
The Phoenix

Campus Newspaper Collection

10-24-1954

The Phoenix, Vol. XVIII, No. 1 (October 24, 1954)

Marian University - Indianapolis

Follow this and additional works at: <https://mushare.marian.edu/phnx>

Recommended Citation

Marian University - Indianapolis, "The Phoenix, Vol. XVIII, No. 1 (October 24, 1954)" (1954). The Phoenix. 17.

<https://mushare.marian.edu/phnx/17>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Campus Newspaper Collection at MUShare. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Phoenix by an authorized administrator of MUShare. For more information, please contact emandity@marian.edu.

Another school year has started, and the confusion of its opening days has begun to give way to the orderly routine of college life. This is not, however, just "another" school year at Marian; it is different in many ways—our first year as a coeducational college. We are participating in an historic event, a giant step in the growth of our school.

We shall do well to remember that growth implies expansion rather than substitution. As a body grows, it becomes not an entirely new being, but retains its identity; it increases in size, in strength, in power. During its period of growth a body develops with an harmonious blending of old and new. Such also is the growth of our school. Marian college retains its identity; its aims and purposes and ideals remain. But there is expansion in physical size, in curriculum offerings, in extracurricular activities, in student body, in faculty. Its power to serve its students and the community increases. New interests and new traditions arise to blend harmoniously with those of the past.

It is our privilege not merely to witness this development of Marian, but actually to be a part of it. That this be a healthy growth with a minimum of "growing pains" depends greatly upon the loyal cooperation of everyone of us who is a part of the college. During these first days of the new school year there has been ample evidence of this necessary cooperation. It is our confident hope it will ever be so.

Entering this new era in the history of Marian college, we are grateful to the founders of the college, whose courage and foresight gave us our school, and to all who through the years nurtured its development. We are thankful for the countless blessings through the intercession of our heavenly patron, the Immaculate Mother of God. May the new growth of Marian college be among the enduring fruits of this the Marian Year.
—Fr. Francis J. Reine, President

Twenty Students Assume Offices As Result of Fall Class Elections

At class elections, Sept. 30, senior ballots named Mary E. Maloney, Indianapolis, president. Assisting her will be Lee Lieland, social chairman, and Therese Lowe, secretary, both also of Indianapolis; and Irma Klett, treasurer, Cincinnati.

Heading the junior class as president is Ann Herber, Indianapolis. Social chairman is Lilliam Gonzalez, Arecibo, Puerto Rico; secretary, Martha Picton, Batesville, Ind.; and treasurer, John Powell, Indianapolis.

Sophomores returned an all-Indianapolis vote, electing Phil Jones, a transfer student from the University of Dayton, Dayton, Ohio, as president; Sheila Mears, social chairman; Carol Borton, secretary; and Rosemary Glaser, treasurer.

Among the freshmen, Dick Fenoglio, Terre Haute, received the highest office, that of chairman, pending the election of a president. Helen Conklin, Louisville, is social chairman. Other officers remain to be elected.

Class Sodality representatives are: Mary Agnes Kodama, Ogaki Gifu, Japan, senior; Joann Hazlewood, Cincinnati, junior; and Jean Jarboe, Indianapolis, sophomore.

CSMC representatives are: Carol Welp, Jasper, Ind., senior; Gertrude Lenhardt, Cincinnati, junior; and Rita Frey, Cincinnati, sophomore.

Dinner, Sports Entertain Parents

On Sunday, Oct. 24, many students' parents will get their first look at the new Marian. It will be their day, Parents' Day, on campus. Highlights of the occasion will be a dinner served in the college dining room by members of the Student association and home economics club, a tour of the campus, a men's basketball game, a women's volleyball game, and a program in the auditorium.

General chairman of the committee is Pat Doerger, Student association president. Other committee members are: Joann Hazlewood, Therese McCarthy, and Dick Fenoglio.

On the program will be a welcome by Mary Lou Cummins, chairman, dramatic monologue by Helen Conklin, and several voice

(Continued on page four)

Budgeting comes early for Student association officers: Pat Doerger, president; Therese McCarthy, treasurer; Mary Jo McHugh, vice-president; and Joann Hazlewood, secretary.

Msgr. Doyle
Piazza Spagna, Rome

Msgr. Doyle Becomes Domestic Prelate En Route to Europe

Aboard the RMS Queen Mary, bound for Europe in June, Msgr. John J. Doyle, philosophy department head, received the cablegram announcing his elevation to the rank of Domestic Prelate with the title "Right Reverend." This highest priestly distinction is an official recognition of his service to the archdiocese, especially as Officialis of the Archdiocesan Tribunal since 1939, as synodal examiner, and as archdiocesan consultant.

The 12-week trip, reviewed at assembly Oct. 7, included visits of 7-14 days each in France, Italy, Germany, Spain, Ireland, and England, with shorter stops in Austria and Portugal.

French centers were: Paris, Lisieux, Chartres, and Lourdes. At Lourdes, besides the Grotto, the mountainside Way of the Cross was especially impressive.

Rome's eight day visit included several public audiences of the Holy Father.

Spanish highlights were: Avila, Toledo, Montserrat, birthplace of the Jesuit Order, near Barcelona, and El Escorial, famous palace in Madrid.

Fatima and the surrounding countryside were toured with an 11 year old native as guide.

Sacred and other historic sites in Ireland as well as visits with relatives filled the final nine days.

Te Deum Stresses Role of Rosary

When Father John Schultz, C.S. S.R., finished his stirring Te Deum lecture on "The Marian Year and a Peaceful America," given on campus Sept. 30, the audience requested substitution of group recitation of the rosary for the usual discussion.

Father Schultz, Holy Redeemer College, Washington, D.C., graphically traced the rosary's use as an instrument of peace and victory from the time of St. Dominic to our times. He showed how America's trend away from God—the universities' glorification of false philosophies, the pleasure craze of the 20's, and the enthronement of "Queen Margaret Sanger" in the 30's—coincided with national calamities.

"The brightest star in the Marian Year," he emphasized, "is the homes being established by the GI's."

New Administration, Larger Faculty Mark First Coeducational Year

First coeducational year after 17 years as a college for women opened this September with Fr. Francis Reine, S.T.D., as new president succeeding Sister Mary Kevin, O.S.F., Ph. D. Formerly professor of religion at Marian and chaplain, counsellor, and instructor at Our Lady of Providence high school, Clarksville, Ind., Father Reine has been synodal examiner and censor of books for a number of years. Spiritual direction of the Indianapolis Curia of the Legion of Mary was another of his youth-centered activities.

Dean of the college is Sister Mary Olivia, O.S.F., D.Ed., director of teacher-education at Marian for the past 11 years and co-ordinator of student services for the past two years.

First Dean of Men

Fr. Paul Courtney, M.A., S.T.L., associate editor of the archdiocesan weekly, The Indiana Catholic and Record, is dean of men. Father Courtney was formerly assistant pastor of St. Mary's church and instructor at Cathedral and St. Mary's academy, all in Indianapolis.

Sister Mary Karen, O.S.F., Cand. Ph. D., of the French department, is dean of women.

Business Administration Head

Hugh J. Fleming, M.A., new head of the business administration department, is from the University of Detroit. He taught both at that university and in the School of Foreign Service, Georgetown.

Sister Margaret Ann, M.A., is a newcomer in the departments of English and mathematics. A graduate of Fordham university, she taught at Marian 1950-1951 in addition to several summer sessions.

Speech instructor William S. Sahn, B.A., besides teaching at Notre Dame university, his alma mater, has been radio announcer for station WNDU and for WHOT
(Continued on page four)

Record Enrollment Counts 161 Fresh

This year the doors of the new administration building opened wide to admit the school's largest student body, including 161 freshmen, 74 men and 87 women. New students came also to swell the upperclass ranks.

The sophomores now number 40, the juniors 17, and the seniors, 19. The total number of students receiving credit this semester here and at Oldenburg, is 323.

Clare hall is "home" to 66 women, while 15 men residents are boarding in approved homes.

Besides Indiana, six states are represented — Florida, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, New Mexico, and Ohio. Other Marianites are from China, Costa Rica, Hungary, Japan, Latvia, Philippine Islands, Panama, and Puerto Rico.

Hoosier students are from Anderson, Batesville, Brookville, Brownsburg, Carmel, Elwood, Evansville, Fort Wayne, Fowler, Greensburg, Holton, Indianapolis, Jasper, Kokomo, Lebanon, Madison, Muncie, Terre Haute, and Trafalgar.

Marian Guild Sponsors Card Party Nov. 11

Marian Guild fall card party will be held on campus Nov. 11, 8 p.m. Euchre, bridge, buncó—all the favorite games will be available. Two tickets to the Notre Dame-South California football game will be a special feature.

General co-chairmen will be Mrs. Edwin Schantz and Mrs. G. O. Busemeyer.

Mothers of freshmen were guests of the Guild at a tea Oct. 5. Officers, with Mrs. Michael E. Haney, president, as chairman, were in charge.

New Building

It's here and far exceeds expectations. A few internal construction details, such as marble setting and electrical and plumbing jobs, are incomplete. We're saving the full account for a dedication issue.

Rendezvous with St. Francis for upperclass presidents and freshman chairman: Dick Fenoglio, Phil Jones, Ann Herber, and Mary Evelyn Maloney.

College 'Good-Times' Depend on Cooperation

This year has brought many new features to Marian college—new administration, added courses, and new students, especially you, the freshman class of '54.

The upperclassmen extend a welcome to you and it is their wish that as you are now a part of Marian college, Marian will in turn become a part of you.

The campus, lounges, library, gym, chapel are for your use, so that you may fulfill your educational purposes, meet your spiritual needs, and have a good deal of wholesome recreation.

We are proud of our school, and it is our desire that you, new men and women alike, will share with us the responsibility of living up to Marian's ideals and traditions. These ideals hold in extra-curricular activities as well as in class work and social life.

This is not only a new experience for you, it is also new and strange for us. But we are glad you have come. Counting on your cooperation, we are looking forward to a happy and profitable year.

—Pat Doerger

Student Association President

New Habits - Pro & Con

Following the Holy Father's desire for simplification of religious garbs, the Sisters of St. Francis modified their century-old habit this summer. Comfort-wise and movement-free, the new habits seem to have caught everyone's attention.

Therese Lowe: It's rather embarrassing, not being able to recognize your favorite teacher. I'm glad they can't change their voices, too.

Rose Mary Glaser: They seem to show the spirit of Franciscan simplicity. They make the nuns look sweeter.

Joann Hazlewood: They look so much more comfortable than the old ones. I'm for 'em.

However, one little ten year old doesn't seem to appreciate them, for he insists, "When I get to be Pope, they'll get the square things back!"

CSMC-Prayer, Work, Gratification Unite To Form Its Natural, Supernatural Ideals

What is the CSMC? What does it do and how are we concerned? These are questions that may have entered your mind in the first few weeks of school.

The letters CSMC are the initials of an organization known as the Catholic Students Mission Crusade. Although it is not possible for all of us actually to go into the mission fields to spread Christ's teaching, we are able to assist through the CSMC and its three-point program—prayer, work, and study.

At Marian, besides daily prayer for the missions, each individual student usually sets aside one day a week to pray for a missionary. He offers Mass and Communion if possible, along with all his joys, works, and trials of the day, for the missionary and his intentions. In the past one mission area of the world has been singled out for special remembrance each week.

Opportunities Plus Personal Initiative Play Leading Part in Sodalists' Life

The campus unit of the sodality of the Blessed Virgin is an organization which first of all aims to help a student develop personal holiness.

Members of the sodality try not only to be imitators of Mary, but also to spread the love and service of Mary to others. No special directives for this apostolate are laid down. Each one works according to his own ability and opportunities.

To be loyal to Christ, especially in the Blessed Sacrament is another important duty. The new campus opportunities for Confession and Holy Communion each morning, up to 8:15, leave little justification for any Marianite's not receiving the Holy Eucharist frequently, even daily. The ever-open chapel makes visits to the Blessed Sacrament almost a part of changing classes.

Most of the upperclassmen are, by tradition, sodalists.

Reception into the Sodality is to be held near the feast of the Immaculate Conception. Everyone is invited to participate in the activities sponsored by the sodality throughout the year, one of which is the monthly recitation of the Little Office of the Immaculate Conception to praise Mary, our Mother.

We are heartily welcoming new sodalists, especially in this Marian Year.

—Mary Elizabeth Koike

Sodality Prefect

Birches

By Joann Hazlewood

Sentries at the bend of the road, you sway above me;

You whisper to each other in the summer breezes, secrets about me.

You needn't laugh so.

I know who you are.

Nine of you grouped together—

Perhaps it was the wind who told me your secret.

I can't remember.

I only know, that I know you to be nine angels

Lovely, and shining, tall, and white.

There is one from each of Lady Mary's choirs.

Sent by her to watch over her college.

Each one has his duties:

A cherubim for knowledge and a seraphim for love.

You needn't laugh at me.

I'll greet you as I pass—

When you stand with golden wings in autumn,

Or with topaz halos in spring.

When you welcome the birds in summer

Or sing in winter's winds.

But you must bless those I love as they stroll beneath you

And keep us in God's love

Or I'll tell.

Coming Events . . .

Oct. 25 St. Joan of Arc Study Club meeting here

Oct. 27 St. Thomas Aquinas Great Books Club meeting here

Oct. 28 United Nations Assembly

Oct. 31 Legion of Mary Inquiry Day for Non-Catholics conducted here by Fr. Paul Courtney

Nov. 5 Sophomore all-school mixer

Nov. 11 Filipino Dances

Nov. 18 Talent Show

Nov. 19 Freshman formal dance

School Spirit - What, Where, and How

School Spirit is that undefinable something which is the heart of a happy school. Will Marian have it? It can't be bought at the market, but you can get it free for taking if you look in the right places. There it sits with a group of girls on the steps, there it runs around the track with a gym class, there it is in the library, nose in a book. It's in the beauty of the new building, in remembrances of the old science labs; it is past, present, and future, ideals, hopes, lessons learned. It's the high spots, the homesick blues, the study bumps, it's college with a capital C. It's Marian, and most important, it's YOU—make it a good school spirit.

—Judy Rahe

Student Poets - Here's Your Chance

All students are encouraged to submit manuscripts to the 11th annual competition for the Annual Anthology of College Poetry.

Manuscripts must be typed or written in ink on one side of a sheet. Student's home address, name of college and college address must appear on each manuscript. Number of manuscripts selected from any college is not restricted.

Theme, form, and number of poems submitted may be in accordance with desires of the student contributor. However, in order to give more students space in the anthology, shorter forms are preferred.

Recognition afforded by publication will reflect definite credit on author as well as school. In past years Marian has always been represented in the anthology.

Closing date for submission of manuscripts is Nov. 5.

From the Phoenix

Eighteenth year of publication of THE PHOENIX will be one of the most eventful in Marian's history. THE PHOENIX pledges itself to do its best to report the changes that will occur, and to serve the ideals set up for the paper years ago—to be a voice for the students and faculty, to be an unprejudiced observer on all occasions, and to reflect the spirit of Marian college.

—The Ed.

Cross Campus

Bells each morning
Calling to Mass,
Blessing the days
Which so quickly pass.

Most popular person on campus is that certain frosh who's never there. Yes, Charlie Pooner. One girl was thrilled to know some cute fellow wanted to meet her—that is, she was thrilled until she found out it was the ever-present, never-there, Charlie.

Bon Voyage was the theme at a going away party for Julia Abrams early this fall. An informal gathering held at the home of Dottie Walsh brought many dreams of the days when the rest of us are going to Europe (cough).

Thanks and thanks again to The Indianapolis News and The Indiana Catholic and Record for their fine spreads on Marian—things to cut out and paste in ye old scrapbook.

Arrival of the Fioretti in midsummer was a pleasant addition to everyone's quota of vacation reading. A nice job on them, too. Congrats to the staff.

The July reunion certainly showed some people up in their true colors. For instance, since then our SA treasurer has been known as "Moneybags" McCarthy. She's dangerous when you owe her money.

You just can't beat the freshmen for talent, as was shown by the resident frosh initiation. Oh, those snappy hula dancers! And the story of the three bears never put more people to sleep. Not mentioning names, but there is also a wonderful singing talent in the class, especially for "Three Coins in the Fountain."

Kidding aside, all the upperclassmen wish the "green ones" much luck, and all the help we can offer.

Bye now.

Sympathy

The faculty and students extend their sincere sympathy to Sister Mary Rose on the death of her mother, to Patricia Burnett and Patricia Filcer Garrett, '48, on the death of their fathers, and to Ruth Elder Seal and Marie Seal Spellman on the death of Robert Seal, Ruth's husband and Marie's brother.

The Phoenix

Published monthly October through May

Member
Associated Collegiate Press
Catholic School Press Association

Subscription $1.50

Vol. XVIII No. 1

Editor Judy Rahe
Associate Editor Martha Pictor
Staff Writers Jack Cordaro, Carylon Siedling,
Dorothy Walsh, Joan Myallinski,
Rose Mary Glaser, Mary Krieg,
Joann Hazlewood
Photography Lee Leland
Business Therese Lowe, mgr.
Circulation Emilie Murray, mgr.
Jean Jarboe, John Powell

—Mary Lou Cummins
CSMC President

Care of Handicapped Unusual Experience

One thing everyone is sad not to see this fall is the kindergarten, discontinued because of the need for space here and of teachers elsewhere. The former quarters have been converted into a priest-faculty's garage.

Sister Agnes Cecile, former instructor, is doing work for the handicapped children at Holy Trinity school, St. Louis, Mo. In preparation for this phase of special education, Sister attended St. Colletta's school, Jefferson, Wis., directed by Cardinal Stritch college, Milwaukee.

Sister's class of 15, has children ranging from 5 to 15 years of age, each one needing individual care, instruction, and guidance. Mental, physical, and emotional handicaps are all represented.

The Holy Trinity center, opened by the Sisters of St. Francis this fall, is the 12th in the archdiocese of St. Louis operating under the department of Special Education established there in 1950.

Travel, Work, Study Make Busy Summer

Summer holds memories of travel, work, conventions, and study for faculty and students.

Among the travel-and-work experiences were Ann Herber's resort waitress assignment in Montana and Gertrude Lenhardt's governess position in New York. From Florida to Canada, and from the east coast to Denver ran most of the travel trails.

Sisters Conduct Clinic

Organ clinic at the National Catholic Music Educators association convention at St. Mary-of-the-Woods in August is a pleasant memory for Sister Mary Vitalis, director, and Sister Ruth Irma, demonstrator.

Sister Mary Esther and Sister Miriam Clare spent four weeks at the North Central Study Committee workshop, University of Minnesota, doing research in the areas of general and pre-professional education. Incidentally, they witnessed the total eclipse of the sun.

Fifth Year Plan

At Indiana university, in July, Sister Mary Rachel and Sister Marie Bernard attended a two-day meeting of Indiana educators discussing the curriculum content for a fifth year of teacher-education.

Mary Agnes Kodama and Mary Elizabeth Koike took part in the Asian-African students' seminar at Notre Dame university during the national CSMC convention there Aug. 25-29.

Beginning of Fall Finds New Alumnae In Diverse Roles

Our new, and as yet, unsung alumnae, the class of '54, are now "old folks" to Marianites, and strangers of the new frosh, who'll never know what they missed. What has become of them? Four years ago they were eager freshmen, hoping someday to be teachers, chemists, or scientists. What are they doing now?

Thelma Runyan has used her social work major to answer her hope of four years ago—she is the district director of the Girl Scout organization in Muncie, Ind.

Behind Classroom Desks

"Teachers six have we," in the persons of Maryann Beckrich at Public School No. 40, in Indianapolis, Katie Bashe in Sacred Heart high school, Indianapolis, Alba Meneghel at Ferdinand high school, Ferdinand, Ind., Patsy Miller at St. Mark's, Indianapolis, Mary Wechsler Roney, at P. S. No. 54, Indianapolis, and Barbara Gingrich, teaching grade school in Logansport.

Pauline Siefert, last year's SA president, is doing secretarial work in a General Electric office in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Home-Making In New York

Wedding bells have moved Margie Hercules Florio to New York this fall, where she will make her home.

Suzanne Cszasz, a science major, is working in a laboratory in Cleveland, Ohio.

Jane Brady, an English major, is at home for the present.

Jolly Juniors Jaunt; Day of Fun Results

Men vs. Women was the challenge issued at the junior class picnic Oct. 10. It must have been a hard fought volley-ball game yet no feminine member of the class of '56 will divulge any information as to the outcome of the historical duel, the first of its kind in the history of Marian. Are they protecting the honor of the men involved?

No one can say that the jolly juniors aren't young at heart. The swings, slides, and see-saws occupied most of the afternoon spent at Noblesville park. There were no casualties other than a few stiff muscles. Also there was enough energy left afterwards for a spirited Virginia reel.

Faculty Contribute To Local Programs

Marian faculty members are participating in the Chartrand lecture series at Cathedral high school on Tuesday evenings. Sister Mary Edgar's topic is "Contemporary Spain;" Sister Mary Jane's "Art in the Home." Sister Joan Marie is speaking on clothing and Sister Miriam Clare on foods.

The present series of lectures is a "repeat performance" by popular demand.

New-Type Logic

At the fall meeting of the Indiana Philosophical association at Anderson college, Oct. 9, Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. Doyle, head of the philosophy department, participated in a discussion of Intentional Logic, a recent volume by Henry Veatch, Indiana university.

The morning session for both senior and junior divisions was devoted to "Existentialism."

Fr. William Stineman, of the religion department, spoke to DePauw University Newman club Oct. 10. The subject of his talk was "Sacred Scripture."

Chemical Instrument Study

Sister Mary Rose, head of the posed Undergraduate Major" at the paper on "Instrumentation—a Pro-chemistry department, presented a fall meeting of the Indiana Academy of Science, Purdue university, Oct. 15.

The paper outlined a possible undergraduate sequence of courses in the study and use of instruments basic to chemical industries and research.

NFCCS News - Regional, Nat'l

Giving a lift to a national president was the privilege of Clare Watson and Barbara Vesely, Sunday, Oct. 3, on the return trip from the first regional NFCCS council meeting. Bill Ford, the federation's newly elected president from John Carroll university, Cleveland, continued NF discussion all the way from Nazareth college, near Kalamazoo, to Siena Heights college in Adrian, Mich. Ann Herber also attended the meeting.

Decisions of interest reached by the council concern activities for the coming year. The regional congress will be held at Marian in April. Two workshops, each covering three commissions, are being planned.

National Congress

Vice presidents elected at the National Congress, Aug. 31-Sept. 5, at the Congress hotel, Chicago, were Peg Healy, student affairs, Rosary college; Tom Reinstadtler, religious affairs, St. Vincent's college, Latrobe, Pa.; Jean Plessis, social action affairs, College of New Rochelle, N. Y.; and Arlene Brumit, international affairs, St. John's university college, Brooklyn, N.Y. The new Cura administrator is Kathy Loftus of Trinity college, Washington; John Kramer of St. Benedict's college, Atchison, Kan., was elected treasurer, while Valerie Price will remain executive secretary.

"The need of the hour," said Bishop John J. Wright, Worcester, Mass., to the 800 delegates of the National Congress, "is for good ideas even more than it is for good deeds. No one will effectively lift his voice, or even his hand, to defend Western Civilization, Christendom, or the name of God, unless he is inspired by love for these, and nothing is loved unless it is understood."

Throughout his keynote address the Archbishop stressed the importance of the living witness, "even to martyrdom," which is the vocation of the individual Catholic intellectual.

Resolutions Passed

The theme of the Congress: "The Student's Life: To Restore All Things in Christ," bore fruit in resolutions. One resolution, authorized by the Ft. Wayne region, proposed "that the NFCCS present annually, at its Congress banquet, an award to one of the outstanding graduates of an American undergraduate Catholic institution of higher learning, distinguished in the field of the lay apostolate."

Other significant resolutions approved the action of the Supreme Court to abolish segregation in the public schools, and that of President Eisenhower and Senator Homer C. Ferguson in passing the Congressional bill which inserted the words "under God" into the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

His Eminence Samuel Cardinal Stritch, Cardinal Archbishop of Chicago, spoke on the restoration of the dignity of womanhood.

Barbara Vesely, former senior delegate of Marian and vice-president of the Ft. Wayne region, represented the college.

Silvertones taking a bow are: Garfield Henry, director; Andrew Frierson, bass-baritone; Gladys Kichen, accompanist, replaced by Harold Leaman, Jordan conservatory; Joyce Robinson, mezzo; Christine Johnson, soprano.

Faculty, Students Revise Handbook

Rules committee meeting, Sept. 1, climaxing cooperative study, resulted in the new Student Handbook.

Members present at the meeting included Fr. Reine, Fr. Courtney, Sister Mary Olivia, Sister Mary Karen, Sister Mary Edgar, and Sister Marie Bernard, Mary Jo McHugh and Therese Lowe, '55, Martha Pictor, Judy Rahe, and John Powell, '56, and Margaret Winsor and Phil Jones, '57.

Meeting of a resident committee the next morning resulted in changes of rules concerning resident hours, lights, and other privileges. Students on this committee were Carol Welp, '55, Martha Pictor and Judy Rahe, '56, and Katie Matthews, '57. Faculty ad-

Audience Applauds Artistry of 'Silvertones'; Mixture of Classics, Humor, Reaches All

Art and entertainment were the objectives of the assembly program

visers present were: Sister Mary Karen, Sister Marie Bernard, and Sister Ruth Irma.

Another topic of discussion at the resident meeting was the formation of a house committee. This group meets once a month and has to do with matters pertaining to resident affairs. Members for the first quarter are: Pat Doerger and Clara Watson, seniors, Martha Pictor and Judy Rahe, juniors, Katie Matthews and Marilyn Strasburger, sophomores, and Virginia Cieslak and Patsy Imorde, freshmen. Permanent chairman is Carol Welp. Each quarter two new members from each class will replace the former members.

Oct. 11. The Silvertones, a mixed voice Negro quartet of internationally famous concert artists, presented a program of liturgical classical, and modern music, folk songs, and Negro spirituals. Their repertoire makes extensive use of polyphonics, contrapuntals, and solos.

The group consists of ten standing members, who usually travel only in a quintet or a sextet. They are directed by Garfield Henry, who started the group in Chicago in 1939, hoping to improve Negro-white relations through the medium of music.

Following the idea of perfection in vocal ensemble, each member is an artist in his own right, college-trained and having individual concert experience.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Cleaners
Curley's Cleaners & Hatters
2967 N. Illinois—TA. 3313
Sportsman Suede & Leather Cleaners
15 N. State Ave.—ME. 1-8232

Contractors
Heston Concrete
Shumaker Bros. Division
1702 S. Reisner—ME. 2-4597

Glass—Mfrs. & Wholesale
Capitol Glass Co.
432 So. Missouri—ME. 5-1301

Lumber Companies
Interstate Lumber Co.
2300 N. Sherman Dr.—CH. 6400

Mfrs. Representatives
The George C. Desautels Co.
2302 N. Meridian—WA. 3-2403

Optometrists
Dr. Jos. E. Kernel
104 N. Illinois St.—ME. 5-3568

Piano, Organ Sales & Service
Marion Music Company
243 N. Pennsylvania ME. 5-5008

Real Estate, Rents, Insurance
John R. Welch and Sons
23 W. Ohio—ME. 4-3423

Restaurants
Chet's Drive-In
1429 West 30th—HI. 3792
Iron Skillet
R. R. 17, Box 2—HI. 8710

Terrazzo Work
Santarossa Tile & Mosaic
2707 Roosevelt—ME. 8-3741

Former Marianites Enter Novitiate

Entering the Novitiate of the Sisters of St. Francis, Oldenburg, Sept. 8 were two Marian college alumnae, Rachel West, '54, Clayton, Ind., and Marilyn Huber, '53, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Rachel was graduated with an A. B. degree and qualifications for high-school teaching. To a history major she united a minor in additional social studies.

Marilyn completed a four year program qualifying simultaneously for the A. B. degree and elementary school teacher's license. She taught at Oyler Public School, Cincinnati, during the past year.

Marianites making first vows at Oldenburg, Aug. 12, were: Sister M. Malachy (Alice Raben '52), Sister M. Augustine (Helen Eckrich, '51), and Sister M. Francesca (Evelyn Thompson, ex '55).

Sister Helene Therese (Marilyn Weber, ex '57) received the white veil at St. Mary-of-the-Woods, Ind., Aug. 15.

Brother-Sister pairs looking over new book-store stock are: the Armingtons—John, freshman, and Sarah, sophomore; the McCarthys—Therese, junior, and Dan, freshman; the Davises—Jane and James, both freshmen.

News Briefs . . .

Red Cross assembly Oct. 21 outlined plans for campus Civil Defense participation.

Volunteer male schola is chanting the Gregorian proper at Sunday High Mass in the college chapel.

Two faculty members and a group of students journeyed to St. Meinrad Benedictine arch-abbey for the centenary celebration of the founding of the abbey, the week of Oct. 10.

Faculty was also represented for the Solemn High Mass at St. John's church commemorating the 35th founding anniversary of the Indianapolis Catholic Charities and the 25th year of service there of Rt. Rev. August Fussenegger.

Irene McCarthy, Jo-Anne Krieger, and Emilie Murray will give a musical program for St. Bernadette Women's club, Nov. 5, repeating an earlier program for a Washington, Ind., women's club.

Dinner . . .

(Continued from page one) numbers. Contributing as duet, quartet, and double trio singers will be: Jo Anne Krieger, Irene McCarthy, Charles Boehm, Dick Fenoglio, Loretta Schoettle, Mona Miller, Margaret Peters, and Carol Grosdidier.

COMPLIMENTS
OF
INDIANA ASPHALT PAVING CO.

Build for Permanence and Beauty
CALL . . .
F. A. Wilhelm
CONTRACTOR
3914 PROSPECT BLACKSTONE 2464

Sports Talk

by Jack Cordaro

Viri! les hommes! los hombres! Yes, in whatever language you say it the men have finally made an appearance here on the campus of Marian college. Along with this pleasant change comes the chance to talk of sports with much more enthusiasm than in the past. Big plans are being made for a sports program here by a pioneer athletic director, James Clark. Meeting Jim is a privilege, for he is a real gentleman and one of the most widely known swimming coaches in the nation. His aqua team at the Indianapolis Athletic club is one of the best in the Midwest. He has high hopes for producing great teams in all sports here in our school.

The agenda for this year consists of swimming, track, basketball, golf, tennis, and maybe baseball.

Jim hopes to see work started on a permanent track this spring. He has selected two outstanding cinder stars in their own right to assist in coaching the track team, Fred Wilt and Don Lash.

Big plans for swimming, with rugged competition, are also scheduled.

The season of the hoop-and-round ball is quickly moving in, and with it comes our first basketball coach, Mr. Harry Porter. Harry called together all the men interested for a chatter session on Oct. 11, and about a week later regular practice drills began.

So let's go fellas! Let's really make this a great year for athletics, for you know that we are trail blazers in a new era of athletics here. We're the ones who will either make it or break it.

Intramurals Start Early for Women

Our feminine volleyballers will have their work cut out for them this season as they encounter such teams as St. Vincent's, Butler, St. Mary's-of-the-Woods, Normal college, and Indiana Central.

Captains for intramural volleyball teams were chosen at the first practice Oct. 6. They are: Marian Robinson and Erna Gibson, sophomores; Therese McCarthy, junior; and Lee Lieland, senior.

With practice for both basketball for the men and volleyball for the women started, we ask that everyone who uses the gym please observe the time scheduled for each group.

	Men
Monday	3:30-5:00
Tuesday	3:30-5:00
	7:00-8:00
Thursday	3:30-5:00
	7:00-8:00
	Women
Monday	7:00-8:00
Wednesday	3:30-5:00
	7:00-8:00

Administration . . .

(Continued from page one) in South Bend. He is executive secretary of the local C.Y.O.

Other Departments

New faculty members also include Fr. James Galvin, department of education and Fr. Joseph Dooley, department of history, both Catholic University of America graduates. Fr. Dooley has taught at Ladywood and St. Mary of-the-Woods, and has also spent time teaching and studying in Costa Rica. Fr. Galvin is archdiocesan superintendent of schools and principal of Cathedral high school.

James Clark, men's athletic director, is also swimming coach at the Indianapolis Athletic club and director of the Indianapolis Red Cross water safety program. Mr. Clark has attended Butler university, University of Illinois, and Indiana Law school.

Basketball coach, Harry W. Porter, played on the Butler Varsity team for three years and on the Varsity of Whiteland high school for four.

First Convention For Third Order

St. Francis college, Latrobe, Pa., was host to a Third Order Youth Congress Aug. 24-26. This first meeting of its kind was for clergy and religious interested in youth as well as for young members of the Third Order. The keynote address was given by Fr. Paul Farkas, O.F.M. Cap. Panel groups met to discuss the problems facing the fraternities.

Attending from Marian College were Sister M. Vitalis, Margaret Winsor, and Joan Myslinski. Also from Indianapolis were Sister Emmanuel and members of the Third Order fraternity from St. Mary academy.

Alumnae Jottings . . .

Weddings

Edda Fiorino, '53, to Mr. Victor Comardo June 26, Sacred Heart church, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Camille Schneider, '52, to Mr. Donald Neil Goehausen, July 10, St. Joseph's church, Jasper, Ind.

Men Participate in 1st Sports Event

Cross-country initiates the men's first intercollege sports event Oct. 20 at Franklin college. The year priming for this meet and two others in October by three mile runs circling the campus and the Municipal Golf course.

Oct. 23, a triangular meet at Earlham college, in Richmond, will include Earlham, Taylor, and Marian. Marian will meet Butler and Valparaiso teams at Butler Oct. 29. State championship meet at South Grove Golf course in Indianapolis is Nov. 5.

Michel Krebsler, from Sturgis, Mich., is assisting Jim Clark, athletic director, in coaching.

Reunion Includes New Building Tour

Alumnae fall reunion took place Oct. 20. Dinner at 7 p.m. was followed by a tour of the new building.

Speaker at the dinner was Fr. Francis J. Reine, college president.

In charge of this event were the officers: Mary Jane Herman Ritter, president; Rosemary Doyle Becher, vice-president; Marjorie Davey Lich, corresponding secretary; Diana Magnus Mason, acting recording secretary; and Patricia Filcer Garret, treasurer.

By special ruling of the association two alumnae at large have been added as advisory members on the executive board, Mary Louise Alter and Patricia Hagan. Hebenstreit.

Marjorie Gulde McGrath is alumnae publicity director.

HORNADAY
MILK CO., INC.
MA. 5335
1447 W. Market St.

Prompt, Reliable Attention
Year Round Service
Champe & Garland
Coal Co.
Steam and Domestic
422 W. 30th St. WA. 4543

D. A. BOHLEN & SON
Established 1853
ARCHITECTS and ENGINEERS
930 State Life Building

Sec. 34.65(e) P.L. & R.
Indianapolis 22, Ind.
3200 Cold Springs Rd.
MARIAN COLLEGE