Dear Sir,

We have recently opened the "Adams House," Washington St., Boston, Mass. as a first class Hotel.

Regarding the comfort of our guests as of the first importance, all the modern facilities, for convenience and quiet, have been introduced.

The Hotel is to be conducted upon the principles of temperance and religion. A family altar is established, where all who wish can unite at the Throne of Grace in gratitude to God for his mercies.

We intend to make the "Adams House" a resting place for the body and soul of the traveller, and should you visit the City, it would give us much pleasure to receive your influence and patronage.

D. Chamberlin & Co.

Proprietors.
