Mr Finley

I bid you a fare well as I was not able stay at work where I was employed at a dollar per day on the Railroad close by the quarry, however I will blow the trumpet the first opportunity my strength shall go up like the Eagle. I hope it is not the will of God to allow the Irishmen to carry on such misconduct no one but a ~~man~~ Irishman would treat me so I was taken from the great men of the Earth, I dont care for the Irish, the Warden has treated me very bad and would give me nothing but cast close if I did not object. I dont thank any one for doing so.
God Almighty has promised to be with this one I remain yours sincerely - Jos. Maguire -

I will stay in Town to night I am not well

This Irish one was to go when he left and to go
So
