Alexandria Division No 93 S. of E.
Brother Fibley

We have a public Celebration in contemplation and I am instructed by the Div to write you and ascertain if you can favor us with ~~an~~ a public your presence and an address on the occasion and if so at what time would it suit your convenience best? please set your own time and come to our assistance if possible

We have rather grown cold in the cause, of late and are strong in the Faith that you could do us much good in the way of a public address We wish to have the celebration as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made Please write immediately and let us know if we may expect you and at what time &c.

Yours in Love Purity and Fidelity D Coon, R. S.
