No 18 1850 Sir Sir

Most Reverend Sir I embrace this opportunity to Enquire you that I am well at this time and hope that this may find you in good health The days of the most horrid season is past and the sun shine of heaven seems to Dawn upon me and more I am Enquire at this time and have to hope I am a member of the Methodist Church the Christa Church I was married last winter in this city on the 2d day of January to Miss Frances Marion Volander a lady of Richmond Virginia I live on Catherine and Lin Streets at 3 Doves from the North East Corner If you can to Enquire to be gone and come to be me I shall still expect your help when you bow down before the holy Word of Heaven and that God may Grant to give you all the poor souls you have won over to Christ in your holy walls

I have but few moments to write and hope that you will pardon this short letter unless this is soon as you can I would be glad to have from you nothing more at this time but remain to your faithful Friend and Brother in Jesus Christ ever love to Honor be glory
For Ever and Ever amen
