Mr. John Chalk
155 E. Broad St.
Cookville, Tenn.

Dear Brother Chalk:

I want to thank you for your efforts in the Collins-Craig meetings. It was through the combined efforts of some wonderful men that we were able to make this effort a success.

Brother Pullias has informed me that all of our county chairmen in this effort are to receive the book of sermons preached by Brother Collins. It will be sent as a gift and in recognition of your work in this effort.

Best wishes and kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Winston Tynes
