Dear John Allen:

After having made a few hospital calls after lunch, I returned to the church office for a lovely surprise: a letter from my esteemed friend & brother, John Allen.

Having mentioned the singing school in Gainesboro in your bulletin is a source of encouragement to me. I very much appreciate all your efforts to advertise the school which is shortly (D.V.) to take place. God being our helper, we hope to have a profitable meet at Gainesboro. I shall look forward to seeing you, your wife, other friends & your young people from Broad St. I am sure the support you lend to the effort will be of inestimable value.

To labor with you someday in the Master's cause should be one of my fondest desires. Our goals seem to run along the same line.

If you have the opportunity, you may tell one of the brethren or the preacher in Gainesboro that the name is spelled with an "s" on the end. John, it makes me rather unhappy to see my name misspelled. I say this with an admixture of fun & some seriousness too.

Please give your wife our very best wishes & the saints at Broad St.

Sincerely,

T. L. Salmons
