Scholarship & Creative Works @ Digital UNC =
research, creative works, and journals produced by UNC faculty, staff, and students

What is an Institutional Repository?

- A type of digital archive consisting of scholarly work that represents institution's intellectual output.
- Makes institutional research and scholarly output freely available to the public.

A Site is Born

Why Create a New Site?

- Re-evaluation of Libraries' digital services
- Highlight campus research and scholarship
- Library as publisher
- Enhanced possibilities for research data management
- Expand Libraries' role in scholarly communication on campus

Scholarship & Creative Works @ Digital UNC does/will contain:

- Faculty publications and other scholarly/creative works
- Post-1970 graduate theses, dissertations, etc.
- Other selected student work
- Open access campus journals
- “Event communities” for conferences, symposia, etc.
- Materials documenting campus life

Enhanced Features For Users:

- Direct upload into system
- Monthly usage statistics
- Greater visibility of work
- Real-time readership map
- Customizable peer-review workflows
