Dear Brother Chalk:

I am out from under the pressure of Life Line now and am in the process of scheduling meetings which had to be cancelled due to my health and accepting invitations which had to be turned down for the same reasons.

I am sure that your Fall Lectureship for October is all set, but in the event someone falls out and your Elders would like for me to fill in, I will be glad to make myself available.

I am only scheduling meetings and other short engagements for the last ten days of each month, but feel a special obligation to those who have invited me and to whom I have previously had to say no.

With all best wishes for a successful Lectureship, I am,

Fraternally,

Wayne Poucher
