Park Lodge,
5. Sept. '35.

My dear Mr. Fairley,

as it is ^{an} ~~an~~ ^{temptation} to send me out to raise some money, to meet the immediate wants of the college, it being necessary, I should have some indication from you, as chairman of the college com., as to what time, during the ensuing year, you propose your visit to this place, as my business here at that time, will be indispensable — Perhaps the Fall vacation would suit all concerned, as well as any other time, at least this has been suggested. Some have supposed a period shortly anterior to your next conf. and others the Christmas holidays. I have no choice, but merely wish to learn the probable time, that if sent on a mission, I may arrange accordingly. Please drop me a line, and give me your views as to time, and also the names of the persons composing the committee. Upon appointing the time absolutely, it may be well to confer with the chairman of the com. to be appointed at the next conf. I merely suggest this. Let me hear from you as soon as convenient.

yours obediently

Rev. Jas. B. Fairley
