Dear Brother Gaily

Enclosed Return you the Letter & Account of Geo. W. Jackson, as soon as I received it I found who was the Writer, I forthwith went to him and he explained the whole Matter which you will find on the Back of the same, It appears that the Account was for Jovels furnished by Mr Jackson to the Prison when he was killing in Columbus, and of course you could not know he was from this place. I am truly glad that you is innocent in this Matter, I have never said a word to him about, and cannot tell how he came to know and write to you All Friends here are well, I shall be glad to serve you at any time in my power, we have some glorious times here in our Churches More good is being done this winter than for many years

Yours as ever in the Best of Bonds
