Dear Brother Chalk:

Thank you for your good letter. I, too, am looking forward to a wonderful gospel meeting with you and the brethren there. I covet your prayers that I may be able to choose the lessons most needed and to present them in an acceptable way. As a rule, I do not send a list of the subjects that I plan to preach upon because I often find that after a day or two, I change my mind and decide that a subject different from my first choice would do more good.

Do you plan for me to preach more than once each day, Sunday being an exception, while I am with you? I will be glad to speak as often as you feel would be useful and concerning any field that you suggest.

We are sorry, but Sister Hill has so much work here, which makes it very difficult for her to get away; and she will not get to come with me.

I would like to ask a favor of you. Could some of you please check on the best way for me to get back to Oklahoma City after our meeting closes Friday night so that I can be here and ready to preach Sunday morning, March 17. I am having some difficulty finding a schedule. Do you know if I will need to fly from Nashville to Oklahoma City? I would appreciate it very much if someone could send me this information.

Please give my regards to the Elmer Howells.

Sincerely yours,

Wilburn C. Hill
