Dear Bro. Fruzia:

Definite plans have now been made in anticipation of your proposed visit to the Dayton area.

Saturday evening, Oct. 10, you are scheduled to speak on the lectureship of the Riverdale Congregation. Sunday morning, Oct. 11, at 8:30 a.m. you are to speak for the Belmont group. Sunday evening, according to present plans, you are to speak here at Northridge. We have no confirmation at the present concerning a Sunday afternoon engagement at the Westwood congregation.

My wife and I are looking forward to having you in our home while visiting in this area. If Mr. ~~Elsworth~~ does not have a place for the girls, they have been invited to stay in the home of Bro. and Sis. Robert Smith of the Riverdale congregation. I believe that you are acquainted with this good family. It is my sincere hope that your visit here will greatly aid the wonderful cause for which you labor.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
