Index of
“Yale Items” from Pittsburg Daily Headlight
(for African-American community)

Compiled by Debbie M. Swindle

The local newspaper (Pittsburg Daily Headlight) was the source of daily activities for all of the regional coal mining camps/communities. As such each camp/community would provide the “news” and/or future events.

This is not a complete list. Please do not assume that the first “Yale Items” column appeared in September 1902. When doing research on the Yale Cemetery I discovered that there were usually two listings of “Yale Items” in the paper—one for the white population and one for the African-American community. As I became familiar with the family names I only noted the particular “Yale Items” column for the African-American citizens. These are the citations that can be offered at this time for your future inspection.

If you have a family member that is buried in the Yale Cemetery the odds are very high that information is listed that would be invaluable to you to understand their role in the community, and other vitals such as marriages, births of children, illnesses/injuries, etc.
