Sept. 10, 1960

Dear Bro. Chalk,

I am a transfer student from Freed-Hardeman College and will be a Junior at Leck this fall. The reason for my writing you is that I hope perhaps you might be able to help me rent a room somewhere. The Dean of Women wrote me yesterday saying there are no more rooms in the dorm, so that means I am without a home. I would like to live with Christians since I will have to rent a room. I'm in desperate need of help. If you have any information at all, I would surely appreciate your writing and telling me before Sept. 18. My address is Janet DuBois, Troyer, Missouri.

I'm not particular what a room looks like. When you are in my position you can't afford to be.

Thanking you in advance for any help you can give me. I really need it.

Yours truly,
Janet DuBois
