri State University in May of 1969, and has earned additional graduate credits in education from Southwest Missouri State. Fred and his wife, Donna, have two sons, Jeffrey, 26, and Matthew, 25.

Anton Stewart Defensive Line Coach

Anton Stewart begins his fourth season as a full-time assistant football and track coach at Pittsburg State, after serving the PSU football and track programs for four seasons as a student assistant coach.

Stewart assumed full responsibility for coaching the defensive line in 1989, and is the athletic department's NCAA eligibility compliance officer.

He also will help monitor the academic progress of PSU student-athletes as part of the athletic department's enhancement program. Stewart also works closely with various PSU camps, and he was a featured speaker at the College Football Association coaches convention in New Orleans in January of 1991.

During Stewart's tenure at PSU, the Gorillas' have been nationally ranked in several defensive categories each year, highlighted by the top scoring defense in the nation in 1987, allowing just 7.9 points per game. Last season, all four of PSU's starting defensive linemen earned some form of all-conference honors.

Stewart was an All-American offensive lineman at Southwestern (KS) College, and he also competed on the track and field team as a thrower. As a football player, Stewart was a two-year All-Conference performer and an NAIA All-District 10 selection.

Anton earned his bachelor's degree at PSU in 1989. He is single and lives in Pittsburg.

John Johnson Strength & Conditioning

John Johnson enters his seventh year as Pittsburg State's strength and conditioning coach. He also is the director of the PSU Fitness Center located in the Garfield Weede Physical Education Building.

Johnson is primarily responsible for designing and implementing a complete weight training and dietary program for each PSU student-athlete.

Johnson, a 1981 PSU graduate and an AAU and Master Weightlifter, once held the state squat record.

John Pierce Wide Receivers

After coaching the running backs for three seasons, John Pierce begins his first season with PSU's wide receivers.

Pierce was a three-year letterman on the Gorilla football team from 1976-79 before serving as a student coach at PSU from 1980-83 while earning his bachelor's and master's degrees. He has served as an assistant coach and physical education instructor at Frontenac High School since 1984.

He lives in Girard with his wife, the former Sunny York of Lawton, Kan., and their three children, Nikki, 7, Timothy, 6, and Cody, 2.

Dave Wiemers Defensive Line

Dave Wiemers enters his first season as a graduate assistant coach at PSU. He will assist with the defensive line.

Wiemers was quarterback coach for Seaman High School in Topeka, KS last season.

Wiemers' playing career concluded as a starting quarterback at Washburn University in 1990. He also played two years of baseball for the Ichabods.

Bill Kroenke Tight Ends

Bill Kroenke begins his third season as a graduate assistant coach at Pitt State. He will coach PSU's tight ends.

Kroenke completed a bachelor's degree in education at the University of Arkansas in 1989. He was a three-year letterwinner in football and wrestling at Harrisonville High School, and also earned a pair of letters in track. Harrisonville compiled a three-year record of 30-7, including a state runner-up finish his junior year.

John Roderique Running Backs

John Roderique enters his third season as an assistant coach. He will coach running backs after coaching outside linebackers for two years.

Roderique was a four-year letterman at PSU (1986-89), earning first-team Kodak All-American as an inside linebacker and MIAA Defensive Player of the Year as a senior in 1989.

He led Pittsburg State in tackles his last two seasons, and holds the PSU record for most tackles in a season with 126 in his senior season.

He's married to the former Heather Schnackenberg of Parsons.

Quarterbacks

14 Todd Hafner

QB... 6-0... 170... JR... 1L
Frontenac, KS/Frontenac HS

At PSU: Begins his fourth year in the PSU program... hopes to return to action this year after suffering a serious knee injury in the spring of 1991... did not play at all last season after major surgery, but despite the injury, made a valuable contribution to Pitt State's national title by tutoring the Gorillas' young QBs... smart quarterback who makes good decisions running the option... In 1991: Medical red-shirt... In 1990: Was PSU's No. 2 quarterback behind Jay Padden, and the Gorillas holder on special teams... saw action at QB in seven regular season games, and first two playoff contests... best game was against Missouri-Rolla when he scored a TD on a 1-yard run and hit TE Paul Sparkman with a 5-yard scoring pass... also scored a TD on a 15-yard run in PSU's playoff win over Northeast Missouri... In 1989: Played in one game as a freshman... In High School: Threw for over 3,300 yards and rushed for 700 yards playing for his father Greg... participated in '89 Kansas Shrine Bowl All-Star game... All-Conference (Crawford-Neosho-Cherokee) selection... Personal: Born 10-2-70... math education major.

Todd Hafner looks to return to action this year after missing the entire 1991 campaign with a knee injury.

12 Brian Hutchins

QB/P... 6-0... 176... JR... 2L
Pittsburg, KS/Pittsburg HS

At PSU: Was Pitt State's starting QB entering the '91 campaign, but suffered a broken collarbone in the second game at East Texas State... recovered to lead the Gorillas to four playoff wins and the national championship after earning his starting role back... is probably the front-runner for the starting job in '92... has a strong arm and runs the ball effectively because of great quickness... In 1991: Directed PSU's option attack to near perfection during the playoffs... in the four post-season contests, PSU averaged 35 points, 470.8 total yards and 338 rushing yards per game against some of the best defenses in the nation... in a 53-21 semifinal win at Portland State, Hutchins led an offense that compiled 636 total yards, 510 yards on the ground... in the championship game against Jacksonville (AL) State, he was 10 of 14 passing for 159 yards and a TD... also capped a thrilling scoring drive with a 13-yard TD run just before halftime... in 11 games total, was 41-of-70 (.586) for 774 yards with 7 TDs and just 2 INTs... added 328 yards rushing on 100 carries... In 1990: Played sparingly as a freshman behind Jay Padden and Todd Hafner, but saw action in every game as PSU's punter... used the season to learn PSU's offense and adjust to college defenses... averaged 36.4 yards/punt... saw action in four regular season games at QB and played in playoff win over Northeast Missouri... completed first collegiate pass vs. Southwest Baptist... In High School: Starting QB for two years in Larry Garman's wishbone attack... led PHS to the Kansas Class 5A state title as a junior and a 20-3 overall mark... All-State, All-Area, All-Conference as a senior, after rushing for 949 yards, throwing for 749 yards, and contributing 19 TDs... played in '90 Kansas Shrine Bowl All-Star game... Personal: Born 4-13-72... business management major.

6 Jeff Moreland

QB... 6-1... 180... SO... 1L
Blue Springs, MO/
Blue Springs HS

At PSU: Became the Gorillas starting QB his second game as a collegian last year when Brian Hutchins suffered a broken collarbone during the East Texas State game... did a great job directing PSU's complicated option attack under tremendous pressure... matured with experience and led PSU to an 8-0-1 record as a starter... teammates selected him team's Most Outstanding Freshman... very strong runner who will challenge for a starting role again in '92... In 1991: Set a new PSU freshman record for total offense in regular season games with 1,725 yards, the fourth-highest total in Gorilla football history... established a new PSU standard for career average per completion (19.17 yards)... also set a new mark for total offense in a single game (328 yards), passing for 222 yards and rushing for 106 in a 55-20 victory over Northeast Missouri... his completion percentage of .504 (59 of 117) ranks fourth on PSU's all-time career list... his 10 TD passes were the fourth highest single season total in school history... his 1,134 passing yards ranked eighth on PSU's all-time single season list... In High School: Threw for over 2,600 yards and rushed for over 1,100 as a senior in Blue Springs' run-and-shoot offense under Coach Wayne McGinnis... was ranked third nationally in completion percentage (64.6%)... numerous honors including second-team All-State (Class 5A), first-team All-KC Metro, All-Big 6 Conference... Personal: Born 9-2-72... nursing major at PSU.

Jeff Moreland led Pitt State into the playoffs as a true-freshman, posting an 8-0-1 record as the Gorillas starting quarterback.

Running Backs

29 Ronald Moore
 FB... 5-11... 220... SR... 3L
 Spencer, OK/Star Spencer HS

At PSU: A candidate for the Harlon Hill Award honoring the NCAA Division II Player of the Year... named to several pre-season All-American teams after rushing for over 2,800 yards and 32 TDs the past two years (including playoffs)... enters senior year ranked fourth on

PSU's all-time rushing list with 2,435 yards in regular season games... needs 1,250 yards (115.5 per game) to break Richard Overton's school record of 3,704... his 756 rushing yards in post-season play is second on PSU's all-time list behind former backfield mate Darren Dawson's 1,035... his career average per carry of 6.41 is the sixth-best in PSU history... his 26 rushing TDs rank eighth all-time... very powerful runner who is very difficult to bring down with one or even two tacklers... also has great speed in the open field (4.45 in the 40-yard dash)... has been somewhat overshadowed by the outstanding play of Ronnie West — winner of the Harlon Hill Award — and Dawson the past two years... should carry the ball more in '92 and have an outstanding senior year... In 1991: Earned second-team All-MIAA honors after leading the league in yards per carry (6.01)... ran for 1,040 yards and 14 TDs in regular season games, going over the 100-yard mark 7 times... was PSU's leading rusher in the playoffs with 536 yards (134.0 ypg)... rushed for 175 yards on 22 carries vs. Portland State, and 166 yards on 21 carries vs. Butler in playoff games... totalled 1,576 yards and 20 rushing TDs for the year (15 games)... In 1990: Unanimous first-team All-MIAA selection... gained career-high 205 yards on 19 carries in regular season finale at Missouri Southern to go over the 1,000-yard plateau... rushed for over 100 yards in five games during regular season, including 172 vs. Cameron... ran for 112 yards in playoff win over Northeast MO... had a spectacular 80-yard kickoff return for a TD in semifinal playoff game at North

25 Craig Jordan

Bill Samuels, Athletic Director

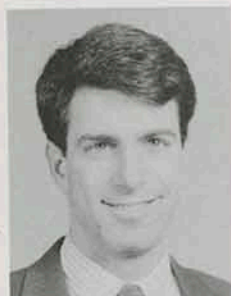

Bill Samuels was named Athletic Director at Pittsburg State University on December 6, 1989 after serving as a coach, instructor and athletic administrator at his alma mater for over 23 years.

Samuels spent 33 years coaching football at the collegiate and high school level before deciding to devote his energies toward athletic administration full time in 1987. Prior to his appointment as AD, Samuels served as PSU's associate athletic director for business administration for two years. He was a guiding force in the athletic program's transition from membership in the NAIA, to the program's current affiliation in NCAA Division II and the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association. Samuels also has been an instrumental part of building a solid athletic booster club, the Gorilla Club, a vital support group for PSU athletics.

Samuels earned a bachelor of science degree in education from PSU in 1958, after playing quarterback on Pitt State's 1957 NAIA national championship team. In addition to playing quarterback, Samuels kicked the winning extra point that gave PSU a 27-26 victory over Hillsdale in the title game in the Holiday Bowl in St. Petersburg, Fla. Upon graduation, Samuels served in the military before returning to PSU to earn a master's degree in education. He was an instructor and coach at Riverton High School for three years, before joining the PSU coaching staff in 1967 under Tom Lester. In addition to coaching football at PSU for 20 years, Samuels also has been an instructor in the Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Department.

Bill is a native of Carthage, Mo., where he played football for Carthage High School. He and his wife, Frances, have three children.

Russ Jewett Asst. Athletic Dir.

Russ Jewett has served as an Assistant Athletic Director at PSU since the fall of 1987. In addition to serving as PSU's head track and field and cross country coach, his primary duties as an assistant AD lie in the area of facilities administration and planning.

Jewett completed his sixth season as head coach for PSU's women's programs, and fifth as men's head coach, leading both teams to the 1992 MIAA outdoor track and field championships. PSU's women also won the MIAA cross country and indoor titles, and he was named MIAA coach of the year. Jewett earned a bachelor's in computer science at PSU in 1983 after earning All-American honors as a decathlete in 1982. Russ' wife, Janice, is director of Pittsburg's Parks and Recreation Department.

Steve Bever Asst. Athletic Dir.

Steve Bever begins his third year as an assistant athletic director at PSU, and he also serves as the Gorillas' head baseball coach. Bever's duties include game administration at home events, in addition to other administrative jobs in the athletic department.

Bever has been head coach of Pitt State's baseball team since its return to intercollegiate competition in 1991. Prior to becoming baseball coach, Bever served as PSU's golf coach for three years, leading the Gorillas to a runner-up finish at the 1990 MIAA championships.

Bever played baseball at PSU from 1966-69, earning a B.S. in education. He and his wife Johna live in Farlington with their two children, Dawn and Gabe, who both attend PSU.

Dr. David Kendall Academic Counselor

Pittsburg State athletic teams are fortunate to have the services of a full-time academic advisor, Dr. David Kendall. He has served as the academic counselor for athletes since 1982, and has been instrumental in PSU's outstanding success in the classroom.

Last spring, PSU student athletes earned a 2.85 cumulative grade point average, and Pittsburg State claimed five GTE Academic All-Americans in the 1991-92 academic year, including three members of the Gorilla football team.

Kendall earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees at PSU, and his doctorate in education from the University of Kansas in 1970. Dr. Kendall and his wife, Wanda, are the parents of two children, Dave, who is the head athletic trainer for the Kansas City Chiefs, and Catherine Meindsey.

Shawn Ahearn Sports Information Dir.

Shawn Ahearn begins his fourth year as Pitt State's Sports Information Director.

Ahearn is responsible for a wide range of duties, including coordinating media coverage of Pitt State's athletic teams, writing, editing and designing PSU's athletic media guides and game programs, maintaining complete results and statistics for all Gorilla sports, result reporting, supervising press box operations, and assisting with home event management, game promotions, and promotion of student athletes.

Ahearn earned a bachelor's degree in communications at Clarion University of Pennsylvania in 1985. He was SID at Chicago State University for three years before joining the PSU staff in July of 1989. He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America. Shawn and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Ashlyn, who turned 18 months in July.

Al Ortolani Head Athletic Trainer

Al Ortolani has been the athletic trainer at Pittsburg State for the past 35 years, and he truly is one of the most respected individuals in his profession in the nation. Ortolani also is an associate professor in the health, physical education and recreation department at Pittsburg State.

Ortolani joined the PSU athletic department staff as trainer in 1955, after earning his bachelor's and master's degree in education at PSU. He became a certified trainer shortly after his appointment, and quickly established an outstanding reputation among his peers.

Among numerous honors and accomplishments, Ortolani served as a trainer for the United States at the 1984 and 1976 Olympic Games. In 1982, he was a trainer at the U.S. World Cup in Ecuador, and he also served as the head trainer for the World Championship Games in Romania in 1981.

He was the trainer for the U.S. team at the 1979 Pan American games in Puerto Rico, and the 1973 World University Games in the Soviet Union. He also has worked with the U.S. Swimming team on several occasions.

Ortolani has been enshrined in the NAIA Hall of Fame and this past summer, was named to the National Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame at its annual meeting in Denver, CO.

Ortolani also was PSU's first full-time baseball coach from 1962 to 1972, and was honored as the NAIA District 10 Coach of the Year in 1965. He posted a 96-94 record in those 11 seasons, winning Central Intercollegiate Conference championships in 1965 and 1966, along with an NAIA District 10 title in 1965.

Al and his wife Virginia are the parents of five children and live in Pittsburg.

The official booster club of Pittsburg State University athletics, known as the Pittsburg State Athletic Association since 1988, has changed its name to the Pittsburg State University "Gorilla Club" as part of a reorganization and expansion of the support group.

The primary purpose of the Gorilla Club — or PSAA as it was called until recently — is to support the men's and women's athletic programs at PSU. The group of several hundred alumni and friends of the University conducts various activities on behalf of PSU's athletic programs throughout the year. The Gorilla Club hosts weekly luncheons with the Gorilla coaching staff Thursday's at 12 noon in the Weede Building Dance Studio.

Any person or business who made a donation of at least $25 to PSU's spring athletic scholarship drive is automatically a Gorilla Club member. All members received a Gorilla Club Card for first time ever, which will entitle members to special privileges at athletic events, including free admission to tailgate parties and hospitality suites.

In addition to the name change, a logo for the organization was designed by US Awards, and a board of directors was formed this spring to spearhead the activities of the organization. Barry Draper has served as the club's president this past year, overseeing another very successful Athletic Scholarship Drive. Dennis Gatewood, who captained the top fund-raising team for the second straight year, is serving as a vice-president, along with Mike Carpenter. A group of alumni and friends in the Kansas City area have recently formed a Kansas City chapter of the Gorilla Club.

Anyone who did not make a contribution to the PSU athletic scholarship drive this spring, can join the Gorilla Club for a $25 donation. For more information, contact the PSU Athletic Department.

'92 Spirit Squad

Athletic Training Staff/Team Managers

Pride of the Plains Marching Band

Under the direction of James Tapia, who begins his third year at Pittsburg State University, the Pride of the Plains Marching Band will perform at halftime of Gorilla home football games.

"The Voice of the Gorillas"

KKOW play-by-play announcer Tom Van Hoy (left), color analyst Lynn Meredith and field man Tom McNally (right) will call Gorilla football games in 1992.

For the sixth straight year, all Pittsburg State home and away football games can be heard live on KKOW Radio, 860 on the AM dial. Coverage of Gorilla Football on game day will begin with an expanded pre-game show beginning one hour before kickoff.

Veteran sportscaster Tom Van Hoy returned to the Pitt State broadcast booth two years ago as the Gorillas' play-by-play man. In addition to calling PSU football and basketball games, Van Hoy is the host of KKOW's nightly sports show. He'll be joined in the booth once again by Lynn Meredith, former defensive coordinator at PSU. Tom McNally will return to provide game updates from the sidelines.

As part of KKOW's expanded sports coverage, PSU head football coach Chuck Broyles will be Van Hoy's guest Monday evenings on the sports show from 6-6:30 p.m. On Friday's at 5:05 p.m., before Pittsburg High football, Van Hoy will look ahead at the upcoming weekend college and professional football action, including a preview of the Gorillas and the other MIAA conference games.

In addition to carrying PSU football games, KKOW also will broadcast all of PSU's men's basketball games this year, and carry the women's MIAA conference basketball games as well. The station also will be a major sponsor of several promotions throughout the football and basketball season, including a National Championship license plate giveaway at the football home opener, a "#1" visor giveaway on Sept. 12, a fireworks display following PSU's game on Sept. 19, Gorilla Touchdown Towel giveaway on Oct. 24, and tailgates parties before each home game.

KOAM-TV • Channel 7

"Home of the Chuck Broyles Show"

For the fifth consecutive year, KOAM-TV Channel 7 will telecast the Pittsburg State Coach's Show, a weekly half-hour television program featuring previews, reviews and feature stories on Pittsburg State Gorilla Football.

The "Chuck Broyles Show" can be seen every week throughout the 1991 season on KOAM. The show will once again be aired late-night on Friday, and again on Saturday. Check local listings for air times.

KOAM-TV sports director Darren Prather will serve as host of the television show once again this year, with sports reporter Jay Radzavicz providing weekly features.

Prather, a graduate of Southwest Missouri State University, has worked at KOAM Sports for the past nine years, serving as sports director for the past seven. Radzavicz has been with the TV station for nearly four years.

In addition to airing the Chuck Broyles Show last season, KOAM televised the 1991 NCAA National Championship game live from Florence, AL and both the 1990 and 1991 NCAA semifinal contests, with Prather handling play-by-play duties.

The PSU coach's show has received several awards during the past three years. In 1989, the Association of News Broadcasters of Kansas recognized the program for a segment entitled "48 Hours to Gametime."

Key Newcomers: TB Anthony Higginbotham, 6-1, 225, Fr.; TE Greg Knoblauch, 6-1, 210, Jr.

1992 Falcon Outlook

The Friends University Falcons will have 18 starters returning for the 1992 season under fourth-year head coach Brian Byers and looks to again be a conference favorite this season. Last season the Falcons tied for first place in the Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference with an impressive 8-1 record, 8-2 overall. The leader of last year's squad will be sorely missed with QB Will Johnson's departure. However, the offense will still have some punch as transfers Anthony Higginbotham at tailback and tight end Greg Knoblauch look to contribute immediately. All-conference WR Kevin Elam returns and All-American center Juan Peterson will anchor the offensive line. On defense, three all-conference standouts return led by first-team All-America DB Morris Lolar. The others include DL Demetrius Olden and LB Darrin Harding. A key loss for the Falcons on defense will be DL Bob Lawrence, an All-American and All-conference selection last year.

Series Notes

Last season, PSU and Friends met for the first time since 1933... the last Friends win was in 1920, a 21-0 shutout... Falcon coach Brian Byers played and coached at PSU, and was a two-time All-American offensive tackle (1977-78)... PSU is 44-14-7 vs. current KCAC members.

1992 Lion Outlook

Head Coach Eddie Vowell will be reshaping one of the most prolific offenses in the Division II ranks in the past few years. Vowell will have his choice of three quarterback candidates that will operate behind a strong offensive line led by Earl Bell, an all-conference performer last season. The defense will be strong again with two-time All-American cornerback Eric Turner and safety Curtis Buckley returning. Turner led the NCAA Division II in interceptions in 1990 and was named the LSC's outstanding defensive back last season. Buckley returns for his senior season as the Lions leading tackler from a linebacker position last season. That move could be permanent, as Vowell has six new linebackers coming in this season. With some speed on the defensive line, the front seven should be solid. All-American kicker Billy Watkins also returns for East Texas State.

Series Notes

This will be the fourth time these teams will meet in three years... ETSU broke PSU's 56-game regular season winning streak with last season's 20-13 win... PSU has beaten ETSU in the NCAA-II quarterfinals the past two seasons... the Gorillas are 6-8-1 against current LSC members.

1992 Bearcat Outlook

Southwest Baptist had a very successful season 1991, only their fourth year in the NCAA Division II and the MIAA. Head coach Jim Hall will have 8 starters returning on offense from a 7-4 team, led by senior QB Trevor Spradley, who ranked seventh in NCAA Division II in passing efficiency. Spradley also passed for 2,492 yards and 13 TDs in '91. Veteran WRs Randy Bartosh (38 rec., 502 yds.) and Donald Thompson (20 rec., 312 yds.) return to catch Spradley's bombs. Junior Redgie Franklin will lead the ground attack after rushing for 536 yards and 6 TDs as a sophomore. The Bearcat defense will be led by leading returning tackler LBs Dan Swofford, who led the team with 83, and junior transfer Eric Washington. The defensive backfield is steady with seniors David Campbell and Scott Winters, even with the loss of All-American SS Todd Leach. Winters will also be back to handle SBU's kicking chores.

Series Notes

This year marks SBU's 10th in its football renaissance... the Bearcats are tough vs. the Gorillas in Bolivar, with PSU winning 27-24 in 1989, and 23-17 in 1991... at PSU, the Gorillas won 54-17 in 1990... two SBU coaches, Wayne Haynes and Duane Trogon, have degrees from PSU.

1992 Miner Outlook

The Miners broke out of a 19-game losing streak against Michigan Tech in the '91 season opener and played consistent hard-nosed football throughout the season. First-year head coach Jim Anderson will have some holes to fill on the offensive line to protect QB Mike Wise. Last year, Wise completed 112 of 234 passes for 1,309 yards and 3 TDs, and also rushed for 531 yards and 7 TDs. Wise's top target will be Chris Alverson, who was second in the MIAA in catches per game last season and led the Miners in receiving. The backfield will be a little thin with the loss of tailback Carlos Cain (746 yds.), but the Miners return an experienced back in Rick Henry (201 yds.) On defense, Rolla also lost All-MIAA safety Mark Diamond and linebacker Mike Swinford but UMR returns eight experienced starters on defense including DE Sky Lupo.

Series Notes

Rolla snapped PSU's 20-game MIAA winning streak with last season's tie, and snapped its 19-game MIAA losing streak... Coach Broyles was an assistant coach at UMR from 1974-83 and 1986-87... PSU hasn't lost to the Miners since 1984, a 62-14 loss that was PSU's worst since 1936.

Key Newcomers: FB Scott Buie, 6-0, 225, Jr.; DE Kirk Larson, 6-2, 230, Fr.

1992 Bearcat Outlook

Head coach Bud Elliott has 15 starters returning but has to replace big FB Ed Tillison, who was drafted by the Detroit Lions. Juco transfer Scott Buie will attempt to fill the fullback position and lead the 'Cats wishbone attack. HBs Jason Krone (654 yds.) and Reggie St. Romain (479 yds.) will provide the outside punch for NWMO. The biggest move made during the spring practices was the conversion of HB Joseph Johnson to QB. This will add some speed at the QB position on the option. Johnson will compete with returning starter Lawrence Luster who can add the pass dimension to the Bearcats offense. Defensively, top pass-rusher Erik Petersen is gone, but Northwest returns DT Clarence Green (42 tackles), LB Bryce Stephens (65 tackles), and tough CB Percy Coleman (5 INT).

Series Notes

PSU has won eight of the last nine meetings with the 'Cats... this series dates back to 1932, when the Gorillas opened with a 25-0 win... PSU and NWMO were the only MIAA schools to have players chosen in the '92 NFL Draft, as FB Ed Tillison went to Detroit in the 11th round.

Lettermen: 16 lost, 32 returning

Starters returning: 8 offense, 10 defense

Key Returnees: TE Fontaine Walker, 6-2, 214, Sr., 62 rec., 641 yds., 6 TDs; RB Chad Guthrie, 6-0, 198, Sr., 1,649 yds. rushing, 17 TDs; QB Chris Livingstone, 6-5, 236, Jr., 2,126 yds. passing, 17 TDs

Key Newcomers: OL Mike Moore, 6-0, 240, Fr.

1992 Bulldog Outlook

Northeast Missouri will have 18 returning starters as head coach Eric Holm starts his third year at NEMO. The 'Dogs offense is solid, especially at running back, where senior All-American Chad Guthrie rushed for 1,649 yards and 17 TDs, and quarterback, where Chris Livingstone returns. Livingstone passed for 2,126 yards, 17 TDs and completed nearly 60 percent of his passes as a sophomore. All-American TE Fontaine Walker (641 yds., 6 TDs) returns for his senior season as well as flashy WR-KR Marcus McCoy (326 yds., 1 TD). The test for the 'Dogs will be on defense where they gave up an average of nearly 33 points per game. All-MIAA LBs Robby Flanagan (93 tackles) and Greg Godi (92 tackles) return to help lead the Bulldog defense. Also, DB Eddie Garrett (48 tackles, 1 INT) will back up the front lines with steady pass coverage.

Series Notes

The Bulldogs are the only MIAA team that owns a series lead over the Gorillas, 14-7-1, but PSU has won four straight... PSU defeated NEMO, 43-0, for its first MIAA and NCAA Division II win in 1989... Pitt State beat Northeast 59-3 in the first round of the 1990 playoffs.

Key Newcomers: DL Troy Lane, 6-3, 250, Jr.

1992 Griffon Outlook

Missouri Western is looking to build on its 4-7 record last season, an improvement from a 2-8 record in 1990. QB Mark Ramstack returns for his senior season after passing for 1,770 yards and 14 TD's and his main target will be senior WR Terren Adams, the 1991 MIAA Newcomer of the Year, who caught 61 passes for 1,232 yards and 12 TD's. The ground attack will be led by sophomore Dameron Kazee who rushed for 862 yards on 164 carries his freshman year. The key for the Griffons' success will be the defensive unit which allowed an average of 433.7 yards per game last season. Senior Glenn DuBois will return to the free safety position, where he had a team-high 115 tackles last season and will be relied upon this year for his leadership. Second-year head coach Stan McGarvey incorporated an off-season concentration on defense that he hopes will translate into the Griffons being a contender in 1992.

Series Notes

Missouri Western handed Pitt State one of its worst defeats ever with a 61-14 win in 1983... the Gorillas defeated MWSC in the Griffons' second game as a four-year program in 1970, 63-14... PSU has won the last seven meetings with Western.

1992 Lion Outlook

Missouri Southern is coming off a second place finish in the MIAA and a 7-2 record overall in 1992. Head coach Jon Lantz has only four starters returning on offense, but two of them comprise the one of the most potent passing combinations in the country. Senior QB Matt Cook returns after passing for 2,637 yards and 25 TDs his junior season earning him All-MIAA honors. The other half of that combination is the MIAA's Offensive Player of the Year WR Rod Smith. Smith had 60 catches for 1,439 yards and 15 TDs. His 130.8 yards per game average led the nation. Those two players will be heavily relied upon with the loss of running back Marques Rodgers (840 yards, 9 TDs). Coach Lantz will also have to replace four offensive linemen including three All-MIAA performers. MSSC will be led on defense by first-team All-MIAA DT Jay Pride and CB John Buchanan.

Series Notes

PSU and MSSC play annually for the Miner's Bowl trophy... since first being contested for in 1986, the Gorillas have never lost the miner's helmet, winning six straight... PSU has won 12 of the last 14 meetings with Missouri Southern, including seven in a row.

1992 Hornet Outlook

Head coach Larry Kramer enters his 10th season at Emporia State with a Hornet team that will be eligible for its first MIAA title. The Hornets jumped out a 5-0 start, with three one-point wins, before dropping their last five games last season. Kramer will have the services of last season's top rusher and scorer in the country with TB Quincy Tillmon, who rushed for 1,544 yards, averaging 171.6 yards per game last year, and 19 TDs. Senior QB Curtis West also returns to lead the offense behind a revamped line led by Jeff Glasgow. All-American TE Wade LeDuc and WR Anthony Cowins also return. Defensively, E-State's strength is at linebacker, with Karl Burrell, Jeff Bruce and Mark Hilt returning. Two talented transfers join the ESU defensive backfield in Vanderbilt transfer Jonathan Daniels and East Central Oklahoma newcomer Todd Waters.

Series Notes

The series with Emporia is the longest in PSU history, with 1992 marking the 73rd meeting... last year's game was the first since 1988, when PSU left the CSIC... before the three-year break, the schools met annually since 1946... PSU was founded in 1903 as an auxiliary school to ESU.

1992 Ichabod Outlook

The Ichabods will begin their rebuilding process in 1992 with 35 freshmen being counted on to bring stability to a program that has gone 8-23 over the past three seasons. Several of the freshman are going to be counted on to contribute immediately including WR DeMarko Coleman, RB Andy Murray and LB Brett Miller. Offensively, the Ichabods ranked last in the MIAA in total offense and scoring in 1991. This has been a focal point of improvement during the off-season by the addition of Coleman and Murray. RBs Talmadge Graham (454 yds., 4 TDs) and Joey Atwood (129 yds.) will return. An experienced offensive line will lead the way. The defense has been solid the past few seasons. Leading tackler, LB Dave Noot, will lead a defense that ranked third in the MIAA last season. Newcomer Miller is a red-shirt freshman from Iowa State and is expected to be a force at inside linebacker.

Series Notes

The WU series, going into its 65th game, is the second longest in PSU history, behind only Emporia State... the Gorillas have shut out the Ichabods in four of the last five meetings, including the last three (61-0, 17-0 and 21-0)... PSU has won the last 12 meetings.

Key Newcomers: Cecil Sapp, 5-9, 170, Fr.; FB Lance Barrett, 5-10, 235, Fr.

1992 Mule Outlook

The Mules will have 19 starters returning (10 offense, 9 defense) and will look to challenge for the MIAA title in 1992. Head coach Terry Noland will enter his 10th season and have last season's leading rusher returning in senior Henry Caldwell (546 yds., 7 TDs) as well as red-shirt freshman Deno Hairston leading his ground-oriented attack. Noland will have to decide on either junior Carl Lawrence, who passed for 213 yards and 3 TDs in the final two games of last season, or Hairston at the quarterback position. Whoever the QB is, he'll have someone to throw to as the Mules top two receivers return in Vince Jordan (578 yds., 4 TDs) and Chad Snyder (378 yds., 2 TDs). In the offensive line, the Mules will need to replace their two starting guards. Three first-team All-MIAA selections lead the defense with senior LB Joe Grubb (141 tackles), senior CB Ray Lingard (67 tackles) and junior DE Bart Woods (58 tackles).

Series Notes

The Mules last victory over the Gorillas was in 1959, a 27-26 decision... since then, PSU has won 10 straight... CMSU had a 14-7 lead over the Gorillas at halftime of the 1991 game... PSU's Ronald Moore had his first collegiate 100-yard rushing day in 1989's 60-5 Gorilla victory.

Pitt State Gorillas

1991 National Champions

BANK IV proudly salutes the success of the Pitt State Gorillas. Success, in life as in football, takes talent. And planning, and training, and hard-working dedication. And it still takes more. Because success isn't an individual effort. It comes through working together toward a common goal.

When you come to Pittsburg, you have the strongest teams in Kansas on your side — the Pitt State Gorillas and BANK IV. And that's important. Because when everything is on the line, you go to your strength: the winning team at Pitt State and BANK IV.

A
people like you.

No. 1 Pitt State vs. No. 15 East Texas State

THE GAME

Pittsburg State — 1-0 this year and ranked No. 1 in the NCAA Division II poll — and East Texas State — also 1-0 and ranked 15th in the Division II poll — will meet for the fourth time in 22 months.

Kickoff between the two nationally ranked teams is set for 7 p.m. Saturday (Sept. 14) at Pitt State's Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium.

The game will be carried live on KKOW Radio (860 AM) beginning with the pre-game show at 6 p.m. The Chuck Broyles Show on KOAM TV will be shown 11:05 p.m. Friday and 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

THE SERIES

The Gorillas and Lions have developed quite an intense rivalry during the past two years.

The series began in the quarterfinals of the 1990 NCAA Division II playoffs when Pitt State defeated ETSU, 60-28, in Pittsburg, before falling to eventual national champion North Dakota State, 39-29, in the semifinals.

In 1991, East Texas snapped the Gorillas' 56-game regular season winning streak in Commerce, Texas with a 20-13 victory. The loss was Pitt State's first in regular season play since 1985. PSU got even, however, in the playoffs. For the second straight year, the Gorillas ended ETSU's season in the quarterfinals in Pittsburg.

The final: Pitt State 38, East Texas 28.

The storyline: Pitt State capitalized on several ET turnovers and scored 31 unanswered points in the first 15:05 of the game. The Lions countered with 28 straight points to cut the lead to 31-28. PSU then mounted a 9-play, 55-yard scoring drive to go up 38-28 with 12:38 to play. Pitt State stopped ETSU twice, and ran out most of the clock with a 6-minute, 17-play possession. The Lions turned the ball over 9 times (5 INTs, 4 fumbles).

THE COACHES

Pitt State's Chuck Broyles is beginning his third season as head coach at his alma mater (PSU '70). Broyles has a 26-2-1 overall mark, the best winning percentage (.914) of any coach in school history. He led PSU to the national title last season and was named the Kodak/AFCA College Division I National Coach of the Year (includes NCAA Division II and NAIA-I).

With the victory over Central Arkansas, Eddie Vowell is now 35-34-1 (.507) in seven seasons at ET. The Lions are 31-16-1 during the last five years (.646).

PITT STATE LAST WEEK

The Gorillas defeated Friends University of Wichita, Kan., 61-0 for the program's 12th straight win. Friends was ranked 11th in the NAIA Division II poll, but PSU overpowered the Falcons with 591 yards of total offense — including 464 rushing — and a defense that gave up just four first downs. The Gorillas tied a conference record for first downs (35).

Harlon Hill candidate Ronald Moore rushed for 157 yards and 3 TDs on 20 carries. He opened the second half with a 65-yard kickoff return, and one play later scored his third TD of the game with a 33 yard burst up the middle. Senior wideout Ray Staten, a transfer from West Virginia University, had 7 catches for 103 yards and 2 TDs in his PSU debut.

Defensively, senior outside linebacker Jerry Boone led PSU with 7 tackles in his first career start. Senior cornerback Joel Thornton blocked a punt and returned it 30 yards for a TD. Transfer Chance Rudzik, an All-American at Garden City JC last year, recorded his first sack as a Gorilla. Linebackers Lance Gosch and Andy Sweet had six tackles each as 30 players were credited with tackles.

VICTORY MARGIN

Pitt State's 61-0 victory over Friends was the program's largest win since 1989, when the Gorillas blanked MIAA opponent Washburn by the same score. The victory margin of 61 points matched the fourth-largest in school history.

ET LAST WEEK

After falling behind Central Arkansas 12-0 in the first quarter, East Texas State rallied for 14 points in the second quarter and 16 in the third against the defending NAIA Division I national champs, and held on for a 30-18 victory.

ETSU had 361 yards of total offense.

Eddie Vowell
Head Coach

Eric Turner
Defensive Back

Junior Michael Hightower rushed for 97 yards and scored three times for ETSU — a 1-yard run in the second quarter which put the Lions ahead for good, a 44-yard run in the third quarter, and a 79-yard return of a free kick after ETSU recorded a safety. Senior Billy Minor had 3 catches for 108 yards including a 74-yard TD reception from quarterback Greg Centilli, who was 8-13 for 205 yards with 1 TD and 1 INT. Junior tackle Duane Hicks had 9 tackles, including 4 for losses and a QB sack.

TURNOVERS TROUBLE AT PITT

East Texas State has turned the ball over 17 times in the two games played at Pittsburg, but just once at home.

In last year's quarterfinal playoff contest, the Lions were intercepted 5 times and had 4 fumbles lost for a total of 9 turnovers in a 38-28 defeat. In the 1990 playoff meeting, ETSU fumbled three times and Pitt State had 5 INTs once again, for a total of eight turnovers. PSU won that quarterfinal game 60-28.

In Commerce last year, the Lions did not fumble and were intercepted only once in beating PSU 20-13.

LOTS OF WWWWWWWWs

Since 1986, Pitt State has posted more victories (71) than any other college football program in the country at any level (see list on page 1). Pitt State is 71-6-1 overall since 1986, and 79-8-1 overall since 1985. The Gorillas are 67-1-1 in their last 69 regular season games dating back to 1985. The only team to beat Pitt State during a regular season game since 1985 was East Texas State, 20-13 last year.

MOORE AND THE RECORD BOOK

With 157 yards rushing vs. Friends, Ronald Moore now has 2,592 yards in regular season games during his career, fifth on PSU's all-time list. Moore needs 1,118 yards rushing to break Richard Overton's regular season school record of 3,704.

With 10 games left on PSU's schedule, Moore must average 111.8 yards per game the rest of the season to break the school rushing mark.

Here's PSU's top five rushers of all-time:

		Att.	Yards
1.	Richard Overton	779	3,709
2.	Darren Dawson	496	3,530
3.	Monte Weathers	335	3,192
4.	Bruce Stancell	532	2,750
5.	Ronald Moore	400	2,592

With 3 rushing TDs against Friends, Moore now has 29 during his career, also fifth on PSU's all-time list. Moore needs 19 more to break Overton's school record of 47. Here's the all-time list:

		TDs
1.	Richard Overton	47
2.	Darren Dawson	44
3.	Monte Weathers	38
4.	Gene Stegeman	37
5.	Ronald Moore	29

• Moore's 20 points against Friends — he scored 3 TDs and added a two-point conversion — gives him 192 during his PSU career, sixth all-time.

• Moore went over the 100-yard mark rushing for the 18th time in his career in the opener, and the 14th time in a PSU regular season game.

• Moore's 20 carries vs. Friends gives him an even 400 during his PSU career, eighth on the Gorillas all-time list. His 400 carries in 33 regular season games works out to an average of just over 12 carries per game. But, he toted the pigskin about 16 times per game during the past two seasons as a starter.

INJURIES MOUNT IN BACKFIELD

Pitt State offensive coordinator Jerry Kill knew it would be tough replacing three offensive linemen, a tight end, All-American tailback Darren Dawson and NCAA Division II Player of the Year Ronnie West. However, the Gorillas were fairly deep at QB and running back.

Not so anymore.

Pitt State appears to have lost sophomore quarterback Jeff Moreland for the year. Moreland suffered a separated shoulder his second play of the game against Friends, and underwent surgery on Monday. He will most likely be forced to red-shirt this year, after leading the Gorillas to an 8-0-1 record as an emergency starter as a true-freshman.

In the backfield, senior Craig Jordan is expected to return to the practice field this week after separating a shoulder nearly three weeks ago. Senior Don Tolar is still expected to be out another three or four weeks after suffering leg injuries in a car accident. Joey Tobin, who started Saturday, also is questionable this week with a sore knee.

Up front, Joey Turner, a 6-6, 320-pound red-shirt freshman, could return to action soon after having a tumor on his jaw removed. Turner is expected to challenge for a starting role this year.

YOUNGSTERS STEP UP

With the injury problems and the lopsided score in Saturday's opener, several young players had an opportunity to get plenty of action.

Senior Chad Watskey, who had just one career rushing attempt at PSU, carried the ball 5 times for 61 yards, while freshmen Jarron Cherry and Sean Scott made their debuts in the PSU backfield. Cherry had 27 yards on 7 carries, while Scott rushed for 65 yards on 6 carries. Senior guard Kevin Duncan, sophomore tackle Chris Sharp, and senior tight end Scott Lutz, made their first starts as Gorillas.

KILL ON THE ET DEFENSE

"East Texas is a very solid defensive football team. They have a great strong safety in (Curtis) Buckley, they're very good up front... and, of course, you have Turner in the secondary. Coach Vowell said during the pre-season that he felt they have the best defense they've ever had at East Texas. From what we can tell, we'll probably see that on Saturday."

BROYLES ON THE OPENER

"We got a nice win, but we didn't play with as much intensity as we would like. Sometimes the game kind of warrants that. We did some good things and made some mistakes. Hopefully, they're just opening game mistakes and we'll get those ironed out."

"We were pleased with the fact that we got to play a lot of people on both sides of the ball. Ronald Moore had a good night and Ray Staten showed signs that he could become a good receiver for us. All the good things are probably outweighed by the fact that we lost Jeff Moreland indefinitely, if not for the year."

"Defensively, we had some people play well, but it's hard to evaluate how well we did because we played a lot of different combinations. We ran to the ball well, our secondary covered well, but Friends University wasn't as good offensively as they were last year. Last year, they controlled the ball more, so it's still hard to tell. We'll find out a lot more about how good we are on defense this week when we play East Texas."

BROYLES ON EAST TEXAS

"East Texas beat the NAIA defending national champions last week, and they have plenty of talent as always. They have two great receivers in (Anthony) Brooks and (Billy) Minor. They may never replace (Bob) Bounds and (Mike) Meador at quarterback, but it seems like they're still throwing the ball effectively."

"They're kind of like us the first game, a little unsure who some of their players are. Their leading back was (Michael) Hightower. He didn't start, but he ended up with the most yardage and made some big plays."

"There are some things that East Texas has to get ironed out and there are some things we're still trying to get ironed out. You can bet on one thing. East Texas will have a lot of talent on their football team."

UP NEXT

Pitt State will host Southwest Baptist next week at 7 p.m. in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association opener for both schools.

The Bearcats defeated Ouachita Baptist, 37-27 in their season opener last week and have this week off to prepare for the Gorillas. Last year, SBU tied for third place in the MIAA with a 5-4 league record. SBU was 7-4 overall.

Saturday is "Dole-Rilla" day at PSU. The Dole Fresh Fruit company, the Pittsburg Area Chamber of Commerce, KKOW Radio, and KSN TV 16 are sponsoring a variety of activities including prize giveaways including a Dole fresh fruit truck and a fireworks display.

The Gorillas vs. The Lions: A Short, But Storied Jungle Rivalry

When two teams play each other four times in a three-year span, including twice in the playoffs, it has the makings for an instant rivalry.

Such is the case for Pittsburg State and tonight's opponent, East Texas State.

Most rivalries need several years to generate some of the stories and emotions that make them memorable. A good example would be Stanford-California. It took 90 years of playing each other before Cal's infamous "Five Lateral" kickoff return of 1982 for a last-second win brought that rivalry to national attention.

Or how about Nebraska-Oklahoma, who's 1971 game has been referred to as the "Greatest College Football Game Ever Played."

While the Gorillas and Lions haven't reached that level, they have already played some great games since first playing in 1990.

East Texas State made its first trip to Pittsburg on Nov. 24, 1990, in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division II Playoffs.

The Gorillas had been eliminated by Angelo State University, which was in the Lone Star Conference with ETSU. So PSU knew how tough the Lions could be if they'd won the conference title.

The Lions took an early 7-0 lead when wide receiver Gary Compton recovered a fumble by running back Jarrod Owens in the end zone.

After that, PSU exploded to a 39-14 halftime lead, thanks to four turnovers by the Lions. Running back Darren Dawson and tight end Jody Truitt scored two touchdowns each in the first half for PSU.

Compton and Owens each cashed in on the ground in the second half for ETSU, cutting the Gorilla advantage to 11, 39-28.

But giveaways again plagued East Texas State. Four more turnovers — a fumble and three interceptions — were the Lions undoing. Dawson scored two more TD's, giving him an NCAA-record four for the day, and Ronnie West scored on a 30-yard reverse for the final 60-28 margin.

The two teams decided during the off-season that they should meet during the regular season. The Gorillas went to Commerce on Sept. 14, 1991 with a 56-game regular season winning streak and the No. 2 ranking in the NCAA Division II poll. East Texas was ranked No. 7 entering the game.

PSU's offense was being directed by sophomore QB Brian Hutchins. He took over in the spring when junior Todd Hafner injured his knee.

But on the first offensive play of the game for PSU, Hutchins injured his right collarbone on a quarterback draw. That forced true-freshman Jeff Moreland to run the offense.

Moreland, who had been a run-and-shoot quarterback in high school, had to run the triple-option veer with only a month's work in camp. He rushed for 79 yards and passed for another 126, and had PSU in position to win late in the game. The Gorillas had a second-and-one from the ETSU 3 with less than a minute to go, but the Lions held and earned a 20-13 victory to end the Gorillas winning streak at 56.

PSU sought revenge when the two teams again met in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division II playoffs on Nov. 30.

PSU jumped out to a 31-0 lead over East Texas State in the first 15:05 of the game. Turnovers again plagued the Lion effort, with ETSU losing the ball nine times. Six quarterback sacks also hurt East Texas, including three by defensive end Troy Wilson.

The Lions came back late in the first half to cut the lead to 31-14 on two Gary Perry touchdowns. In the third quarter, David Chapman and Eddie Tenison each scored to slice PSU's lead to 31-28. But Dawson scored his eighth career TD against ETSU, and a 17-play drive by PSU late held the Lion at bay and gave PSU a 38-28 win.

What will the 1992 game have in store? Probably only add another chapter to this short, but storied rivalry.

The Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association, a 12-member conference of NCAA Division II institutions located in Missouri and Kansas, begins its 80th season of competition this fall.

First organized in 1912 as the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association, the league has undergone several changes during the past decade, highlighted by expansion, increased participation in national championships, and as of July 1, 1992, a name change.

The MIAA has gained recognition as one of the top NCAA Division II athletic conferences in the nation, producing two NCAA National Championship teams last year — Pittsburg State University in football, and Missouri Southern State College in women's softball — and several individual NCAA champions and All-Americans.

The MIAA conducts conference championships in eight men's and seven women's sports. Men's champions are crowned in football, cross country, basketball, indoor and outdoor track and field, baseball, tennis, and golf. Women's championships are held in volleyball, cross country, basketball, softball, indoor and outdoor track and field, and tennis.

Ken B. Jones has served as the only full-time commisioner of the MIAA since his appointment in July of 1981. Judy Willson was named the MIAA's first Director of Sports Information in August of 1992.

History of the MIAA

- 1912 • Fourteen colleges in the state of Missouri organized the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Cape Girardeau State Teachers College (now SE Missouri St.), Kirksville State Teachers Colege (now NE Missouri St.), Maryville State Teachers College (now NW Missouri St.), Springfield State Teachers College (now SW Missouri St.), Warrensburg State Teachers College (now Central Missouri St.), Central College, Central Wesleyan College, Culver-Stockton College, Drury College, Missouri Valley College, Missouri Wesleyan College, Tarkio College, and William Jewell College
- 1924 • The conference reorganized to include only the five regional state colleges (SE Missouri St., SW Missouri St., NE Missouri St., NW Missouri St., Central Missouri St.)
- 1935 • The conference added the Missouri School of Mines, (now known as the University of Missouri-Rolla)
- 1970 • The conference added Lincoln University.
- 1980 • The conference added the University of Missouri-St. Louis
- 1981 • Original MIAA member Southwest Missouri State left the conference to pursue NCAA Division I status. Ken B. Jones named the conference's first full-time commisioner in July.
- 1982-83 • The MIAA began sponsoring championships in women's athletics.
- 1986 • Southwest Baptist University joined the conference, bringing the membership back up to eight schools.
- 1987 • On July 10, the institutional representatives voted to expand the membership of the conference to 12 schools, approving the addition of Missouri Southern State College, Missouri Western State College, Pittsburg State University, and Washburn University of Topeka. The addition of Pittsburg State and Washburn marked the first time that schools outside of the state of Missouri had received membership.
- 1989-90 • Missouri Southern, Missouri Western, Pittsburg State, and Washburn began MIAA competition.
- 1991 • Original MIAA member Southeast Missouri State left the conference to persue NCAA Division I status. Emporia (KS) State University joined the MIAA keeping the membership at 12 schools. Judy Willson was named the MIAA Director of Sports Information.
- 1992 • The MIAA voted to change its name to the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association
- 1992-93 • The 80th anniversary season of MIAA competition.

The MIAA in the NCAA Playoffs

Pittsburg State has represented the MIAA in the NCAA Division II playoffs for the last three years. the league runner-up also earned a playoff berth in 1989 and 1990.

In 1989, Pittsburg State, the league champion, and Northwest Missouri St., the league runner-up battled in a first round playoff contest, with Pitt State emerging victorious, 28-7.

In 1990, Pitt State, again the league champion, defeated Northeast Missouri St., the league runner-up, 59-3 in another first round match-up of MIAA foes. PSU then beat East Tex. St., 60-28 in the quarterfinals, before falling to eventual national champion North Dakota St., 39-29 in the semifinals. Pitt State's win over Northwest in 1989 was the MIAA's first playoff victory. PSU's triumph over East Texas in 1990 marked the MIAA's first playoff win over a non-league opponent, and the first time a conference team reached the semifinals.

Then last season the Gorillas defeated four non-conference foes enroute to their first NCAA Division II National Championship and the first for the conference.

Northeast Missouri was the first MIAA team to appear in NCAA post-season play in 1982. The Bulldogs were beaten by Jacksonville (AL) State, 34-21 in a first-round game. NW Missouri qualified in 1984 and lost a first-round game to Nebraska-Omaha, 28-15.

Pittsburg State has qualified for post-season play 12 times in the 83-year history of the football program, highlighted by ten appearances in national playoff competition.

In 1957, the Gorillas captured the first of two NAIA National Championships under Coach Carnie Smith, completing a perfect 11-0 campaign with a 27-26 victory over Hillsdale College in the Holiday Bowl at St. Petersburg, Fla. In 1961, Smith led PSU to another NAIA National Title with a 12-7 win over Linfield College at the Camellia Bowl in Sacramento, Calif.

In 1981, the Gorillas returned to the NAIA National Championship game under Coach Ron Randleman, but PSU's bid for its third NAIA national crown came up short as Pitt State fell to Elon College of North Carolina, 3-0 on a frozen field.

In 1985 under Coach Dennis Franchione, the Gorillas qualified for the NAIA playoffs once again, but lost a first-round contest. Pitt State reached the semifinals the next three seasons, but each year, PSU's quest for a national crown ended in bitter defeat.

In 1989, PSU made the transition from the NAIA to the NCAA Division II ranks. The Gorillas won their first NCAA-II playoff game, a 28-7 victory over MIAA rival Northwest Missouri, before falling to Angelo State of Texas, 24-21 in the NCAA quarterfinals.

PSU returned to the NCAA playoffs in 1990, posting impressive home wins over Northeast Missouri (59-3) and East Texas State (60-28), before falling to eventual national champion North Dakota State, 39-29 in a thrilling semifinal game.

Finally in 1991, PSU won their first national title in 30 years and its first title as a member of the NCAA-II with a victory over Jacksonville (AL) State, 23-6 in Florence, AL. Under the direction of second-year head coach Chuck Broyles, Pitt State's victory over previously unbeaten Jacksonville State came after a tough 2-1-1 start to the season and 11 consecutive wins to end the season. It was a diversified and explosive offense, and a dominant defense that propelled the Gorillas to their third national crown.

The Gorillas have compiled a 9-5 record in seven NAIA playoff appearances, and a 7-2 mark in the NCAA Division II playoffs for a combined 16-7 record in playoff competition. PSU is 12-3 at home in the playoffs, and 4-4 on the road. Three of PSU's four road playoff wins were in championship games in 1957, 1961 and 1991.

PSU has played in three post-season bowl games, the '50 Shrine Bowl, the '79 Boot Hill Bowl, and the '80 Moila Shrine Bowl.

Coach Carnie Smith speaks with halfback Bob Fulton (11) during a practice before the 1961 Camellia Bowl. Fulton had a 64-yard touchdown run on PSU's first play of the game. Line coach Joe Murphy looks on from the backfield.

Coach Chuck Broyles discusses techniques with his defensive unit during a practice. Before becoming PSU's head coach, Broyles was the team's defensive coordinator. Like Carnie Smith, Broyles has led the Gorillas to a national championship.

Pittsburg State University has built a tradition as one of the finest small-college football programs in the nation, with two NAIA national championships and an NCAA Division II national championship highlighting an illustrious gridiron history that dates back to the early 1900s.

After competing for 81 years as an NAIA program, PSU joined the NCAA Division II ranks and the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1989. The Gorillas captured the MIAA football championship their first three seasons in the new league, after winning four straight championships in the NAIA's Central States Intercollegiate Conference.

PSU qualified for the national playoffs for the seventh consecutive year in 1991, and reached the national semifinals for the fifth time in six years. The Gorillas also won their first NCAA Division II national title with a 23-6 victory over Jacksonville (AL) State. PSU won 56 straight regular season contests from 1985 to 1991 as well.

Pittsburg State has posted 48 winning seasons in its football history, capturing the NAIA national championship under Coach Carnie Smith in 1957 and 1961 and the NCAA-II national championship last season under Coach Chuck Broyles. The Gorillas also have won 23 league titles, including 10 championships in the last 13 years.

Pitt State fielded its first team in 1904, but no scores or results exist. Since its first official season in 1908, PSU has celebrated 460 victories, ranking the program sixth on the NCAA Division II all-time winningest teams list.

Pittsburg State joined the Kansas Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (KIAC) in 1911 and won its first conference championship in 1924 under Garfield W. Weede, compiling a 7-0-1 record, PSU's first undefeated season.

In 1925, Pitt State adopted the "Gorilla" as its official mascot. PSU is proud to be the only college or university in the country with the Gorilla as its athletic mascot.

The Gorillas became members of the Central Intercollegiate Conference (CIC) in 1928. The Gorillas won 10 league championships in 41 years in the league, six of which came between 1949 and 1966 under Carnie Smith. As the winningest coach in PSU history, Smith guided the Gorillas to 116 wins, 52 losses and six ties in his 18 seasons as the school's head coach.

The stadium where the Gorillas have played their home games since 1924, now bears the name of the legendary coach.

Running back Gary Snadon uses a block by tight end Tom Gosch (51), father of current Gorilla linebacker Lance Gosch, and guard Eddie Carter (72) to score the eventual game-winning touchdown in the fourth quarter of the 1961 Camellia Bowl.

Coach Carnie Smith enjoys a victory ride after leading the Gorillas to the NAIA National Championship.

Under Smith, Pittsburg State won two NAIA national championships. The Gorillas achieved perfect 11-0 seasons in 1957 and 1961 to win the national honor.

Pitt State left the CIC for the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference in 1969, and won a conference title during its three seasons in the league. PSU competed in the Great Plains Athletic Conference from 1972-75 before joining the Central States Intercollegiate Conference (CSIC) in 1976. PSU won or shared the CSIC championship seven of 13 years in the league.

During the 1980's, Pitt State regained its national prominence. PSU earned a trip to the NAIA playoffs in 1981 for the first time since the '61 championship. The Gorillas completed a 10-2 season with a national runner-up finish, losing 3-0 in the NAIA title game.

PSU's success in the '80s continued under head coach Dennis Franchione, as the Gorillas won the CSIC championship and earned NAIA post-season playoff berths in 1985, 1986, 1987, and 1988. PSU reached the NAIA national semifinals the last three years the program was a member of the organization.

From 1980 to 1988, Pittsburg State won six CSIC championships, appeared in the NAIA national playoffs five times, and produced 34 NAIA All-Americans. During the 1980s, PSU compiled one of the best records of any football program, ranking second among NCAA Division II schools with a winning percentage of .800 and a record of 88-22.

Between 1908 and 1991, Pittsburg State has built a record of 460 wins, 275 losses, and 46 ties, making it one of the most successful in small college football programs in the nation. PSU's .618 winning percentage ranks 10th.

Pitt State 59, Friends 7

Game #1-September 7, 1991

Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium, Pittsburg

Sophomore quarterback Brian Hutchins passed for three touchdowns and ran for another as the Gorillas opened their 84th season with a big win over Friends University. Senior All-American wide receiver Ronnie West was the recipient of all three of Hutchins' TD passes and ended the night with 133 yards on 5 catches. Runningbacks Darren Dawson and Ronald Moore saw limited action as sophomore Joey Tobin led the Gorillas with 82 yards on just four carries, including a 62-yard TD. The Gorillas rushed for 303 yards on 51 attempts. The win extended the regular season winning streak to 56 games.

Game #2-September 14, 1991

Memorial Stadium, Commerce, TX

The Gorillas 56-game regular season winning streak came to an end as the seventh-ranked Lions upset the second-ranked Gorillas in Commerce, Texas. It was the first regular season loss for the Gorillas since September 28, 1985, nearly six years ago. QB Brian Hutchins fractured his collar bone on PSU's first offensive play and was replaced by true-freshman Jeff Moreland who rushed for 79 yards and passed for another 126. Moreland did a great job under pressure, and put the Gorillas in a position to win late in the game. PSU had second-and-1 from the ETSU 3 in the final minute, but couldn't punch it in the end zone.

Pitt State 23, Southwest Baptist 17

Game #3-September 21, 1991

Plaster Stadium, Bolivar, MO

Freshman quarterback Jeff Moreland, in his first collegiate start, rushed for 121 yards and a pair of touchdowns including the game-winner from six yards out with 4:41 left in the game as the Gorillas opened the MIAA with a win in Bolivar. The Gorillas pounded out 300 rushing yards and held the Bearcats ground game to 76 yards. With fullback Ronald Moore injured, tailback Darren Dawson rushed for 131 yards on a career-high 36 carries. During the contest Dawson reached two milestones in his college career. He went over the 2,500-yard plateau in regular season games and over the 3,000-yard mark in all games including playoffs in only three years.

Game #4-September 28, 1991

Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium, Pittsburg

The Miners ended the Gorillas 20-game MIAA winning streak and ended their own 19-game MIAA losing streak with a tie at PSU. QB Jeff Moreland scored the tying touchdown on a 19-yard run with 8:59 left to play. The Miners missed the game-winning field goal with 13 seconds left as Eivind Listerud's 34-yard attempt sailed wide left preserving the tie. PSU's 6 points was the lowest output since a 17-6 loss to Cameron in the 1986 NAIA playoffs. Moreland had a productive offensive day, passing for 143 yards, completing 11 of 18 passes. The tie left PSU's record at 2-1-1 after four games.

Pitt State 38, Northwest Missouri 0

Game #5-October 5, 1991

Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium, Pittsburg

Unranked in the regular season for the first time since 1985, the Gorillas returned to form with a blanking of the 17th-ranked Bearcats. Running backs Darren Dawson and Ronald Moore rushed for 167 and 110 yards, respectively, and each scored twice. QB Jeff Moreland added 100 yards on 23 carries as the Pitt State offense pounded out 412 yards on the ground and 487 total yards. Moreland also completed a 12-yard scoring strike to All-American Ronnie West. West's TD reception gave him sole possession of first place on PSU's career receiving touchdowns list with 15, breaking the record set by Gene Wayenburg ('80-81) and Alan Spencer ('69-72).

Game #6-October 12, 1991

Stokes Stadium, Kirksville, MO

For the second straight week, the Gorillas had three players rush for over 100 yards and Ronnie West had 8 receptions for 140 yards including a touchdown as PSU outgunned Northeast in Kirksville. West also had a 72-yard punt return for a TD and gained 257 all-purpose yards while garnering MIAA offensive player of the week honors. Running backs Darren Dawson and Ronald Moore rushed for 155 and 102 yards, respectively, and each scored two TD's for the Gorillas. QB Jeff Moreland rushed for 106 yards with a TD and passed for 222 yards and 2 TD's as Pitt State rolled out 693 yards of total offense. Senior placekicker James Jenkins converted 7 of 8 extra points to break the NCAA Division II career mark of 138, set by Jim Trueman of Edinboro (PA).

Pitt State 43, Missouri Southern 21

Game #8-October 26, 1991

Fred G. Hughes Stadium, Joplin, MO

The Gorilla defense did the job early and often as Pitt State won their sixth Miner's Bowl in six tries, and in the process claimed sole possession of first place in the MIAA with a convincing win in Joplin. The 10th-ranked Gorillas were once again led by the backfield attack of Darren Dawson and Ronald Moore. Dawson rushed for 156 yards and three TD's on 27 carries while Moore racked up 109 yards and one touchdown on 25 attempts. Ronald Moore also achieved a rushing milestone in the contest, eclipsing the 2,000-yard plateau for his career. WR Ronnie West had 84 yards on just three receptions including a 26-yard TD from Jeff Moreland. The Pitt State defense caused 10 MSSC turnovers, including six fumbles and four interceptions. Senior Jamie Goodson intercepted Southern QB Matt Cook twice, while juniors Eric Perks and Joel Thornton each had a pickoff. The Gorilla defensive front and linebackers held Southern to 58 rushing yards.

Pitt State 70, Emporia State 36

Game #9-November 2, 1991

Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium, Pittsburg

The Gorillas scored 51 points in the second and third quarters and scored the third-highest point total in school history with their victory over in-state rival Emporia State. Junior fullback Ronald Moore led the way with 142 yards and two TD's on 17 carries, while senior tailback Darren Dawson added 69 yards and three touchdowns on 11 carries. All-American Ronnie West scored a pair of third-quarter TD's on receptions of 60 and 30 yards. West ended the day with a career-high 190 yards on eight receptions and added 41 yards on kick returns for a total of 231 all-purpose yards. QB Jeff Moreland completed 8 of 13 passes for 193 yards and one TD, while also rushing for two scores. The Hornets were without the services of junior running back Quincy Tillmon, who ended the season as the leading rusher in NCAA Division II.

Pitt State 21, Washburn 0

Game #10-November 9, 1991
 Moore Bowl, Topeka, KS

For third straight year, the Pitt State Gorillas claimed the MIAA championship by posting a shutout victory over the Ichabods. WR Ronnie West returned the opening kickoff 63 yards to set up Ronald Moore's 10-yard TD run to open the scoring. West then caught a 10-yard TD pass from quarterback Jeff Moreland to give the Gorillas a 14-point lead at the half. Darren Dawson scored on a 57-yard touchdown run in the third quarter that pushed him over the 1,000-yard mark for the third consecutive year. Moore had 91 yards on 18 carries with a touchdown. Moreland broke PSU's record for total offense by a freshman with 1,652 yards on the season with one game remaining.

Game #11-November 16, 1991

Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium, Pittsburg

The third-ranked Gorillas wrapped up the regular season at 9-1-1 with a come-from-behind victory over the Mules. Pitt State was led by QB Brian Hutchins, who came off the bench at the start of the second half and sparked the offense to two long scoring drives of over 60 yards each, which turned a 14-7 deficit into a 21-14 lead. All-American WR Ronnie West had four catches for 85 yards, setting PSU single season and career receiving records. The running back tandem of Darren Dawson and Ronald Moore finished the regular season strong. Dawson had 130 yards on 29 carries and a TD in finishing his PSU regular season career with 3,530 yards and 44 rushing TD's, both second-best in PSU history. Moore compiled 156 yards and scored two TD's on a career-high 36 carries to go over the 1,000-yard mark for the second straight season. The Gorilla defense held the Mules to 102 yards of total offense and just 36 rushing yards.

Pitt State 26, Butler 16

Game #12-November 23, 1991

Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium, Pittsburg

NCAA Division II 1st Round Playoff Game

Fullback Ronald Moore rushed for 166 yards and two TD's and senior Darren Dawson added 156 yards and one TD as the third-ranked Gorillas defeated No. 5 Butler University in the first round of the NCAA Division II playoffs. PSU racked up 520 yards of total offense against a team ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense and No. 4 in total defense. Moore's 73-yard TD run, the longest run from scrimmage in PSU post-season history, tied the score at 13-13 with 2:40 left in the third quarter. A field goal gave the 'Dogs a 16-13 lead. PSU took its first lead with 7:14 left in the fourth quarter Dawson added the game clincher on a 61-yard TD run with 5:12 to play. Ronnie West finished the day with 281 all-purpose yards. The Gorilla defense held the Bulldogs to just 209 total yards of offense and sacked Butler QB Paul Romanowski seven times, three by DE Troy Wilson.

Pitt State 38, East Texas State 28

Game #13-November 30, 1991

Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium

NCAA Division II Quarterfinal Playoff Game

Pitt State jumped out to a 31-0 lead in the first 16 minutes of play, then held off an East Texas State rally to defeat the Lions in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division II football playoffs. The win avenged the only loss of the season for the Gorillas, a 20-13 setback at ETSU on September 14. Ronald Moore rushed for 123 yards on 30 carries and scored one TD while Darren Dawson rushed for 59 yards on 17 carries with three TD's. ETSU committed nine turnovers, including five interceptions and four fumbles. Senior linebacker Jamie Goodson and junior cornerback Duke Palmer picked off two passes each. Pitt State sacked the Lions quarterbacks six times including three by Troy Wilson and two by Michael Rose. Pitt State earned a berth in the national semifinals for the fifth time in the last six years.

Pitt State 53, Portland State 21

Game #14-December 7, 1991

Portland Civic Stadium, Portland, OR

NCAA Division II Semifinal Playoff Game

The Gorillas stunned the crowd of over 17,000 at Portland when they jumped out to a 26-7 lead with 2:37 left in the first quarter, as PSU had one of its finest offense games in school history. Pitt State struck early as Ronald Moore raced 37 yards for a TD on the opening drive of the game. Then it was time for senior Darren Dawson to shine, as he scored the next three PSU touchdowns en route to 181 yards on just 17 carries in the first half of play. He finished the day with 213 yards and 3 TD's on 24 carries, setting a school record for most yards rushing in a post-season game. Moore added 175 yards and 3 touchdowns of his own on 22 carries. QB Brian Hutchins was 7-of-9 for 126 yards with a 21-yard TD strike to All-American Ronnie West. West had six catches for 115 yards on the day. The Gorillas rolled up 407 yards of total offense in the first half alone and ended the day with a school post-season record 636 total yards as the Vikings had trouble handling the triple-option veer. Portland State was within five, 26-21 midway through the second quarter, but that was as close as it would get as the Gorilla defense shut out the potent Viking offense in the second half. Once again defensive end Troy Wilson paced the defense with three sacks, while senior defensive tackle Ky Kiger added two sacks.

Pitt State 23, Jacksonville State 6

Game #15-December 14, 1991

Braly Municipal Stadium, Florence, AL

NCAA Division II National Championship Game

Pitt State made their first trip to Florence, Alabama a memorable one as the Gorillas won their first NCAA Division II National Championship, and the third national championship in school history, with a stellar performance against the Gamecocks of Jacksonville (AL) State. PSU started off slowly punting on their first possession and turning the ball over on downs on their second possession. That is when QB Brian Hutchins and Harlon Hill Award winner Ronnie West started to work their magic. Hutchins completed a key third down pass to keep the drive alive and then threw a 17-yard touchdown pass with 1:33 left in the first quarter to put PSU on top, 7-0. Jax State took the ensuing kickoff 70 yards on 15 plays, with Terence Bowens' 3-yard TD run pulling the Gamecocks to within one, 7-6. The Jax State defense contained the Gorilla rushing game throughout the first half as Ronald Moore had 44 yards and Darren Dawson had only 13. But the Gamecock defense couldn't stop Hutchins, as the sophomore engineered another successful drive, again utilizing West for 42 yards and Shad Klinge for 24, setting up a first down on the JSU 13 with 24 seconds left in the first half. Hutchins then rolled out and scampered into the end zone with a 13-yard TD. He finished the day 10-of-14 for 159 yards and a TD. Dawson added a third-quarter TD run of 10 yards and James Jenkins kicked a 22-yard field goal to cap the scoring. Jax State's hopes were dashed in the third quarter as starting QB Nickey Edmondson went down with an ankle injury and the Gorillas adjusted to the Gamecock's wishbone attack. The Gorilla defense dominated in the second half, led by DE Troy Wilson, who tallied two critical sacks, while DE Phil McCoy and LB Kris Mengarelli also had a sack each and several key tackles.

Kansas State Teachers College 27, Hillsdale (MI) 26

Kansas State Teachers College won the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics national title with a 27-26 victory over the Hillsdale College Dales in the 1957 Holiday Bowl. The Gorillas snapped HC's 34-game winning streak with the victory.

KSTC jumped out to a 20-0 lead in the first quarter but Hillsdale closed to within six, 20-14, in the second quarter and tied it in the third on Doug Maison's second touchdown pass of the game. KSTC took a 27-20 lead on a second John Matous-to-Paul Crandall scoring strike and Bill Samuels' third PAT.

The Dales had a chance to tie the game when Maison threw to Earl O'Shaughnessy for his third touchdown pass of the game, but Wayne O'Shaughnessy missed the extra point. Hillsdale put together one final drive for the victory, but Gene Wayenberg intercepted Maison in the end zone on the game's final play. KSTC's defense held the Dales to 8 yards rushing.

1981 NAIA Champion Bowl

NAIA Division I Championship • Dec. 19, 1981
Burlington Memorial Stadium • Burlington, NC

Elon (NC) 3, Pittsburg State 0

The Gorillas suffered their first and only championship game defeat on a blustery day in North Carolina, as the host Elon College Fighting Christians edged Pittsburg State 3-0 for their second straight NAIA Division I crown. The temperature was 30 degrees at kickoff with a northwest wind blowing 15-20 miles per hour.

1961 Camellia Bowl

NAIA Championship • Dec. 9, 1961
Hughes Stadium • Sacramento, CA

Kansas State College 12, Linfield (OR) 7

Kansas State College won its second NAIA Championship in five years with a hard-fought 12-7 win over the Linfield College Wildcats in the 1961 Camellia Bowl.

Bob Fulton hit paydirt on the Gorillas first offensive play when he took a handoff from quarterback Phil Vogrin, went around left end and rumbled 64 yards to give KSC a quick 6-0 lead.

The game was then dominated by the defenses. Defensive back Gene John thwarted a Linfield scoring chance late in the first half with an interception in the end zone to keep the Gorillas in the lead.

The Wildcats put together a march in the fourth period that looked unstoppable, until KSC's Archie Ringgenberg stepped in front of Bill Parrish's pass and returned it 89 yards to the Wildcat 6. An LC penalty on the return moved the ball to the 3, and two plays later Gary Snadon dove across for the 1-yard score. Parrish hit Bernie Grant for a 9-yard score late in the game for Linfield's lone TD, followed by Gary Olsen's extra point.

Turnovers and missed opportunities were the keys to this game. The Fighting Christians coughed up the ball eight times on fumbles, losing six of them. Elon fumbled the ball on its first two possessions, but the Gorillas' Dave Hammons missed field goal tries of 32 and 29 yards. Elon's third lost fumble set up a third Hammons field goal attempt, but his 27-yard try sailed off the mark to keep the game scoreless.

EC's Phil Renn broke the scoring drought early in the fourth quarter with a 23-yard field goal. Hammons had one more opportunity to connect, but his 47-yard attempt with 10:27 left was short. PSU's final attempt at a victory ended with 4:30 remaining, when the Gorilla drive ended with a turnover at the Elon 34. The Fighting Christians ran out the clock from there.

PSU in the National Polls

The Pittsburg State football program has consistently been ranked high in the national polls during the past seven seasons. The Gorillas have finished the season ranked no lower than fourth in the final poll each year, and as high as No. 1 in 1986 and 1987. In the program's first three seasons of NCAA Division II play, PSU was ranked fourth in the final poll in 1989 and third in 1990 and 1991. Here's a look at PSU's weekly ranking in last year's poll, and the Gorillas final national ranking from 1981-91.

Regular Season Winning Streak Ends at 56

Pittsburg State University won an amazing 56 consecutive regular season football games from 1985-91. The Gorillas posted five straight unblemished regular season campaigns (from 1986-90) before the streak ended last year.

After suffering a 41-9 defeat at Emporia (KS) State University on Sept. 28, 1985, Pitt State was perfect in regular season play for nearly six years — winning 56 straight regular season contests. PSU's 20-13 loss at East Texas State University on Sept. 14, 1991 ended the streak.

PSU won its last six regular season games of the '85 campaign after the Emporia State loss, then went 10-0 in regular season play in 1986, 9-0 in regular season action in '87 and '88, and 11-0 in '89. Pitt State posted a 10-0 regular season mark in '90, and the Gorillas won the '91 season opener against Friends University, before losing at East Texas State in week two.

Entering the 1992 season, PSU is 66-1-1 in its last 68 regular season games. PSU won its last seven regular season contests last year.

Gorilla Ground Game

The Pittsburg State University football program's success in the past seven years can be directly related to its potent rushing attack.

The Gorillas have finished in the top five nationally in rushing offense during the last seven years, leading the nation twice (1986 & 1987). In each of those seasons, Pitt State has been in the national playoffs.

The last time Pittsburg State didn't have a 1,000-yard rusher was 1983. Since 1983, 11 Gorillas have gained more than 1,000 yards.

For the last three seasons, Pittsburg State has had two players finish with more than 1,000 yards rushing, a feat that has only been accomplished seven other times in the history of Division II football.

The following is a list of players that have surpassed the 1,000-yard plateau, and PSU's team rushing since 1985.

Team Rushing — 1985-91

Year	Games	Yds./Game	Nat'l. Rank
1991	11	320.6	5th
1990	10	325.2	2nd
1989	11	350.3	2nd
1988	9	350.1	2nd
1987	9	438.4	1st
1986	10	387.5	1st
1985	9	307.7	2nd

1,000-Yard Rushers

Year	Player	Yards
1991	Darren Dawson	1176

Three former members of the Pittsburgh State University football program have been selected in the National Football League Draft during the past two years, and will be attempting to earn roster spots this season.

Former PSU cornerback Darryl Wren was selected in the third round of the 1991 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. This past spring, wide receiver Ronnie West was chosen by the Minnesota Vikings in the ninth round, while guard Kendall Gammon was chosen by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 11th round.

Wren, the 82nd pick overall, was chosen higher in the draft than any other player in PSU history, three selections higher than tackle Mike Potchad, who was a fourth-round choice (85th overall) by the Atlanta Falcons in 1971. Wren spent the 1991 season on the injured-reserve list for the Bills.

Former Pittsburgh State defensive back Darryl Wren was featured on card number 811 of the 1991 ProSet NFL football card set after being drafted in third round by the AFC Champion Buffalo Bills.

West, the winner of the 1991 Harlon Hill Award as the NCAA Division II Player of the Year, was primarily selected by the Vikings for his receiving and return ability, but was moved to running back during training camp this summer.

Gammon, a three-time All-MIAA selection, was chosen by the Steelers for his long-snapping ability on special teams and has also been getting work at the center position on offense.

Before Wren, the last Pitt State NFL draftee was end Alan Spencer, who was picked in the 12th round by the Vikings in 1973. Running back Albert Schmidt was selected in the 11th round by the Los Angeles Rams in 1972, following Potchad's selection in 1971.

The first Gorilla selected in the NFL Draft was tackle Len Mansfield, a seventh-round selection by the Philadelphia Eagles in 1958. He was followed in the same draft by teammate Ted Stahura, who was picked in the 30th round by the San Francisco 49ers as a future pick. Future picks were for players that had eligibility remaining, but whose class had graduated.

During the 1960's, the American Football League and the NFL were in a war to get the top players coming out of college, and each league had its own draft. Jerry Archer, a center on the 1961 championship team, was selected after his junior season by both the Detroit Lions (10th round of the NFL Draft) and the New York Titans (27th round of the AFL Draft) as a future pick by both squads.

Eldon Danenhauer, an offensive tackle for the Gorillas in the late 1950's, was not selected in the draft, but he is probably PSU's most successful pro player. Danenhauer played with the Denver Broncos from 1960-65, and earned All-AFL honors twice.

PSU's Ronnie West dives for a reception during the Vikings minicamp this spring. West, who was picked in the ninth round of the NFL draft by Minnesota, converted to the backfield during the Vikings' regular training camp after setting numerous Pitt State receiving marks.

LeRoy Andrews, who played on PSU's earliest teams, was the first Gorilla to make the pros. He coached nine years in the NFL, leading the New York Giants to NFL runner-up finishes in 1929 and 1930 with a 26-5-1 mark during the span. Andrews also coached a team against the "Notre Dame All-Stars" led by Knute Rockne. It would be the last game Rockne would coach. Andrews posted a 54-32-6 overall record, coaching six teams, four as a player/coach.

John Levra, a linebacker for the Gorillas on the '61 championship team, never played pro football, but he is entering his 13th season as an assistant coach in the pros. Levra joined the staff of the Chicago Bears as defensive line coach in 1986, after working in the Canadian Football League in 1980, and under O.A. "Bum" Phillips in New Orleans from 1981-1985.

Others Gorillas who played pro football include: Ron Freeman, a linebacker for the Pittsburgh Maulers and Orlando Renegades of the United States Football League, Joe Murphy, who coached football and swimming at PSU from 1949 to 1976, played briefly for the St. Louis Gunners in 1934, and Bob Tarrant, a split end who played one season with the New York Giants in 1936. Many other Gorillas have earned free agent tryouts in the NFL, the most recent being running back Monte Weathers with Seattle in 1988-89.

Former Pitt State offensive lineman Kendall Gammon is trying to make the Pittsburgh Steelers roster as a deep snapper and center after being selected in the 11th round of the NFL draft.

A total of 31 former Pittsburg State University coaches and student-athletes have been enshrined in the Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame during the past four years.

The Hall of Fame was established in 1988, when a group of 15 charter members were inducted. This year, four new members will join the Hall of Fame as PSU's fifth class of inductees during Homecoming ceremonies on Oct. 10.

Of the five members inducted in 1991, three were former PSU football players — Kenneth Paxton Gire, John Peterson and Tom Miller.

Gire was selected by coaches Charley Morgan and Carnie Smith as captain of the school's 50th Anniversary football team in 1953. He was a three-time All-Conference selection at offensive center for the Gorillas.

John Peterson, who attended PSU from 1964-69, played defensive tackle and was PSU's only three-time All-American (1965-67), as well as a three-time All-Conference choice.

Tom Miller was a starting guard on Pittsburg State's 1957 NAIA National Championship Football Team. He earned second team All-American honors in 1957 and was a first-team All-Conference pick.

"Pittsburg State has a long history of a very strong intercollegiate athletic program," said PSU President Donald W. Wilson. "We are proud of the accomplishments that these individuals have made to that strong tradition, and they will be honored from now on as members of our Hall of Fame."

A six-person selection committee composed of alumni and current athletic staff members evaluates the merits of the candidates who have been nominated for this distinction. The committee will select a new class each fall, with an induction ceremony scheduled as part of PSU's

Homecoming festivities.

The Hall of Fame is located in the south hallway on the first floor of the Weede P.E. Building. Photos of the inductees are displayed with a mural honoring PSU's 1957 and 1961 national championship football teams.

If you would like further information on nominating a person for possible induction, please contact Russ Jewett, Chairman, Hall of Fame Committee, 238 Weede P.E. Building, Pittsburg State University, Pittsburg, KS 66762.

Three of the five inductees to the PSU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991 were former football student-athletes — (from l-r) Kenneth Paxton Gire, Tom Miller and John Peterson. Of the 26 former student-athletes in the Hall of Fame, 12 are former football players.

The Pittsburg State University football stadium and field, now known as Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium, was built in 1923 with volunteer labor and money donated by students, alumni, faculty and citizens of Pittsburg.

The facility was first named in honor of William Aaron Brandenburg, the first president of the University. In 1987, the University announced that the field would continue to bear the name of PSU's first president, but the stadium would now be called Carnie Smith Stadium in honor of the legendary PSU football coach who led the Gorillas to two NAIA national championships (1957 and 1961) and six conference titles during his tenure from 1949 to 1966.

During the past three years, Brandenburg Field/Carnie Smith Stadium has undergone over a million dollars worth of renovations, making the stadium one of the finest small college athletic facilities in the nation.

The state-of-the-art August and Helen Rua Press Box was completed in time for the 1989 football season, and PSU hosted its first outdoor track meet on the new polyurethane Prentice Gudgen Track in the spring of 1989. Other parts of the major renovation project included the installation of an electronic message center and scoreboard, a new sound system, new lights, comfortable seating mounted in the bleachers, as well as a new bermuda grass playing surface.

Construction of the facility began with volunteer labor during the summer of 1923, after a successful fund drive raised the necessary $100,000 to build the stadium. To ensure the stadium would be built in time for the 1924 season, PSU faculty members were required to contribute up to eight hours of labor per week.

On October 11, 1924, the first varsity football game was played between PSU (known as Kansas State Teachers College) and Baker University in front of approximately 4,000 fans. The Gorillas didn't disappoint the many people who worked so hard to build the new facility, earning a 6-0 victory over Baker.

The west stands of the stadium seat 3,600 spectators, and the east stands, added in 1940, seat an additional 2,000 people. The stadium is architecturally notable for the concrete relief over the front entrance, which was sculpted by PSU alumnus Waylande Gregory.

Strength and Conditioning Facility

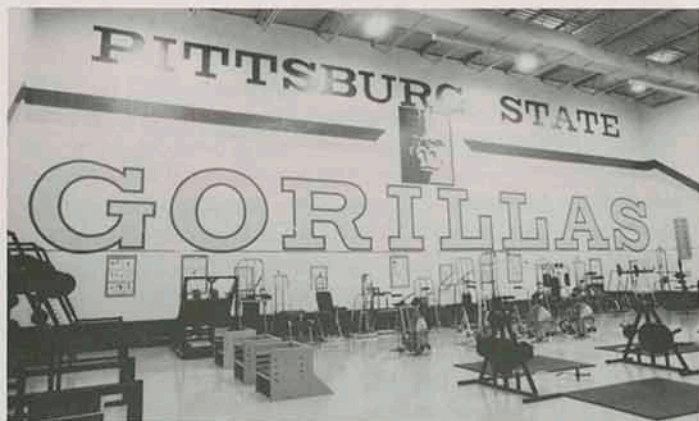

Pittsburg State University's strength and conditioning program, under the direction of John Johnson, assists in keeping the Gorillas athletes in shape throughout the year.

Johnson designs not only exercise plans for the over 200 student-athletes, but also a dietary plan to follow during training for a complete fitness program, using the latest in research and technology.

Football student-athletes wrap up their conditioning program in the spring with the annual "Night of Champions" lifting competition, which is open to the public.

The most visible part of the program is the PSU Fitness Center, located in the Garfield W. Weede Physical Education Building. The center features 3,700 square feet of work space, 10,000 lbs. of free-weight equipment, 16 single unit machine exercise stations, numerous free-weight exercise stations, and several Schwinn Airdyne Exercise Cycles. The Weede swimming pool is also used for conditioning as well as rehabilitation of injuries.

The Fitness Center Weight Room is probably one of finest in Division II, with room for free-weight and machine exercise stations, along with stationary exercise cycles.

Strength and conditioning coach John Johnson (second from left) works with the Gorilla linebackers in the weight room. Johnson provides assistance for all of PSU's athletic programs.

Two Pittsburg-area automobile dealers, Pittsburg Ford and Huebner Motors, provide courtesy cars to coaches in the Pittsburg State athletic department. Because the cars are used primarily for recruiting purposes, the automobile dealers play a vital role in the success of our teams and their generosity is greatly appreciated.

GOLF CLASSIC

July 9, 10 and 11, 1993

Crestwood Country Club • Pittsburg, Kansas

The proceeds from this year's classic will benefit the Mt. Carmel Hospital Foundation and the Pittsburg State University Athletic Department.

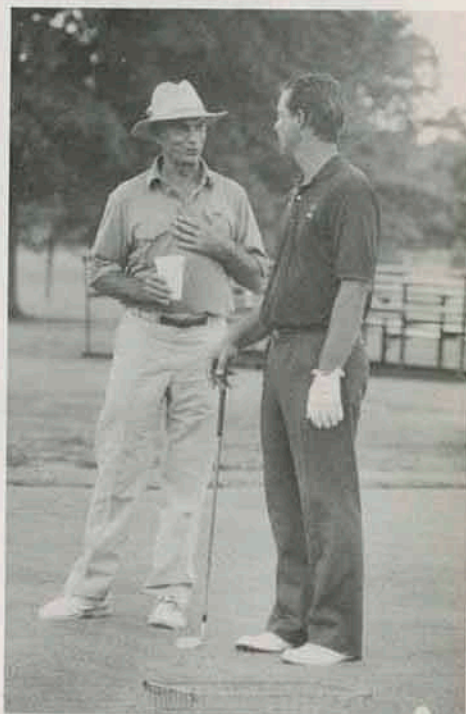

The Gene Bicknell Celebrity Charity Golf Classic has served as a major fund raiser for the Pittsburg State University athletic department and the Mt. Carmel Hospital Foundation the past two years.

Each year, celebrities from the sports and entertainment world join area golfers at Pittsburg's Crestwood Country Club for a 36-hole, scramble format tournament. A silent auction is also held, selling memorabilia signed or donated by the celebrities.

The tournament kicks off with an exhibition of skills by either a touring professional, or, as was the case in 1992 — a professional golf trick-shot artist.

Celebrities that have attended include former NFL stars like Otis Taylor and Conrad Dobler, baseball stars Lew Burdette, Jim "Mudcat" Grant and Frank White and singer Pat Boone.

The public is invited to participate in or attend the 1993 tournament, which is scheduled for July 9-11. For more information, contact chairperson Walt McGregor at (316) 231-3390.

$1600 Halftime Passing Contest

Contest Rules

- Three individuals will participate in the halftime passing contest at each PSU home game. Participants will be chosen by displaying an official PSU Football Game Program bearing a special mark on the inside back cover. The special mark and additional contest information will be announced over the public address system prior to halftime.
- In order to win cash prizes, participants must throw a pass and hit a target. The decision of the contest judges will be final.
- Pittsburg State University or any of the contest sponsors are not responsible for injury incurred as a result of participation.
- Participants choose the distance of the pass they wish to try, but each participant is limited to just one pass. Cash prizes for successful passes are determined by the length of the pass.
- Participation in this contest will terminate any potential NCAA athletic eligibility. If unsure of this rule, discuss with contest judges before participation. All participants must sign a release form prior to the contest.

CASH PRIZES

16-yard pass	$16
20-yard pass	2 x $16 = $32
30-yard pass	3 x $16 = $48
40-yard pass	6 x $16 = $96
50-yard pass	10 x $16 = $160

KSN-TV will make a cash donation to the PSU Athletic Scholarship Fund with remaining prize money not awarded during the contest
