Res Amos B. Findley

Dear Sir You now state at State Prison came only to hand yesterday. You speak of the Confession you have always obtained in Ohio and I should have no reason to doubt but that you had so often repeated this. Now my dear friend I have wrote the very best I could and all I could. Got the Taxes not paid George and I have written several letters to the Treasurer and to my Agent. then in the summer of 1844 and paid all the back Taxes and the Taxes for 1844. then before the Taxes of 1845 were paid I sold to you. and as you state in your letter I promised to pay the Taxes for 1845 and still promise so to do if it costs me $500. but you must allow me to do it as I can. I sent out in the fall for the amount of Taxes on my Land and Grazes, and they sent in as delinquent the Taxes of 1844 for which I held receipts in full. I then sent out my receipts to my Agent. requesting him to present them to the Treasurer and then send me the amount of Taxes for 1845. and have not get. been able to get the amount. a few days ago I went to Cincinnati to see George to know what he should do about it, and he agreed that as soon as the Roads get letters one of them will go out and how all make right and the Taxes paid off. so you need not be uneasy about it. what I have promised to do you may depend on.

Very Respectfully
Yours
W. B. Mattson
